The Safe Sanctuary training will help us learn about the best practices for keeping our vulnerable children, youth and adults safe so that they may experience the fullness of God's grace. We will look at signs and symptoms of this important ministry. Please look at and be familiar with your church's Safe Sanctuary policy. Each church must have a safe sanctuary policy.

10- Circuit Riders and Their World

Presenter Rev. Dr. Greg Van Dussen

We will look at the faith, personalities, quirks, and accomplishments of early circuit riders in the Methodist/Evangelical/United Brethren tradition in America. How did they survive the frontier? How were they educated? What battles did they fight? What motivated them? Were there women preachers? From rough hewn frontiersmen to college presidents, circuit riders were God's instruments in spreading Scriptural holiness over the land. It would be good to read the Autobiography of Peter Cartwright, which is available on Amazon, starting around $10. Reading the book in advance is not required, but helpful – and extremely enjoyable!

11- Volunteers in Mission: God's Mission: Our Journey

Presenters Donna & Roger Cullen

Today is a critical time for you to demonstrate what you believe by living in mission. The nature of mission lies central to Jesus's commandment for every disciple: you are to live the Gospel of Jesus Christ being God's love with your neighbors in all places. Your call to God's mission isn't voluntary or optional. In this workshop, you explore various avenues of discipleship through mission with emphasis on a team approach. You receive resources for connecting your call to relevant missions, finding training opportunities, and receiving support. Jargon is demystified. Explore how you can become an active participant in God's activity in the world through disaster response, mission and service.

No reading assignment or text is required. Recommended is UMC Global Missions' handbook: A Mission Journey ISBN 0881776696 available from Cokesbury, Amazon, and other vendors.

12-What is a New Faith Community?

Presenter Rev. Gregg Stierheim

There has been a lot of talk about new faith communities in the Upper NY Conference recently. What exactly is a new faith community? How might they differ from existing congregations? Are they really necessary? Let's get together and see what we can learn about this potential partnership. I'll share some insights from my work at Wesley's Place, a new faith community near the Buffalo/ Niagara Medical Campus.

In this program we will look at the mindset of the missional church, and begin to formulate some ways to for individual churches to be in mission. Part of being a disciple of Jesus Christ is service. God’s mission for the church is for men and women to join together doing the work of God. Since no two churches are alike, the hope is that each person will take the ideas and share them with their mission team, their Administrative Board or the pastor.
