Course Descriptions

Lay Servant Ministries - Basic Course

This course is the foundation for all the other Learning and Leading courses. In this course you are encouraged to discover and employ personal spiritual gifts as God intended. Participants are invited to consider the importance of exercising servant leadership, developing future leaders, remaining rooted in their discipleship. The course offers guidelines for best practices as a church leader and in mission and ministry in the community and in daily life. Participants must obtain the book, "Lay Servant Ministries BASIC COURSE" by Sandy Zeigler Jackson and Brian Jackson - leader Pastor Warren Vandewark

 Spiritual Gifts:

Lay Speakers, Lay Servants, and all participants in the Body of Christ depend on the spiritual gifts God has given them. Those gifts differ but they provide the foundation for whatever ministry we do. Learn more about your spiritual gifts - and how to help your congregation learn more about their spiritual gifts. Participants must obtain the book, "Each One a Minister Using God's Gifts for Ministry" by William J. Carter - leader Rev. Dena Stevens

 Leading Worship:

This course focuses on the ministry of the Lay Servant who either regularly or occasionally leads a group, class, organization, or the congregation in worship. The course is grounded in the classic patterns of Christian worship and the practices of leading worship. Participants will come to understand more about Christian worship in order to lead worship with more confidence. They will practice leading worship in a variety of formats throughout the course. Participants must obtain the book, "Worshiping with United Methodists" by Hoyt L. Hickman and borrow either your church's or Pastor's Book of Worship - leader Pastor Grace Warren

Justice in Every Day Life:

This course takes an in-depth look at the Social Principles of the United Methodist Church—the church's attempt to speak on contemporary issues with which it is confronted today. The book covers topics such as: natural world, social community, economic community, political community, Biblical foundations of the Social Principles, teaching the Social Principles. Participants must obtain the book, "Social Principles of the United Methodist Church 2017-2020" - leader Rev. Carolyn Stow

 One of the 6 courses required for affirmation as Lay Speaker.
