Gathering

Opening Reading Isaiah 25

O Lord, you are my God;
I will exalt you, I will praise your name;
for you have done wonderful things,
plans formed of old, faithful and sure.

For you have been a refuge to the poor,
a refuge to the needy in their distress,
a shelter from the rainstorm and a shade from the heat.

On this mountain the Lord of hosts will make for all peoples a feast of rich food, a feast of well-aged wines, of rich food filled with marrow,
of will-aged wines strained clear.

And God will destroy on this mountain
the shroud that is cast over all peoples,
the sheet that is spread over all nations;
God will swallow up death forever.

Then the Lord God will wipe away the tears from all faces, and the disgrace of God's people God will take away from all the earth,
for the Lord has spoken.

Processional Hymn "Sing With All the Saints in Glory" UMH #702

Sing with all the saints in glory;
sing the resurrection song!
Death and sorrow, earth's dark story,
to the former days belong.
All around the clouds are breaking,
soon the storms of time shall cease;
In God's likeness we awaken,
knowing everlasting peace.

O what glory, far exceeding all that eye has yet perceived!
Holiest hearts, for ages pleading never that full joy conceived.
God has promised, Christ prepares it,
there on high our welcome waits.
Ev'ry humble spirit shares it;
Christ has passed the eternal gates.

Life eternal! heav'n rejoices:
Jesus lives who once was dead.
Join we now the deathless voices!
Child of God, lift up your head!
Patriarchs from the distant ages,
saints all longing for their heav'n,
prophets, psalmists, seers, and sages,
all await the glory giv'n.

Life eternal! O what wonders crowd on faith; what joy unknown, when, amidst earth's closing thunders,
saints shall stand before the throne!
Oh, to enter that bright portal,
see that glowing firmament,
know, with you, O God immortal,
Jesus Christ whom thou have sent!

Scripture            Hebrews 12:1-3

So then let's also run the race that is laid out in front of us, since we have such a great cloud of witnesses surrounding us. Let's throw off any extra baggage, get rid of the sin that trips us up, and fix our eyes on Jesus, faith's pioneer and perfecter. He endured the cross, ignoring the shame, for the sake of the joy that was laid out in front of him, and sat down at the right side of God's throne. Think about the one who endured such opposition from sinners so that you won't be discouraged and you won't give up.

Gospel Lesson        John 11:17, 19-27, 32-46

When Jesus arrived, he found that Lazarus had already been in the tomb for four days. Many Jews had come to comfort Martha and Mary after their brother's death. When Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went to meet him. Martha said to Jesus, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother wouldn't have died. Even now I know that whatever you ask God, God will give you." Jesus told her, "Your brother will rise again. Martha replied, "I know that he will rise in the resurrection on the last day." Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life. Whoever believes in me will live, even though they die. Everyone who lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?" She replied, "Yes, Lord, I believe that you are the Christ, God's Son, the one who is coming into the world."

When Mary arrived where Jesus was and saw him, she fell at his feet and said, “Lord, if you had been here, my brother wouldn’t have died.” When Jesus saw her crying and the Jews who had come with her crying also, he was deeply disturbed and troubled. He asked, “Where have you laid him?” They replied, “Lord, come and see.” Jesus began to cry. The Jews said, “See how much he loved him!” But some of them said, “He healed the eyes of the man born blind. Couldn’t he have kept Lazarus from dying?”

Jesus was deeply disturbed again when he came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone covered the entrance. Jesus said, “Remove the stone.” Martha said, “Lord, the smell will be awful! He’s been dead four days.” Jesus replied, “Didn’t I tell you that if you believe, you will see God’s glory?” So they removed the stone. Jesus looked up and said, “Father, thank you for hearing me. I know you always hear me. I say this for the benefit of the crowd standing here so that they will believe that you sent me.” Having said this, Jesus shouted with a loud voice, “Lazarus, come out!” The dead man came out, his feet bound and his hands tied, and his face covered with a cloth. Jesus said to them, “Untie him and let him go.” Therefore, many of the Jews who came with Mary and saw what Jesus did believed in him. But some of them went to the Pharisees and told them what Jesus had done.

Hymn "God, We Walk Through Death's Deep Valley"

Text: Carolyn Winfrey Gillette

Tune: CONVERSE

God, we walk through death's deep valley, where such grief and pain abound.

In the midst of so much sorrow, where, we ask, can you be found?
Where are hope and reassurance? Who will take away our fear?
God, we trust your presence with us: in our sorrow, you are here.

As an ordinary pebble tossed upon a quiet pond sends out rings of rippling waters, moving waters far beyond — so we touch the lives of others; we are moved by how they live.
Help us, in our joy, remember; help us, in our pain, forgive.

"Do not let your hearts be troubled," Jesus said to those he loved.
"There are many dwelling places in my Father's house above."
Jesus, you have gone before us; Jesus, you will guide us there.
Lord, we trust your hand to lead us to the place that you prepare.

We hold onto what you promise: earth and heav'n will be made new.
Then your home will be among us; we will always dwell with you.
There will be no sound of weeping; you will wipe away each tear.
God, we trust your promise to us: now and always, you are here.

Holy, Holy, Holy: A Sung Communion

Text: Beth Quick, 2018

Tune: NICAEA

*Written for the Upper New York Annual Conference
2018 Memorial Communion Service
Incorporating phrases from "Holy, Holy, Holy" by Reginald Heber*

Holy, holy, holy! God, you are most holy.
We lift up our hearts to you. Together, voices raise:
We, your people gather, at the table gather!
God, in thanksgiving, now we sing your praise.

You, O God, have formed us, shaped us in your image.
Breathed in us the breath of life and gave to us the earth.
Still, we turn away, God. Still, we wander from you.
God, you are calling. Let us hear your words!

God of priests and prophets, God of all disciples,
God of the faithful who have run their course in faith:
Saints whose lives inspire us, holy friends who've shaped us,
God, for this witness, we give thanks and praise.

Holy, holy, holy, God of light and glory
Blessed is the one who comes, carrying your name
Holy, holy, holy, you are most holy.
You sent us Christ to usher in your reign.

Gathered at the table, sharing with disciples
Jesus took and broke the bread as he gave thanks to you.
"Take and eat this bread, friends, symbol of my body.
Share and remember these my words to you."

When the meal was over, Jesus shared the wine
"Drink from this, the cup life, forgiveness shared with you."
Jesus, we remember. Jesus, we are grateful.
Gift of redemption, covenant made new.

Holy God, we praise you! All the saints adore you.
All their days they walked your ways and followed Jesus Christ.
In this bless'd communion, we are all your people,
then, now, and always, to eternal life.

Spoken words of consecration:

Holy, Holy, Holy God, pour out your Spirit on us gathered here, and on these gifts: the fruit of the vine, the bread of life. Make them be for us the body and blood of Christ, that we might be for the world the body of Christ, redeemed by the love, the life, the death, and the resurrection of Jesus Christ. Amen.

Sharing the Meal

Music during Communion

"Let Us Be Bread"

TFWS #2260

Refrain:

Let us be bread, blessed by the Lord,
Broken and shared, life for the world.
Let us be wine, love freely poured.
Let us be one in the Lord.

I am the bread of life, broken for all.
Eat now and hunger no more. (Refrain)

You are my friends if you keep my commands,
no longer servants but friends. (Refrain)

See how my people have nothing to eat.
Give them the bread that is you. (Refrain)

As God has loved me so I have loved you.
Go and live on in my love. (Refrain)

“One Bread, One Body”

UMH #620

Refrain:

One bread, one body, one Lord of all
One cup of blessing which we bless.
And we, though many throughout the earth,
we are one body in this one Lord.

Gentile or Jew, servant or free,
Woman or man, no more. (Refrain)

Many the gifts, many the works.
One in the Lord of all. (Refrain)

Grain for the fields, scattered and grown,
Gathered to one, for all. (Refrain)

“Fill My Cup, Lord”

UMH #641

Fill my cup Lord I lift it up Lord
Come and quench this thirsting of my soul
Bread of heaven feed me till I want no more Fill my cup fill it up and make me whole

Prayer after Communion (“Holy, Holy Holy”)

Sent forth from the table, thankful for the mystery, thankful for this holy meal in which we share in Christ,
joining with your saints, God, we are Christ’s body.
Sent forth to change the world, giving others life.

Hymn

"It Is Well"

UMH #377

When peace, like a river, attendeth my way,
when sorrows like sea billows roll;
whatever my lot, thou hast taught me to say,
It is well, it is well with my soul.

Refrain:

It is well (it is well), with my soul (with my soul),
it is well, it is well with my soul.

Though Satan should buffet, though trials should come,
let this blest assurance control,
that Christ has regarded my helpless estate,
and hath shed his own blood for my soul. (Refrain)

My sin, oh, the bliss of this glorious thought!
My sin, not in part but the whole,
is nailed to the cross, and I bear it no more,
praise the Lord, praise the Lord, O my soul! (Refrain)

And, Lord, haste the day when my faith shall be sight,
the clouds be rolled back as a scroll;
the trump shall resound, and the Lord shall descend,
even so, it is well with my soul. (Refrain)
