Course Descriptions

Lay Servant Ministries - Basic Course

This course is the foundation for all the other Learning and Leading courses. In this course you are encouraged to discover and employ personal spiritual gifts as God intended. Participants are invited to consider the importance of exercising servant leadership, developing future leaders, remaining rooted in their discipleship. The course offers guidelines for best practices as a church leader and in mission and ministry in the community and in daily life. Participants must obtain the book, "Lay Servant Ministries BASIC COURSE" by Sandy Zeigler Jackson and Brian Jackson - leader Cindy Hull

* Leading in Prayer:

To many people, prayer remains a mystery, and praying in public is a test of faith left to the "professionals" of the church. This course offers a short course on praying in public to help others grow in their confidence and skill in prayer, both public and personal. Participants must obtain the book, "Let the Whole Church Say Amen!" by Laurence Hull Stookey - leader Pastor Carol Dill

Course Descriptions

* UMC Heritage:

This course will explore the special gifts of theology, witness, and organization that The United Methodist Church brings to the church universal, how we got where we are today and how our distinctive emphases are still needed in the 21st-century church. Participants must obtain the book, "Living Our United Methodist Beliefs" by Kenneth L. Carder - leader Deacon Molly Golando

Planning Worship:

The course offers an interactive workshop that helps worship teams develop more meaningful and memorable worship for the congregation. By combining liturgical history and the creative process, The Worship Workshop encourages worship teams and staff to break out of the traditional worship box in order to create diverse ways to present the Good News in worship. Participants will be provided a Bibliography from the leaders. - leader Pastor Suzanne Block and Deacon Carrie Wolfe

* One of the 6 courses required for affirmation as Lay Speaker.
