"I believe the Spirit of God is renewing and reviving the Church," proclaimed Bishop Webb. "God's promise of harvest is real. Who we are and who we are called to be is greater than how we sometimes act, behave and live." Bishop Webb challenged the Conference to strategically lean into the promise of the harvest and to spiritually embrace the promise of the harvest. As worship came to a close, Bishop Webb invited the assembly to spend time in prayer.

3 p.m. Opening Plenary

Bishop Webb called the sixth session of Annual Conference to order. He welcomed first-timers and called upon Conference veterans to help new attendees become familiar with the proceedings.

Conference Secretary the Rev. Jeff Hodge explained the "bar of the Conference." Bishop Webb explained the process for being recognized from the floor and time limits at the microphone.

Syracuse University Chancellor

Kent Syverud, Chancellor at Syracuse University (SU), was welcomed by Bishop Webb. Chancellor Syverud was joined at the podium by the Rev. Tiffany Steinwert, Dean at Hendricks Chapel, and the Rev. Colleen Preuninger, Ecumenical Chaplain at SU and Hendricks Chapel. The SU chancellor spoke of the deep connection with The United Methodist Church (Syracuse University was founded by the Genesee Conference in 1870) and thanked the Conference for its past and present support and looked forward to continued partnership.

General Secretary Susan Crowe

The Rev. Dr. Susan Henry-Crowe, General Secretary of the General Board of Church & Society, greeted Conference members. She congratulated and thanked the Conference for its rich contributions to such social justice causes as the anti-slavery movement, racism, segregation, and women's rights. General Secretary Crowe spoke of the many ministries that are part of GBCS's daily work and shared a video clip from Living our Principles: Faith in Practice, a book and video series available from GBCS.

Practice ballot

Mark Fite, President and CEO at Option Technologies, explained the electronic voting process and led Conference voters in a practice session. The process for "writing in" a candidate was also explained.

First ballot

Bishop Webb prayed, then led the Conference in its first ballot. First the laity voted, followed by the clergy ballot.

Human Sexuality Task Force

Representatives from the Human Sexuality Task Force explained the proposed "Circle Conversations" to discuss the resolutions and petitions related to human sexuality and the voting process outlined as item #16 in the Organizational Motion. It is proposed that a single ballot be used for voting on the seven petitions and one resolution relating to human sexuality without further discussion, debate, or provision for amendment, tabling or referrals. The affected resolutions/petitions include: GC2016.3, GC2016.4, GC2016.5, GC2016.6, GC2016.8, GC2016.10, GC2016.11 and UNYAC2015.1.

Organizational Motion

Conference Secretary the Rev. Jeff Hodge made a motion to adopt the Organizational Motion. It was seconded.

Ian Urriola, offered an amendment to rule #16: Add to the end of rule 16: "The Upper New York Annual Conference strongly urges participants in these Circle Conversations to refrain from wearing objects that indicate pre-existing stances, one way or the other, during this time so that a spirit of objectivity and openness may be attained during the process." It was seconded. Amendment passed.

Nelson Price, offered support of the Organizational Motion. He highlighted two features of the General Conference rules (which govern the rules of the Annual Conference), explaining that two-thirds of the body must approve ending debate and General Conference rule #15, which indicates that a standing count vote or written vote can be called for at any time by a delegate and approved by one-third of the body.

The Rev. Steven Clunn, sought an amendment to the voting process outlined in rule #16 of the Organizational Motion: "Remove GC 2016.8 from the Circle Conversations." Amendment failed to pass.

The Rev. Jeff Childs, offered an amendment to clarify the language in line 42 of the Organizational Motion. It was called out of order.

The Rev. Tim Gleason, called the question. The call of the question was supported. The Organizational Motion was adopted as amended.

Consent calendar and agenda

Bishop Webb indicated that there were two errors in the printed Consent Calendar. Item #10: Equitable Comp Report has action items and cannot be on the Consent Calendar. Item #44: Global Structure Taskforce is for information only and not intended to be on the Consent Calendar. Christine Doran, chair of the agenda committee, moved that the Consent Calendar and the agenda be approved as corrected. It was seconded. The Consent Calendar and the agenda were adopted.

$1,740 – Laity session: Laity care offering
$3,299.41 – Clergy session: Clergy care offering

Bishop Webb reminded attendees of the Act of Repentance Service at 7 p.m. The Rev. John Jackson led the dinner prayer. Adjourned until 7 p.m.

Act of Repentance* – 7 p.m.

The Act of Repentance Service began with a Call to Repentance, led by the Rev. Thomas Pullybank and Blenda Smith, members of the Conference Committee on Native American Ministries (CONAM). The message, entitled Spirituality: the Highest Form of Consciousness, was given by the Rev. Dr. Thom White Wolf Fassett, followed by the Responsive Confession led by Bishop Webb and the Rev. Rachel Morse.

Sharon Schmit, member of CONAM, invited the Conference to take symbolic action in response to our confession, using a gray ribbon, representing the ashes of repentance. Attendees were invited to turn to a neighbor and help one another make a bracelet on the wrist. "This is not easily done alone. We need a partner, a reminder that the journey toward repentance requires relationship," Schmit explained. "Notice the bracelet forms a circle, a reminder that all our brothers and sisters are part of the circle of life. Through our acts of repentance we begin our journey to complete the circle. At some time, I hope after Annual Conference session, you will need to remove the ribbon. As you break it, speak these words: 'never again.'" Pray that never again will the circle be broken."

Bishop Webb presented the future, adapted from the Council of Bishop's statement: On behalf of the Upper New York Conference, we will:

- Affirm our commitment to empowering the presence of Native and indigenous people in the life of the Conference.
- Support Native American Ministries Sunday in the Conference.
- Strengthen the Upper New York's CONAM.
- Support general advances and church-wide funding for Native ministries.
- Commit ourselves to the development of new Native and indigenous ministries and strengthen our support for existing community entities.

- Commit to developing relationships of mutuality with Native peoples in local contexts.
- Continue to provide education for non-Native people about why the Act of Repentance is important.

In partnership with Native ministry leaders and resource people throughout the connection, the Upper New York Conference will support:

- Developing new Native and indigenous leaders across the connection including an increased number of people nurtured for service in congregational, annual conference, Jurisdictional and Central Conference, and General Church ministries, including the episcopacy.
- Support General Church initiatives related to land and treaty rights, support for tribal sovereignty and cultural preservation; better health care and education for Native people and the safety of Native and indigenous women.

The service ended with the singing of Amazing Grace and the "blending of the waters," with members of the Conference coming to the pool in the center of the assembly hall and pouring water from their church location. Hundreds of bottles of water were pouring and blending together in one pool. Bishop Webb offered the benediction.

The session opened with the reading of several prayer concerns by Upper New York Area Resident Bishop Mark J. Webb. The Rev. Darryl Barrow offered a prayer. Bishop Webb announced that 120 flood buckets and more than 50 other relief kits were received during yesterday's sessions.

Session monitoring

Blenda Smith (laity) and Tom Blake (laity), representing the Conference's Commission on Status and Role of Women (COSROW) and Commission on Religion and Race (CORR), again reported on the demographic make-up of the members to Annual Conference: 38 percent laywomen, 18 percent clergy women, 25 percent clergy men, and 19 percent laymen. Smith noted that when the Conference organizes worship and other presentations, there is much diversity – nearly 50 percent, but that same diversity does not show up in participation from the floor.

Results of voting on human sexuality petitions and resolutions

Bishop Webb thanked Conference members for their participation in the table conversations yesterday afternoon. He reminded the body that those General Conference petitions and resolutions that gained the support of the Conference will be sent to General Conference for consideration. Those not supported will not be forwarded by the Conference. The authors of resolutions that were not supported may submit them on their own. Bishop Webb noted that the ballot results would be shown on the screen and instructed the body not to respond to the results, but to look at them prayerfully.

Three cups of coffee were brought to Bishop Webb. Rather than drink all three, he offered the two cups to the highest bidder to benefit Africa 360. The first cup sold for $100; the second for $200, both to the Rev. Pamela Klotzbach (clergy). Declaring that he liked coffee, but he loved Africa 360 more, Bishop Webb auctioned the third cup of coffee for $500. The Rev. Meredith Vanderminden (clergy) purchased the third cup. Pastor John Jackson (clergy), Chair of the Conference Board of Trustees, presented the board's report. He introduced and thanked the members of the board and also recognized the Rev. Tom Clemow, consultant, and Scott DelConte, Conference Chancellor, for the work they do with the board.

Jackson moved the adoption of the resolution entitled: Defense and Indemnification of Conference Trustees and Officers (p. 41 pre-conference booklet):
Therefore be it resolved, that to the fullest extent permitted by law, the Conference will indemnify its trustees, officers, and members of all other Conference boards and agencies created and organized pursuant to Paragraphs 601 through 672 of The Book of Discipline (such individuals hereinafter collectively referred to as "Conference Fiduciaries") from criminal and civil liability, including the payment of defense costs and will maintain adequate insurance to provide this defense and indemnification; and

Therefore be it further resolved, that Conference Fiduciaries shall not be personally liable to the Conference for monetary damages because of their breach of duty as trustees, officers, or other representative capacity unless such liability is based upon a judgment or other final adjudication adverse to the Conference Fiduciary that establishes:(i) that the act or omission of the subject individual was in bad faith or involved intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of the law;(ii) that the Conference Fiduciary personally gained a financial profit or other advantage to which the trustee or officer was not legally entitled; or (iii) that the act or omission of the Conference Fiduciary knowingly violated the New York Not-for-Profit Corporation Law; and Therefore be it further resolved, that if the New York Not-for-Profit Corporation Law or other statute is amended to authorize further limitation or elimination of liability of Conference Fiduciaries, then that limitation or elimination of personal liability established by this resolution shall be further expanded to the fullest extent permitted by the amended law. It was seconded. Adopted.

New Conference Center

Jackson provided an update on the negotiations for the new Conference Center at 7481 Henry Clay Blvd., Liverpool. He reported that the trustees' due diligence had revealed a number of unacceptable structural and environmental concerns, none of which could have been known at the time of the special session. Based on the estimated costs to remedy these conditions, mostly the environmental discrepancies, the trustees offered to purchase the property at a reduced price. At first, this offer was not accepted. Since that time, an oral agreement has been reached.

There were several questions and much discussion about this matter. Conversation centered on an email sent by the Rev. Dr. Robert Hill to the Conference Center Committee Chair the Rev. Dr. Wendy Deichmann. That email included observations and information helpful to the committee. Kayti Dean (laity) suggested that the rules be suspended so that the email could be shared in its entirety with the body. It was agreed that the information contained within the email was adequately shared with the body and that the suspension of rules was not necessary.

Jackson assured the body that the trustees would continue to provide updates as progress continues on the new Conference Center.

Bishop Webb thanked the trustees for its work on securing a new Conference Center. The trustees report was paused to take another ballot for General and Jurisdictional conference delegates.

Sixth session of the Upper New York Annual Conference

Saturday, May 30

Morning Plenary – 9 a.m.

Upper New York Area Resident Bishop Mark J. Webb opened morning plenary by welcoming Hudda Aswad, Chair of Petitions & Resolutions, to continue presentation and debate of the resolutions and petitions.

Adjustments to agenda

The Rev. Bill Gottschalk-Fielding made a motion that all UNYAC resolutions and General Conference petitions not dealt with during the session be referred to the leadership teams. It was seconded.

There was discussion for and against the motion. The Rev. Nancy Stanley (clergy) offered an amendment, deleting "all UNYAC resolutions" from the motion. It was seconded. With this amendment, Conference resolutions would be dealt with first. The amendment was not supported.

The Rev. Steve Clunn (clergy) offered a second amendment to the original motion: "I move that as an act of this, the sixth session of the Upper New York Annual Conference, that all unresolved resolutions and petitions for General Conference and the UNYAC be placed on a ballot for yes or no votes and mailed to each Conference member by June 30. Each ballot must be signed by the delegate/member and returned to the secretary of the Annual Conference by July 17. The results of the votes will be posted on the Conference website by Aug. 7 and entered in to official record of the sixth session of the Annual Conference. It was seconded."

Rev. Gottschalk-Fielding agreed that it was "in the spirit" of his original motion. After much discussion, both for and against the amendment, Elliott Lawrence called the question on all that is before the body. Amendment is supported. Amended motion is adopted.

Suspension of rules

Matthew Williams moved that rules be suspended to allow the following:

1. Debate for each petition and resolution be limited to one speech for and one speech against; and that each of these speeches be granted a maximum of two minutes.
2. Submitter of the resolution or petition under consideration be granted two minutes to speak prior to debate and one minute post debate. The submitter shall be in addition to the speeches for and against.
3. An individual be permitted to speak to only one of the resolutions or petitions before us.
4. An intentional moment of silent prayerful reflection prior to the vote being taken for the resolution or petition.

It was seconded. Suspension of the rules requires support of two-thirds of the voting body. Supported.

Request for Parliamentary Ruling

Pastor Ben O'Connor (clergy) asked for a parliamentary ruling. He suggested that not adopting resolution UNYAC2015.3: Support a Fair Minimum Wage for New York State may be out of order; and in conflict with ¶163 of the Social Principles of the UM Book of Discipline: Economic Community: E. Poverty, specifically the section that pertains to employment and wages:

"As a church we are called to support the poor and challenge the rich. To begin to alleviate poverty, we support such policies as: adequate income maintenance, quality education, decent housing, job training, meaningful employment opportunities, adequate medical and hospital care, humanization and radical revisions of welfare programs, work for conflict areas and efforts to protect creation's integrity. Since low wages are often a cause of poverty, employers should pay their employees a wage that does not require them to depend upon government subsidies such as food stamps or welfare for their livelihood." Bishop Webb requested a few minutes to consider a parliamentary ruling on this.

UNYAC2015.4: Location for Annual Conference Session
Therefore, be it resolved, that beginning with the UNY Annual Conference session 2017, UNY Annual Conference sessions will be held in odd years in Syracuse and in even years within the Albany, Buffalo, or Rochester regions, i.e.: Syracuse/Albany/Syracuse/Buffalo or Rochester (or other regions if proven possible).

Virgia Phoenix and the Rev. Robert Long, sponsors of this resolution, explained that the motion is intended to "move into each other's regions" and get to know each other better. Vicki Putney, Conference Director of Human Resources and Benefits, explained that it is estimated that moving the Conference outside of the Syracuse region would cost an additional $35,000 at a minimum to pay for travel and lodging for staff who live in the Syracuse area.

There was discussion for and against the measure. Rev. Long offered a closing argument in favor of the resolution. Time was spent in silent prayer. Motion not adopted.

UNYAC 2015.5: New Faith Community Lay Representation at Annual Conference was withdrawn.
UNYAC2015.6: Income Inequality
Therefore, be it resolved, that the Conference Committee on Social Holiness be directed to prepare and send letters on behalf of the Upper New York Annual Conference to state and federal legislators who represent districts within the Conference boundaries, conveying our support for such legislation with appropriate rationales, and

Be it further resolved, that the Conference Board of Trustees, local church boards of trustees, and church members who hold corporate stock be encouraged to vote their proxies against executive pay plans that far exceed human needs and to write boards of directors of any mutual funds they own urging similar action.

Val Gray presented the resolution. After some discussion, Dr. Ron Bretsch moved to refer to the Social Holiness Team. It was seconded. The motion to refer to the Social Holiness Team was supported.

UNYAC 2015.7: Creation of Bridging Team
Therefore, be it resolved, that the Conference Leadership Team will create a bridge team that would seek to create civil discussion around divisive issues such as authority of the Bible, human sexuality, marriage, ordination, and Israel Palestine (implement the fall of 2015).

The Rev. Steve Deckard made a motion to refer to the Conference Leadership Team. Motion to refer not supported.

Linda Fredenburg offered the following amendment: Change "Implement by fall of 2015 to spring of 2016" Amendment not supported.

The amended resolution reads as follows:
Therefore, be it resolved, that the Conference Leadership Team will create a Bridge Team that would seek to create civil discussion by the entire Conference around divisive issues such as authority of the Bible, human sexuality, marriage, ordination, and Israel Palestine (implement the fall of 2015). Resolution adopted.

UNYAC2015.8: Creation of a Voting Process and Process of reporting Outcome of Votes
Therefore, be it resolved, that the Conference obtain counts of votes for and against divisive issues and announce the percentage of votes for and against and a narrative reflecting the voice for and voice against, providing a true representation of what the Conference is saying (implement at the 2015 Annual Conference session).

The Rev. Alan Kinney moved to refer to the Conference Committee on Sessions for clarification. Motion to refer supported.

UNYAC 2015.9: Resolution to Support the Turtle Island Trust and the People of Ganienkeh
Therefore, be it resolved, that the Upper New York Annual Conference, representing over 900 churches, with 168,000 members, in light of our Act of Repentance journey, support the people of Ganienkeh Territory and the Turtle Island Trust in their ongoing efforts to establish peace with justice. This Annual Conference, in light of the urgency of this present historic moment, asks the Governor, the Hon. Andrew M. Cuomo, and the Attorney General, the Hon. Eric T. Schneiderman, to exercise the leadership required to ensure peace and justice for all by honoring the Turtle Island Trust Agreement. This agreement, which came into being in 1977 through the efforts of then-Secretary of State Mario Cuomo, established the Turtle Island Trust as a tax-exempt charitable land trust through which the people of New York and of Ganienkeh Territory resolved their differences in peace and with dignity for all, and

Our Conference offices and local churches will either not observe this holiday or will initiate organizational conversations designed to rename and re-purpose this holiday in accordance with our United Methodist Social Principles (Book of Discipline ¶¶162 & 162a), and

Be it further resolved, that the Upper New York Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church designates our Conference Leadership Team in consultation with our Committee on Native American Ministries to provide and distribute to our local churches a liturgy designed to enact the spiritual dimensions of our choice to cease participating in the celebration of Columbus. Our repentance, petitions for God's forgiveness, and return to God's Word for visions of the relationships God desires will take place in worship on the Sunday closest to the second Monday in October, and

Be it further resolved, that the Upper New York Annual Conference, its committees, districts, and local churches are encouraged and directed to invest our relational influence at regional, local and personal levels towards the initiation of conversations intended to awaken the conscience of God's people to the benefits of turning away from the legacy of Columbus.

The Rev. Harold Wheat presented and explained the resolution. After some discussion and a time of silent prayer, the resolution is adopted.

Parliamentary Ruling on Resolution UNYAC2015.3
Bishop Webb explained that because the "therefore" in the resolution UNYAC2015.3 specified an amount of $15/hr., the Conference action is not in conflict with the Social Principles (¶163E) and therefore is ruled in order.

UNYAC2015.11: Study the Location of the Conference Headquarters in a Local Church Building
Therefore, be it resolved, that the Conference Trustees be instructed to meet with University Church (Syracuse) Trustees to explore all options, including the formal ownership and management of the building by the Conference with appropriate studies of the costs of infrastructure upgrades and remodeling, signage, parking, reception area; and

Be it further resolved, that the Conference Trustees consider not only economic and convenience factors but also such issues as good stewardship of church resources, the image of the Church in moving to the suburbs, the example of spending large sums for spacious and comfortable office space when our commitment is to serve our neighborhoods and the poor; and
Be it further resolved, that a report be presented to the members of the Conference, detailing the study and its outcome(s), including a missional rationale for the resulting decisions.

Nelson Price presented and explained the resolution. He offered the following amendment: add, after the words "meet with," the following: "UNY Urban Ministry Task Force and". Amendment supported. Price offered the following amendment: delete "studies of" and insert "concerns for".
Amendment supported.

After some discussion, Price made a motion to refer UNYAC 2015.11 to the UNY Conference Trustees if the sale of the current Henry Clay property does not move forward. Then the Conference Trustees deal with what is asked in the resolution. The Rev. Rebecca Laird called the question on all that is before the body. The motion to refer is not supported.

And remove lines 24-26:

"Be it further resolved, that the Conference Board of Pensions and Health Benefits put in place health insurance coverage required to place the Conference in compliance with the letter and the spirit of this federal law." Be it further resolved, that the General Conference direct the General Board of Church and Society, in consultation with others as appropriate, to consider whether it be feasible to propose ethical guidelines for minimum and maximum annual employee compensation, to be submitted for consideration to the next General Conference. To be considered valid, all ballots were to be received at the Conference Office no later than July 17. The ballots were counted by the Conference Secretary and a team of tellers on Monday, July 27. The following is the result of that ballot:

15. No material may be distributed within the bar of the Annual Conference sessions without prior review of the Agenda Committee of the UNY Sessions team: Christine Doran, Vicki Putney, and the Rev. Bill Gottschalk-Fielding.

16. As part of the "Circle Conversation" process, all resolutions and petitions that refer to human sexuality will be discussed in conversation circles and voted on without further discussion, debate, or provision for amendment, tabling or referral. A single ballot listing all resolutions and petitions referring to human sexuality will be provided for members to indicate whether to "adopt" or "not adopt" each individual resolution or petition. For this process, the Bishop will declare the "Bar of the Conference." The Upper New York Annual Conference strongly urges participants in these circle conversation to refrain from wearing objects that indicate their pre-existing stances – one way or another – on these issues during this time so that a spirit of objectivity and openness may be attained during the process.

Human Sexuality Resolutions & Petitions

GC2016.3 Same Sex Marriage

Whereas, The United Methodist Church is divided around the issue of same sex marriage on the basis of Biblical authority and interpretation and conscience and agreement is not in view; and

Whereas, The United Methodist Church under other names excluded African-Americans from geographical and integrated conferences and women from the clergy and later changed The Book of Discipline to include them; and

Whereas, communication about this issue is uncommon and often polarizing;

Therefore, be it resolved that United Methodist Elders, Licensed Local Pastors, and United Methodist churches may choose to conduct or allow to be conducted on their premises same-sex marriage; and

Be it further resolved that United Methodist Elders, Licensed Local Pastors, and United Methodist churches may choose to conduct or allow to be conducted on their premises same-sex marriage; and

Be it further resolved that United Methodist ordained, consecrated, and licensed clergy may be married to same or opposite sex partners and have all the rights of such marriage and conduct their lives without discrimination; and

Be it further resolved that each AC session will provide an ongoing, annual forum to educate congregations, clergy, and lay servants about the issues around gay marriage and have dialogue around the issue; and

Be it further resolved that each AC session will have a diversity officer and team assigned to promote diversity, including racial, ethnic, nationality, gender, sexual-orientation, gender identity, age, and difference in ability within each Annual Conference session.

GCGC2016.4: A Faithful Compromise: Providing Jurisdictional & Central Conference Authority to Resolve The Dilemma Regarding The Ordination of Self-Avowed Practicing Homosexuals

Whereas, deep divisions are evident in The United Methodist Church community with respect to the question of whether to permit the ordination of self-avowed practicing homosexuals; and

Whereas, the unity of The United Methodist Church is threatened by such divisions; and

Whereas, many effective and faithful potential clergypersons, homosexual and otherwise, are choosing to enter other denominations as a direct result of the current United Methodist prohibition against the ordination of self-avowed practicing homosexuals; and

Whereas, people of faith can and do legitimately disagree concerning the proper interpretation and meaning of the theological and biblical bases underlying the statement currently found in The Book of Discipline that, "The practice of homosexuality is incompatible with Christian teaching"[¶161(F)]; and

Whereas, throughout the United States and in many parts of the central conferences recognized civil liberty permits the practice of homosexuality; and

Whereas, throughout The Book of Discipline The Church makes clear that civil liberties are to be respected, stating "All persons, regardless of…sexual orientation, are entitled to have their human and civil rights ensured…" [¶161(F)] and "Certain basic human rights and civil liberties are due all persons. We are committed to supporting those rights and liberties for all persons, regardless of sexual orientation." [¶162(J)]; and

Whereas, by permitting homosexuals to be ordained so long as they are not "self-avowed" (as that term is currently defined) or "practicing" The Book of Discipline:

- Contradicts its own assumption "…that sexuality is God's good gift to all persons." [¶161(F)]
- encourages homosexual clergy to be dishonest as to their sexual orientation and their sexual practices;
- is inconsistent with The Church's stated goal of granting equal rights regardless of Sexual Orientation [see ¶162(J)] and implies that clergy are not entitled to the same equal rights as other members of The Church; and

Whereas, central conferences are currently permitted to adapt particular sections of The Book of Discipline "…to more fruitfully accomplish our mission in various contexts" [¶101]; and

Whereas, jurisdictional conferences are the equivalent bodies within the United States and should have the same right to adapt The Book of Discipline to more faithfully accomplish their mission within their contexts; and

Whereas, Section IV. Article V [¶27] and Section V. Article IV. [¶31] of our constitution currently give to the General Conference the right to confer powers and duties to the jurisdictional and central conferences.

Therefore, be it resolved that ¶304.3 of The Book of Discipline is amended to read, "While persons set apart by The Church for ordained ministry are subject to all the frailties of the human condition and the pressures of society, they are required to maintain the highest standards of holy living in the world. ~~The practice of homosexuality is incompatible with Christian teaching.~~ ~~Therefore s~~ Self-avowed practicing homosexuals are not to be certified as candidates, ordained as ministers, or appointed to serve in The United Methodist Church~~.~~ except in jurisdictions or central conferences that have determined that self-avowed practicing homosexuals may be certified as candidates, ordained as ministers, or appointed to serve in The United Methodist Church."

And be it further resolved that the language in ¶ 2702.1, (a), and (b) of The Book of Discipline be amended as "A bishop, clergy member of an annual conference (¶370), local pastor, clergy on honorable or administrative location, or diaconal minister may be tried when charged (subject to the statute of limitations in ¶2702.4) with one or more the following offenses: (a) immorality including but not limited to, not being celibate in singleness or not faithful in ~~a heterosexual~~ marriage; (b) practices declared by The United Methodist Church to be incompatible with Christian teachings, including but not limited to: being a self-avowed practicing homosexual in jurisdictions or central conferences that have not determined, pursuant to ¶ 304.3, that self-avowed practicing homosexuals may be certified as candidates, ordained as ministers, or appointed to serve in The United Methodist Church; or conducting ceremonies which celebrate homosexual unions; or performing same-sex wedding ceremonies;…"

GC2016.5: A Faithful Compromise: Providing Jurisdictional & Central Conference Authority To Resolve The Dilemma Regarding Same-Sex Marriage

Whereas, deep divisions are evident in The United Methodist Church community with respect to the question of whether ministers should be permitted to conduct ceremonies that celebrate homosexual unions and same-sex weddings or whether such ceremonies should be permitted in church facilities; and

Whereas, such deep divisions are clearly demonstrated by the ever increasing number of incidents of ecclesial disobedience with respect to this issue resulting in public trials and diversion of resources from the mission of making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world; and

Whereas, the unity of The United Methodist Church is threatened by such divisions; and

Whereas, same-sex marriage is now legal in more than 35 states in the United States, and in many cases, that legality was brought about by decisions of federal courts determining that any ban on same-sex marriage denies a fundamental right to all same-sex couples who seek to marry; and the fundamental civil liberty to marry regardless of sexual orientation is so fundamental that it cannot be denied by a vote of the people in the state; and

Whereas, same-sex marriage is also legal in a number of the countries within the central conferences; and

Whereas, throughout The Book of Discipline The Church makes clear that:

- "All persons, regardless of … sexual orientation, are entitled to have their human and civil rights ensured…" [¶161(F)]
- "We will seek to live together in Christian community, welcoming, forgiving and loving one another, as Christ has loved and accepted us. We implore families and churches not to reject or condemn lesbian and gay members and friends." [¶161 (F)]
- "Certain basic human rights and civil liberties are due all persons. We are committed to supporting those rights and liberties for all persons, regardless of sexual orientation." [¶162 (J)]; and

Whereas, people of faith can and do legitimately disagree concerning the proper interpretation and meaning of the theological and biblical bases underlying the proper stance with regard to this issue as set forth in The Book of Discipline; and

Whereas, central conferences are currently permitted to adapt particular sections of The Book of Discipline "…to more fruitfully accomplish our mission in various contexts." [¶101]; and

Whereas, jurisdictional conferences are the equivalent bodies within the United States and should have the same right to adapt The Book of Discipline to more faithfully accomplish their mission within their contexts; and

Whereas, Section IV. Article V [¶27] and Section V. Article IV. [¶31] of our constitution currently give to the General Conference the right to confer powers and duties to the jurisdictional and central conferences.

Therefore, be it resolved that ¶341.6 of The Book of Discipline be amended to read in its entirety as "Ceremonies that celebrate homosexual unions shall not be conducted by our ministers and shall not be conducted in our churches~~.~~ except in jurisdictions or central conferences which have determined that the celebration of homosexual unions and/or performance of same-sex wedding ceremonies may be conducted by ministers in that jurisdiction or central conference and/or may occur in churches within that jurisdiction or central conference.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, an individual minister shall not be required to celebrate homosexual unions or perform same-sex wedding ceremonies merely because the minister is serving a church located in a jurisdiction or central conference that has permitted the celebration of homosexual unions or the performance of same-sex wedding ceremonies by ministers within that jurisdiction or central conference.

And be it further resolved that the language in ¶2702.1(b) of The Book of Discipline be amended to read "practices declared by The United Methodist Church to be incompatible with Christian teachings, including but not limited to: being a self-avowed practicing homosexual; or conducting ceremonies which celebrate homosexual unions~~;~~ or performing same-sex wedding ceremonies in jurisdictions or central conferences that have not determined, pursuant to ¶341.6, that the celebration of homosexual unions and/or the performance of same-sex wedding ceremonies may be conducted by ministers and/or in churches in that jurisdiction or central conference;"

GC2016.6: Human Sexuality

Whereas, in ¶104, General Rules of The United Methodist Church, The Nature, Design, and General Rules of Our United States, 2. First of The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church 2012, John Wesley instructs us to do "no harm," and further, secondly that we should "do good," especially to them that are of the household of faith or groaning to be;" and

Whereas, we have witnessed the harm done to those who are not heterosexual, and to those who love them, by some members of our community in response to ¶161F, ¶2702, ¶613.19, ¶806.9, ¶304.3, and ¶310.2d of The Book of Discipline, and

Whereas, in ¶105, our theological task is described as "both critical and constructive. It is critical in that we test various expressions of faith by asking: Are they true? Appropriate? Clear? Cogent? Credible? Are they based on love?" Further, it is "constructive in that every generation must appropriate creatively the wisdom of the past and seek God in their midst in order to think afresh about God, revelation, sin, redemption, worship, the church, freedom, justice, moral responsibility, and other significant theological concerns. Our summons is to understand and receive the gospel promises in our troubled and uncertain times;" and

Whereas, in ¶105, we are also directed to be guided in this task by Scripture, read within the believing community, interpreted in the context of the whole, drawing upon "the careful historical, literary, and textual studies of recent years." Further, while acknowledging the primacy of Scripture ... our attempts to grasp its meaning always involve tradition, experience, and reason;" and

Whereas, in ¶105, we also are advised that "Our experience interacts with Scripture. We read Scripture in light of the conditions and events that help shape who we are, and we interpret our experience in terms of Scripture;" and

Whereas, in ¶105, we are additionally advised to "…ask questions of faith and seek to understand God's action and will" and, further, to "…relate our witness to the full range human knowledge, experience and service;" and

Whereas, there, across the connection the United Methodist denomination has always recognized that we may not all have identical interpretations of scripture, and yet, we often agree to disagree on those varying interpretations; and

Whereas, across our global Church, we live with a variety of cultural perspectives relative to human sexuality and sexual orientation; and, accordingly,

Whereas, we are not of one mind with regard to expressions of human sexuality and gender identification or the God-given nature of the differences regarding sexuality; and

Whereas, there is a need to give careful consideration to the many scientific advances in the understanding of human sexuality since 1972,

Therefore, be it resolved that ¶161F be amended to read, "Although all persons are sexual beings whether or not they are married, sexual relations are affirmed only ~~with the covenant of monogamous, heterosexual marriage~~ within a covenantal relationship."~~,~~

Be it further resolved that ¶161F reads, "We affirm that all persons are individuals of sacred worth, created in the image of God. All persons need the ministry of The Church in their struggles for human fulfillment as well as the spiritual and emotional care of a fellowship that enables reconciling relationships with God, with others, and with self. ~~The United Methodist Church does not condone the practice of homosexuality and considers this practice incompatible with Christian teaching.~~ We affirm that God's grace is available to all. We will seek to live together in Christian community, welcoming, forgiving, and loving one another, as Christ has loved and accepted us. We implore families and churches ~~not to reject or condemn lesbian and gay members and friends~~ to welcome all who come earnestly seeking a home in a Christian community. We commit ourselves to be in ministry for and with all persons.", and

Be it further resolved that ¶2702 be amended to read, "A bishop, clergy member of an annual conference (¶370), local pastor, clergy on honorable or administrative location, or diaconal minister may be tried when charged (subject to the statute of limitations in ¶2702.4)* with one or more of the following offenses: (a) immorality including but not limited to, not being celibate in singleness or not faithful in a ~~heterosexual marriage~~ covenantal relationship; ~~(b) practices declared by The United Methodist Church to be incompatible with Christian teachings, including but not limited to: being a self-avowed practicing homosexual; or conducting ceremonies which celebrate homosexual unions; or performing same-sex wedding ceremonies; (c)~~ (b) crime; ~~(d)~~ (c) disobedience to the order and discipline of The United Methodist Church; ~~(e)~~ (d) dissemination of doctrines contrary to the established standards of doctrine of The United Methodist Church; ~~(f)~~ (e) relationships and/or behavior that undermines the ministry of another pastor; ~~(g)~~ (f) child abuse; ~~(h)~~ (g) sexual abuse; ~~(i)~~ (h) sexual misconduct or ~~(j)~~ (i) harassment, including, but not limited to racial and/or sexual harassment; or ~~(k)~~ (j) racial or gender discrimination.", and

Be it further resolved that ¶613.19 be deleted in its entirety, and

Be it further resolved that ¶806.9 be deleted in its entirety, and

Be it further resolved that ¶304.3 be amended to read "While persons set apart by the church for ordained ministry are subject to all the frailties of the human condition and the pressures of society, they are required to maintain the highest standards of holy living in the world.~~The practice of homosexuality is incompatible with Christian teaching. Therefore, self-avowed practicing homosexuals are not to be certified as candidates, ordained as ministers, or appointed to serve in The United Methodist Church.[2]"~~ , and

Be it further resolved that ¶310.2d be amended to read "agree for the sake of the mission of Jesus Christ in the world and the most effective witness of the gospel, and in consideration of their influence as clergy, to make a complete dedication of themselves to the highest ideals of the Christian life as set forth in ¶¶103-105; 160-166. To this end that shall agree to exercise responsible self-control by personal habits conducive to bodily health, mental and emotional maturity, fidelity in ~~marriage~~ covenantal relationship and celibacy in singleness, social responsibility, and growth in grace and the knowledge and love of God[3]. Where possible, the local church is encouraged to assist candidates with the expenses of candidacy;"

GC2016.10: Reconciliation

Rationale
Amend The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church to bring it into greater consistency with God's love for us, as expressed in the Bible and experienced by our receipt of His grace; to help us in our struggle to love God with the completeness called for in the Bible; and to strengthen our love for each other and our neighbors as a response to the love and grace that we continually receive from God.

Whereas, the Scriptures teach us that our first obligation as Christians is to love the Lord our God with all our heart and soul and might (Deuteronomy 6:4; Matthew 22:37; Mark 12:29; Luke 10:27); and

Whereas, the Scriptures provide us with the explanation for this obligation, that "God is love" (1 John 4:8); and

Whereas, the Scriptures make it clear that we cannot love God unless we "love our neighbors as [we love] ourselves" (Leviticus 19:18; Matthew 22:38; Mark 12:31; Luke 10:27, 29-37; 1 John 4:20-21); and

Whereas, the Scriptures teach us that we are all the same in God's sight (1 Corinthians 12:13; Galatians 5:6; 6:15); and

Whereas, the Scriptures admonish us not to be judgmental of each other (Matthew 7:1-2; Luke 6:37) because judgment belongs to God (Ezekiel 20:35-36; Romans 2:1-5, 16); and

Whereas, in The Constitution [of The United Methodist Church], Division One, ¶4 Article IV, The United Methodist Church has declared itself to be a part of "the church universal, which is one Body in Christ;" and

Whereas, in accordance with the Constitution [of The United Methodist Church] Division One, ¶4 Article IV, and in accordance ¶¶214-242 of The Book of Discipline, all baptized persons are invited into the membership of, and participation in, the mission and ministries of The United Methodist Church; to receive the blessings and graces, which God provides through His Church; and to enter into the discipleship "of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world;" and

Whereas, in ¶161F, 304.3, and 2702.1 of The Book of Discipline, there are judgmental statements concerning certain specific conducts and/or practices, judging (contrary to the cited Scriptures), identifying, and describing these conducts and/or practices as being "incompatible with Christian teachings;" and

Whereas, in violation of the Constitution and other parts of The Book of Discipline, members of The United Methodist Church who are said, thought, and/or judged to be involved in the conducts and/or practices identified in ¶¶ 161F, 304.3, and 2702.1 as being "incompatible with Christian teachings", are relegated to "second class membership" by being denied and proscribed from ordination into the ministry of, and from marriage to persons of their choice in, the Church of which they are members;

Therefore, be it resolved that the judgmental phrase "incompatible with Christian teachings" and all verbiage immediately related thereto, ¶161F of The Book of Discipline, be deleted as follows, ~~"Human Sexuality - We affirm that sexuality is God's good gift to all persons. We call everyone to responsible stewardship of this sacred gift.~~

~~Although all persons are sexual beings whether or not they are married, sexual relations are affirmed only with the covenant of monogamous, heterosexual marriage.~~

~~We deplore all forms of commercialization, abuse, and exploitation of sex. We call for strict global enforcement of laws prohibiting the sexual exploitation of children and for adequate protection, guidance, and counseling for abused children. All persons, regardless of age, gender, marital status, or sexual orientation, are entitled to have their human and civil rights ensured and to be protected against violence. The Church should support the family in providing age-appropriate education regarding sexuality to children, youth, and adults.~~

"…We affirm that all persons are individuals of sacred worth, created in the image of God. All persons need the ministry of the Church in their struggles for human fulfillment, as well as the spiritual and emotional care of a fellowship that enables reconciling relationships with God, with others, and with self. ~~The United Methodist Church does not condone the practice of homosexuality and considers this practice incompatible with Christian teaching.~~ We affirm that God's grace is available to all.", and

Be it further resolved that the judgmental phrase "incompatible with Christian teachings", and all verbiage immediately related thereto, be deleted from ¶304.3 of The Book of Discipline; "While persons set apart by the Church for ordained ministry are subject to all the frailties of the human condition and the pressures of society, they are required to maintain the highest standards of holy living in the world. ~~The practice of homosexuality is incompatible with Christian teaching. Therefore self-avowed practicing homosexuals are not to be certified as candidates, ordained as ministers, or appointed to serve in The United Methodist Church~~; and

Be it further resolved that ¶2702.1 of The Book of Discipline be amended to read " A bishop, clergy member of an annual conference (¶ 370), local pastor, clergy on honorable or administrative location, or diaconal minister may be tried when charged (subject to the statute of limitations in ¶ 2702.4) with none or more of the following offenses: (a) immorality including but not limited to, not being celibate in singleness or not faithful in a ~~heterosexual~~ marriage; ~~(b) practices declared by The United Methodist Church to be incompatible with Christian teachings, including but not limited to being a self-avowed avowed practicing homosexual; or conducting ceremonies which celebrate homosexual unions; or performing same-sex wedding ceremonies; (c)~~ (b) crime; ~~(d)~~ (c) disobedience to the order and discipline of The United Methodist Church; ~~(e)~~ (d) dissemination of doctrines contrary to the established standards of doctrine of The United Methodist Church; ~~(f)~~ (e) relationships and/or behavior that undermines the ministry of another pastor; ~~(g)~~ (f) child abuse; ~~(h)~~ (g) sexual abuse; ~~(i)~~ (h) sexual misconduct; or ~~(j)~~ (i) harassment, including, but not limited to racial and/or sexual harassment; or ~~(k)~~ (j) racial or gender discrimination."

GC2016.11: Removing Hurtful Language

Whereas, to date, no peer reviewed protocols are endorsed by which one can change sexual orientation, and

Whereas, to date, no scholar has provided a method hermeneutic by which the Bible can be taught as wrong about slavery,
wrong about the rights of women,
wrong about a heliocentric universe,
wrong about the age of the earth,
wrong about multiple marriage,
wrong about evolution,
wrong about the cause of leprosy,
and wrong about eating shrimp …
but right about homosexuality, and

Whereas, human acts causing no harm to any person, including one's self, family, community, faith, or vocation can hardly be called sinful, and

Whereas, gay people who have been rejected experience real and lasting harm (verified by many peer-reviewed medical and psychological journals), and

Whereas, there is increasing agreement that being gay is not incompatible with Christian teaching, and

Whereas, our Church stands, and grievously so, at the brink of breaking asunder over a matter unlikely to be resolved anytime soon.

Therefore be it resolved that The Book of Discipline delete the following words from ¶161F, "~~The United Methodist Church does not condone the practice of homosexuality and considers this practice incompatible with Christian teaching.~~"

UNYAC2015.1: Resolution Concerning the General Conference & Homosexuality

Whereas, according to the Social Principles of The United Methodist Church, ¶161F "The United Methodist Church does not condone the practice of homosexuality and considers this practice incompatible with Christian teaching." and

Whereas, two "agree to disagree" proposals were soundly defeated during separate votes by the nearly 1,000 delegates gathered for The United Methodist Church's 2012 General Conference in Tampa, Fla., therefore, keeping the current discriminatory disciplinary language, and

Whereas, one defeated 2012 proposal would have changed The Book of Discipline simply to say that gays and lesbians are "people of sacred worth" and that church members "differ about whether homosexual practices (are) contrary to the will of God," and

Whereas, at least 15 regional annual conferences have rejected the denomination's stance on homosexuality, and

Whereas, 35 states now allow gay marriage, and The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church ¶340 2a.3a states that the decision to perform the ceremony shall be the right and responsibility of the pastor "in accordance with the laws of the state and the rules of The United Methodist Church." and

Whereas, "one of the top reasons 59 percent of young adults with a Christian background have left the church is because they perceive the church to be too exclusive, particularly regarding their LGBT friends" (Kinnaman, David, You Lost Me: Why Young Christians Are Leaving Church...and Rethinking Faith), and

Whereas, many United Methodists in the United States, as well as persons from other countries, acknowledge that the Church is divided on this issue but feel that current discriminatory disciplinary language is harmful not only to the groups that it attacks but also to the future of the Church, as such language is alienating to both present and future members, and

Whereaas, a resolution very similar to this one was presented and passed by the North Carolina Conference in 2013,

Therefore, be it resolved that the 2015 Upper New York Annual Conference session, gathered in Syracuse, N.Y., implores its delegates to the 2016 General Conference to change the language used in the Social Principles and to affirm the place of LGBT (Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Transgender) members within the Church, including access both to marriage and to ordination.

Be it further resolved that Conference fiduciaries shall not be personally liable to the Conference for monetary damages because of their breach of duty as trustees, officers, or other representative capacity unless such liability is based upon a judgment or other final adjudication adverse to the Conference fiduciary that establishes: (i) that the act or omission of the subject individual was in bad faith or involved intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of the law; (ii) that the Conference Fiduciary personally gained a financial profit or other advantage to which the trustee or officer was not legally entitled; or (iii) that the act or omission of the Conference Fiduciary knowingly violated the New York Not-for-Profit Corporation Law; and

Be it futher resolved that if the New York Not-for-Profit Corporation Law or other statute is amended to authorize further limitation, elimination of liability of Conference fiduciaries the limitation, or elimination of personal liability established by this resolution shall be further expanded to the fullest extent permitted by the amended law.

Upper New York Annual Conference Resolutions

UNYAC2015.6: Income Inequality

Be it resolved that UNYAC 2015.6 Income Inequality be referred to the Social Holiness Team.

UNYAC2015.7: Creation of Bridging Team

Whereas, our Conference and denomination have become winner take all, even when the majority is small; and

Whereas, we have mirrored our United States Congress in becoming polarized to such a degree there is little opportunity for compromise, never mind consensus; and

Whereas, we have addressed conflicts with behind-the-scenes alliance-building that has emphasized difference rather than commonality; and

Whereas, Conference conflict resolution trainings have called for win-win solutions rather than win-lose solutions; and

Whereas, simply voting and determining the outcome does not indicate the whole voice of the Conference but the "winning" voice; and

Whereas, Jesus has prayed for us, his disciples, that we shall be one; and

Whereas, John Wesley has called for unity is essentials and charity in differences.

Therefore, be it resolved that the Conference Leadership Team will create a bridge team that would seek to create civil discussion by the entire Conference around divisive issues such as authority of the Bible, human sexuality, marriage, ordination, and Israel/Palestine (implement the fall of 2015).

UNYAC 2-15.8 – Creation of Voting Process and Process of Reporting Outcome of Votes – Referred to Sessions

UNYAC 2015.9: Resolution to Support the Turtle Island Trust and the People of Ganienkeh

Whereas, it has been "resolved that being justified by faith, we will honor as sacred those practices that: call us back to the sacredness of Native people, affirm as beautiful their identity among the world's peoples; lead us into right relationship with our Creator, creation, and those around us; and call us into holy living. We call upon the world, the church, The United Methodist Church, and the people of The United Methodist Church to receive the gifts of Native people as people of God." (#3334), and

Whereas, it has been "resolved, that The United Methodist Church begin a process of healing relationships with indigenous persons to continue through the quadrennium and beyond that necessarily includes such activities as study guides and resources; self-examination, discovering the ongoing impact of historic traumas; confessing our own participation in the continuing effects of that trauma, building relationships with indigenous persons wherever we, the Church, are; building those relationships through listening and being present with indigenous persons, working beside indigenous persons to seek solutions to current problems . . . ." (#3324), and

Whereas, it has been "further resolved, that the General Conference recommends that local churches develop similar statements of confession as a way of fostering a deep sense of community with Native Americans and encourages the members of our Church to stand in solidarity on these important issues and to provide mediation when appropriate for ongoing negotiations with state and federal agencies regarding these matters." (#3322), and

Whereas, the People of Ganienkeh and the Turtle Island Trust have made possible, for hundreds of visitors of all ages, life-enhancing learning and relationship building experiences. In their minds the Ganienkehagas are there forever. It is our hope to provide this for many generations to come, and

Whereas, the Turtle Island Trust, through the efforts of its Trustees, has been a vehicle for peace on all sides, and

Whereas, the "Act of Repentance" requires that the Church will never again remain silent when it is called to speak.

Therefore, be it resolved that the Upper New York Conference, representing more than 900 churches and with 168,000 members, in light of our Act of Repentance journey, support the people of Ganienkeh Territory and the Turtle Island Trust in their ongoing efforts to establish peace with justice. This Annual Conference session, in light of the urgency of this present historic moment, asks the Governor, the Honorable Andrew M. Cuomo, and the Attorney General, the Honorable Eric T. Schneiderman, to exercise the leadership required to ensure peace and justice for all by honoring the Turtle Island Trust Agreement. This agreement, which came into being in 1977 through the efforts of then-Secretary of State Mario Cuomo, established the Turtle Island Trust as a tax-exempt charitable land trust through which the people of New York and people of the Ganienkeh Territory resolved their differences in peace and with dignity for all, and

Be it further resolved that a copy of this resolution be sent, by the Conference Secretary, to the Governor and Attorney General of New York state.

UNYAC2015.10: Fruits of Repentance- An End to the Celebration of Columbus Day

Whereas, Christopher Columbus failed to treat the Native Peoples of the Americas with respect, and

Whereas, he engaged in human trafficking, and

Whereas, he used his influence to establish a culture of sexual exploitation of children and minors of Native American descent by adults of European descent, and

Whereas, he established systems of forced labor resulting in the destruction of cultures and untold suffering for millions of individuals, and

Whereas, he engaged in brutal collective corporal punishment, the deliberate repression of Native American cultural expression, and other acts we now correctly name as genocide, and

Whereas, he established a culture of exploitation of the earth that continues to dishonor and often destroy God's living creation.

Therefore, be it resolved that "Columbus Day" will no longer be recognized by the people of the Upper New York Conference of The United Methodist Church. Our Conference offices and local churches will either not observe this holiday or will initiate organizational conversations designed to rename and re-purpose this holiday in accordance with our United Methodist Social Principles (The Book of Discipline ¶162 and 162a), and

Be it further resolved that the Upper New York Conference of The United Methodist Church designates our Conference Leadership Team, in consultation with our Committee on Native American Ministries, to provide and distribute to our local churches a liturgy designed to enact the spiritual dimensions of our choice to cease participating in the celebration of Columbus. Our repentance, petitions for God's forgiveness, and return to God's word for visions of the relationships God desires will take place in worship on the Sunday closest to the second Monday in October, and

Be it futher resolved that the Upper New York Conference, its committees, districts, and local churches are encouraged and directed to invest our relational influence at regional, local, and personal levels towards the initiation of conversations intended to awaken the conscience of God's people to the benefits of turning away from the legacy of Columbus.

UNYAC2015.12 – Health Insurance for All Clergy and Local Pastors

Whereas, 1 Corinthians 9:13-14 states, "Don't you know that those who serve in the temple get their food from the temple, and that those who serve at the altar share in what is offered on the altar? In the same way, the Lord has commanded that those who preach the gospel should receive their living from the gospel" (NIV); and

Whereas, currently part-time clergy and local pastors do not have access to health insurance through the Conference; and

Whereas, the 2014 provisions of the Affordable Care Act requires all persons in the United States to have health insurance; and

Whereas, the Conference does not have statistics on the health insurance carrier of part time clergy and local pastors,

Therefore, be it resolved that the Conference Board of Pensions and Health Benefits explore the option of providing health insurance for all part-time clergy and local pastors; students appointed to attend school for their studies; and students appointed to charges (part- or full-time) while completing their studies; and

Be it further resolved that the Conference survey each charge to determine by category where each clergy and local pastor obtain health insurance and the affordability of that health insurance. The categories are as follows: Healthflex; covered under spouse's plan; covered by both Healthflex and spouse's plan, state insurance/not Medicare; Medicare; other.

UNYAC2015.14 -- Protecting Seneca Lake

Whereas, old unlined salt caverns are dangerous vessels for the storage of flammable gases (as was illustrated in Hutchison, Kan., when salt cavern-stored natural gas leaked through subterranean fissures and fractures and caused deadly explosions seven miles away) and can also be structurally unstable (as was illustrated by the 1994 collapse of a salt cavern in Livingston County, N.Y., in a calamity that included sinkholes, methane contaminated basements, and a permanently poisoned drinking water aquifer), and

Whereas, Seneca Lake caverns are vulnerable to roof collapses that could allow pressurized gases to escape, as is evidenced by the 400,000-ton roof collapse that has already occurred in a Seneca Lake salt cavern now slated by Crestwood for natural gas storage, and

Whereas, the Federal Energy Regulatory (FERC), over the strenuous objections of citizens and independent geologists, nevertheless approved Crestwood's natural gas storage expansion plan in May 2014, and

Whereas, on Aug. 11, 2014, the New York State Department of Environmental Conservation (DEC) called a temporary halt to Crestwood's plans to stockpile LPG in the Seneca Lake salt caverns by announcing a special issues conference to investigate ongoing health, safety, and environmental concerns of lakeside storage here, and

Whereas, one day later, on Aug. 12, Crestwood outrageously announced a plan to commence construction of a compressor station to pressurize natural gas for underground storage in salt caverns, and

Whereas, dozens of Schuyler County health care professionals have called for a halt to both natural gas and LPG storage in these salt caverns on the grounds that they raise unacceptable risks of catastrophic accidents, injuries, and contaminate water and air, and

Whereas, the Social Principles of The United Methodist Church ¶160A supports and encourages social policies and measures "designed to maintain and restore natural ecosystems;" and urges "all municipalities and other governmental organizations to develop processes for determining sustainability of water resources and to determine the environmental, economic, and social consequences of privatization of water resources prior to the licensing and approval thereof," and

Whereas,¶163H which advocates for the survival of family farms, which have been threatened by "increasing concentration of all phases of agriculture into the hands of a limited number of transnational corporations" raising "global questions of justice that cry out for vigilance and action," and

Whereas, ¶163I calls for corporate responsibility including "the communities in which they do business, and for the earth, which supports them" and for the "public's right to know what impact these corporations have in these various arenas…" and

Whereas,¶164F recognizes "the right of individuals to dissent when acting under the constraint of conscience and, after having exhausted all legal recourse, to resist or disobey laws that they deem to be unjust…"

Therefore, be it resolved that the Upper New York Conference of The United Methodist Church supports the movement to protect Seneca Lake by continuing to advocate within the political system to prevent gas storage in the salt caverns nearby; and

Be it further resolved, that The United Methodist Church encourage individuals who are called to do so, to join with others to engage in peaceful, nonviolent acts of protest, up to and including civil disobedience, until additional storage of LPG and methane in Seneca Lake salt caverns is halted, and

Be it further resolved that the Conference Secretary forward a copy of this motion, upon passage, to Crestwood Midstream, Houston, Texas, The Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, the NYS DEC, and the appropriate legislative and judicial bodies of Schuyler County.

UNYAC2015.17: Formation of Upper New York Conference United Methodist Historical Society

Whereas, ¶641.2 of The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church states that the Conference Commission on Archives and History may "organize a conference historical society and encourage membership therein for the purpose of promoting interest in the study and preservation of the history of the conference and its antecedents;" and

Whereas, such Conference-wide Methodist historical society would aid the work of Upper New York Commission on Archives and History and would provide an additional way for Conference members to connect to the Upper New York Conference. The Upper New York Conference Commission on Archives and History formed a committee to draft bylaws for such a historical society.

Therefore, be it resolved that the Upper New York Conference endorse this endeavor and support formation of an Upper New York Conference United Methodist Historical Society.

Be it further resolved that it is agreed that the Upper New York Commission on Archives and History be authorized to organize and administer the society for a maximum of two years until officers are elected.

GC2016.1: Consensus Among Faith Communities Regarding Income Inequality

Whereas, the Bible includes many passages that condemn hoarding of wealth and taking advantage of the poor (Deut. 24:14-15, Isaiah 3:14-15, Ezekiel 22:23-29, Amos 5:11-12, Matt. 19:21, Luke 12:15-21, 16:13-14, etc.). Amos (5:21-24) was shocked at the growing inequality between rich and poor under King Jeroboam II in Israel and proclaimed that until this social injustice was replaced by righteousness, God would ignore their hymns and ceremonies and reject their offerings. [J.D. Crossan, The Greatest Prayer (book), 2001], and

Whereas, a comprehensive critique of the U.S. economic system, co-authored by an economist and a theologian, H.E. Daly and J.B. Cobb, affirms that limited inequality is consistent with biblical teachings and the essential role of community in sustaining human life, but unlimited inequality would deny the very concept of community, and complete equality would deny realdifferences in human abilities and the need of community for various skills [H.E. Daly and J.B. Cobb, For the Common Good (book), Beacon Press, 1994, pg. 331], and
Whereas, The United Methodist Social Principles states "We support measures that would reduce the concentration of wealth in the hands of the few. We support efforts to revise tax structures and to eliminate government programs that now benefit the wealthy at the expense of other persons," and

Whereas, John Wesley wrote that the acquisition of wealth and possessions in general leads to the destruction of faith and holiness [Jennings, Good News for the Poor: John Wesley's Evangelical Economics (book), 1990], and

Whereas, these and other teachings have inspired many Christians to contribute to society according to their abilities and opportunities without seeking or accepting compensation beyond their needs, but have not as yet, overcome a culture that teaches Americans that their worthiness is proportional to how much they earn, spend, and possess, and

Whereas, we believe that a statement in which all or most religious communities in the United States speak with one voice in opposition to the continuing increase in income inequality would help stimulate remedial actions.

Therefore, be it resolved that the General Conference request the Council of Bishops to initiate contact with their counterparts in other Christian denominations and non-Christian faith communities, with the hope of drafting a joint proclamation supported by many faith communities that would call for measures to reduce inequality in earned income and make American society more egalitarian without stifling individual creativity; and

Be it further resolved that the General Conference direct the General Board of Church and Society, in consultation with others as appropriate, to consider whether it is feasible to propose ethical guidelines for minimum and maximum annual employee compensation, to be submitted for consideration to the next General Conference. We suppose that such guidelines might be expressed as ratios to national, regional, or company statistics; the guidelines would not apply to individual entrepreneurs or to corporate profits and would allow for averaging fluctuations in compensation over multiple years. Perhaps alternative options could be offered to facilitate debate.

GC2016.2: Fruits of Repentance: An End to the Celebration of Columbus Day

Whereas, Christopher Columbus failed to treat the Native Peoples of the Americas with respect (see attached addendum); and

Whereas, he engaged in human trafficking (see attached addendum); and

Whereas, he used his influence to establish a culture of sexual exploitation of children and minors of Native American descent by adults of European descent (see attached addendum); and

Whereas, he established systems of forced labor resulting in the destruction of cultures and untold suffering for millions of individuals (see attached addendum); and

Whereas, he engaged in brutal collective corporal punishment, the deliberate repression of Native American cultural expression, and other acts we now correctly name as genocide (see attached addendum); and

Whereas, he established a culture of exploitation of the earth that continues to dishonor and often destroy God's living creation (see attached addendum).

Therefore, be it resolved that "Columbus Day" will no longer be recognized by the people of The United Methodist Church. United Methodist annual conferences, agencies, schools, universities, and local churches in lands that officially celebrate "Columbus Day" will either not observe this holiday or will initiate organizational conversations designed to rename and re-purpose this holiday in accordance with our United Methodist Social Principles (See The Book of Discipline ¶162 & 162a), and

Be it further resolved that the General Board of Discipleship of The United Methodist Church will provide and distribute to our local churches in North America a liturgy designed to enact the spiritual dimensions of our choice to cease participating in the celebration of Columbus. Our repentance, petitions for God's forgiveness, and return to God's Word for visions of the relationships God desires will take place in worship on the Sunday closest to the second Monday in October, and

Be it further resolved that United Methodist annual conferences, boards, agencies, and local churches in lands affected by the legacy of Columbus are encouraged and directed to invest our relational influence at regional, local, and personal levels towards the initiation of conversations intended to awaken the conscience of God's people to the benefits of turning away from the legacy of Columbus. The General Board on Church and Society is directed to give leadership to our effort bring about the repeal of "Columbus Day" as a national holiday in the United States of America.

GC2016.7: Prayer and Support For Members of the Armed Forces and Veterans

Whereas, ¶510.2(a), 2012 The Book of Discipline, provides that resolutions of the General Conference are official expressions of The United Methodist Church for eight years following their adoption, after which time they shall be deemed to have expired unless readopted, and

Whereas, the need to pray for and support members of the armed forces and veterans and to value the potential contributions of veterans in our churches is ongoing.

Therefore, be it resolved that the 2016 General Conference readopt Resolution 5061.

GC2016.9 – Cross Referencing The Book of Discipline With The Book of Resolution

Whereas, The Book of Discipline "is the most current statement of how United Methodists agree to live their lives together. It reflects our understanding of the Church and articulates the mission of The United Methodist Church: To make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. The Discipline defines what is expected of its laity and clergy as they seek to be effective witnesses in the world as a part of the whole body of Christ." (Episcopal Greetings, The Book of Discipline); and

Whereas, The Book of Resolutions contains:

- "Official policy statements for guiding all the work and ministry of The United Methodist Church on approximately 200 subjects;
- Educational resources for The United Methodist Church on important issues affecting the lives of people and all God's creation;
- Guides and models for helping United Methodist members and groups relate a lively biblical faith to action in daily life;
- Resource materials for persons preparing public statements about United Methodist concerns on current social issues." (User's Guide, The Book of Resolutions); and

Whereas, making these resources available are done so at cost by the United Methodist Publishing House; and

Whereas, making these resources as accessible and as easy to use as possible will help United Methodists to become more familiar with the Wesleyan way of life and prepared to both become and "make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world."

Therefore, be it resolved that the following sentences be inserted in¶510.2a of The Book of Discipline:

a) "All valid resolutions of the General Conference of The United Methodist Church shall be published in each edition of The Book of Resolutions. There shall be a complete subject index and index of Scripture passages to all valid resolutions of the General Conference of The United Methodist Church in each edition of the Book of Resolutions. Every resolution that corresponds to a paragraph in The Book of Discipline shall be listed by number and title at the end of the corresponding Disciplinary subsection to which it relates. In the case of electronic publications, such as, but not limited to, e-books and online versions, the references to resolutions within the Book of Discipline should act as hyperlinks to the text of those resolutions. Resolutions are official expressions of The United Methodist Church for eight years following their adoption, after which time they shall be deemed to have expired unless readopted. Those that have expired shall not be printed in subsequent editions of The Book of Resolutions. The Book of Resolutions shall be made available on the official website of The United Methodist Church".

GC2016.12 – Licensed Pastors Right to be Elected as Clergy Delegation of General Conference, Jurisdictional Conference and Central Conference and vote on the Constitution

Whereas, the General Conference and The Book of Discipline are the means of the United Methodist political system and ¶164.B of The Book of Discipline supports political responsibility, reminding us that "The strength of a political system depends upon the full and willing participation of its citizens." and

Whereas, we view The United Methodist Church as being an active society and affirm that local pastors are deserving of a voice within their society, according to ¶162, which states, "The rights and privileges of a society bestows upon or withholds from those who comprise it indicate the relative esteem in which that society holds particular persons and groups of persons. We affirm all persons are equally valuable in the sight of God. We therefore work toward societies in which each person's value is recognized, maintained and strengthened." and

Whereas, 379 out of 666 (or 56.9 percent) active clergy of the Upper New York Clergy are local licensed pastors (2013 statistics from GCFA) and the number of local licensed pastors continue to grow within the connection (we have 46,049 active clergy with 30,877 non-elders or 67 percent are local pastors according to GCFA 2013), and within the connection these pastors serve 60 percent of our local churches, and

Whereas, according to ¶316, all licensed pastors are to perform the same responsibilities as those listed in ¶340.2, where it states "Licensed pastors share with the elders the responsibilities and duties of a pastor for this fourfold ministry, within the context of their appointment," therefore having to adhere and abide by The Book of Discipline, and

Whereas, ¶164.A states that, "We hold governments responsible for the protection of the rights of the people to free and fair elections…" as well as, "The form and the leaders of all governments should be determined by exercise of the right to vote guarantee to all adult citizens." And since the General Conference is the governing body of The United Methodist Church and since not all members are given the right to be a delegate at General Conference, and

Whereas, ¶502 states that, "The voting membership of the General Conference shall consist of: a) An equal number of clergy and lay delegates elected by the annual conferences as provided in the Discipline." and Clergy has been defined in ¶602.1 as "The clergy membership of an annual conference (¶370) shall consist of deacons and elders in full connection (¶333), provisional members (¶327), associate members, and affiliate members (¶344.4, 586.4) and local pastors under full-time and part-time appointment to a pastoral charge (¶317). (See also, ¶32.)," and

Therefore, be it resolved that ¶602.1.b should be changed to read, "Provisional clergy members shall have the right to vote in the annual conference on all matters ~~except~~ including constitutional amendments, election of clergy delegates to the general and jurisdictional or central conferences ~~and~~ except for matters of ordination, character, and conference relations of clergy." and

Be it further resolved ¶602.1.c should be changed to read, "Associate and affiliate clergy members shall have the right to vote in the annual conference on all matters ~~except~~ including constitutional amendments, election of clergy delegates to the general and jurisdictional or central conferences, ~~and~~ except matters of ordination, character, and conference relations of clergy…" and

Be it further resolved that ¶602.1.d be changed to read, "Full-time and part-time local pastors under appointment to a pastoral charge shall have the right to vote in the annual conference on all matters ~~except~~ including constitutional amendments; election of delegates to the general and jurisdictional or central conferences ~~and~~ except in matters of ordination, character, and conference relations of clergy as long as the local pastors have met two criteria: they have, by either of two options as determined by the annual conference, completed the constitutionally specified level of education; and they have been appointed by the bishop and served for two consecutive years, immediately preceding the election, during which time no withdrawal of the appointed status

The Upper New York Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church

Organizational Rules

The organizational plan of The Upper New York Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church (as defined in the Plan of Union of The Upper New York Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church, approved on June 19, 2010, hereinafter referred to as The Plan of Union, with statements of Vision and Purpose contained therein) will be as determined by the Annual Conference itself, in such a manner as (1) to be responsive to the Vision and Purpose of the Annual Conference, (2) to be responsive to the Mission of The United Methodist Church, as most recently adopted by The General Conference of The United Methodist Church, 2012, (3) to be compatible with The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church 2012, hereinafter referred to as The Discipline or The Book of Discipline, and (4) to be reflective of the Rules contained herein. Paragraph references contained herein are to The Book of Discipline unless indicated otherwise.

The primary loci for ministry and mission in The United Methodist Church are the local churches and the communities in which they are located. The annual conference has responsibilities for sharing and assisting the ministry and mission of its local churches by equipping for ministry and by providing linkages for the sharing of ministry through such means as motivation, encouragement, facilitation, coordination, education, training, evaluation, and other forms of support. The annual conference also provides the challenge to global ministry (that is, connectional, ecumenical, and secular ministry beyond the local church and its community), and the link between local ministry and global ministry. In order to fulfill its role with respect to its local churches, The United Methodist Church, and the church universal, the annual conference will elect or otherwise select persons to serve as individuals or as members of specific groups, with understood duties, responsibilities, and accountabilities to the local churches and to the annual conference at large.

Elected Members and Ex Officio Members of Conference Agencies

In what follows, there will be distinctions between those who are directly elected by the annual conference itself, or by a group within the annual conference to serve as an individual, or as a member of a group (with privileges of both voice and vote) as against those who serve (ex officio) by virtue of holding some other office or position and serving with privileges of voice and vote, or with privilege of voice only.

Persons who serve on General Church Agencies or Jurisdictional Agencies shall serve on the corresponding agencies of the annual conference, ex-officio, with vote.

Terms of Office and Term Limits of Elected Members of Conference Agencies

For persons who are elected to serve as members of groups in "membership classes", the term of office is from the moment of adjournment of the Conference Session at which the election took place or the selection was announced, until the moment of adjournment of the regular Conference Session held in the year of the "class." Persons will normally be elected to classes for full-length terms, exceptions occurring only to fill vacancies and during the period of startup for the group concerned. Unless stated otherwise for specific groups, full-length terms shall be for four years, and the maximum term for persons serving in classes shall be two consecutive full-length terms. Partial length terms of less than three years shall not be counted in this regard for elections occurring before 2012. Service "on a quadrennial basis" indicates full-length terms beginning and ending in years when the General Conference meets. Successive tenures on the same group must be separated by an absence of at least one year.

Lay Members of Conference Agencies

Appendix I
Policies and Procedures
of the Upper New York Annual Conference
Regarding Reports and Other Legislative Items Petitions & Resolutions
Work of the Committee on Petitions & Resolutions

1. Effective Action. The original policies and procedures regarding petitions and resolutions were approved by the Upper New York Annual Conference meeting in session, 2011. The updates contained herein shall be effective starting in 2013. They collectively or individually shall remain in effect until changed by the Annual Conference in subsequent sessions.
2. Changing the Policies and Procedures. After initial approval in 2011, proposals for changes in the standing policies and procedures regarding petitions and resolutions will be submitted by the Committee on Petitions and Resolutions to the Committee on Rules. The Committee on Rules will consider such proposals for changes in policies and procedures (and may, itself, initiate recommended changes) and will make its recommendations to the Commission on Sessions and to the Annual Conference.
3. Scope of These Policies and Procedures, and the Responsibilities of the Committee on Petitions and Resolutions. The Committee on Petitions and Resolutions shall be responsible for all aspects of the organizing and processing of Petitions, Resolutions, and other items of a legislative nature through those portions of the Annual Conference Session designated for "Holy Conferencing" by the Commission on Sessions. This shall include items addressed to the Annual Conference itself for action and/or implementation, as well as those seeking action and/or implementation from elsewhere within the Church (connectional and ecumenical), or from society at large.
4. Committee Budget and Meetings Committee on Petitions and Resolutions financial needs shall be included in the Annual Conference budgets and expenditures. When feasible, and at the discretion of the chair and the advice of the resident bishop, technological assistance in performing committee work will occur in place of face-to-face committee meetings.
5. Definition: "Petition" A "petition" is a document that requests a specific action of the Annual Conference itself, the Northeastern Jurisdictional Conference of The United Methodist Church, or The General Conference of The United Methodist Church. When addressed to the Annual Conference or the Jurisdictional Conference, this action may be a request to modify the Rules, procedures, and/or the Polity of the Conference. When addressed to the General Conference, this action may be to modify (a portion of) The Book of Discipline; it may be to uphold (a portion of) The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church; or it may be to modify a Rule of Order of The General Conference of The United Methodist Church. A "modification" is an addition, a deletion, or other change.
6. Definition: "Resolution" A "resolution" is a document that states something that the Upper New York Annual Conference, itself, resolves to be a Conference position, a statement of understanding, or a call to action. When sent to the General Conference, the action may be to modify (through addition, deletion, or other change), to renew, and/or to uphold a portion of The Book of Resolutions of The United Methodist Church.
7. Definition: "Other Legislative Items" There may be items requiring legislative action that are neither Petitions nor Resolutions as described above. An example is the Conference Budget.
8. Standardization and Publication of Format for Petitions to The General Conference Each petition will follow the format required by the General Conference. Additionally, for the information of the Annual Conference in session, there may be brief and separate additional written explanatory comments in a preface to the petition. The Annual Conference secretary will place the format on the Conference's website as soon as he or she has received it from the General Conference secretary.
9. Standardization and Publication of Format for Resolutions to The General Conference Each resolution will follow the format required by the General Conference for resolutions. Additionally, for the information of the Annual Conference in session, there may be brief and separate additional written explanatory comments in a preface to the resolution. The Annual Conference secretary will place the format on the Conference's website as soon as he or she has received it from the General Conference secretary. Each resolution to the Annual Conference will indicate the appropriate Annual Conference agency or office designated for implementing it and for future reporting on its status at the next Annual Conference session. If a resolution directs the Annual Conference secretary to write a letter, the resolution shall include the complete title(s) and postal address(es) of the person(s) to receive the letter.

10. Items with Financial Impact A resolution that has financial impact shall be referred to the Conference Council on Finance and Administration (CCFA) for its recommendation concerning the fundability of the resolution. This recommendation shall address such things as the appropriateness of expending funds for the implementation of this resolution; the availability of funds from within existing budgets for the implementation of this proposed resolution; the appropriateness of raising new funds for the implementation of this proposed resolution; etc. The recommendation from CCFA will be attached as a permanent part of the original resolution; it shall be required before any action can be taken by any of the District Conferences or the Annual Conference.
11. Identification of Originator Each petition and resolution from an individual shall include the name of the originating individual, her or his postal address, e-mail address (if any), phone number(s), and local United Methodist church affiliation. If the petition or resolution is from a local church or a local church council, a Pastor or a Lay Member of the Annual Conference from that local church shall assume the role of the originator unless there is an explicit identification of a different originator. If the petition or resolution is from a district or a district conference, the District Superintendent or the District Lay Leader shall assume the role of the originator unless there is an explicit identification of a different originator. If the petition or resolution is from a district agency or annual conference agency, the chairperson of that agency or an explicitly identified designee of the chairperson shall assume the role of the originator. If the petition or resolution is from a general church agency or a denominationally recognized caucus, it shall include the explicit identification of an originator with complete contact information. Only petitions and resolutions submitted from within the Annual Conference shall be considered.
12. Assistance by the Committee The Committee on Petitions and Resolutions shall assist, as requested by them, any individuals, local churches, districts, agencies, or denominationally recognized caucuses, within the Upper New York Annual Conference, in the writing of petitions or resolutions. The Committee will not alter the intent (content or substance) of petitions and resolutions before submitting them to the session. Such assistance must be requested in a timely manner, well before the submission deadline.
13. Submission Deadline Petitions and resolutions for consideration by the Annual Conference in session shall be received electronically by the Chairperson of the Committee on Petitions and Resolutions before 1 February. The Committee on Petitions and Resolutions will process these legislative items as described elsewhere herein for distribution by the Director of Communications for use at the District and Annual Conferences.
14. Identical or Similar Petitions or Resolutions Identical or similar petitions and/or resolutions may be combined by the Committee on Petitions and Resolutions. The names of the originating petitions and resolutions shall be cited by the Committee.
15. Distribution Petitions and resolutions that fulfill the format required by the Annual Conference shall be posted by the Committee on Petitions and Resolutions on the Annual Conference's website by 1 April.
16. Ownership Petitions and resolutions become the property of the Annual Conference when received by the Conference Secretary.
17. Presenting, Debating, Amending, etc., of Petitions, Resolutions, and Other Legislative Items in Plenary Session Each petition, resolution, and other legislative item will be presented to the session by the Petitions and Resolutions Committee chairperson (or her or his designee), at times designated by the Commission on Sessions' Agenda Committee for Holy Conferencing. The Committee on Petitions and Resolutions shall organize these presentations within the times designated for Holy Conferencing. After moving (and seconding if necessary) the legislative item, its originator or the designee of the originator shall be allowed up to five minutes to summarize it. The process of debate shall include up to three speakers in support of the item and up to three speakers in opposition to the item, speaking in alternating order for not more than three minutes each, followed by a summary statement of no more than three minutes by the originator. With the exception of the originator, no individual may speak, more than once to any specific item. This process of debate may be superseded for an entire session of the Annual Conference by the provisions contained within the Conference Secretary's Organizational Motion; it may also be superseded for the debate on a specific item through a motion to "Suspend the Rules", approved by a vote of two-thirds of those present and voting. Legislative items originating from agencies of the Annual Conference do not require seconds. In the case of a legislative item originating from more than one source, the originator of the first legislative item received by the Committee on Petitions and Resolutions shall be considered its originator. Legislative items, once moved, may be amended on the floor, in accordance with the Rules of The General Conference and Robert's Rules of Order. Also, in accordance with the Rules of The General Conference and Robert's Rules of Order, substitute motions may be received. Amendments and the main motion shall require a simple majority of those present and voting unless a super-majority is required by Conference Rules. The originator also shall be permitted to be the last speaker for one minute for each proposed amendment, as well as the last speaker prior to the final vote on the entire petition or resolution. Otherwise, the other existing rules of the Conference shall apply to the consideration of legislative item.

18. Presence of Originator No petition or resolution shall be considered by the session or a sub-group of the session without the presence of the originator as named in the petition or resolution – or the presence of a person designated by her or him. If the originator is not a member of the Annual Conference with privileges of voice and vote, the Chair of the Committee on Petitions and Resolutions shall move for a suspension of the Rules (requiring a two-thirds vote) to enable the originator to address the Conference. If the Rules are not suspended, the Chair of the Committee on Petitions and Resolutions shall speak on behalf of the originator.
19. Forwarding of Petitions The Secretary of the Annual Conference shall forward to the appropriate General Conference or the Northeastern Jurisdictional Conference officer, all petitions of the Upper New York Annual Conference, per the instructions of the General Conference or Northeastern Jurisdictional Conference rules and secretaries. The exact vote count will not be forwarded, unless required by the General or Northeastern Jurisdictional Conference rules that year.
20. Forwarding of Letters The Secretary of the Annual Conference shall forward the will of the Conference to the person(s) indicated by the approved resolution (as amended). A copy of this letter also shall be sent by the Conference secretary to: the originator(s) of the resolution; the chairperson of the Committee on Petitions and Resolutions; and the chairperson(s) of the relevant Annual Conference agency(ies). These letters shall be sent as soon as possible, but one month of the resolution's adoption by the Annual Conference.
21. Annual Conference Agency Implementing, and Reporting of Resolutions The chairperson of the appropriate Upper New York Annual Conference agency(ies) shall monitor the agency's implementation of the resolutions. The chairperson also shall make a report to the next annual conference session regarding the implementation of resolutions approved by the previous session and the observed results.
22. Summary Items of all kinds (including reports with and without action items, resolutions, and petitions) to be placed on the agenda of the Annual Conference shall be submitted to the Chairperson of the Committee on Petitions and Resolutions by districts, local churches, conference boards and agencies, district boards and agencies, individual members of The United Methodist Church, and others authorized to do so, in accordance with the schedule approved by the Commission on Sessions.

Appendix II
Equalization Lay Members

I. The Constitution (¶32 of The Book of Discipline 2012) and Discipline (¶602.4 of The Book of Discipline 2012) of The United Methodist Church require that the number of Lay Members of each Annual Conference be augmented, through the addition of "Equalization Lay Members" (with voice and vote) so as to equal the number of Clergy Members in the Annual Conference concerned. The means for electing these Equalization Lay Members is left to the discretion of each Annual Conference.

II. The Conference Secretary shall, at the close of each calendar year, determine the number of Equalization Lay Members to be needed at the following Session of the Annual Conference by calculating the difference between the number of Clergy Members of the Annual Conference and the number of Lay Members to be elected by the respective Local Charge Conferences. This number shall be reported, promptly, to the Cabinet, the Chair of the Sessions Committee, and the Chair of the Rules Committee.

III. The Chair of the Rules Committee shall create a prioritized list of potential nominees to serve as Equalization Lay Members. Lay persons who are the elected members from their Local Charge Conferences will not be included on this list. This list, with reserves if it exceeds the number of Equalization Lay Members needed as determined by the Conference Secretary, and reserves beyond that number, shall be published and distributed by the Conference Secretary with other pre-conference materials, and incorporated by reference into the Conference Secretary's Organizational Motion so that these nominees to serve as Equalization Lay Members (and Reserve Equalization Lay Members) can be duly nominated and elected as a first order of business of the Annual Conference. (Persons who are beyond the number specified by the Conference Secretary who might otherwise be qualified to serve as Equalization Lay Members shall be eligible to serve as Reserve Equalization Lay Members.)

IV. General Rules and Limitations

A. All Lay Members of the Annual Conference, with the exception of youth, must be Professing Members of The United Methodist Church. Persons who are not Professing Members of The United Methodist Church may be granted voice without vote at Sessions of the Annual Conference. These persons shall not count toward the total number of Equalization Lay Members to be elected.

B. No Lay Person shall be eligible to serve simultaneously both as an Elected Lay Member (from a Local Charge Conference) and as Equalization Lay Member at the same Session of the Annual Conference. Election from a Local Charge Conference shall have precedence over election to serve as an Equalization Lay Member.

C. No Lay Person may hold more than one Equalization Lay Membership at a single Session of the Annual Conference.

D. Clergy Members are ineligible to serve in any lay capacity.

V. The Prioritized List of Potential Nominees to serve as Equalization Lay Members shall be as follows:

A. Lay Persons, by virtue of their office, as specifically identified in ¶602.4 of The Book of Discipline 2008, during their tenure of office. This list is limited by The Discipline, and includes

1. The Conference Lay Leader.
2. The District Lay Leaders
3. The Conference President (or co-Presidents) of United Methodist Women.
4. The Conference President (or co-Presidents) of United Methodist Men.
5. The President (or co-Presidents) of the Conference Young Adults
6. The President (or co-Presidents) of the Conference Youth Organization
7. The Conference Scouting Coordinator
8. The Chair (or co-Chairs) of the Conference College Association
9. One Young Adult from each District between the ages of eighteen and thirty, inclusive, as selected by the respective District Lay Leader in consultation with the Conference and District Young Adult Organizations.

10. One Youth from each District between the ages of twelve and eighteen, inclusive, as selected by the District Lay Leader in consultation with the Conference and District Youth Organizations.
11. Diaconal Ministers, as defined by ¶602.2 of The Book of Discipline 2008.
12. Deaconesses and Home Missioners as recognized by the General Board of Global Ministries, defined by ¶1314 of The Book of Discipline 2008, and identified by the Conference Secretary in accordance with ¶1314.3c of The Book of Discipline 2008.

Insofar as this list is disciplinary, it must be included in full, even if the number of persons listed exceeds the Conference Secretary's calculated total of the number of Equalization Lay Members needed.

B. Lay Supply Pastors as assigned by District Superintendents, during the tenure of their assignment. If the number of persons qualifying herein exceeds the Conference Secretary's calculated total number of Equalization Lay Members needed, the Cabinet will be consulted to establish priorities. Those who cannot be accommodated will be Alternate Equalization Lay Members.

C. Lay Persons in positions of leadership within the Annual Conference, during their tenure of office. This list includes:

1. The Associate Conference Lay Leaders.
2. The Associate District Lay Leaders
3. The Conference Director of Lay Speaking Ministries
4. The Conference Secretary of Global Ministries.
5 The President and Members of the Conference Trustees
6 The President and Members of the Conference Council on Finance and Administration
7. The Members of the Sessions Committee
8. The Chair and Members of the Conference Leadership Team.
9. The Chair and Members of the Connectional Table
10 The Conference Management Team
11. Lay Persons in roles of leadership of the various Conference Programs, Boards, Councils, Commissions, Agencies, Teams, etc. as defined in The Book of Discipline 2008, created by action of the Annual Conference or the Bishop, appearing on the Organizational Charts of the Annual Conference, identified in the Conference Rules, and/or composed of persons nominated by the Committee on Leadership Development and Nominations and elected by the Annual Conference. The determining question is that of the need of the person concerned to be present, with voice and vote, at formal meetings of the Annual Conference, in order to adequately fulfill and discharge the duties and responsibilities to which he or she has been elected or appointed.
12. Lay Persons in roles of leadership of the various functioning conference-level Agencies defined in The Book of Discipline 2008 as being a part of the organizational structure of the Annual Conference
13. The most recently elected Lay Delegates to The General Conference of The United Methodist Church and/or the Northeastern Jurisdictional Conference of The United Methodist Church.
14. Lay Members of Agencies, Boards, Councils, Commissions, Teams, etc. of The General Conference or the Northeastern Jurisdictional Conference of The United Methodist Church.

If the number of persons qualifying herein exceeds the number that can be accommodated (according to the calculation of the Conference Secretary), priorities will be determined by the Chair of the Rules Committee in consultation with the Conference Lay Leader on the basis of the need of the respective candidates to be present, with voice and vote, at formal meetings of the Annual Conference in order to fulfill and discharge their duties and responsibilities to the Annual Conference. Those who cannot be so accommodated will be Alternate Equalization Lay Members.

D. After the foregoing have been accommodated, the remaining Equalization Lay Memberships (if any) will be divided as equally as possible among the respective districts of the Annual Conference, with the remainders of this division being shifted among the districts on an annual basis. These Equalization Memberships will be awarded by the respective District Lay Leaders in consultation with organizations within the district. Youth (in consultation with district youth leadership) should be given a priority for at least one-third of these memberships, these youth members shall be in excess of the disciplinary youth memberships mentioned above. Attention should also be given to unrepresented local churches on multi-point charges, to persons who are able to bring wisdom and experience of value to the Annual Conference, and to the guidelines for inclusivity found in ¶139 of The Book of Discipline 2008.

Appendix III
Policies and Procedures regarding Elections of General and Jurisdictional Conference Delegates
Upper New York Annual Conference

I. Effective Action.

These policies and procedures regarding elections to General and/or Jurisdictional Conferences by the Upper New York Annual Conference shall be in effect upon approval by the Upper New York Annual Conference meeting in session, 2015. They collectively or individually shall remain in effect until changed by the Annual Conference in subsequent sessions.

II. Goals.

The goals of these policies and procedures are to provide a simple, transparent, and equitable process, together with adequate information, for the election of members of General and Jurisdictional Conferences from the Annual Conference.

III. Changing the Policies and Procedures.

After initial approval in 2011, proposals for changes in these Policies and Procedures regarding elections to General and/or Jurisdictional Conferences will be submitted to the Committee on Rules. The Committee will consider such proposals for changes in policies and procedures (and may, itself, initiate recommended changes) and will make its recommendations to the Commission on Sessions and the Annual Conference.

IV. The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church 2008.

The references regarding elections to the General and to Jurisdictional Conferences found in The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church 2008 (See Attachment A) and in subsequent editions thereof as approved by The General Conference of The United Methodist Church will serve as the foundation pieces for these policies and procedures of the Annual Conference and will not be abridged or amended in any manner. Every person involved in any way in the election will become knowledgeable with the Disciplinary provisions. The Committee on Rules shall, prior to the third year of each quadrennium, incorporate into these Policies and Procedures those changes that have been implied and/or mandated by actions of The General Conference and included in subsequent editions of The Book of Discipline.

V. Election Process to Be Shared Quadrennially.

These Policies and Procedures (as revised) will be shared in appropriate Annual Conference publications (e.g., website and conference newspaper) in the third year of each quadrennium, by the Committee on Rules of the Commission on Sessions.

VI. Invitation to Submit.

Laity and clergy who meet Disciplinary eligibility requirements and who wish to offer themselves as candidates for election by the Annual Conference to General and Jurisdictional Conferences will complete and submit the following information on the "Candidate Information Sheet" to the Committee on Rules before a date consistent with the schedule established by the Commission on Sessions (See Attachment B). The submission will be electronic and on the form provided on the Annual Conference website.

A. Her or his name, postal address, telephone number(s), e-mail address, year of initial membership in The United Methodist Church, location of current local church membership, and district

B. A statement of ability to serve, if elected, including to participate actively in pre-conference meetings of the delegation throughout the previous year and, following the conferences, to share regarding your service as a delegate.

D. A statement (between 100—200 words and single-spaced) regarding why he or she is offering herself or himself as a candidate. Statements of excessive length will be truncated by the Committee on Rules

VII. Posting of Candidates' Data.

The Committee on Rules, working in concert with the Annual Conference's Director of Communications, will have posted candidates' data on the website, six weeks prior to the Session of the Annual Conference at which the elections are to take place.

VIII. Campaigning.

Prior to the elections and during the elections, the will of the Holy Spirit will be sought. Conference members may engage in prayer, conversation, and holy conferencing. "Campaigning" by mailings, buttons, or other promotional means, by, for, or against any person who has offered herself or himself as a candidate is prohibited.

IX. Candidate Introductions.

During the year in which elections are to take place, candidates shall be introduced on the following occasions: at the Laity Session of the Annual Conference session for lay candidates, and at Clergy Session of the Annual Conference session for clergy candidates. There shall be no campaigning during these introductions. A "candidate" is a person who completed and submitted the Candidate Information Sheet to the Committee on Rules. It is anticipated that at the laity and the clergy sessions, large screen projections will be used.

X. Balloting.

A. Balloting will be by written or electronic ballot, as determined quadrennially by the Commission on Sessions. Electronic ballots prepared in advance for the election of Lay Delegates will include the names of all of the persons who have submitted "Candidate Information Sheets" in accordance with the procedure described above, and will allow for the addition of "write-in" candidates. Electronic ballots prepared in advance for the election of Clergy Delegates will include the names of all eligible clergy members of Conference, whether or not they have submitted "Candidate Information Sheets." "Write-in" candidates on ballots for Clergy Delegates will be permitted only to correct errors of omission on the prepared ballots.
B. Prior to the first ballot being cast, the presiding bishop will remind the body of United Methodism's inclusivity. After balloting has begun, no one will speak, directly or by implication, for or against any candidate for any reason, including, but not limited to, age, giftedness, ethnicity, gender, physical ability, theology, or geography.
C. Any person who did not submit the Candidate Information Sheet, by the date specified by the Commission on Sessions, but receives twenty-five (25) or more ballots cast for her or him on the first ballot, shall be added (manually by lay members on Lay Delegate ballots) to future ballots. He or she may prepare and place on the Conference registration table printed copies of her or his responses to the "Candidate Information Sheet" that was not previously submitted. He or she will be introduced before the second ballot, if present, or as soon as possible.
D. After all delegates to the General and Jurisdictional Conferences have been elected, an additional ballot shall be cast. The clergy and the laypersons receiving the highest numbers will be elected as alternates to the N.E.J, according to the numbers needed.
E. If the scheduled time for final adjournment is within one hour without the necessary delegates having been elected, a final ballot will be taken and those receiving the highest number of votes will be elected, in order as delegates and alternates according to the numbers needed.
F. After the first ballot, any subsequent ballot that contains the name of a person who did not complete and submit the Candidate Information Sheet, by the date specified by the Commission on Sessions, or who did not fulfill "C", above, will be invalid.
G. Any ballot that contains more or fewer names than there are places to be filled on that ballot will be invalid.
H. Any ballot that contains the name of a person already elected will be invalid.
I. Any ballot that is not marked, in the opinion of the head teller(s), according to the instructions given by the presiding officer or secretary, will be invalid.

J. A majority of the valid ballots cast will be required to elect.
K. In the event that a larger number of persons than there are places to be filled receive a majority, then the person or persons receiving the highest number of votes will be declared elected to the total number of places to be filled.
L. A tie vote between two or more persons, when but one place remains to be filled, will be disregarded and another ballot cast.
M. Unless otherwise stipulated above, the sessions' standing rules otherwise shall apply.

XI. Delegation.
A. The delegation will consist of all elected delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conferences and the elected alternates.
B. At a time and place determined by the presiding bishop, the delegation will meet at the site of the Annual Conference. The bishop will offer prayer, will introduce each member of the delegation, and will offer whatever assistance he or she may wish.
C. The delegation leader for 2012-16 will be the first lay person elected. In subsequent quadrennia, the delegation leader will alternate between the first clergy person elected and the first layperson elected. The delegation's vice-leader for 2012-16 will be the first clergy person elected. In subsequent quadrennia, the delegation's vice-leader will alternate between the first layperson elected and the first clergy person elected.
D. The Annual Conference Council on Finance and Administration will provide for the financial support of at least four delegation meetings during the year prior to the General Conference. Dates will be determined by the delegation and places in concert with that board or agency.
E. Agenda of meetings of the delegation shall include worship; fellowship; attending to logistical matters; and expert-led discussions regarding selected General and Jurisdictional topics.
F. The delegation may ask a delegate who misses more than two consecutive, unexcused meetings to withdraw as a member of the delegation.
G. The Annual Conference Council on Finance and Administration shall provide for at least one laity alternate (next elected) and one clergy alternate (next elected) to attend the General Conference session and the Jurisdictional conference session. This financial support will be equivalent to what a delegate receives according to General Conference or Northeastern Jurisdictional Conference rules. The on-site alternates will facilitate the work of the delegation and its members and will be seated as delegates, when appropriate.

Appendix IV
Nomination of Candidates for Election to the Episcopacy

In accordance with the Constitution and The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church (¶¶46 and 405), the responsibility for electing persons to The United Methodist Council of Bishops and the respective Jurisdictional Colleges of Bishops rests with the Jurisdictional Conferences. The respective Annual Conferences may nominate candidates for election to the episcopacy by their Jurisdictional Conferences. The purpose of this Appendix is to establish a procedure whereby the members of the Upper New York Annual Conference, and the Annual Conference itself, may participate in the process of nominating candidates to the Northeastern Jurisdictional Conference. The Book of Discipline (¶405) specifically prohibits the binding of any delegate to vote for any specific candidate seeking election to the episcopacy.

During the year preceding the convening of the Jurisdictional Conference, the most recently elected Delegates to the Jurisdictional Conference shall serve as a "nominating committee" for the nomination of candidates to the Annual Conference for nomination by the Annual Conference to the Jurisdictional Conference. The Jurisdictional Delegation shall solicit the membership of the Annual Conference (including the members of the Delegation itself) for recommendations and self-recommendations of persons eligible for election to and service on the episcopacy (¶¶402, 408). The Delegation, guided by The Book of Discipline (¶403) and using procedures of its own design, shall discern the gifts and graces of each and every person so recommended, and shall recommend to the Session of the Annual Conference immediately preceding the convening of the Jurisdictional Conference the nomination of persons discerned by the Delegation to have the gifts and graces for episcopal service. The Annual Conference may nominate none, any, and all of these persons recommended by the Delegation. The Annual Conference can also consider persons nominated directly from the floor. Candidacy is not limited to clergy members of The Upper New York Annual Conference; any person meeting disciplinary requirements (¶¶402 and 408.1) may be recommended.

As a part of the solicitation for recommendations from the membership of the Annual Conference, the Delegation will specify the nature of the materials to be included in the recommendation. These shall include contact information, academic preparation, pastoral appointments, a listing of past and present church responsibilities (both denominational and ecumenical), and reasons for the recommendation. There shall also be included a brief statement (less than 200 words) as to why the person being recommended feels that he/she will, in his/her own words, bring the kind of episcopal leadership that the Church needs at this point in time.

The Delegation shall distribute candidate recommendations for persons nominated by the Delegation through registration packets at Annual Conference. Persons nominated on the floor may distribute comparable materials when their names are submitted.

Appendix V
Procedure for the Nomination of Candidates to be Elected to Certain General and Jurisdictional Agencies of The United Methodist Church by the Northeastern Jurisdictional Conference (¶705)

One of the functions of the quadrennial Jurisdictional Conference is the election of persons to serve on specific agencies of the General Church for the coming quadrennium. Nominations for these positions are made by the Jurisdictional Nominating Committee to the Jurisdictional Conference based upon a "pool" of nominees (including both clergy and laity)approved by each of the respective annual conferences within the Jurisdictional Conference. It is the responsibility of the Bishop and the Jurisdictional Delegation to present the pool of candidates for endorsement by the annual conference session immediately preceding the meeting of the Jurisdictional Conference. The following procedure is to be used in guiding this process.

1. All members of the General Conference Delegation are to be included in the pool

2. At least fifteen and not more than forty-five additional persons are to be included in the pool
   a. Persons presently serving on a general agency, and wishing to continue serving on the same or a different agency may be included in the pool. The electability of these persons by Jurisdictional Conference will be subject to a variety of term limits.
   b. Members of the Jurisdictional Delegation (including Reserves) not elected to the General Conference may be included as additional members of the pool.
   c. The total pool should include between one and five persons in of each of the following categories: clergy (including at least one clergy-woman), laywomen, laymen, youth (ages 12-16) young adults (ages 17-28) older adults (over 65), and persons with disabilities. Each name presented to the Jurisdictional Nominating Committee should include an indication of all appropriate categories.
   d. If possible the total pool should include at least two persons from each of the following recognized ethnic groups: Asian American, African American, Hispanic American, Native American, and Pacific Islander.

3. Effective in 2016, forms for nomination and/or self-nomination to the pool will be distributed electronically with Conference pre-registration forms and available in hard-copy at pre-conference briefings and district conferences. They must be turned in at the registration table at annual conference. A completed nomination form will include name and other contact information; category (item 2c above), ethnicity if appropriate (item 2d above); three preferences as to the agencies on which the applicant would like to serve, together with reasons for volunteering for such service; a listing of past services to their district, the annual conference, the jurisdictional conference, the general church, and/or ecumenical agencies; and a list of church memberships or pastoral appointments.

2015-16 Clergy Support Policies of the Upper New York Annual Conference

This policy document is composed of policies approved by multiple agencies of the Upper New York Conference. The agency responsible for each section or sub-section is noted in parentheses.

I. Minimum Base Compensation (Comm. On Equitable Compensation)

A standardized minimum base compensation is established for The Upper New York Annual Conference that requires the following:

A. A minimum base salary, set according to credential level, for all full time clergy persons as follows:

	Base
Full connection (elder & deacon):	$39,200
Provisional:	$37,800
Associate:	$37,100
FT LP completed Course of Study or MDiv	$36,400
FT Local Pastor:	$35,000

(Less than full time appointments shall receive a base salary pro-rated according to the appointment.)

B. Plus an additional amount for years of service using the following schedule(s) based on the goal of attaining 1% of minimum salary per year of full time equivalent service up to 25 years:

Full	Provisional	Associate	FTLP w/MDiv	FTLP	per year of FTE service up to
$276	$270	$268	$266	$260	19 years

C. Plus an additional $500 for each additional church on the pastoral charge (over one), not adjusted for part time appointments.

D. No pastor's salary can be decreased as a result of this policy, as long as they retain their current appointment.

E. All churches are strongly encouraged to offer a gross salary increase of no less than the percentage increase in Conference Average Compensation (.8% for 2016) in order to account for increases in the costs of living. Churches are encouraged to consider further raises based on exceptional service.

II. Clergy Housing Policy (Comm. On Equitable Compensation)

In the United Methodist Church, housing is provided to clergy. While the parsonage remains the normative provision of housing, some parishes prefer to offer, and some clergy prefer to receive, a housing allowance instead. The complexities of contemporary economics, local church resources and pastoral households make it less likely that a "one size fits all" housing provision best meets the needs of every situation. Local churches and clergy both need to carefully weigh the advantages and disadvantages, especially if considering a change from one to the other.

A. Values and Considerations

The Upper New York Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church believes that congregations and clergy benefit when clergy and their families live in buildings which are safe, clean, comfortable, and as commodious as the average home in their community. It is required that clergy housing will meet all applicable local and state residential codes. As faithful stewards of the earth and other limited resources, congregations and clergy are encouraged to make clergy housing as energy efficient as possible. In order to be as welcoming as possible, consideration should be given to making clergy housing accessible to residents or guests with mobility challenges.

Local churches may prefer to provide a housing allowance for a variety of reasons: less property to maintain and repair, more predictable budget implications, and no "landlord" issues with their pastor. Likewise, clergy households may prefer a housing allowance for other reasons, such as: accumulation of equity, allowance for differing clergy household needs, ability to locate in a desired location, freedom to renovate and refurbish as desired, and no "tenant" relationship with parishioners.

However, it is also to be acknowledged that tension may exist between the appointive/itinerant system of clergy deployment and the housing allowance system. Pastoral appointments are made on an annual basis at the will of the bishop. The financial advantage to long-term clergy home ownership may be at odds with a short-term need or desire for a pastoral transition. It must be understood by all that the provision of a housing allowance or parsonage shall not be a primary consideration by the bishop and cabinet for future appointments for the pastor. Further, a local church that has a parsonage available to the pastor is under no obligation to provide a housing allowance if that pastor prefers to live in a different location.

B. Parsonages

1. Relationships and Responsibility

The parsonage is to be mutually respected by the pastor's family as the property of the church and by the church as a place of privacy for the pastor's family. (Book of Discipline of the UMC, ¶ 258.2.g.16)

The chairperson of the Staff-Parish Relations Committee, the chairperson of the Board of Trustees or the chairperson of the Parsonage Committee, if one exists, and the pastor shall make an annual inspection and review of the church-owned parsonage to assure proper maintenance. (Book of Discipline of the UMC, ¶ 258.2.g.16, and ¶ 2532.4)

The church shall provide a parsonage which addresses the values noted above and the standards listed below. Standard maintenance and repairs, and renovation of the parsonage are the responsibility of the church. The Trustees or Parsonage Committee shall arrange, supervise, and arrange payment for such tasks. Necessary work shall be scheduled in consultation with the pastor. The church and the pastor shall work together to develop a process to assure timely, good quality repairs and maintenance.

- Parsonages with a wood burning heat source must have a professional chimney inspection (and cleaning if necessary) at least every 2 years.
- The pastor shall furnish the house to suit his or her needs.
- The pastor is responsible for notifying the church about necessary repairs as the need arises.
- The pastor is responsible for the repair of damages exceeding normal wear and tear.
- The church, in consultation with the pastor, is responsible for lawn care and snow removal.
- The church shall pay for insurance, heat, electricity, garbage and trash removal, water and sewer, basic telephone service (landline or cell), and installation fees for cable or satellite television service if broadcast reception is inadequate.
- Churches that expect pastors to have access to the internet away from the church should pay for internet access at the parsonage.
- The pastor shall pay for personal toll calls and communication services beyond those provided by the church.

If a pastor is appointed to serve more than one local congregation, all congregations shall share equitably the costs and other responsibilities of providing a parsonage. If more than one congregation has a parsonage, the parsonage of residence shall be determined by the District Superintendent in consultation with the appointed pastor and the congregations.

If a parsonage is occupied by a clergy couple serving different appointments, all congregations served shall share equitably and reasonably the costs and responsibilities of providing a parsonage. The parsonage of residence and shared cost responsibilities shall be determined by the District Superintendent in consultation with the appointed pastors and affected congregations.

Adherence to this policy by both clergy and congregation is essential to the appointment covenant. Failure to adhere to this policy by either clergy or congregation may jeopardize current and future appointments.

2. Parsonage Standards

Parsonages shall have at least 3 bedrooms, 1.5 bathrooms, a kitchen, dining room, living room, laundry facilities, appropriate storage capacity, and provision for 2 parking spaces. All shall be in good repair and meet all applicable local and state health and safety codes. The parsonage shall be at least the size of the average home in its community.

The church is responsible for providing a furnished office or study for the pastor. While it is preferable to locate this office in the church or another church building, if necessary it may be a separate, additional room in the parsonage. If the Pastor's primary office is located in the parsonage, it must have its own, separate, outside entrance and unencumbered windows, in accordance with Safe Sanctuary policies.

3. Rooms and Spaces

   a. Bedrooms should be large enough to contain a bed, adequate storage for clothing (dresser and closet, or dresser and wardrobe), and a desk and chair or a reading area. It is preferable to have at least one fully accessible bedroom on the ground floor of the house

   b. Bathroom facilities shall include: a toilet and sink on each floor, a tub, a shower, a medicine cabinet, and storage space for linens and supplies in or near the main bathroom. It is preferable to have at least 2 complete bathrooms including a fully accessible, complete bathroom on the ground floor.

   c. The kitchen shall contain at least: a standard size stove and oven, a refrigerator with freezer, a dishwasher, built-in cabinets or pantry, a full-size sink, adequate counter space, and wall and floor finishes which can be kept clean.

   d. Living and dining rooms should be large enough to accommodate 4-6 residents plus guests. A combined living and dining room is acceptable if large enough to fully accommodate both functions.

   e. Laundry facilities shall be accessible from the interior of the house and include: an automatic washer and dryer, and storage for supplies. It is preferable to be able to conceal the laundry area and even better to have a separate laundry room with a sink and space to sort and fold. It is preferable to have these facilities fully accessible and on the ground floor.

   f. Parking shall be off-street, preferably in a garage located on the parsonage property.

4. Systems

   a. Heating, Ventilation, and Cooling - The parsonage shall be equipped with central heating capable of maintaining a temperature of 68 degrees in all rooms. Windows shall be in good repair and operable to provide adequate ventilation. Full bathrooms should have adequate ventilation to prevent excessive moisture build-up. Adequate passive or mechanical air cooling should be provided.

   b. Electrical System - Wiring, outlets, and fixtures should be safe and adequate to meet the lighting and technology needs of a modern household.

   c. Water - Hot and cold, potable, running water shall be available in the kitchen, bathrooms, and laundry area in amounts suitable to the needs of a family. In areas with hard water, water softeners shall be installed and maintained. Leaks of any kind are not acceptable.

   d. Safety, Security, and Environment - Parsonages shall be equipped with properly maintained CO detectors and smoke alarms, and have fire extinguishers in kitchen, furnace room, near fireplaces, pellet stoves or wood stoves, and near bedrooms. Radon testing shall be done periodically and remedial measures taken if necessary. Visible mold and moldy odors shall not be present.

      Where necessary for the safety of children and/or vulnerable adults, yards and outside spaces shall be adequately enclosed. Entrance lights shall have switches by the door, be motion activated, and/or be operable remotely. All parsonages shall be equipped with secure locks/deadbolts. If there are further safety concerns, the pastor and the church may wish to explore installing an alarm system.

   e. Communications - The parsonage shall have a reliable telephone system, adequate TV connection and internet access.

   f. Interior finishes - Floors, walls, and fixtures shall be in good condition with coverings which are suitable for the function of the room and in good repair.

   g. Exterior - The roof, exterior walls, exterior doors, windows, and foundation of the parsonage shall be carefully maintained to keep out the elements pests, and to conserve energy. The house shall be adequately insulated. It is preferable to have energy efficient doors and windows that suit the architecture of the house as much as possible.

      i. Porches and decks shall be maintained to insure their safety. Exterior faces and spaces of the building(s) and yard shall be designed and maintained to be functional for the family, and to be a pleasant addition to the community.

5. Waivers and Exceptions

If the minimum standards described above cannot be met because of the age or historic character of the house, the charge must propose alternatives which afford an equivalent quality of life to that set by these standards. Any such changes must be approved by the District Superintendent. It is understood that such changes will not compromise the safety provisions of these standards, the overall functionality of the parsonage, or the mandate that it be kept in good repair. It should be noted that the accessibility preferences described above are mandated when purchasing or building a new parsonage. (Book of Discipline of the UMC, ¶ 2543.3b)

6. Transition Protocols

Prior to a pastor's move, but no more often than every 5 years, a certified building inspector shall inspect the parsonage so that the congregation can plan necessary maintenance and repairs. If a pastor is moving and the parsonage has had a professional inspection within the past 5 years, this pre-move inspection may be performed by the outgoing pastor, the chairperson of the SPRC, and the chairperson of the Board of Trustees and/or the chairperson of the Parsonage Committee or their designates.

The outgoing pastor shall leave the parsonage clean and in good order. As soon as possible after a change in appointment is announced, the Trustees or Parsonage Committee shall inspect the parsonage for maintenance needs and damage caused by the outgoing residents, including damage caused by pets. If excessive damage is discovered it will be the responsibility of the outgoing pastor to repair, pay for repairs of, or replace the damaged item(s). When the pastor or family has allowed smoking within the parsonage, the cost of professional cleaning, and purchase of an air purifier if necessary, to remove smoke odor will be the responsibility of the outgoing pastor.

The charge shall refurbish, repair and thoroughly clean the parsonage prior to a new pastor moving in. Damaged walls, ceilings, floors, windows, fixtures and appliances shall be repaired or replaced. Painted surfaces shall be cleaned or repainted. Carpets shall be thoroughly steam cleaned or replaced; replacement is required if the carpet is torn, excessively worn, or permanently stained. Windows shall be cleaned inside and out. In the event that such work requires that the incoming pastor must make temporary living arrangements, related expenses will be paid by the receiving church.

It is recommended that a photographic record of house and yard, including each room's condition and contents, be created and filed for reference and planning purposes.

7. Treatment of Parsonage Value in Compensation Packages

The General Board of Pension & Health Benefits provides the following guidance: When a parsonage is provided, it will be valued at 25% of salary for benefit computation purposes. In a multi-church appointment, this factor is added to salary for all churches served by the pastor, regardless of which church owns the parsonage in which the clergy person lives.

a. If a clergy couple is serving separate churches and each church/charge has a parsonage available, each clergyperson's entire compensation will include a parsonage value equal of 25% of salary regardless of where the clergy couple lives. [Note: only the fair rental value of the occupied parsonage is reported by the clergy couple as part of self-employment income]

b. However, if a clergy couple is serving separate churches, and is living in a parsonage provided by one of the churches with no parsonage offered or available from the other church, only the clergyperson serving the church which provides the parsonage will have the parsonage value added to salary.

C. Housing Allowance

All full-time clergy appointed to a full-time charge or a Conference-responsible extension ministry shall be provided either a parsonage or a housing allowance. In the event that an appointment has already moved to providing a housing allowance for their pastor and a parsonage is no longer available the charge will negotiate an appropriate housing allowance with the incoming pastor. A housing allowance enjoyed by a pastor appointed to charge "A" will not necessarily translate into a housing allowance for that same pastor when s/he is appointed to charge "B."

Housing allowances shall exist in accordance with the following policy or successive policies as determined by future sessions of the Annual Conference:

1. The housing allowance policy will be in effect from the time the charge moves from providing a physical parsonage to a housing allowance for the current pastor or an incoming pastor. Once the charge makes the transition to providing a housing allowance, that charge shall not be required to return to providing a physical parsonage. In the event that the charge wishes to do so, see item #4 below.

2. Charges that elect to provide a housing allowance shall do so at a charge/church conference chaired by the District Superintendent after and only after following the steps outlined in item #3 below.

3. A housing allowance agreement shall be drawn up by the local charge (the Staff/Parish Relations Committee and the Board of Trustees, in consultation with the District Superintendent, should be involved in this process as a joint effort). The agreement shall include the following:

    a. For the purchase of a home (house, condo, etc.) by the pastor:

        i. Costs associated with a typical annual mortgage, based upon a 20% down payment and 30 year mortgage, for a home that meets the size requirements of the Conference Parsonage Standards, to cover at minimum: monthly principle and interest costs and mortgage insurance.

        ii. Costs associated with utility expenses (heat, light, phone, basic cable, internet service if not provided in a separate church office), property taxes for a home that meets the size requirements of the Conference Parsonage Standards. This information will be provided by a reputable realtor or rental agent so a dollar range for housing may be set for the incoming pastor as s/he considers the appointment and seeks housing.

        iii. The housing allowance will be at minimum the sum of items i and ii above.

        EXAMPLE:
        i. Purchase price of home = $140,000; 20% down - $28,000; 30 year mortgage of $112,000 @ 4.75% is $585 x 12 = $7,020 annually property and school taxes of $4,000 homeowners insurance of $600
        ii. Average monthly utility expenses of gas, electric, and bundled phone/internet/tv = $345 x 12 = $4,140
        Minimum housing allowance in this example is $15,760

        iv. Charges providing a housing allowance may assist the pastor in obtaining a loan or provide a grant for down payment if needed. Any such agreement for down payment shall become a part of the housing allowance agreement.

        v. The housing allowance agreement shall be signed by the pastor, the chair of Trustees, and the chair of S/PPRC.

b. For the rental of a home (house, apartment, condo, etc.) by the pastor: The housing allowance shall be determined in accordance with item a. sub items i. through v. above. It should be noted that housing (either as an allowance or in physical form) shall be provided in accordance with parsonage standards. In the event that the appointed clergyperson chooses to expend less in a rental circumstance s/he shall be afforded the opportunity to save and invest the difference for the eventuality of providing housing for herself or himself in retirement. This provision provides for the near equivalent opportunity for the pastor to accumulate something akin to equity over the life of the housing allowance. By the same token, should the clergyperson choose to rent a home more costly than a home that meets the parsonage standards, the charge shall not be responsible for the additional costs associated with that choice.

c. A charge may use the annual income and capital gain from the sale of a parsonage over the rate of inflation to help support the housing allowance.

d. All current IRS regulations shall be met for both recording and reporting purposes.

4. A charge shall not be required to establish a parsonage after changing to a housing allowance. However, if a charge chooses to return to providing a parsonage, it shall do so only after:

a. A full and frank discussion with the clergyperson, the S/PPRC, and the local Board of Trustees.

b. An agreement dissolving the housing allowance agreement has been signed by the pastor, the chair of S/PPRC and the chair of the Board of Trustees.

c. A proposal for the purchase of a new parsonage has been completed in full accordance with the United Methodist Book of Discipline.

d. The proposed parsonage is in full compliance with current Conference Parsonage Standards.

D. Housing Exclusion

Pastors may utilize the favorable tax advantages of a housing exclusion, which does not increase the compensation package but does lower the pastor's federal income tax liability.

1. A Housing Allowance is money paid to the pastor for the purpose of housing in addition to base salary. A Housing Exclusion is the amount of a pastor's base salary that he/she declares to be excluded from taxable income as housing related expenses. Housing is exempt from Federal Income taxes but is NOT exempt from self-employment tax.

2. A pastor living in a parsonage may have a Housing Exclusion; a pastor living in his/her own home may take advantage of a Housing Exclusion in addition to the Housing Allowance. This can be accomplished by passing a resolution designating an amount greater than the housing allowance listed on the compensation package.

a. Section 107 of the IRC provides that: "In the case of a minister of the gospel, gross income does not include: 1) the rental value of a home furnished as part of compensation; or 2) the rental allowance paid as part of compensation, to the extent used to rent or provide a home and to the extent such allowance does not exceed the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances such as a garage, plus the cost of utilities."

i. A "minister of the gospel" is defined as any duly ordained, commissioned, or licensed minister of the church, who is performing substantially all of the religious duties of his/her church or denomination. The "fair rental value" is the annual amount for which a similar furnished home in a similar neighborhood could be rented, including utilities. This can be determined by formal or informal appraisal by a realtor, or by comparing actual rents advertised for similar homes in the community.

3. Below are some further guidelines regarding a Housing Exclusion:

   a. The housing exclusion must be put in place by official church action before payment is made to the pastor.

   b. The housing exclusion recognized for tax purposes is limited to the lesser of :
      i. The amount declared by the church.
      ii. The actual amount spent to provide housing.
      iii. The fair rental value as described above.

   c. The housing exclusion may be paid in the same check as the pastor's salary as long as it is identified on the stub accordingly. It may also be paid separately.

   d. Housing exclusion is not reported as part of gross income on the W-2.

   e. It is the pastor's responsibility to account for the actual amount spent on housing expenses to the IRS (not the church) if requested.

   f. If the total expenses are less than the allowance paid, the pastor must declare the excess as an addition to gross income.

   g. If the total expenses are more than the pre-defined exclusion, they do not qualify for the exclusion.

   h. The housing exclusion may be used by the pastor to pay for most non-personal type expenses incurred in providing or running a home (see list below).

4. The following items are examples of expenses paid by the pastor that may qualify as Housing Exclusion items, as applicable, and keeping in mind the limits above:
   a. Housing Expenses such as: down payment on a home, mortgage payments, home equity loan payments (if they are for home related expenses), real estate taxes, property/renters insurance, utilities

   b. Repairs and Maintenance: Structural repairs, remodeling, yard maintenance and improvements, lawn equipment and repairs, pest control, trash pickup, snow removal, tools, cleaning supplies

   c. Furniture and Decorating Accessories: Appliances, TV/VCR, stereo, furniture, drapes, pictures, rugs, linens, lamps, etc.

5. Sample Housing Allowance and/or Exclusion Resolution

WHEREAS Section 107 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 has provided that a minister of the Gospel may exclude from gross income the rental value of a home provided and any allowance to provide a home; and

WHEREAS, the Rev. _____ is a duly ordained, commissioned, or licensed minister of the church, who is performing substantially all of the religious duties of the church; and

WHEREAS, the _____ Church has established a gross salary for the Rev. _____ in the amount of $_____ for the period from _____ to _____;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that:
The use of the parsonage located at _____, plus all utilities, and $_____ of the above noted gross salary be provided to Rev. _____ to the extent it is used to provide a home, and be considered to be a Clergy Housing Exclusion and that said amount be excluded from reportable compensation under Section 107 of the IRC of 1986.
OR
$_____ of the above noted gross salary be provided to Rev. _____ to the extent it is used to provide a home, and be considered to be a Clergy Housing Exclusion and that said amount excluded from reportable compensation under Section 107 of the IRC of 1986.

III. Accountable Reimbursement Plans (Comm. On Equitable Compensation)

A. Policies and Budgeted Amounts

1. All pastors appointed within the Upper New York Annual Conference are entitled to an Accountable Reimbursement Plan (ARP) for professional expenses incurred while performing pastoral duties.
2. A minimum annual Accountable Reimbursement Plan (ARP) budget for a full time pastor shall be $3,500 for a single church appointment and $4,500 for a multi-church appointment.
3. Pastoral appointments of ¾ time, ½ time or ¼ time shall budget and pay an ARP proportionally to this standard for full-time appointments.
4. Congregations are encouraged to budget ARP above the required minimum in consideration of location-specific mileage needs and other factors.

B. Accountable Reimbursement Plan Procedures

An Accountable Reimbursement Plan (ARP) arrangement is established to reimburse business expenses and should satisfy three conditions:

1. The expense must have a connection to services performed for the church or other connected entity.
2. There must be an adequate accounting of the expense within a reasonable period of time; i.e. date, place, amount/mileage, business purpose provided at least quarterly.
3. Any excess reimbursements or advances to the pastor must be returned to the church within a reasonable period of time; i.e. 120 days, and within 30 days for end of the year expenses.

Reimbursements are not considered to be income for the pastor, but professional costs as an expense of the church. Therefore, ARP reimbursement is not included in income reporting to the IRS. The amount budgeted is reported to the Conference as a component of the compensation package, but is not considered part of salary. A pastor's salary may not be reduced to fund the Accountable Reimbursement Plan.

To implement an ARP, there needs to be a written policy or resolution established annually in advance of payment and approved at Church/Charge Conference. Payment of funds may be done

- as a reimbursement of qualified expense,
- as payment direct to vendor, or
- as an advance with subsequent documentation of expenses; or any combination of these methods.

Pastors shall submit a voucher for reimbursement of professional expenses, providing receipts for expenditures and an accounting of mileage where applicable. The specific nature or names related to pastoral visitations shall not be disclosed.

The church, in consultation with the pastor, may wish to designate certain items which it elects to have covered by this policy, such as travel, continuing education, books, subscriptions, work supplies, vestments, etc. There may be a cap or dollar amount on the total reimbursable business expenses that will be paid, for example: "The reimbursement amount shall be no more than _____ ." The church may also want to require pre-approvals by the treasurer or SPR/PPR chair of business expenses in excess of $ 500 (or any other amount deemed appropriate). The church may want to set a dollar amount for which receipts must be submitted such as purchases over $25.00. These additional requirements should be included in the policy.

C. Qualifed Expenses

Pursuant to information provided by the General Council on Finance and Administration, an example of items that are reimbursable under an Accountable Reimbursement Plan includes:

1. Trips to visit parishioners at hospitals, nursing homes, or the parishioner's home
2. Business-related meals and mileage
3. Expenses related to meetings of a connectional nature (i.e. District events, conference-level meetings, etc. Expenses for Annual Conference sessions should be budgeted as a separate line item in the church budget for both clergy and lay members, not as part of the ARP.)
4. Supplies for the church office
5. A computer required for church work
6. Vestments worn for worship
7. Church-related books and periodicals
8. Office furnishings and equipment
9. Continuing education and seminars

D. Sample Accountable Reimbursement Policy

This is a sample of an accountable reimbursement policy. The specifics of each policy should be reviewed by each church and minister considering their specific concerns. If legal or tax advice is required, the services of a competent professional advisor should be sought.

The following resolution is hereby adopted by the church council of XXXXXXXXX Church. It will be effective for the calendar year____ and all future years unless specifically revoked or superseded.

The church pastor (or other employee(s)) will be reimbursed for ordinary and necessary business expenses incurred in the performance of his or her responsibilities when he/she substantiates the amount, business purpose, date, and place of the expense. Confidentiality shall be maintained in the substantiation of pastoral visits and/or counseling.

This substantiation must be provided to the chair of the pastor parish relations committee (or church treasurer) within ninety (90) days of incurring the expense. The individual must return to the church any amounts received in excess of the substantiated expenses within one hundred twenty (120) days of receipt.

The church will not report any properly substantiated reimbursement payments as income on any Form W-2.

IV. Benefits (Conf. Bd. Of Pension & Health Benefits)

A. Pension

1. Clergy

All licensed, commissioned or ordained pastors under appointment to a United Methodist Church 50% or more are eligible to participate in the Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP). The eligible clergyperson will be enrolled unless a Waiver of Participation, notarized and filed on the prescribed form, is received in the Benefits Office. The charge shall pay the monthly CRSP Invoice.

Clergy on Incapacity Leave and Sabbatical Leave continue to accrue credit toward the Defined Benefit component of CRSP, paid by the Annual Conference. Clergy on other forms of leave, appointed to attend school, or appointed to an extension ministry outside the responsibility of the Annual Conference do not accrue "years of service" toward this benefit.

2. Lay Employees

The Book of Discipline, ¶ 258.2g(12) states that the PPRC shall recommend 100% vested pension benefits of at least 3% of compensation for lay employees who work at least 1040 hours per year. The United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP) is available to local churches for this purpose, or they may utilize other options.

B. Death and Disability

The Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP) provides death, long-term disability and other survivor benefits to eligible clergy. All full time clergy and elders or provisional members serving 75% appointed to a United Methodist Church are enrolled. Elders, Provisional Members, and Associate Members who serve less than 75% are eligible under the optional category.

A clergyperson's District Superintendent must be notified when applying for long term disability benefits and/or seeking Medical Leave status. Until and unless Medical Leave status is granted, the church to which the clergyperson is appointed remains responsible for salary and benefit costs for the pastor.

1. Short Term Disability

The Conference carries short term disability and workers compensation coverage on all clergy appointed to local churches as well as lay employees of the church through the multi-peril insurance program. Premiums for this benefit are included in the church insurance invoice.

While on short term disability, the church remains responsible for all salary and benefit costs associated with the pastor.

C. Health Insurance

1. Active Clergy

All full time clergy appointed to a local church or as Conference staff are entitled to health insurance and eligible to enroll in the Conference-sponsored health insurance plan. Regardless of enrollment, all charges that have a full time pastor will be billed the blended rate premium. This premium may be split between churches served by the full time pastor.

Clergy enrolled and receiving a benefit will pay a Pastor's Personal Contribution. The amount is set annually by the Conference Board of Pension & Health Benefits.

Churches with clergy serving less than full time should include in their salary support packages a "health insurance allowance" in an amount that relates to the blended rate to enable the clergyperson to obtain health insurance or fund a Health Savings Account.

2. Lay Employees

   Full time lay employees are also eligible to enroll in the health insurance program. The premium billed is based on coverage level; i.e. single, two person or family. The benefits are the same as for a clergyperson.

3. Retired Clergy and Surviving Spouses

   The Upper New York Conference continues to support part of the cost of providing health insurance to retired clergy through the use of reserve funds and participant contributions. The remaining financial support for the cost of retiree health care is billed to all of the local churches in the conference on a proportional basis.

4. Policies developed by the Conference Board of Pension & Health Benefits

This summary statement is provided to assist the clergy and employees of the Upper New York Annual Conference understand the eligibility guidelines and funding policies of the Health Care Program. VIII. Clergy Moving Policy (UNY Cabinet)

INTRODUCTION

The Conference Moving Coordinator and District Moving Coordinators will be responsible for scheduling moves and securing professional movers to relocate pastors when an appointment change is made for full-time appointments, less than full time appointments where the pastor will live in a parsonage, or pastors retiring from a local church. These Moving Coordinators will function under the guidance of the Commission on Equitable Compensation. "Self-Moves" are not encouraged. However, in special circumstances, after consultation with the Pastor, S/PPRC, and District Superintendent(s), the pastor may elect to move via truck rental. In the case of a self-move, a waiver of liability (on a prescribed form provided by the Conference Moving Coordinator) must be obtained from the pastor, and all persons assisting with the move. Self-Move arrangements must be coordinated through the appropriate Moving Coordinator.

FINANCING THE MOVE

With the exception of retirement moves, covered later in this document, funding for this program will be accomplished through a cost-sharing arrangement between the Conference and the local church/charge receiving a new appointment. This arrangement will cap the total moving expenses incurred by a receiving local church/charge at $2250. It will also allow this expense to be spread out over the course of five years through a conference-managed accrual system. Further, because the total number of contributing local churches/charges in a given year is greater than the number of local churches/charges receiving a new appointment, the program is intended to be self-sustaining (see Table #1).

A. Ave. cost of Move	1.) $4500
B. # of Moves/year	2.) ~50
C. Total Cost to UNY/year	3.) $225,000
D. Total # UNY Churches Contributing/year	4.) 500+
E. Total UNY Church Contributions/year F. (i.e. >500 churches x $450/year)	G. $225,000

Program specifics:

H. Every year for five (5) consecutive years each local church/charge will remit $450 to the Conference Treasure to be held in escrow in a moving account to cover the local church/charge's portion of the moving expense. This process will restart after a new appointment.

I. Once a local church/charge has accrued a total of $2250 in this account, its moving account will be considered paid in full. When a new appointment is made, the incoming pastor's moving expenses will be covered by the funds in the receiving local church/charge moving account along with any needed additional funds supplied by the Conference.

J. In the event a local church/charge experiences a change of appointment prior to having accrued $2250 in its conference-held moving account, the move will still be funded under this program. In this case the amount accrued in the receiving local church/charge moving account will be expended and the receiving local church/charge will then be expected to remit $450/year beginning in the calendar year following the move, until the $2250 moving account total has been reached.

For a professional move within the Conference boundaries, the Mover engaged by the Conference will submit an invoice directly to the Conference Treasurer. The Conference Treasurer will pay the Mover's total fee. If any additional or special charges are involved, the Conference Treasurer will request payment from the pastor to the Conference.

For a self-move, the pastor must pay the bill up-front and then submit receipts to the Moving Coordinator for approval and reimbursement.

NOTE: Federal law requires that all moving expenses for moves of less than 50 miles paid by the Conference for or to a pastor are considered compensation. The amount paid will be reported to the pastor and the Internal Revenue Service at the end of the tax year in which the payment is made.

PASTORAL MOVES

A. Clergy Moves: The Conference will pay the full cost of a pastor's move up to 16,000 pounds. The pastor(s) will be responsible for the cost of moving weight that exceeds those limits. The Conference will provide $250 for boxes and packing materials which may be provided by the mover or purchased by the pastor. The pastor is responsible for packing, except for those items the carrier is required to pack under insurance regulations (i.e. mirrors, mattresses, marble tops, etc.).

B. Clergy Couples: The Conference will pay the full cost up to 20,000 pounds, and provide $350 for boxes and packing materials.

C. Seminarians and Local Pastors entering their first appointment: The provisions in #1 apply, even if the seminarian is moving from outside the conference.

D. Pastors moving from outside the geographical boundaries of the Conference: The Conference will pay for up to $4,500 or 16,000 pounds, whichever is less. The pastor will be responsible for charges in excess of these amounts.

E. Pastors returning from Sabbatical Leave, Leave of Absence, Retirement, Extension Ministries, Medical Leave, or Honorable Location: The Cabinet will be empowered to negotiate the amount of reimbursement for the cost of the move.

F. Surviving Spouses: The Conference will pay up to $4,500 for billed expenses for moving surviving spouses and/or immediate families when requiring them to vacate a parsonage. Each situation must involve consultation with the affected spouse and immediate family, the Cabinet, and the appropriate Moving Coordinator.

G. Displaced Spouses: The Conference will pay up to $3,000 for billed expenses for moving spouses and immediate families displaced due to divorce or other legal action when requiring them to vacate a parsonage. Each situation must involve consultation with the affected spouse and immediate family, the Cabinet, and the appropriate Moving Coordinator.

H. Moving out of the Conference: The Conference will not be responsible for the cost of moving an active pastor to an appointment or ministry outside the geographic bounds of the Conference.

RETIREMENT MOVES

A. The Conference Board of Pension & Health Benefits will pay for one retirement move for clergy members – full-time or part-time -- who are retiring from a local church appointment or conference staff appointment, according to the approved schedule (see below). The retirement move shall occur one year prior to retirement or up to two years after retirement. Any variation from the schedule must be recommended by the District Superintendent and approved by the Conference Board.

B. The retiree is responsible for packing, except for those items the carrier is required to pack under insurance regulations (i.e. mirrors, mattresses, marble tops, etc.).

C. The Mover engaged by the Conference will submit an invoice directly to the Conference Treasurer. The Conference Treasurer will pay full Mover's fee. Any amount over the grant amount or special charges, are the responsibility of the retiring pastor. The Conference Treasurer will advise the pastor of the amount of reimbursement due to the Conference.

D. For a self-move, the pastor must pay the bill up-front and then submit receipts to the Conference Treasurer for reimbursement.

E. For each year of service in The United Methodist Church, the following amounts will be paid toward the retirement move:

At time of retirement:

Full time	$90 per year of service up to $3,000
Three-quarter time	$67.50 per year of service up to $2,250
Half time	$45 per year of service up to $1,500

IX. Pastor's Compensation Arrearage Policy (AC2015 CEC Report)

A. In the event that the local church treasurer becomes aware that the church will be unable to provide to the pastor full payment of a regularly scheduled payroll, accountable reimbursements or housing allowance installment, or to remit full payment for any items deducted or withheld from a pastor's base compensation, the church treasurer shall immediately notify both verbally (within 24 hours) and in writing (within 3 days) the pastor, the lay leader, the lay member of annual conference and the chairs of S/PPRC, finance, trustees and the administrative/church council of the impending arrearage. Upon receipt of such notice, the chair of S/PPRC and/or the pastor shall immediately (within three days) notify the district superintendent of the impending arrearage. It is the pastor's responsibility to keep copies of all such written notifications, and to provide additional written confirmation to the district superintendent when an arrearage has taken place. Failure to document salary-related arrearages may result in a loss of compensation.

B. Upon receipt of notice of a pending arrearage, the chair of S/PPRC shall immediately (within 72 hours) schedule and hold a meeting of the pastor, lay leader and chairs of finance, trustees and the administrative/church council to discuss the financial situation and seek remedies to prevent an arrearage from occurring. Such remedies might include:

1. Drawing from invested funds
2. An emergency appeal for special giving from the congregation According to the Book of Discipline ¶624, such remedies cannot include a reduction in the pastor's compensation until the beginning of the next conference year.

C. If, after consultation among the lay leader, pastor, and chairs of S/PPRC, finance, trustees and the administrative/church council, it becomes apparent that the church may be facing a long-term financial crisis, the chair of S/PPRC shall notify in writing the pastor and district superintendent that:

1. An Equitable Compensation Subsidy Grant may be necessary to maintain compensation for the remainder of the conference year and/or,
2. A change in pastoral compensation or appointment may be necessary.

D. If the local church becomes delinquent in the pastor's compensation (i.e. more than 30 days delinquent), then the district superintendent shall notify the Commission on Equitable Compensation, which on its own initiative may do any or all of the following, but not limited to:

1. Sending a representative from CEC to meet with the local church and pastor to seek resolution of the issue;
2. Developing with the local church a payment plan so that the pastor receives full payment of compensation by the end of the conference year. The district superintendent shall be a participant in this process.

E. If the local church is already receiving a subsidy grant from the CEC, the CEC may also:

1. Determine if all subsidy grant funds allocated to the church were used to pay the pastor's salary.
2. Examine the original subsidy grant application to determine if the amount requested to meet minimum compensation was reduced
3. Require an outside audit of all church funds in compliance with GCFA guidelines (www.gcfa.org).
4. Notify the district superintendent of its findings and recommendations in writing.

F. Paragraph 2542.1 of the Discipline makes clear that no real property on which a church building or parsonage is located shall be mortgaged to pay for the current or budgeted expenses of a local church (including arrearages), nor shall the principal proceeds of a sale of any such property be so used. This provision shall apply alike to unincorporated and incorporated local churches.

G. Regardless of any assistance received from the Annual Conference, it remains the responsibility of the local church to provide minimum compensation for its appointed clergy (Para. 624).

H. It is the responsibility of the pastor to provide evidence of an arrearage by providing documentation to the District Superintendent, Commission on Equitable Compensation and any other conference agency. This evidence should include treasurer's reports, charge conference reports of adopted salary and compensation, check stubs, W-2 forms, and any other pertinent documents.

I. The limitations for filing a claim for funds from the annual conference (i.e. notification to the district superintendent of the arrearage) for any salary arrearage is one year from the date of the initial arrearage. Once an appointment ends, the pastor no longer has claim on the local church for compensation funds (¶ 342.4).

J. The district superintendent shall provide a report of the matter and actions taken which will be placed in the permanent files of the church and the pastor.

Proposed 2016 Ministry Share Budget

The UNY Conference Council on Finance and Administration is proud to present our Proposed 2016 Ministry Share Budget for consideration and adoption by the Annual Conference session. The preparation of the budget began in the fall of 2014 with the distribution of budget worksheets and compensation information to the various Conference ministry teams. Each team drafted and submitted a preliminary budget request for their area. Conference staff worked with the teams to compile the requests for review by Conference CFA and executive staff. CFA met with several team leaders to review requests and ensure our plan for 2016 was clear and in alignment with the Conference mission and strategies: to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world by equipping our local churches for ministry and by providing a connection for ministry beyond the local church.

CFA and the Conference Finance Ministry Team would like to acknowledge and thank all our team leaders and staff for their dedicated efforts to create our 2016 Ministry Share plan.

Our 2016 Ministry Share Budget represents our primary operating plan for the Conference ministry activities and participation in the global initiatives of The United Methodist Church. The 2016 budget totals $10,079,236 compared to the 2015 budget of $10,340,438, a decrease of $261,202 (a reduction of 2.5 percent). The actual expenditures under the plan are dependent on the level of Ministry Share payments by churches throughout the year.

Our priority for the 2016 plan was to focus Conference efforts to support and develop Clergy and Lay leaders throughout the Conference. Initial 2016 budget requests were significantly higher than in the 2015 budget. Conference teams reviewed priorities and securitized costs to better align our work and reduce the financial impact on our churches. Costs were lowered by re-aligning and reducing staff, reducing Conference grants, and cutting discretionary costs.

Approximately 60 percent of the 2016 budget covers our fixed costs with the balance available to support General Church apportionments, variable costs, and grant funding contingent on actual receipts of Ministry Share payments. The budget does assume the relocation of the Conference Center office with commensurate costs. As in past years, the Conference will develop a spending plan to monitor and control costs as 2016 unfolds.

General Connectional Ministries represent the Conference's apportionment determined by the General Church to fund the broader initiatives of the denomination. The Conference's ability to pay these apportionments is directly dependent on the level of Ministry Share payments by our churches. These apportionments are approximately 21 percent of our 2016 budget.

Connectional Ministries encompass the direct work of staff and team volunteers to:

- Identify, train, deploy, and support leaders throughout the Conference
- Empower, resource, support, build, and connect with our congregations and members
- Connect, support, and aid our Conference neighbors in need

Ministerial Support's primary focus is to identify, recruit, train, credential, deploy, and support clergy to serve in our churches and congregations. The work of the Episcopal Office, the Cabinet, and our District Offices are funded under Ministerial Support.

Administrative Ministries include the Conference-level activities to manage the operations of the Conference to enable and support the work of our staff and teams as they carry out our mission and strategies.

General Budget explanations and descriptions:

- Staff costs in the Conference are expected to decrease resulting from the elimination of one senior staff position, some positions changing from full-time to part-time and a shift of staff within the operations.
- Staff compensation includes a pay increase of 0.8 percent. Senior staff will receive no pay increase in 2016.
- Medical insurance costs incorporate an estimated 5 percent increase over 2015 rates.
- Payroll taxes and employee benefits are at levels commensurate with compensation levels.
- Lease and property costs are budgeted consistent with current levels except for Conference office costs in 2015 under a lease arrangement changing to an ownership situation at an overall cost increase of approximately $60,000 in 2016.

Line Item Budget explanations and descriptions as labeled:

A. General Church apportionments are based on the actual amounts assessed for 2016.

B. These reductions represent the Conference's realignment of resources in order to concentrate on leadership support and development.

C. General cost reductions in these areas resulted from review of current practices and a realignment of various budget line items.

D. The increase is related to training and personnel costs based on current activities.

E. Lower rent and operating costs are anticipated when these teams relocate to the new Conference Center.

F. The 2016 budget includes specific grants payable only to the extent that church Ministry Share payments meet expected budget levels.

G. Conference support for the Syracuse University Chaplaincy were under budgeted in 2015.

H. Camp & Retreat Ministries operates in six locations across the Conference, with a total budget of $3.5 million. CRM revenue and expenses are expected to remain stable at 2015 levels. The small increase allocation of Ministry Shares for 2016 represents personnel cost changes and alignment of other anticipated costs.

I. The reduction of the Annual Conference session's costs reflects the need for one less meeting day and not needing electronic voting equipment for the 2016 conference compared to 2015.

J. Equitable Compensation has been reduced as a result of revisions to the method and criteria for making grants.

K. The Episcopal Office reflects a reduction in personnel costs resulting from the elimination of a senior staff position.

L. Communications personnel costs were reduced to reflect the shift of a full-time position to two part-time jobs.

M. Budget changes for the Benefits and Treasurer teams represent staff realignment.

N. As anticipated with the plan to relocate the Conference Center offices to an owed property by 2016, these costs have been reconfigured to include personnel costs for property staff and the other costs of ownership. These costs replace the lease costs currently incurred by the Conference for rented space.

Senior staff compensation levels by position for 2016:

Recommendations of The Conference Board of Pension & Health Benefits:

1. The 2016 Past Service Annuity Rate for pension payment to retired clergy of the Upper New York Conference is to be set at $612 per qualified service year prior to 1982. This is an increase of 2% over the 2015 rate in accordance with the Board's long term funding plan.
2. The Housing/Rental Exclusion Resolution which designates 100% of United Methodist pension, severance or disability income as housing exclusion in accordance with IRS Code section 107 is approved for the year January 1, 2016 through December 31, 2016.

HOUSING/RENTAL ALLOWANCE RESOLUTION for 2016

WHEREAS the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church (THE "Church"), of which this Conference is a part, has in the past functioned and continues to function through Ministers of the Gospel (within the meaning of Internal Revenue Code section 107) who were or are duly ordained, commissioned, or licensed ministers of the Church ("Clergypersons"); and,

WHEREAS the practice of the Church and of this Conference was and is to provide active Clergypersons with a parsonage or a rental/housing allowance as part of their gross compensation; and,

WHEREAS pensions or other amounts paid to active, retired, terminated, and disabled Clergypersons are considered to be deferred compensation and are paid to active, retired, terminated, and disabled Clergypersons in consideration of previous active service; and,

WHEREAS the Internal Revenue Service has recognized that the Conference (or its predecessors) as an appropriate organization to designate a rental/housing allowance for Clergypersons who are or were members of this Conference and are eligible to receive such deferred compensation;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED:

1. That an amount equal to 100% of the pension, severance, or disability payments received from plans authorized under The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church (the "Discipline"), which includes all such payments from the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits ("GBOPHB"), during the period January 1, 2016 through December 31, 2016, by each active, retired, terminated, or disabled Clergyperson who is or was a member of the Conference, or its predecessors, be and is hereby designated as a rental/housing allowance for each such Clergyperson; and

2. That the pension, severance, or disability payments to which this rental/housing allowance designation applies shall be any pension, severance, or disability payments from plans, annuities, or funds authorized under the Discipline, including such payments from the GBOPHB and from a commercial annuity company that provides an annuity arising from benefits accrued under a GBOPHB plan, annuity, or fund authorized under the Discipline, that result from any service a Clergyperson rendered to this Conference or that an active, a retired, a terminated, or a disabled Clergyperson of this Conference rendered to any local church, annual conference of the Church, general agency of the Church, other institution of the Church, former denomination that is now a part of the Church, or any other employer that employed the Clergyperson to perform services related to the ministry of the Church, or its predecessors, and that elected to make contributions to, or accrue a benefit under, such a plan, annuity, or fund for such an active, a retired, a terminated, or a disabled Clergyperson's pension, severance, or disability plan benefit as part of his or her gross compensation.

NOTE: The rental/housing allowance that may be excluded from a Clergyperson's gross income in any year for federal (and, in most cases, state) income tax purposes is limited under Internal Revenue Code section 107(2), and regulations thereunder, to the lesser of: 1) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the Clergyperson's employer or other appropriate body of the Church (such as this Conference in the foregoing resolutions) for such year; 2) the amount actually expended by the Clergyperson to rent or provide a home in such year; or, 3) the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances (such as a garage), plus the cost of utilities in such year. Each Clergyperson or former Clergyperson is urged to consult with his or her own tax advisor to determine what deferred compensation is eligible to be claimed as a housing allowance exclusion.

RECOMMENDATIONS FROM COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE COMPENSATION

I. The UNY Commission on Equitable Compensation recommends the following actions related to Minimum Base Compensation (revisions are in bold or ~~strikeout~~):

A. A minimum base salary, set according to credential level, ~~of $35,000~~ for all full time clergy persons as follows:

~~B. Plus a credential increment based on status as follows:~~

	~~Increment~~	Base
Full connection:	~~10% ($3,500)~~	~~$38,500~~ $39,200
Provisional:	~~8% ($2,800)~~	$37,800
Associate:	~~6% ($2,100)~~	$37,100
FT LP completed Course of Study or MDiv	~~4% ($1,400)~~	$36,400
FT Local Pastor:	~~none (-0-)~~	$35,000

(Less than full time appointments shall receive a base salary pro-rated according to the appointment.)

B. Plus an additional amount for years of service using the following schedule(s) based on the goal of attaining 1% of minimum salary per year of full time equivalent service up to 25 years:

Full	Provisional	Associate	FTLP w/MDiv	FTLP	per year of FTE service up to
~~$237~~	~~$235~~	~~$234~~	~~$233~~	~~$230~~	~~17 years~~
$276	$270	$268	$266	$260	19 years

C. Plus an additional $500 for each additional church on the pastoral charge (over one), not adjusted for part time appointments.

D. No pastor's salary can be decreased as a result of this policy, as long as they retain their current appointment.

E. All churches are strongly encouraged to offer a gross salary increase of no less than the percentage increase in Conference Average Compensation (~~2.1% for 2015~~ .8% for 2016) in order to account for increases in the costs of living. Churches are encouraged to consider further raises based on exceptional service.

II. The UNY Commission on Equitable Compensation recommends the following actions related to Clergy Housing Policy (revisions are in bold or ~~strikeout~~):

In the United Methodist Church, housing is provided to clergy. While the parsonage remains the normative provision of housing, some parishes prefer to offer, and some clergy prefer to receive, a housing allowance instead. The complexities of contemporary economics, local church resources and pastoral households make it less likely that a "one size fits all" housing provision best meets the needs of every situation. Local churches and clergy both need to carefully weigh the advantages and disadvantages, especially if considering a change from one to the other.

A. Values and Considerations

The Upper New York Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church believes that congregations and clergy benefit when clergy and their families live in buildings which are safe, clean, comfortable, and as commodious as the average home in their community. It is ~~assumed~~ required that clergy housing will meet all applicable local and state residential codes. As faithful stewards of the earth and other limited resources, congregations and clergy are encouraged to make clergy housing as energy efficient as possible. In order to be as welcoming as possible, consideration should be given to making clergy housing accessible to residents or guests with mobility challenges.

Local churches may prefer to provide a housing allowance for a variety of reasons: less property to maintain and repair, more predictable budget implications, and no "landlord" issues with their pastor. Likewise, clergy households may prefer a housing allowance for other reasons, such as: accumulation of equity, allowance for differing clergy household needs, ability to locate in a desired location, freedom to renovate and refurbish as desired, and no "tenant" relationship with parishioners.

However, it is also to be acknowledged that tension may exist between the appointive/itinerant system of clergy deployment and the housing allowance system. Pastoral appointments are made on an annual basis at the will of the bishop. The financial advantage to long-term clergy home ownership may be at odds with a short-term need or desire for a pastoral transition. It must be understood by all that the provision of a housing allowance or parsonage shall not be a primary consideration by the bishop and cabinet for future appointments for the pastor. Further, a local church that has a parsonage available to the pastor is under no obligation to provide a housing allowance if that pastor prefers to live in a different location.

B. Parsonages

1. Relationships and Responsibility

The parsonage is to be mutually respected by the pastor's family as the property of the church and by the church as a place of privacy for the pastor's family. (Book of Discipline of the UMC, par. 258.2.g.16)

The chairperson of the Staff-Parish Relations Committee, the chairperson of the Board of Trustees or the chairperson of the Parsonage Committee, if one exists, and the pastor shall make an annual inspection and review of the church-owned parsonage to assure proper maintenance. (Book of Discipline of the UMC, paragraph 258.2.g.16, and paragraph 2532.4)

The church shall provide a parsonage which addresses the values noted above and the standards listed below. Standard maintenance and repairs, and renovation of the parsonage are the responsibility of the church. The Trustees or Parsonage Committee shall arrange, supervise, and arrange payment for such tasks. Necessary work shall be scheduled in consultation with the pastor. The church and the pastor shall work together to develop a process to assure timely, good quality repairs and maintenance.

- Parsonages with a wood burning heat source must have a professional chimney inspection (and cleaning if necessary) at least every 2 years.
- The pastor shall furnish the house to suit his or her needs.
- The pastor is responsible for notifying the church about necessary repairs as the need arises.
- The pastor is responsible for the repair of damages exceeding normal wear and tear.
- The church, in consultation with the pastor, is responsible for lawn care and snow removal.

- The church shall pay for insurance, heat, electricity, garbage and trash removal, water and sewer, basic telephone service (landline and/or cell), and installation fees for cable or satellite television service if broadcast reception is inadequate.
- Churches that expect pastors to have access to the internet away from the church should pay for internet access at the parsonage.
- The pastor shall pay for personal toll calls and communication services beyond those provided by the church.

If a pastor is appointed to serve more than one local congregation, all ~~the~~ congregations shall share equitably the costs and other responsibilities of providing a parsonage. If ~~both~~ more than one congregation~~s~~ ~~have~~ has a parsonage, the parsonage of residence shall be determined by the District Superintendent in consultation with the appointed pastor and the congregations.

If a parsonage is occupied by a clergy couple serving different appointments, all congregations served shall share equitably and reasonably the costs and responsibilities of providing a parsonage. The parsonage of residence and shared cost responsibilities shall be determined by the District Superintendent in consultation with the appointed pastors and affected congregations.

Adherence to this policy by both clergy and congregation is essential to the appointment covenant. Failure to adhere to this policy by either clergy or congregation may jeopardize current and future appointments.

2. Parsonage Standards

Parsonages shall have at least 3 bedrooms, 1.5 bathrooms, a kitchen, dining room, living room, laundry facilities, appropriate storage capacity, and provision for 2 parking spaces. All shall be in good repair and meet all applicable local and state health and safety codes. The parsonage shall be at least the size of the average home in its community.

The church is responsible for providing a furnished office or study for the pastor. While it is preferable to locate this office in the church or another church building, if necessary it may be a separate, additional room in the parsonage. If the Pastor's primary office is located in the parsonage, it must have its own, separate, outside entrance and unencumbered windows, in accordance with Safe Sanctuary policies.

3. Rooms and Spaces

a. Bedrooms should be large enough to contain a bed, adequate storage for clothing (dresser and closet, or dresser and wardrobe), and a desk and chair or a reading area. It is preferable to have at least one fully accessible bedroom on the ground floor of the house

b. Bathroom facilities shall include: a toilet and sink on each floor, a tub, a shower, a medicine cabinet, and storage space for linens and supplies in or near the main bathroom. It is preferable to have at least 2 complete bathrooms including a fully accessible, complete bathroom on the ground floor.

c. The kitchen shall contain at least: a standard size stove and oven, a refrigerator with freezer, a dishwasher, built-in cabinets or pantry, a full-size sink, adequate counter space, and wall and floor finishes which can be kept clean.

d. Living and dining rooms should be large enough to accommodate 4-6 residents plus guests. A combined living and dining room is acceptable if large enough to fully accommodate both functions.

e. Laundry facilities shall be accessible from the interior of the house and include: an automatic washer and dryer, and storage for supplies. It is preferable to be able to conceal the laundry area and even better to have a separate laundry room with a sink and space to sort and fold. It is preferable to have these facilities fully accessible and on the ground floor.

f. Parking shall be off-street, preferably in a garage located on the parsonage property.

4. Systems

a. Heating, Ventilation, and Cooling - The parsonage shall be equipped with central heating capable of maintaining a temperature of 68 degrees in all rooms. Windows shall be in good repair and operable to provide adequate ventilation. Full bathrooms should have adequate ventilation to prevent excessive moisture build-up. Adequate passive or mechanical air cooling should be provided.

b. Electrical System - Wiring, outlets, and fixtures should be safe and adequate to meet the lighting and technology needs of a modern household.

c. Water - Hot and cold, potable, running water shall be available in the kitchen, bathrooms, and laundry area in amounts suitable to the needs of a family. In areas with hard water, water softeners shall be installed and maintained. Leaks of any kind are not acceptable.

d. Safety, Security, and Environment - Parsonages shall be equipped with properly maintained CO detectors and smoke alarms, and have fire extinguishers in kitchen, furnace room, near fireplaces, pellet stoves or wood stoves, and near bedrooms. Radon testing shall be done periodically and remedial measures taken if necessary. Visible mold and moldy odors shall not be present.

Where necessary for the safety of children and/or vulnerable adults, yards and outside spaces shall be adequately enclosed. Entrance lights shall have switches by the door, be motion activated, and/or be operable remotely. All parsonages shall be equipped with secure locks/deadbolts. If there are further safety concerns, the pastor and the church may wish to explore installing an alarm system.

e. Communications - The parsonage shall have a reliable telephone system, adequate TV connection and internet access.

f. Interior finishes - Floors, walls, and fixtures shall be in good condition with coverings which are suitable for the function of the room and in good repair.

g. Exterior - The roof, exterior walls, exterior doors, windows, and foundation of the parsonage shall be carefully maintained to keep out the elements pests, and to conserve energy. The house shall be adequately insulated. It is preferable to have energy efficient doors and windows that suit the architecture of the house as much as possible.

i. Porches and decks shall be maintained to insure their safety. Exterior faces and spaces of the building(s) and yard shall be designed and maintained to be functional for the family, and to be a pleasant addition to the community.

5. Waivers and Exceptions

If the minimum standards described above cannot be met because of the age or historic character of the house, the charge must propose alternatives which afford an equivalent quality of life to that set by these standards. Any such changes must be approved by the District Superintendent. It is understood that such changes will not compromise the safety provisions of these standards, the overall functionality of the parsonage, or the mandate that it be kept in good repair. It should be noted that the accessibility preferences described above are mandated when purchasing or building a new parsonage. (Book of Discipline of the UMC, par. 2543.3b)

6. Transition Protocols

Prior to a pastor's move, but no more often than every 5 years, a certified building inspector shall inspect the parsonage so that the congregation can plan necessary maintenance and repairs. If a pastor is moving and the parsonage has had a professional inspection within the past 5 years, this pre-move inspection may be performed by the outgoing pastor, the chairperson of the SPRC, and the chairperson of the Board of Trustees and/or the chairperson of the Parsonage Committee or their designates.

The outgoing pastor shall leave the parsonage ~~reasonably~~ clean and in good order. As soon as possible after a change in appointment is announced, the Trustees or Parsonage Committee shall inspect the parsonage for maintenance needs and damage caused by the outgoing residents, including damage caused by pets. ~~In either case,~~ If excessive damage is discovered, ~~caused by the outgoing residents, including that caused by pets, shall be identified and~~ it will be the responsibility of the outgoing pastor to repair or pay for repairs of the damage. When the pastor or family has allowed smoking within the parsonage, the cost of professional cleaning, and purchase of an air purifier if necessary, to remove smoke odor will be the responsibility of the outgoing pastor.

The charge shall refurbish, repair and thoroughly clean the parsonage prior to a new pastor moving in. Damaged walls, ceilings, floors, windows, fixtures and appliances shall be repaired or replaced. Painted surfaces shall be cleaned or repainted. Carpets shall be thoroughly steam cleaned or replaced; replacement is required if the carpet is torn, excessively worn, or permanently stained. Windows shall be cleaned inside and out. In the event that such work requires that the incoming pastor must make temporary living arrangements, related expenses will be paid by the receiving church.

It is recommended that a photographic record of house and yard, including each room's condition and contents, be created and filed for reference and planning purposes.

7. Treatment of Parsonage Value in Compensation Packages

The General Board of Pension & Health Benefits provides the following guidance: When a parsonage is provided, ~~the General Board of Pension & Health Benefits requires that~~ it will be valued at 25% of salary for benefit computation purposes. In a multi-church appointment, this factor is added to salary for all churches served by the pastor, regardless of which church owns the parsonage in which the clergy person lives.

a. If a clergy couple is serving separate churches and each church/charge has a parsonage available, each clergyperson's entire compensation will include a parsonage value equal of 25% of salary regardless of where the clergy couple lives. [Note: only the fair rental value of the occupied parsonage is reported by the clergy couple as part of self-employment income]

b. However, if a clergy couple is serving separate churches, and is living in a parsonage provided by one of the churches with no parsonage offered or available from the other church, only the clergyperson serving the church which provides the parsonage will have the parsonage value added to salary.

[The remainder of the Clergy Support Policies are unchanged.]

Arrearage Policy - UNY Annual Conference

1. In the event that the local church treasurer becomes aware that the church will be unable to provide to the pastor full payment of a regularly scheduled payroll, accountable reimbursements or housing allowance installment, or to remit full payment for regular payroll deduction payments such as health insurance co-pay or personal pension plan, the church treasurer shall immediately notify both verbally (within 24 hours) and in writing (within 3 days) the pastor, the lay leader, the lay member of annual conference and the chairs of S/PPRC, finance, trustees and the administrative/church council of the impending arrearage. Upon receipt of such notice, the chair of S/PPRC and/or the pastor shall immediately (within three days) notify the district superintendent of the impending arrearage. It is the pastor's responsibility to keep copies of all such written notifications, and to provide additional written confirmation to the district superintendent when an arrearage has taken place. Failure to document salary- related arrearages may result in a loss of compensation.

2. Upon receipt of notice of a pending arrearage, the chair of S/PPRC shall immediately (within 72 hours) schedule and hold a meeting of the pastor, lay leader and chairs of finance, trustees and the administrative/church council to discuss the financial situation and seek remedies to prevent an arrearage from occurring. Such remedies might include:

   a. Drawing from invested funds
   b. An emergency appeal for special giving from the congregation

   According to the Book of Discipline ¶624, such remedies cannot include a reduction in the pastor's compensation until the beginning of the next conference year.

3. If, after consultation among the lay leader, pastor, and chairs of S/PPRC, finance, trustees and the administrative/church council, it becomes apparent that the church may be facing a long-term financial crisis, the chair of S/PPRC shall notify in writing the pastor and district superintendent that:

   a. An Equitable Compensation Subsidy Grant may be necessary to maintain compensation for the remainder of the conference year and/or,
   b. A change in pastoral compensation or appointment may be necessary at the beginning of the following conference year.

4. If the local church becomes delinquent in the pastor's compensation (i.e. more than 30 days delinquent), then the district superintendent shall notify the Commission on Equitable Compensation, which on its own initiative may do any or all of the following, but not limited to:

   a. Sending a representative from CEC to meet with the local church and pastor to seek resolution of the issue;
   b. Developing with the local church a payment plan so that the pastor receives full payment of compensation by the end of the conference year.

   The district superintendent shall be a participant in this process.

5. If the local church is already receiving a subsidy grant from the CEC, the CEC may also:

   a. Determine if all subsidy grant funds allocated to the church were used to pay the pastor's salary.
   b. Examine the original subsidy grant application to determine if the amount requested to meet minimum compensation was reduced
   c. Require an outside audit of all church funds in compliance with GCFA guidelines (www.gcfa.org).

d. Notify the district superintendent of its findings and recommendations in writing.

6. Paragraph 2542.1 of the Discipline makes clear that no real property on which a church building or parsonage is located shall be mortgaged to pay for the current or budgeted expenses of a local church (including arrearages), nor shall the principal proceeds of a sale of any such property be so used. This provision shall apply alike to unincorporated and incorporated local churches.

7. Regardless of any assistance received from the Annual Conference, it remains the responsibility of the local church to provide at least minimum compensation for its appointed clergy (¶624).

8. It is the responsibility of the pastor to provide evidence of an arrearage by providing documentation to the District Superintendent, Commission on Equitable Compensation and any other conference agency. This evidence should include treasurer's reports, charge conference reports of adopted salary and compensation, check stubs, W-2 forms, and any other pertinent documents.

9. The statute of limitations for filing a claim for funds from the annual conference (i.e. notification to the district superintendent of the arrearage) for any salary arrearage is one year from the date of the initial arrearage. Once an appointment ends, the pastor no longer has claim on the local church for compensation funds (¶342.4).

10. The district superintendent shall provide a report of the matter and actions taken which will be placed in the permanent files of the church and the pastor.

GC2016.1 – Potential Consensus Among Faith Communities Regarding Income Inequality

Total Number of Pages: 2

The Book of Discipline
General Conference Committee/Agency: Council of Bishops
Financial Implications: No

Rationale:
Inequality in income in the United States has persistently increased over the last 50 years. A recent study concluded that the wealth gap between the richest Americans and the rest of us is more extreme than at any time since the 1930s (R. Smith, More cost than we see to fast food, Albany Times Union, Nov. 29, 2014). This is actually two trends: low-to-middle skill wages have not kept up with inflation, while compensation for executives and high-skill workers has skyrocketed. Executive compensation in 1965 was 24 times greater than that of the average worker; in 2007, it was 275 times greater (C. Tucker, Hard work should be rewarded, Albany Times Union, March 22, 2009), and in 2013, 331 times greater (K. Vanden Heuvel, editor The Nation Stand v. 2 #1, 2015, pg. 10 [Am. Civil Lib. Union]). Median compensation of large-company CEOs was 75 times greater than the average pay of non-supervisory production workers in 1980, but 344 times greater in 2008 (J. Cook and others, Tipping the Balance?, American Federation of State, County, and Municipal Employees, AFL-CIO, 2011). Surely today's executives are not 10 to 15 times wiser or more influential than their predecessors in the 1960s. In 2014, employees at McDonald's fast-food restaurants organized demonstrations seeking a minimum wage of $15 per hour – but even if they achieve this goal, it would take a full-time employee a year to earn what the corporate CEO is paid per HOUR, assuming he works a 60-hour week (R. Smith, More cost than we see to fast food, Albany Times Union, Nov. 29, 2014).

Whereas, the Bible includes many passages that condemn hoarding of wealth and taking advantage of the poor (Deut. 24:14-15, Isaiah 3:14-15, Ezekiel 22:23-29, Amos 5:11-12, Matt. 19:21, Luke 12:15-21, 16:13-14, etc.), Amos (5:21-24) was shocked at the growing inequality between rich and poor under King Jeroboam II in Israel and proclaimed that until this social injustice was replaced by righteousness, God would ignore their hymns and ceremonies and reject their offerings [J.D. Crossan, The Greatest Prayer (book), 2001], and

Whereas, a comprehensive critique of the U.S. economic system, co-authored by an economist and a theologian, H.E. Daly and J.B. Cobb, affirms that limited inequality is consistent with biblical teachings and the essential role of community in sustaining human life, but unlimited inequality would deny the very concept of community, and complete equality would deny real differences in human abilities andthe need of community for various skills [H.E. Daly and J.B. Cobb, For the Common Good (book), Beacon Press, 1994, pg. 331], and

Whereas, the United Methodist Social Principles states, "We support measures that would reduce the concentration of wealth in the hands of the few. We support efforts to revise tax structures and to eliminate government programs that now benefit the wealthy at the expense of other persons," and

Whereas, John Wesley wrote that the acquisition of wealth and possessions in general leads to the destruction of faith and holiness [Jennings, Good News for the Poor: John Wesley's Evangelical Economics (book), 1990], and

Whereas, these and other teachings have inspired many Christians to contribute to society according to their abilities and opportunities without seeking or accepting compensation beyond their needs, but have not as yet, overcome a culture that teaches Americans their worthiness is proportional to how much they earn, spend, and possess, and

Whereas, we believe that a statement in which all or most religious communities in the United States speak with one voice in opposition to the continuing increase in income inequality would help stimulate remedial actions.

Therefore, be it resolved the General Conference request the Council of Bishops initiate contact with their counterparts in other Christian denominations and non-Christian faith communities, with the hope of drafting a joint proclamation supported by many faith communities that would call for measures to reduce inequality in earned income and make American society more egalitarian without stifling individual creativity; and

Be it further resolved that the General Conference direct the General Board of Church and Society, in consultation with others as appropriate, to consider whether it is feasible to propose ethical guidelines for minimum and maximum annual employee compensation, to be submitted for consideration to the next General Conference. We suppose that such guidelines might be expressed as ratios to national, regional, or company statistics; that they would not apply to individual entrepreneurs or to corporate profits and would allow for averaging fluctuations in compensation over multiple years. Perhaps alternative options could be offered to facilitate debate.

GC2016-2 – Fruits of Repentance: An End to the Celebration of Columbus Day

Total Number of pages: 3

United Methodist Social Principles within The Book of Discipline ¶¶162 & 162a
General Church Budget Implications: No
General Conference Committee/Agency:

"Bear fruits worthy of repentance!"
-John the Baptist, Matt. 3:8

Rationale:

The Upper New York Annual Conference session accepts the challenge of the 2012 General Conference of The United Methodist Church to engage in an Act of Repentance and Healing Relationships with Indigenous Persons. Turning away from our frequent refusal to listen to history from the perspective of Native peoples, we understand that repentance is a choice to grow in the way we see ourselves. We call the 2016 General Conference to continue leading in a spirit of repentance by exploring a change in how we tell and celebrate the story of the Americas.

Currently many countries, including the United States, recognize and celebrate Christopher Columbus as the man who "discovered" the Americas. Not only did Columbus not discover the Americas – lands humanity inhabited for thousands of years before people of European descent arrived – but the cross cultural contact he initiated was deliberately destructive of our shared human destiny. The fact that the genocidal legacy of Columbus is celebrated rather than lamented allows a sinful pattern of exploitive behavior to become culturally normative for many people. As our Church leads the world in the establishment of the Kingdom of God, it is our privilege to demonstrate repentance and announce God's desire for relationships founded on respect, dignity, and love.

Whereas, Christopher Columbus failed to treat the Native peoples of the Americas with respect (see attached addendum); and

Whereas, he engaged in human trafficking (see attached addendum); and

Whereas, he used his influence to establish a culture of sexual exploitation of children and minors of Native American descent by adults of European descent (see attached addendum); and

Whereas, he established systems of forced labor resulting in the destruction of cultures and untold suffering for millions of individuals (see attached addendum); and

Whereas, he engaged in brutal collective corporal punishment, the deliberate repression of Native American cultural expression, and other acts we now correctly name as genocide (see attached addendum); and

Whereas, he established a culture of exploitation of the earth that continues to dishonor and often destroy God's living creation (see attached addendum).

Therefore be it resolved that "Columbus Day" will no longer be recognized by the people of The United Methodist Church. United Methodist annual conferences, agencies, schools, universities, and local churches in lands that officially celebrate "Columbus Day" will either not observe this holiday or will initiate organizational conversations designed to rename and re-purpose this holiday in accordance with our United Methodist Social Principles (See The Book of Discipline ¶162 & 162a), and

Be it further resolved that the General Board of Discipleship of The United Methodist Church will provide and distribute to our local churches in North America a liturgy designed to enact the spiritual dimensions of our choice to cease participating in the celebration of Columbus. Our repentance, petitions for God's forgiveness, and return to God's Word for visions of the relationships God desires will take place in worship on the Sunday closest to the second Monday in October, and

Be it further resolved that United Methodist annual conferences, boards, agencies, and local churches in lands affected by the legacy of Columbus are encouraged and directed to invest our relational influence at regional, local, and personal levels towards the initiation of conversations intended to awaken the conscience of God's people to the benefits of turning away from the legacy of Columbus. The General Board on Church and Society is directed to give leadership to our effort to bring about the repeal of "Columbus Day" as a national holiday in the United States of America.

ADDENDUM:

From The Journal of Christopher Columbus (1st voyage): "These people are very simple as regards the use of arms, as your Highnesses will see from the seven that I caused to be taken, to bring home, and learn our language and return; unless your Highnesses should order them all to be brought to Castile, or to be kept as captives on the same island; for with fifty men they can all be subjugated and made to do what is required of them."

From A Brief History of the Destruction of the Indies by Bartolome de las Casas 1542:
"The least felicitous of them [the Caribbean Islands] were more fertile and beautiful than the gardens of the King of Seville. They have the healthiest lands in the world, where lived more than five hundred thousand souls; they are now deserted, inhabited by not a single living creature. All the people were slain or died after being taken into captivity and brought to the Island of Hispaniola to be sold as slaves.

Christians, with their horses and swords and pikes, began to carry out massacres and strange cruelties against them. They attacked the towns and spared neither the children nor the aged nor pregnant women nor women in childbed, not only stabbing them and dismembering them but cutting them to pieces as if dealing with sheep in the slaughter house. They laid bets as to who, with one stroke of the sword, could split a man in two or could cut off his head or spill out his entrails with a single stroke of the pike. They took infants from their mothers' breasts, snatching them by the legs and pitching them headfirst against the crags or snatched them by the arms and threw them into the rivers, roaring with laughter ... as the babies fell into the water ...

Their reason for killing and destroying such an infinite number of souls is that the Christians have an ultimate aim, which is to acquire gold, and to swell themselves with riches in a very brief time and thus rise to a high estate disproportionate to their merits.

After the wars and the killings had ended, when usually there survived only some boys, some women, and children, these survivors were distributed among the Christians to be slaves. The repartimiento or distribution was made according to the rank and importance of the Christian to whom the Indians were allocated, one of them being given thirty, another forty, still another, one or two hundred, and besides the rank of the Christian there was also to be considered in what favor he stood with the tyrant they called Governor [Christopher Columbus]."

GC2016.3 – Same Sex Marriage

Total Number of Pages: 1

The Book of Discipline
General Conference Committee/Agency: Council of Bishops
Financial Implications: No

Rationale:
Allows United Methodist pastors and congregations to honor their biblically-based and informed conscience, tradition, experience, and reason regarding same-sex marriage. Change the statements regarding forbidden same-sex marriage and homosexuality as being incompatible with scripture to state that elders, local pastors, and local churches can conduct same-sex marriages, or not, based upon that pastor's and that congregation's conscience.

Whereas, The United Methodist Church is divided around the issue of same sex marriage on the basis of Biblical authority and interpretation and conscience and agreement is not in view; and

Whereas, The United Methodist Church under other names excluded African-Americans from geographical and integrated conferences and woman from the clergy and later changed The Book of Discipline to include them; and

Whereas, communication about this issue is uncommon and often polarizing.

Therefore be it resolved that United Methodist elders, licensed local pastors, and United Methodist churches may choose to conduct or allow to be conducted on their premises same-sex marriage; and

Be it further resolved, that United Methodist ordained, consecrated, and licensed clergy may be married to same or opposite sex partners, have all the rights of such marriage, and conduct their lives without discrimination; and

Be it further resovled that each conference will provide an ongoing, annual forum to educate congregations, clergy, and lay servants about the issues around gay marriage and have dialogue around the issue; and

Be it futher resolved that each conference will have a diversity officer and team assigned to promote diversity, including racial, ethnic, nationality, gender, sexual-orientation, gender identity, age, and difference in ability within each annual conference.

GC2016.4 – A Faithful Compromise: Providing Jurisdictional and Central Conference Authority to Resolve the Dilemma Regarding the Ordination of Self-Avowed Practicing Homosexuals

Total # of Pages: 2

The Book of Discipline ¶¶27, 31, 101, 161F, 162J, 304.3, 2702.1 and 2702.4
Conference Committee/Agency: Jurisdictional and Central Conferences
Financial Implications: No
Global Implications: No

Whereas, deep divisions are evident in The United Methodist Church community with respect to the question of whether to permit the ordination of self-avowed practicing homosexuals; and

Whereas, the unity of The United Methodist Church is threatened by such divisions; and

Whereas, many effective and faithful potential clergypersons, homosexual, and otherwise, are choosing to enter other denominations as a direct result of the current United Methodist prohibition against the ordination of self-avowed practicing homosexuals; and

Whereas, people of faith can and do legitimately disagree concerning the proper interpretation and meaning of the theological and biblical bases underlying the statement currently found in The Book of Discipline that, "The practice of homosexuality is incompatible with Christian teaching"[BOD ¶161(F)]; and

Whereas, throughout the United States and in many parts of the central conferences, recognized civil liberty permits the practice of homosexuality; and

Whereas, throughout The Book of Discipline the Church makes clear that civil liberties are to be respected, stating, "All persons, regardless of … sexual orientation, are entitled to have their human and civil rights ensured … " [BOD ¶161(F)] and "Certain basic human rights and civil liberties are due all persons. We are committed to supporting those rights and liberties for all persons, regardless of sexual orientation." [BOD ¶162(J)]; and

Whereas, by permitting homosexuals to be ordained so long as they are not "self-avowed" (as that term is currently defined) or "practicing" The Book of Discipline:

- Contradicts its own assumption " … that sexuality is God's good gift to all persons." [BOD ¶161(F)]
- Encourages homosexual clergy to be dishonest as to their sexual orientation and their sexual practices;
- Is inconsistent with the Church's stated goal of granting equal rights regardless of sexual orientation [see BOD ¶162(J)] and implies that clergy are not entitled to the same equal rights as other members of the Church; and

Whereas, central conferences are currently permitted to adapt particular sections of The Book of Discipline "…to more fruitfully accomplish our mission in various contexts" [BOD ¶101]; and

Whereas, jurisdictional conferences are the equivalent bodies within the United States and should have the same right to adapt The Book of Discipline to more faithfully accomplish their mission within their contexts; and

Whereas, Section IV. Article V [¶27] and Section V. Article IV. [¶31] of our constitution currently give to the General Conference the right to confer powers and duties to the jurisdictional and central conferences.

Therefore be it resolved that ¶304.3 of The Book of Discipline is amended to read, "While persons set apart by the Church for ordained ministry are subject to all the frailties of the human condition and the pressures of society, they are required to maintain the highest standards of holy living in the world. ~~The practice of homosexuality is incompatible with Christian teaching.~~ ~~Therefore~~ Self-avowed practicing homosexuals are not to be certified as candidates, ordained as ministers, or appointed to serve in The United Methodist Church, except in jurisdictions or central conferences that have determined that self-avowed practicing homosexuals may be certified as candidates, ordained as ministers, or appointed to serve in The United Methodist Church."

And be it further resolved that the language in ¶2702.1, (a) and (b) of The Book of Discipline be amended as, "A bishop, clergy member of an annual conference (BOD ¶370), local pastor, clergy on honorable or administrative location, or diaconal minister may be tried when charged (subject to the statute of limitations in BOD ¶2702.4) with one or more the following offenses: (a) immorality including but not limited to: not being celibate in singleness or not faithful in marriage; (b) practices declared by The United Methodist Church to be incompatible with Christian teachings, including but not limited to: being a self-avowed practicing homosexual in jurisdictions or central conferences that have not determined, pursuant to BOD ¶304.3, that self-avowed practicing homosexuals may be certified as candidates, ordained as ministers, or appointed to serve in The United Methodist Church; or conducting ceremonies which celebrate homosexual unions; or performing same-sex wedding ceremonies; … "

Total # of Pages: 2

The Book of Discipline ¶¶27, 31, 101, 161F, 162J, 341.6 and 2702.1(b)
Conference Committee/Agency: Jurisdictional and Central Conferences
Financial Implications: No
Global Implications: No

Whereas, deep divisions are evident in The United Methodist Church community with respect to the question of whether ministers should be permitted to conduct ceremonies that celebrate homosexual unions and same-sex weddings or whether such ceremonies should be permitted in church facilities; and

Whereas, such deep divisions are clearly demonstrated by the ever increasing number of incidents of ecclesial disobedience with respect to this issue resulting in public trials and diversion of resources from the mission of making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world; and

Whereas, the unity of The United Methodist Church is threatened by such divisions; and

Whereas, same-sex marriage is now legal in more than 35 states in the U.S. and in many cases that legality was brought about by decisions of federal courts determining that any ban on same-sex marriage denies a fundamental right to all same-sex couples who seek to marry; and the fundamental civil liberty to marry regardless of sexual orientation is so fundamental that it cannot be denied by a vote of the people in the state; and

Whereas, same-sex marriage is also legal in a number of the countries within the central conferences; and

Whereas, throughout The Book of Discipline the Church makes clear that:

- "All persons, regardless of … sexual orientation, are entitled to have their human and civil rights ensured … " [¶161(F)]
- "We will seek to live together in Christian community, welcoming, forgiving and loving one another, as Christ has loved and accepted us. We implore families and churches not to reject or condemn lesbian and gay members and friends." [¶161 (F)]
- "Certain basic human rights and civil liberties are due all persons. We are committed to supporting those rights and liberties for all persons, regardless of sexual orientation." [¶162 (J)]; and

Whereas, people of faith can and do legitimately disagree concerning the proper interpretation and meaning of the theological and biblical bases underlying the proper stance with regard to this issue as set forth in The Book of Discipline; and

Whereas, central conferences are currently permitted to adapt particular sections of The Book of Discipline "…to more fruitfully accomplish our mission in various contexts." [¶101]; and

Whereas, jurisdictional conferences are the equivalent bodies within the United States and should have the same right to adapt The Book of Discipline to more faithfully accomplish their mission within their contexts; and

Whereas, Section IV. Article V [¶27] and Section V. Article IV. [¶31] of our constitution currently give to the General Conference the right to confer powers and duties to the jurisdictional and central conferences.

Therefore be it resolved that ¶341.6 of The Book of Discipline be amended to read in its entirety as, "Ceremonies that celebrate homosexual unions shall not be conducted by our ministers and shall not be conducted in our churches,~~.~~ except in jurisdictions or central conferences which have determined that the celebration of homosexual unions and/or performance of same-sex wedding ceremonies may be conducted by ministers in that jurisdiction or central conference and/or may occur in churches within that jurisdiction or central conference.

"Notwithstanding the foregoing, an individual minister shall not be required to celebrate homosexual unions or perform same-sex wedding ceremonies merely because the minister is serving a church located in a jurisdiction or central conference that has permitted the celebration of homosexual unions or the performance of same-sex wedding ceremonies by ministers within that jurisdiction or central conference."

And be it further resolved that the language in ¶2702.1(b) of The Book of Discipline be~~-~~amended to read "practices declared by The United Methodist Church to be incompatible with Christian teachings, including but not limited to: being a self-avowed practicing homosexual; or conducting ceremonies which celebrate homosexual unions~~;~~ or performing same-sex wedding ceremonies in jurisdictions or central conferences that have not determined, pursuant to ¶341.6, that the celebration of homosexual unions and/or the performance of same-sex wedding ceremonies may be conducted by ministers and/or in churches in that jurisdiction or central conference."

The Book of Discipline ¶104, ¶105, ¶161F, ¶304.3, ¶310.2d, ¶613.1, ¶806.9, ¶2702
General Conference Committee/Agency: General Board of Church and Society
Financial Implications: No

Whereas, in ¶104, General Rules of The United Methodist Church, The Nature, Design, and General Rules of Our United States, 2. First of The Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church 2012, John Wesley instructs us to do "no harm," and further, Secondly that we should "do good," especially to them that are of the household of faith or groaning to be"; and

Whereas, we have witnessed the harm done to those who are not heterosexual, and to those who love them, by some members of our community in response to ¶161F, ¶2702, ¶613.19, ¶806.9, ¶304.3, and ¶310.2d of The Book of Discipline; and

Whereas, in ¶105, our theological task is described as "both critical and constructive. It is critical in that we test various expressions of faith by asking: Are they true? Appropriate? Clear? Cogent? Credible? Are they based on love?" Further, it is "constructive in that every generation must appropriate creatively the wisdom of the past and seek God in their midst in order to think afresh about God, revelation, sin, redemption, worship, the church, freedom, justice, moral responsibility, and other significant theological concerns. Our summons is to understand and receive the gospel promises in our troubled and uncertain times;" and

Whereas, in ¶105, we are also directed to be guided in this task by Scripture, read within the believing community, interpreted in the context of the whole, drawing upon "the careful historical, literary, and textual studies of recent years." Further, while acknowledging the primacy of Scripture,... our attempts to grasp its meaning always involve tradition, experience, and reason;" and

Whereas, in ¶105, we also are advised that "Our experience interacts with Scripture. We read Scripture in light of the conditions and events that help shape who we are, and we interpret our experience in terms of Scripture;" and

Whereas, in ¶105, we are additionally advised to "…ask questions of faith and seek to understand God's action and will" and, further, to "…relate our witness to the full range human knowledge, experience and service;" and

Whereas, there, across the connection the United Methodist denomination has always recognized that we may not all have identical interpretations of scripture, and yet we often agree to disagree on those varying interpretations; and

Whereas, across our global Church, we live with a variety of cultural perspectives relative to human sexuality and sexual orientation; and, accordingly,

Whereas, we are not of one mind with regard to expressions of human sexuality and gender identification or the God-given nature of the differences regarding sexuality; and

Whereas, there is a need to give careful consideration to the many scientific advances in the understanding of human sexuality since 1972,

Therefore be it resolved that BOD ¶161F be amended to read "Although all persons are sexual beings whether or not they are married, sexual relations are affirmed only ~~with the covenant of monogamous, heterosexual marriage~~ within a covenantal relationship."

Be it further resolved that BOD ¶161F reads, "We affirm that all persons are individuals of sacred worth, created in the image of God. All persons need the ministry of the Church in their struggles for human fulfillment, as well as the spiritual and emotional care of a fellowship that enables reconciling relationships with God, with others, and with self. ~~The United Methodist Church does not condone the practice of homosexuality and considers this practice incompatible with Christian teaching.~~We affirm that God's grace is available to all. We will seek to live together in Christian community, welcoming, forgiving, and loving one another, as Christ has loved and accepted us. We implore families and churches ~~not to reject or condemn lesbian and gay members and friends~~ to welcome all who come earnestly seeking a home in a Christian community. We commit ourselves to be in ministry for and with all persons." and

Be it further resolved that BOD ¶2702 be amended to read "A bishop, clergy member of an Annual Conference (BOD ¶370), local pastor, clergy on honorable or administrative location, or diaconal minister may be tried when charged (subject to the statute of limitations in BOD ¶2702.4)* with one or more of the following offenses: (a) immorality including but not limited to, not being celibate in singleness or not faithful in a ~~heterosexual marriage~~ covenantal relationship; ~~(b) practices declared by The United Methodist Church to be incompatible with Christian teachings, including but not limited to: being a self-avowed practicing homosexual; or conducting ceremonies which celebrate homosexual unions; or performing same-sex wedding ceremonies; (c)~~ (b) crime; ~~(d)~~ (c) dis-obedience to the order and discipline of the United Methodist Church; ~~(e)~~ (d) dissemination of doctrines contrary to the established standards of doctrine of The United Methodist Church; ~~(f)~~ (e) relationships and/or behavior that undermines the ministry of another pastor; ~~(g)~~ (f) child abuse; ~~(h)~~ (g) sexual abuse; ~~(i)~~ (h) sexual misconduct or ~~(j)~~ (i) harassment, including, but not limited to racial and/or sexual harassment; or ~~(k)~~ (j) racial or gender discrimination." and

Be it further resolved that BOD ¶613.19 be deleted in its entirety; and

Be it further resolved that BOD ¶806.9 be deleted in its entirety; and

Be it further resolved that BOD ¶304.3 be amended to read, "While persons set apart by the church for ordained ministry are subject to all the frailties of the human condition and the pressures of society, they are required to maintain the highest standards of holy living in the world. ~~The practice of homosexuality is incompatible with Christian teaching. Therefore, self-avowed practicing homosexuals~~

~~are not to be certified as candidates, ordained as ministers, or appointed to serve in The United Methodist Church.[2]"~~ , and

Be it further resolved that BOD ¶310.2d be amended to read "agree for the sake of the mission of Jesus Christ in the world and the most effective witness of the gospel, and in consideration of their influence as clergy, to make a complete dedication of themselves to the highest ideals of the Christian life as set forth in BOD ¶103-105; 160-166. To this end that shall agree to exercise responsible self-control by personal habits conducive to bodily health, mental and emotional maturity, fidelity in ~~marriage~~ covenantal relationship and celibacy in singleness, social responsibility, and growth in grace and the knowledge and love of God.[3] Where possible, the local church is encouraged to assist candidates with the expenses of candidacy."

GC2016.7 – Prayer And Support For Members Of The Armed Forces And Veterans

Number of Pages: 2

The Book of Resolutions #5061; The Book of Discipline ¶510.2(a)
General Conference Committee/Agency: General Board of Church and Society
General Church Budget Implications: No
Global Implications: No

Rationale:
In ¶510.2(a) of The Book of Discipline it states, "Resolutions are official expressions of The United Methodist Church for eight years following their adoption, after which time they shall be deemed to have expired unless readopted." Because of this statement Resolution #5061 would expire in 2016.

The 2008 General Conference expressed its concern for members of the military and veterans by adopting Resolution #5061 Prayer and Support for Member of the Armed Forces and Veterans as published in The Book of Resolutions and reads as follows:

> "Whereas, our Social Principles state that war is incompatible with the teachings and example of Christ (BOD ¶165C); and
> Whereas, the pervasiveness of violence and the threat of violence in social ordering on the local, national, and international levels present conscientious Christians with profound challenges in living out the Church's rejection of war and violence; and
> Whereas, reflecting these challenges, our Social Principles state that we "support and extend the ministry of the Church to those persons who conscientiously oppose all war, or any particular war, and who therefore refuse to serve in the armed forces or to cooperate with systems of military conscription," and that we "also support and extend the Church's ministry to those persons who conscientiously choose to serve in the armed forces or to accept alternative service" (¶164I*,* 2008 Book of Discipline); and
> Whereas, United Methodist men and women have served in various capacities in the armed forces and need the acceptance and pastoral ministry of the Church, regardless of the Church's view of the wisdom or moral justification of the military operations into which national political leadership sent them; and
> Whereas, the hardships and risks faced by members of the armed forces and the separations inherent in military service impact their families and especially their children; and
> Whereas, many of those who serve in the military return with physical or emotional injuries, some of which may persist throughout life or first become apparent many years after their return from service; and
> Whereas, expenditures for medical and readjustment services and the needs of military families should be recognized as a cost of war and an obligation of society as a whole; and
> Whereas, many military veterans return with experiences which could be an asset in the ministries of the Church, for example, insights arising from the direct experience of military life and war, the perspective gained from having faced one's own mortality, and an understanding of disciplined commitment to a team of people who depend on one another;

Therefore be it resolved that the 2008 General Conference of the United Methodist Church honors, supports, and upholds in our prayers those men and women who serve in our armed services and, in addition, honors and supports those United Methodist clergy who serve as chaplains; and

Be it further resolved that the Church commits itself to extend its pastoral ministry to members of the armed forces and their families during their time of service and after their return; and

Be it further resolved that we call upon national governments to fully provide medical care and other benefits that promote the welfare of military veterans and their reintegration into civilian society; and

Be it further resolved that we call upon our churches to extend a welcome home to persons who return from service in the armed forces, to respect their stories and interpretations of their experiences, and to value and encourage expression of their potential contributions to the ministry of our churches; and

Be it further resolved that we call upon our churches and members to pray for persons serving in the armed forces and their families, to pray for persons whom circumstances have caused us to relate to as enemies, to pray for other persons for whom war has caused suffering, and to pray for peace."

Whereas, ¶510.2(a), 2012 Book of Discipline, provides that resolutions of the General Conference are official expressions of The United Methodist Church for eight years following their adoption, after which time they shall be deemed to have expired unless readopted; and

Whereas, the need to pray for and support members of the armed forces and veterans and to value the potential contributions of veterans in our churches is ongoing.

Therefore be it resolved that the 2016 General Conference readopt Resolution #5061.

GC2016.8 – Disaffiliation for Reason Of Conscience

Total # of Pages: 3

The Book of Discipline Paragraphs: New ¶¶361.3-4, 2548-2552 and Financial Implications: None
Global Implications: Yes

Rationale:

Despite efforts to preserve unity in the Church, irreconcilable differences persist regarding the issue of homosexuality. There are people of honest and good conscience on both sides. The Church needs to value the consciences of our people and provide an honorable way for those whose consciences are violated to disaffiliate without the loss of property and in a ministry-affirming way. For forty years the General Conference has consistently maintained that the practice of homosexuality is incompatible with Christian teaching. In spite of this, there are local churches and ordained ministers for whom the position taken by General Conference violates their conscience. In addition and contrary to these General Conference decisions there are conferences, Bishops, and churches who are openly violating church law and causing a battle of conscience with other United Methodist churches and members. Irreconcilable differences persist, diverting time and energy from our central mission of making disciples.

Whereas, The United Methodist Church General Conferences have through 40 years of holy conferencing repeatedly upheld its position on homosexuality – a position which has settled repeatedly on a traditional view of marriage and sexuality while simultaneously striving to be a welcoming and loving church to those who may disagree; and

Whereas, The United Methodist Church understands that other denominations, churches, clergy, and members may believe differently; and

Whereas, throughout Christian history different denominations of the Christian faith have developed as a means to organize and worship differently within the Body of Christ; and

Whereas, we have strived to be in ministry with those that disagree with The United Methodist Church's positions, we have chosen to follow our beliefs and doctrine for our Christian denomination; and

Whereas, our faith calls us to be unified in heart, mind and spirit with the teaching of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ; and

Whereas, we realize not all Christians agree with our positions but we pray that they will accept and respect our right and our choice to believe as we do; and

Whereas, we do not want to cause any further harm to or between people of good conscience on both sides of the issue; and

Whereas, members on both sides of the issue love their churches and their pastors and do not want to lose them; and

Whereas, both sides of the debate would like to part amicably instead of being forced into a bitter battle; and

Whereas, churches have assets and pastors have pensions; and

Whereas, The United Methodist Church is just one denomination within the Body of Christ – it is a church that would prefer an amicable separation where Christian brothers and sisters of good conscience, on either side, can receive their inheritance and choose their own path forward with our blessings, our love, and our prayers for happiness and success.

Therefore be it resolved that the Upper New York Annual Conference session petitions the General Conference that the following paragraphs be added to The Book of Discipline;

Add a new ¶2548 as follows:

¶2548. Surrender of Charter of Local Church and Disaffiliation For Reasons Of Conscience – Because of the current deep conflict over the church's position on the practice of homosexuality and the blessing of homosexual unions, a local church may, after at least 90 days of study, surrender its charter from The United Methodist Church and disaffiliate upon the affirmative vote of two-thirds (66.7%) of the church's professing members present and voting at a duly called church conference affirming the local church's declaration that for reasons of conscience, witness, or mission it can better serve Christ and his kingdom by not being affiliated with The United Methodist Church and its annual conference. Upon such surrender and disaffiliation, the local church shall be released from the provisions of BOD ¶2501 and shall retain full rights to its property and funds, provided that any debts upon such property and any other debts payable by that local church are assumed by that local church. In order to be released from the trust clause and maintain its property, the local church must repay to the annual conference any money invested by the conference in that local church through grants or loans during the previous five years. The amount to be repaid shall include any payments made to the local church's clergy by the annual conference, such as salary support, but shall not include subsidies to provide health insurance. Furthermore, the local church shall pay to the annual conference its current year's apportionments in full and an additional sum equal to two times the current year's apportionments. In the event of such proposed disaffiliation, officials of The United Methodist Church shall facilitate the orderly and timely administration of this process.

Renumber following paragraphs from existing BOD ¶2548-2552., and

Be it further resolved that a subparagraph be added to BOD ¶361:

¶361.3. Withdrawal for Reasons of Conscience – Any clergy member in good standing a) serving a local church which votes to surrender its charter and disaffiliate under BOD ¶2548, or b) wishing to withdraw because of irreconcilable conflict for reasons of conscience with the provisions of The United Methodist Church The Book of Discipline on the practice of homosexuality and the blessing of homosexual unions, shall be granted withdrawal from the annual conference upon surrender of certifications of ordination and/or conference membership and a written request to withdraw. The withdrawing clergy person shall be entitled to the full pension credit they have earned up to the time of withdrawal.

Renumber following sub-paragraphs from existing BOD ¶361.3-4.

Total Number of Pages: 2

The Book of Discipline: ¶510.2a
General Church Budget Implications: No
General Conference Committee/Agency: The United Methodist Publishing House
Global Implications: Will change the formatting for all future publications of The Book of Discipline

Rationale:
This petition is to help make both The Book of Discipline and The Book of Resolutions easier to use by readers and researchers; and, will help United Methodists better understand the interconnectedness of these two important books of our United Methodist polity and faith.

Whereas, The Book of Discipline "is the most current statement of how United Methodists agree to live their lives together. It reflects our understanding of the Church and articulates the mission of The United Methodist Church: To make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. The Discipline defines what is expected of its laity and clergy as they seek to be effective witnesses in the world as a part of the whole body of Christ." (Episcopal Greetings, The Book of Discipline); and

Whereas, The Book of Resolutions contains:

- "Official policy statements for guiding all the work and ministry of The United Methodist Church on approximately 200 subjects
- Educational resources for The United Methodist Church on important issues affecting the lives of people and all God's creation
- Guides and models for helping United Methodist members and groups relate a lively biblical faith to action in daily life
- Resource materials for persons preparing public statements about United Methodist concerns on current social issues" (User's Guide,The Book of Resolutions); and

Whereas, making these resources available are done so at cost by the United Methodist Publishing House; and

Whereas, making these resources as accessible and as easy to use as possible will help United Methodists to become more familiar with the Wesleyan way of life and prepared to both become and "make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world."

Therefore be it resolved that the following sentences be inserted in BOD ¶510.2a of the United Methodist The Book of Discipline:

a) "All valid resolutions of the General Conference of The United Methodist Church shall be published in each edition of The Book of Resolutions. There shall be a complete subject index and index of Scripture passages to all valid resolutions of the General Conference of The United Methodist Church in each edition of The Book of Resolutions. Every resolution that corresponds to a paragraph in The Book of Discipline shall be listed by number and title at the end of the corresponding Disciplinary subsection to which it relates. In the case of electronic publications, such as, but not limited to, e-books and online versions, the references to resolutions within The Book of Discipline should act as hyperlinks to the text of those resolutions. Resolutions are official expressions of The United Methodist Church for eight years following their adoption, after which time they shall be deemed to have expired unless readopted. Those that have expired shall not be printed in subsequent editions of The Book of Resolutions. The Book of Resolutions shall be made available on the official website of The United Methodist Church".

The Book of Discipline ¶4, 161F, 214 – 242, 304.3, 370 and 2702.1
Conference Committee/Agency: Jurisdictional and Central Conferences
Financial Implications: No, other than incidental administrative expenses
Global Implications: No

Rationale:

Amend The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church to bring it into greater consistency with God's love for us, as expressed in the Bible and experienced by our receipt of His grace; to help us in our struggle to love God with the completeness called for in the Bible; and to strengthen our love for each other and our neighbors as a response to the love and grace that we continually receive from God.

Whereas, the Scriptures teach us that our first obligation as Christians is to love the Lord our God with all our heart and soul and might (Deuteronomy 6:4; Matthew 22:37; Mark 12:29; Luke 10:27); and

Whereas, the Scriptures provide us with the explanation for this obligation, that "God is love" (1 John 4:8); and

Whereas, the Scriptures make it clear that we cannot love God unless we "love our neighbors as [we love] ourselves" (Leviticus 19:18; Matthew 22:38; Mark 12:31; Luke 10:27, 29-37; 1 John 4:20-21); and

Whereas, the Scriptures teach us that we are all the same in God's sight (1 Corinthians 12:13; Galatians 5:6; 6:15); and

Whereas, the Scriptures admonish us not to be judgmental of each other (Matthew 7:1-2; Luke 6:37) because judgment belongs to God (Ezekiel 20:35-36; Romans 2:1-5, 16); and

Whereas, in The Constitution [of The United Methodist Church], Division One, ¶4 Article IV, The United Methodist Church has declared itself to be a part of "the church universal, which is one Body in Christ;" and

Whereas, in accordance with The Constitution [of The United Methodist Church] Division One, ¶4 Article IV, and in accordance ¶214-242 of The Book of Discipline, all baptized persons are invited into the membership of, and participation in, the mission and ministries of The United Methodist Church; to receive the blessings and graces which God provides through His Church; and to enter into the discipleship "of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world;" and

Whereas, in ¶161F, 304.3, and 2702.1 of The Book of Discipline, there are judgmental statements concerning certain specific conducts and/or practices, judging (contrary to the cited Scriptures), identifying, and describing these conducts and/or practices as being "incompatible with Christian teachings;" and

Whereas, in violation of The Constitution and other parts of The Book of Discipline, members of The United Methodist Church who are said, thought, and/or judged to be involved in the conducts and/or practices identified in ¶ 161F, 304.3, and 2702.1 as being "incompatible with Christian teachings," are relegated to "second class membership" by being denied and proscribed from ordination into the ministry of, and from marriage to persons of their choice in, the church of which they are members;

Therefore be it resolved that the judgmental phrase "incompatible with Christian teachings" and all verbiage immediately related thereto, ¶161F of The Book of Discipline; be deleted as follows, ~~"Human Sexuality - We affirm that sexuality is God's good gift to all persons. We call everyone to responsible stewardship of this sacred gift.~~

~~Although all persons are sexual beings whether or not they are married, sexual relations are affirmed only with the covenant of monogamous, heterosexual marriage.~~

~~We deplore all forms of commercialization, abuse, and exploitation of sex. We call for strict global enforcement of laws prohibiting the sexual exploitation of children and for adequate protection, guidance, and counseling for abused children. All persons, regardless of age, gender, marital status, or sexual orientation, are entitled to have their human and civil rights ensured and to be protected against violence. The Church should support the family in providing age-appropriate education regarding sexuality to children, youth, and adults.~~

"…We affirm that all persons are individuals of sacred worth, created in the image of God. All persons need the ministry of the Church in their struggles for human fulfillment, as well as the spiritual and emotional care of a fellowship that enables reconciling relationships with God, with others, and with self. ~~The United Methodist Church does not condone the practice of homosexuality and considers this practice incompatible with Christian teaching.~~ We affirm that God's grace is available to all.", and

Be it further resolved that the judgmental phrase "incompatible with Christian teachings," and all verbiage immediately related thereto, be deleted from ¶304.3 of The Book of Discipline; "While persons set apart by the Church for ordained ministry are subject to all the frailties of the human condition and the pressures of society, they are required to maintain the highest standards of holy living in the world. ~~The practice of homosexuality is incompatible with Christian teaching. Therefore self-avowed practicinghomosexuals are not to be certified as candidates, ordained as ministers, or appointed to serve in The United Methodist Church~~; and

Be it further resolved that ¶2702.1 of The Book of Discipline be amended to read "A bishop, clergy member of conference (¶ 370), local pastor, clergy on honorable or administrative location, or diaconal minister may be tried when charged (subject to the statute of limitations in ¶ 2702.4) with none or more of the following offenses: (a) immorality including but not limited to, not being celibate in singleness or not faithful in a ~~heterosexual~~ marriage; ~~(b) practices declared by The United Methodist Church to be incompatible with Christian teachings, including but not limited to being a self-avowed avowed practicing homosexual; or conducting ceremonies which celebrate homosexual unions; or performing same sex wedding ceremonies; (c)~~ (b) crime; ~~(d)~~ (c) disobedience to the order and discipline of The United Methodist Church; ~~(e)~~ (d) dissemination of doctrines contrary to the established standards of doctrine of The United Methodist Church; ~~(f)~~ (e) relationships and/or behavior that undermines the ministry of another pastor; ~~(g)~~ (f) child abuse; ~~(h)~~ (g) sexual abuse; ~~(i)~~ (h) sexual misconduct; or ~~(j)~~ (i) harassment, including, but not limited to racial and/or sexual harassment; or ~~(k)~~ (j) racial or gender discrimination."

The Book of Discipline ¶161F
Conference Committee/Agency:
Financial Implications: No
Global Implications: No

Whereas, to date, no peer reviewed protocols are endorsed by which one can change sexual orientation; and

Whereas, to date, no scholar has provided a method hermeneutic by which the Bible can be taught as wrong about slavery,
wrong about the rights of women,
wrong about a heliocentric universe,
wrong about the age of the earth,
wrong about multiple marriage,
wrong about evolution,
wrong about the cause of leprosy,
and wrong about eating shrimp … but right about homosexuality; and

Whereas, human acts causing no harm to any person, including one's self, family, community, faith, or vocation can hardly be called sinful; and

Whereas, gay people who have been rejected experience real and lasting harm (verified by many peer reviewed medical and psychological journals); and

Whereas, there is increasing agreement that being gay is not incompatible with Christian teaching; and

Whereas, our church stands, and grievously so, at the brink of breaking asunder over a matter unlikely to be resolved anytime soon.

Therefore be it resolved that The Book of Discipline delete the following words from ¶161F, "~~The United Methodist Church does not condone the practice of homosexuality and considers this practice incompatible with Christian teaching.~~"

Whereas, the General Conference and The Book of Discipline are the means of the United Methodist political system and ¶164.B of The Book of Discipline supports political responsibility, reminding us that, "The strength of a political system depends upon the full and willing participation of its citizens." and

Whereas, we view The United Methodist Church as being an active society and affirm that local pastors are deserving of a voice within their society, according to BOD ¶162, which states, "The rights and privileges of a society bestows upon or withholds from those who comprise it indicate the relative esteem in which that society holds particular persons and groups of persons. We affirm all persons are equally valuable in the sight of God. We therefore work toward societies in which each person's value is recognized, maintained and strengthened." and

Whereas, 379 out of 666 (or 56.9 percent) active clergy of the Upper New York Clergy are local licensed pastors (2013 statistics from General Council of Finance and Administration) and the number of local licensed pastors continues to grow within the connection (we have 46,049 active clergy with 30,877 non-elders or 67 percent are local pastors according to GCFA 2013), and within the connection these pastors serve 60 percent of our local churches, and

Whereas, according to BOD ¶316, all licensed pastors are to perform the same responsibilities as those listed in BOD ¶340.2, where it states, "Licensed pastors share with the elders the responsibilities and duties of a pastor for this fourfold ministry, within the context of their appointment," therefore having to adhere and abide by The Book of Discipline; and

Whereas, BOD ¶164.A states, "We hold governments responsible for the protection of the rights of the people to free and fair elections … ", as well as, "The form and the leaders of all governments should be determined by exercise of the right to vote guarantee to all adult citizens." And since the General Conference is the governing body of the United Methodist Church and since not all members are given the right to be a delegate at General Conference; and

Whereas, BOD ¶502 states, "The voting membership of the General Conference shall consist of: a) An equal number of clergy and lay delegates elected by the annual conferences as provided in the Discipline." and Clergy has been defined in ¶602.1 as "The clergy membership of an annual conference (BOD ¶370) shall consist of deacons and elders in full connection (BOD ¶333), provisional members (BOD ¶327), associate members, and affiliate members (BOD ¶344.4, 586.4) and local pastors under full-time and part-time appointment to a pastoral charge (BOD ¶317). (See also, BOD ¶32.)" and

Therefore be it resolved that BOD ¶602.1.b should be changed to read "Provisional clergy members shall have the right to vote in the annual conference on all matters ~~except~~ including constitutional amendments, election of clergy delegates to the general and jurisdictional or central conferences ~~and~~ except for matters of ordination, character, and conference relations of clergy.", and

Be it further resolved that BOD ¶602.1.c should be changed to read "Associate and affiliate clergy members shall have the right to vote in the annual conference on all matters ~~except~~ including constitutional amendments, election of clergy delegates to the general and jurisdictional or central conferences, ~~and~~ except matters of ordination, character, and conference relations of clergy…" and

Be it further resolved that BOD ¶602.1.d be changed to read, "Full-time and part-time local pastors under appointment to a pastoral charge shall have the right to vote in the annual conference on all matters ~~except~~ including constitutional amendments; election of delegates to the general and jurisdictional or central conferences ~~and~~ except in matters of ordination, character, and conference relations of clergy as long as the local pastors have met two criteria: they have, by either of two options as determined by the annual conference, completed the constitutionally specified level of education; and they have been appointed by the bishop and served for two consecutive years, immediately preceding the election, during which time no withdrawal of the appointed status has occurred. When local pastors are members of the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry, they have the right to vote at clergy session on matters of ordination, character, and conference relations of clergy (¶ 634.1), and

Be it further resolved that BOD ¶35. Article IV be changed to read, "The clergy delegates to the General Conference and to the jurisdictional or central conference shall be elected from the clergy members in full connection, provisional clergy members, associate and affiliate clergy members, and full-time and part-time local pastors who have completed their educational requirements and have served at least two years prior to election appointed by the bishop, and shall be elected by the clergy members of the annual conference or provisional annual conference who are deacons and elders in full connection, associate members, and those provisional members who have completed all of their educational requirements and local pastors who have completed course of study or an M. Div. degree and have served a minimum of two consecutive years under appointment immediately preceding the election.

GC2016.13 – Divest from Caterpillar, Motorola Solutions, and Hewlett Packard after years of corporate engagement

Total Number of Pages: 3

The Book of Discipline ¶717
General Conference Committee/Agency: Committee on Finance and Administration
Financial Implications: No

Whereas, United Methodists have engaged Caterpillar for 10 years, Motorola Solutions for nine years, and Hewlett Packard for seven years, and have asked them to end their involvement with Israel's occupation of Palestinian land (https://www.kairosresponse.org/uploads/UM_CorpEngagement_2004-11.pdf); and

Whereas, every United Methodist General Conference for more than 40 years has endorsed calls for just and lasting peace in Israel/Palestine and an end to all military sales to the region; and

Whereas, The United Methodist Book of Discipline states: "The boards and agencies are to give careful consideration to shareholder advocacy, including advocacy of corporate disinvestment." (The Book of Discipline, ¶717); and

Whereas, ongoing military occupation and expanding Israeli settlements on Palestinian lands have deepened a system that dehumanizes Palestinians and Israelis; and

Whereas, more than 3,000 Palestinian Christians have implored Christians everywhere to put actions behind their words to end Israel's occupation of Palestinian land; and

Whereas, The United Methodist Church has been specifically asked by Palestinian Christian leaders to oppose human rights violations (http://kairospalestine.ps/content/kairos-document); (https://www.kairosresponse.org/Palest Christns Ltr Apr2012.html); and

Whereas, Caterpillar provides Israel with militarized bulldozers and earth-moving equipment, that are used to uproot olive groves, demolish Palestinian homes, construct settlements, and build segregated roads and the separation barrier on occupied land; and

Whereas, Motorola Solutions provides surveillance systems for Israeli settlements, military bases, and the separation wall, as well as communication devices for the Israeli military; and

Whereas, Hewlett Packard provides data storage for settlements, manages information technology for the Israeli Navy, and provides biometric monitoring of checkpoints inside the West Bank; and

Whereas, there has been no meaningful progress with the companies and no indication of any willingness to change their involvement in Israel's occupation; and

Whereas, three United Methodist conferences – New York, Northern Illinois, and West Ohio – have divested their stock in companies invested in the occupation of the West Bank and have suffered no losses to their portfolios or accusations of fiduciary impropriety; and

Whereas, numerous other conferences have passed divestment resolutions, including: Baltimore-Washington, California-Pacific, California-Nevada, Detroit, Minnesota, New England, Pacific Northwest, Rocky Mountain, Upper New York (R2013.2), and Virginia; and

Whereas, other denominations such as the Presbyterian Church USA, Society of Friends (Quakers), Mennonite Central Committee, and some United Church of Christ conferences have passed similar divestment resolutions and have divested without suffering financial harm;

Whereas, in 2014 the Luxembourg national pension fund FDC announced it was barring Motorola Solutions from its investments because of its involvement with human rights violations in the occupied territories;

Whereas, Caterpillar has refused a request from the United Methodist General Board of Pension and Health Benefits to sign the “UN Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights” also known as the "Ruggie Principles;" and

Whereas, General Conference 2012 called on all United Methodist boards and agencies “to prayerfully consider” divestment from companies that refuse to sign these principles; and

Whereas, we categorically denounce all forms of anti-Semitism, whether directed toward Arabs or Jews, and any and all attempts to diminish the historical suffering of the Jewish people or the Palestinian people, and we seek justice for both Israelis and Palestinians; and

Whereas, divestment is aimed not at Israel itself, but at ending the occupation of land beyond its internationally recognized borders; and

Whereas, we denounce violence and terror tactics by all parties in the Middle East conflict and commend non-violent means of achieving peace; and

Whereas, all UMC mission personnel who have served in the occupied territories since the 1990s support divestment from these three companies.
(https://www.kairosresponse.org/UMC_Missionaries_Divestment.html).

There for be it resolved that General Conference directs all boards and agencies of The United Methodist Church to take action to divest promptly from Caterpillar, Motorola Solutions, and Hewlett Packard and continues to exclude these companies until they end their involvement with the Israeli occupation.

GC2016.14 – Establishing a Screen to Remove and Avoid Investments in Illegal Settlements on Occupied Land

Total Number of Pages: 3

The Book of Discipline ¶717, 165D
General Conference Committee/Agency: GC Board of Church and Society
Financial Implications: No

Whereas, the occupying power in a foreign territory is prohibited from moving its own population onto land that is occupied (Article 49, Geneva Convention IV); and

Whereas, segregated communities established by the occupying power on occupied land in violation of the Geneva Conventions are commonly referred to as "illegal settlements;" and

Whereas, a business operating in an illegal settlement pays taxes to the settlement and strengthens its economic base, takes advantage of land unlawfully seized from others and is complicit in the occupying power's violations of human rights and international law; and

Whereas, the UN Global Compact calls on companies to "make sure they are not complicit in human rights abuses" (unglobalcompact.org); and

Whereas, the United Methodist General Conference 2012 encouraged companies "to honor and promote human rights and the dignity of human life consistent with the 10 principles of the United Nations Global Compact" (http://www.umc.org/what-we-believe/investment-ethics); and

Whereas, The Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church 2012 discourages investment in companies "that appear likely, directly or indirectly, to support the racial discrimination, violation of human rights..." (¶717); and

Whereas, both the Hague Conventions of 1907 and the Fourth Geneva Convention forbid exploitation of the natural resources of an occupied people; and

Whereas, settlement companies often exploit resources in occupied territories by mining, diverting water, and polluting agricultural land; and

Whereas, the United Methodist General Board of Pension and Health Benefits is a founding signatory of the UN Principles for Responsible Investment, through which signatories agree to consider environmental and social, as well as governance issues in investment decisions. (www.unpri.org); and

Whereas, our Social Principles declare, "We denounce as immoral an ordering of life that perpetuates injustice and impedes the pursuit of peace." (UMC Social Principles, "The World Community" ¶165.D); and

Whereas, the presence of illegal settlements on occupied land perpetuates injustice and impedes the pursuit of peace.

Therefore be it resolved that the General Conference directs all General Boards and Agencies of The United Methodist Church to apply a screen that excludes investment in companies with involvement in illegal settlements by:

1. Having a physical presence or a subsidiary in an illegal settlement, or
2. Providing support services to an illegal settlement, or
3. Contributing to the financing or building of illegal settlements; and

Be it further resolved that a physical presence is defined as having a factory, processing center, sales outlet, subsidiary, or warehouse in a settlement; support services include data storage, electronic security, waste removal, and other activities that help sustain the settlement; and financing or building includes providing or underwriting loans or providing materials, supervision or labor for the construction of settlements.

GC2016.15 – Opposition to Torture

Number of Pages: 2

*2008 [2012] Book of Resolutions #*6120 [6148], Book of Discipline ¶510.2(a) General Conference Committee/Agency: General Board on Church and Society
General Church Budget Implications: No
Global Implications: No

Rationale:

In ¶510.2(a) of The Book of Discipline it states, "Resolutions are official expressions of The United Methodist Church for eight years following their adoption, after which time they shall be deemed to have expired unless readopted." Because of this statement, Resolution #6148 would expire in 2016.

Whereas, recent revelations in the press and at congressional hearings show that torture is still taking place; and

Whereas, the 2008 General Conference, in Resolution #6120 [reprinted as #6148 in the 2012 Book of Resolutions] says, "Among the most significant of human rights is the right to security of person, which includes the right not to be tortured." and

Whereas, the Resolution #6120 further states:

> Our commitment to human rights is grounded in the conviction that each and every human life is sacred. This theme wends its way throughout our Scriptures, in the creation stories as well as in Jesus' teaching and ministry. Among the most significant of human rights is the right to security of person, which includes the right not to be tortured.
> Yet around the world today, there are countless number persons suffering shocking and morally intolerable treatment at the hands of those acting, all too often, on behalf of their governments. Such torture violates the basic dignity of the human person that all religions, in their highest ideals, hold dear. It degrades everyone involved; policy makers, perpetrators, and victims.
> Therefore, The United Methodist Church:
> 1. Opposes the use of torture and all forms of cruel, inhuman, or degrading interrogations by all agencies, employees, or agents of all governments anywhere in the worl;
> 2. Supports the application of the Geneva Conventions to all enemy soldiers and the humane treatment with due process for all combatants held by both government and non-goverment forces anywhere in the world;
> 3. Supports principles as contained in documents such as the Bill of Rights of the Constitution of the United States that call for judicial review and legislative oversight over executive branch operations relating to counter terrorism and domestic surveillance programs, both classified and publicly acknowledged, and similar documents in other countries; and
> 4. Endorses legislative and judicial remedies for the use of torture and illegal detention by agencies of all governments, such as appointment of special counsels, open hearings, appropriate investigation, and legislation outlawing the use of "extraordinary rendition" and extraterritorial prison facilities.

As in the case of conscientious objectors, the United Methodist Church expresses support for the principled refusal on grounds of conscience by military intelligence, and other personnel who are asked to participate in coercive and/or covert detention of prisoners.

The United Methodist Church's Board of Church and Society and all other church boards and agencies are authorized to express support for the protection of the right of privacy for all citizens against unwarranted intrusion by their government or private entities.

The United Methodist Church encourages all United Methodists;

1. to be attentive to issues of human rights related policy and practice of their own governments;
2. to continue to advocate for human rights in the many paces around the world where those rights are in jeopardy;
3. to seek ways to assist victims of human rights abuse and to prevent further abuse of others; and to pray for all victims of such abuse and for those who persecute them."

and

Whereas, we continue to deplore the use of torture;

Therefore be it resolved that Resolution #6120 ("Opposition to Torture") as published in the 2008 Book of Resolutions be readopted as the official position of The United Methodist Church regarding our opposition to torture.

GC2016.16 – Removing Prejudice Against Ministerial Candidates with Disabilities

Number of Pages: 1

The Book of Discipline ¶324.8
General Conference Committee/Agency:
General Church Budget Implications: None
Global Implications: Speaks to ongoing prejudice against candidates with disabilities

Rationale:
The current clause opens the door to prejudging disabled provisional members as unfit for ministry. The health examination includes matters irrelevant to effective ministry. Jesus upheld disabled persons as "clean." John Wesley designed Methodism as an inclusive, not exclusive body of Christ with all and for all; so must we.

Whereas, the current health requirement for candidates is ambiguously worded and does not take into consideration the health issues as related to an ongoing disability.

Therefore be it resolved that ¶324.8 of The Book of Discipline be revised as follows: Each candidate shall present a satisfactory certificate of good health by a physician on the prescribed form. If a provisional candidate has one or more irremovable disabilities, those conditions shall have no bearing on the question of endorsing the candidate as an ordained elder in The United Methodist Church, with the decision based solely on the candidate having met the professional standards and is effective as a provisional member in ministry. Disabilities are not to be construed as unfavorable health factors when a person with a disability is capable of meeting the professional standards and is able to render effective service as a provisional member.

GC2016.17 – Non-Discrimination In UMC Employee Disability Benefits

Total Number of Pages: 1

The Book of Discipline ¶806
General Conference Committee/Agency: None
General Church Budget Implications: Nominal
Global Implications: Speaks to ongoing prejudice against candidates with disabilities

Rationale:
Disability insurance which restricts benefits for "nervous-mental conditions" – common practice – unjustly discriminates against some employees compared to others, violates Social Principle ¶162X and is counter to the principles of Resolution 3303, Ministry in Mental Illness. General Council on Finance and Administration is the appropriate agency to enforce non-use of United Methodist Church funds for such insurance.

Whereas, the current financial responsibilities of the GCFA does not adequately cover the impact mental-nervous conditions in relation to disability coverage.

Therefore be it resolved that a new paragraph ¶806.8 be added and all sequential paragraphs be reorder. The new paragraph ¶806.8 shall read:

> It shall be responsible for ensuring that no United Methodist board, agency, or other entity shall provide to their own agency, other agencies, or to annual conferences' disability compensation insurance for clergy or laity which offers different levels of protection based on whether or not the diagnosis is for a mental-nervous condition.

GC2016.18 – Not Optional, But Required Additional Member of Joint Committee on Clergy Medical Leave

Total Number of Pages: 1

The Book of Discipline ¶652
General Conference Committee/Agency:
General Church Budget Implications: No
Global Implications: None

Rationale:
Since each annual conference is required to establish a procedure for clergy medical leave, an active or retired ordained person with a disability must not be an optional, but a required part of the decision making body to ensure a fair and just course of action.

Whereas, the current requirements for membership, when establishing a conference joint committee on medical leave, are inadequate in terms of dealing with persons with disabilities.

Therefore be it resolved that BOD ¶652 should be revised to read:

> Each annual conference shall establish a procedure by which it will manage clergy medical leave. The annual conference may establish a joint committee on clergy medical leave. If the annual conference establishes such a committee, it ~~should~~ shall be composed of ~~at least~~ two representatives each from the Board of Ordained Ministry and the conference board of pensions, who may be elected by those boards at the establishment of the committee ~~at the beginning of each quadrennium~~ and at other times when vacancies occur, and one active or retired minister with one or more disabilities named by the Conference Committee on Disabilities, or – if there is no Conference Committee on Disabilities – then by the bishop, all of whom shall be elected either annually or the beginning of each quadrennium, and when a vacancy occurs. Further, a district superintendent shall be appointed from time to time to the committee by the bishop to represent the cabinet. ~~The joint committee shall be encouraged to include in its composition a person with a disability, preferably someone under appointment.~~ Unless and until other members are elected, the chairperson and registrar of the Board of Ordained Ministry, the chairperson and secretary of the Conference Board of Pensions, and the chairperson of the Conference Disability Committee or others designated by them, shall be authorized to represent their respective boards and the disability committee in organizing itself either annually or at the beginning of each quadrennium by the election of a chairperson and a secretary. If the annual conference does not establish a joint committee, the annual conference's established policy and process for managing ~~clergy medical leave~~ nonetheless should involve the Board of Ordained Ministry, the Conference Board of Pensions, the Conference Committee on Disabilities, and representation from the cabinet.

GC2016.19 – Non-Discrimination in Disability Compensation

Number of Pages: 1

The Book of Discipline ¶ New
General Conference Committee/Agency: General Board of Church and Society
General Church Budget Implications: No
Global Implications: Yes

Rationale:

Long term disability insurance protects employees around the world by providing continuing compensation in lieu of salary when an accident or illness prevents an employee from continuing his or her service to the employer. Ideally, such insurance provides for compensation based purely on the existence of a disability that prevents continuing employment and continues for the duration of that disability.

Whereas, in many countries such insurance is often subject to a limitation for disabilities based on "mental and nervous conditions." The primary reason offered for such acts of discrimination between disabilities is the comparative difficulty of validating disabilities whose evidence relies on self-reporting. Other reasons may include the belief that mental and nervous conditions are more likely temporary in nature and therefore a time limitation, typically two years, is appropriate. The limitation therefore places the administrative needs of insurers over the well-being of the persons they are committed to insure. In the United States, courts have held that discrimination in disability insurance is not addressed by non-discrimination provisions of either the Americans with Disabilities Act or the Affordable Care Act. In the United States, disability insurance is generally regulated at the state level.

Therefore be it resolved that The United Methodist Church affirms its long standing support for persons with mental illness and their families. Jesus Christ made no distinctions in his healing ministry between persons with physical disabilities and those which we might today call mental illnesses. We call upon the General Board of Church and Society to advocate globally on behalf of non-discriminatory long-term disability insurance for workers, and to support and encourage the work of Annual Conference Boards of Church and Society in such advocacy at state and regional legislative bodies.

GC2016.20 – Ensure Accessibility of Conference Meetings

Number of Pages: 1

The Book of Discipline ¶610.4
General Conference Committee/Agency:
General Church Budget Implications: No
Global Implications: Yes

Rationale:
The Upper New York Conference already has a strong policy in regards to holding Conference, district, board, and committee meetings and events at facilities that are accessible and we are now seeking to advocate for similar practices across our United Methodist connection.

Whereas, the involvement of persons with disabilities in Conference activities, meetings and leadership is often incumbent upon those activities taking place at facilities that are accessible.

Therefore be it resolved that ¶610.4 of The Book of Discipline be revised to read: ~~Whenever possible,~~ Every effort shall be made to ensure that all meetings scheduled by the annual conference and its districts, boards, or committees ~~should~~ will be held in places that are accessible to persons with disabilities even if this means scheduling meetings outside church-related facilities.

GC2016.21 – Do Not Invest in Petroleum, Coal, or Natural Gas

Number of Pages: 1

The Book of Resolutions #4071
Conference Committee/Agency:
Financial Implications: No

Whereas, United Methodists serve on the front lines of extreme weather events that will increase in frequency and severity with climate change. Continued investment in fossil fuels undermines The United Methodist Church's ministries with young people and vulnerable people.

Therefore be it resolved that in The Book of Resolutions section 4071, Socially Responsible Investing Strategies, a bullet be added after "operating or managing…" the production of petroleum, coal, or natural gas, then continue with bullet "antipersonnel weapons…".

GC2016.22 – Create Petroleum and Natural Gas Investment Screens

Number of Pages: 2

The Book of Resolutions New, #1001.2, 4071.1-2 Book of Discipline ¶160.D
General Conference Committee/Agency: General Board of Pensions and Health Benefits (GBOPHB)
General Church Budget Implications: No
Global Implications: No

Whereas, the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits (GBOPHB) manages more than $21 billion in assets on behalf of United Methodist clergy, staff, agencies, churches, and other institutions; and

Whereas, The United Methodist Church has acknowledged the risks of fossil fuel dependence for the last 35 years through its Energy Policy Statement in The Book of Resolutions #1001.2; and

Whereas, the investment policy goals of The United Methodist Church as outlined in The Book of Resolutions #4071.1-2 include investing in corporations, companies, institutions, or funds making a positive contribution to the realization of the goals outlined in the Social Principles and The Book of Resolutions, and exclude investing in companies that violate church values; and

Whereas, the Social Principles ¶160.D state that climate change will bring "…severe environmental, economic, and social implications," which will "…disproportionately affect individuals and nations least responsible for the emissions;" and

Whereas, the GBOPHB maintains significant holdings in petroleum and natural gas companies; and

Whereas, while shareholder advocacy can be effective in pressuring industries to change practices, it cannot change petroleum and natural gas companies' core business model, which is to produce petroleum and natural gas; and

Whereas, fossil fuel companies are spending up to $600 billion each year to seek additional reserves while governments worldwide spend another $600 billion each year subsidizing their consumption; and

Whereas, the processes and byproducts related to the extraction of petroleum and natural gas are damaging to the health of people who work in these industries as well as those who live on or near extraction sites; and

Whereas, the extraction and burning of petroleum and natural gas exacerbates climate change; and

Whereas, limiting the warming of the earth to 2 degrees Celsius, the internationally agreed upon limit for human survival, requires that the vast majority of the world's fossil fuels be left in the ground; and

Whereas, avoiding the worst impacts of climate change urgently requires a transition to sustainable energy; and

Whereas, United Methodists live and serve on the front lines of disasters like Hurricane Sandy, Typhoon Haiyan, prolonged droughts, devastating floods, massive wildfires, and other extreme weather events, which will increase in frequency and severity with climate change; and

Whereas, continued investment in petroleum and natural gas companies undermines The United Methodist Church's ministries to the most vulnerable among us – including those who are hungry, sick and/or living in poverty; and

Whereas, continued investment in petroleum and natural gas companies signals a grave disregard for the lives of young people;

Therefore be it resolved that the General Conference of The United Methodist Church petitions the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits of The United Methodist Church to adopt the following policy: Investments shall not knowingly be made in any company or entity whose core business activity involves the production of petroleum or natural gas. Core business activity refers to a company's primary, or central focus of activity and is an essential element in the company's economic success. A "core business" is one that accounts for 10 percent or more of a company's revenue derived from the objectionable products and/or services.

2015 Conference Journal

UNYAC2015.1 – Resolution Concerning the General Conference and Homosexuality

Total Number of Pages: 1

Whereas, according to The Social Principles of the United Methodist Church, ¶161F "The United Methodist Church does not condone the practice of homosexuality and considers this practice incompatible with Christian teaching." and

Whereas, two "agree to disagree" proposals were soundly defeated during separate votes by the nearly 1,000 delegates gathered for The United Methodist Church's 2012 General Conference in Tampa, Fla., therefore keeping the current discriminatory disciplinary language; and

Whereas, one defeated 2012 proposal would have changed The Book of Discipline simply to say that gays and lesbians are "people of sacred worth" and that church members "differ about whether homosexual practices (are) contrary to the will of God;" and

Whereas, at least 15 regional Conferences have rejected the denomination's stance on homosexuality; and

Whereas, 35 states now allow gay marriage, and The Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church ¶340 2a.3a states that the decision to perform the ceremony shall be the right and responsibility of the pastor "in accordance with the laws of the state and the rules of the United Methodist Church."and

Whereas, "one of the top reasons 59 percent of young adults with a Christian background have left the church is because they perceive the church to be too exclusive, particularly regarding their LGBT friends" (Kinnaman, David, You Lost Me: Why Young Christians Are Leaving Church...and Rethinking Faith); and

Whereas, many United Methodists in the United States, as well as persons from other countries, acknowledge that the Church is divided on this issue, but feel that current discriminatory disciplinary language is harmful not only to the groups that it attacks, but to the future of the church, as such language is alienating to both present and future members; and

Whereas, a resolution very similar to this one was presented and passed by the North Carolina Conference in 2013,

Therefore be it resolved that the Upper New York Annual Conference session of 2015, gathered in Syracuse implores its delegates to the 2016 General Conference to change the language used in The Social Principles and to affirm the place of LGBT (Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender) members within the Church, including access both to marriage and to ordination.

UNYAC2015.2 – Change to the Rules of Order

Number of Pages: 2

Conference Committee/Agency: Rules of Order Committee
Conference Church Budget Implications: None

Rationale:
The rights of persons with minority or alternate views should be protected in order that the membership of the Conference has full information prior to voting.

Whereas, the Upper New York Conference has the authority to determine Rules of Order by which its sessions will be governed; and

Whereas, Robert's Rules provide for the "Calling of the question" with no debate and sometimes with many persons still seeking to be recognized, as experienced in the Special Session on Oct. 18, 2014; and

Whereas, our Conference and denomination have become winner take all, even when the majority is small; and

Whereas, we have mirrored our United States Congress in becoming polarized to such a degree there is little opportunity for compromise, never mind consensus; and

Whereas, we have addressed conflicts with behind the scene alliance building that has emphasized difference rather than commonality; and

Whereas, Conference conflict resolution trainings have called for win-win solutions rather than win-lose solutions; and

Whereas, simply voting and determining the outcome does not indicate the whole voice of the Conference but the "winning" voice; and

Whereas, Jesus has prayed for us, his disciples, that we shall be one; and

Whereas, John Wesley has called for unity is essentials and charity in differences.

Therefore be it resolved that the Upper New York Conference hereby revises its Rules of Order to require a two-thirds majority to end debate when 25 or more persons are still seeking to be recognized, and if, after an hour's real debate time has elapsed, and the question is called, a simple majority may vote to close debate.

UNYAC2015.3 – Support a Fair Minimum Wage for New York State

Number of Pages: 1

The Book of Resolutions #4135.IV.2
Conference Committee/Agency: Social Holiness
Conference Church Budget Implications: No
Financial Implications: No

Rationale:
To communicate to the governor and members of the legislative districts covered within our Conference concerning the state's fair minimum wage.

Whereas, The United Methodist Church supports efforts to raise the minimum wage to a living wage and index it to inflation, according to its 2008 [2012] *Book of Resolutions (*Resolution 4135, "Rights of Workers"); and

Whereas, the federal minimum wage is $7.25 per hour (which is $290 per 40 hour week or $15,080 per year), and the New York State minimum wage is $8.75 per hour (or $350 per 40 hour week or $18,200 per year); and

Whereas, the governor's budget proposes $10.50 per hour across the state (which is $420 per 40 hour week or $21,840 per year) and $11.50 per hour in New York City (which is $460 per 40 hour week or $23,920 per year); and

Whereas, the purpose of a minimum wage is to allow a family of three to live on that wage; and

Whereas, the 2014-2015 Federal Income Guidelines (Effective through June 30, 2015) suggest the following as minimum:

	Gross Income
Household Size	Annual	Weekly
1	$21,590	$416
2	$29,101	$560
3	$36,612	$705

Therefore be it resolved that this session of Upper New York State Annual Conference join with the Labor-Religion coalition, Hunger Action Network of New York State and other organizations in calling for a minimum of $15.00 per hour indexed to inflation and elimination of sub-minimum wage for tipped workers.

UNYAC2015.4 – Locations for Annual Conference Sessions

Number of Pages: 2

The Book of Discipline:
Conference Committee/Agency: Bishop, Exec. Staff Team, and Annual Conference Sessions Planning Team
Financial Implications: Limited

Whereas, the Upper New York (UNY) Conference is composed of 915 individual congregations, within 12 districts, themselves within 49 of the 62 counties within New York state (every county above the Catskills within New York state); and

Whereas UNY Conference is seeking to create a vital identity which represents the full spectrum of the geography, cultures, and values of the former conferences; and

Whereas, solidarity with every portion of the Conference leads to establishing a maturing UNY Conference identity; and

Whereas, reciprocity of hospitality is a significant factor in creating and maintaining a maturing relationship within all communities, including conferences; and

Whereas, being present in differing geographical regions within the Conference boundaries opens the way for more complete bonding and ownership of Conference by those within fuller geographical extents of the Conference; and

Whereas, there are several major population regions within UNY Conference that are well-suited to hosting the UNY Annual Conference sessions.

Therefore be it resolved that beginning with the UNY Annual Conference session 2017, UNY Annual Conference sessions will be held in odd years in Syracuse and in even years within the Albany, Buffalo, or Rochester regions [i.e.: Syracuse/Albany/Syracuse/Buffalo or Rochester (or other regions if it is proven possible)].

UNYAC2015.5 – New Faith Community Lay Representation at Annual Conference

Number of Pages: 2

The Book of Discipline : ¶32, 602.4
Conference Committee/Agency: Bishop, Executive Staff Team and Annual Conference Sessions Team
Financial Implications: limited

Whereas, both Jesus and John Wesley prioritized preaching and teaching among the people in order to reach new people with the Gospel; and

Whereas, The United Methodist Church seeks to reach unchurched people for the sake of the Gospel; and

Whereas, one way of reaching unchurched people is to provide worship, service, and Christian fellowship opportunities in non-traditional settings through New Faith Communities; and

Whereas, the Upper New York Conference of The United Methodist Church has set a goal of establishing 100 New Faith Communities (NFCs) by 2020; and

Whereas, as of February 2015, already more than 40 such NFCs are in existence in the Upper New York Conference; and

Whereas, NFCs are a small but growing segment of UMC churches, reaching hundreds of previously unchurched individuals; and

Whereas, polity matters affecting the members of NFCs are discussed and determined at Annual Conference session; and

Whereas, the Constitution (¶32 of The Book of Discipline 2012) and Discipline (¶602.4 of The Book of Discipline 2012) of The United Methodist Church require that the number of lay members of each Annual Conference session be augmented, through the addition of "equalization lay members" (with voice and vote) so as to equal the number of clergy members in the Annual Conference session concerned; and

Whereas, the means for electing these equalization lay members is left to the discretion of each Annual Conference session.

Therefore be it resolved that the Rules for the Upper New York Annual Conference session of The United Methodist Church regarding equalization lay members shall be amended:

V. The prioritized list of potential nominees to serve as equalization lay members shall be as follows:

B. One lay person from each New Faith Community in good standing who is a professing member either of the existing chartered congregation(s) in partnership with the New Faith Community or received into membership under provisions outlined in ¶259.3 of The 2012 Book of Discipline. The list of New Faith Communities in good standing will

C. be determined by the director of New Faith Communities. [Subsequent paragraphs in this section of the Conference Rules will be renumbered.]

Total Number of Pages: 2

General Conference Committee/Agency: Conference Committee on Social Holiness, Conference Trustees
Financial Implications: No

Rationale:

Inequality in income in the United States has persistently increased over the last 50 years. A recent study concluded that the wealth gap between the richest Americans and the rest of us is more extreme than at any time since the 1930s (R. Smith*, More cost than we see to fast food,* Albany Times Union, Nov. 29, 2014). This trend is actually two trends: low-to-middle skill wages have not even kept up with inflation, while compensation for executives and high-skill workers has skyrocketed. Executive compensation in 1965 was 24 times greater than that of the average worker; in 2007 it was 275 times greater (C. Tucker, Hard work should be rewarded, Albany Times Union, Mar. 22, 2009), and in 2013 , 331 times greater [K. Vanden Heuvel, The Nation Stand v. 2 #1, 2015, pg. 10 (Am. Civil Lib. Union)]. Median compensation of large-company CEOs was 75 times greater than the average pay of non-supervisory production workers in 1980, but 344 times greater in 2008 (J. Cook and others, Tipping the Balance? American Federation of State, County, and Municipal Employees, AFL-CIO, 2011"). Surely today's executives are not 10 to 15 times wiser or more influential than their predecessors in the 1960s. In 2014, employees at McDonald's fast-food restaurants organized demonstrations seeking a minimum wage of $15 per hour – but even if they achieve this goal, it would take a full-time employee a year to earn what the corporate CEO is paid per hour, assuming he works a 60-hour week (R. Smith, More cost than we see to fast food, Albany Times Union, Nov. 29, 2014); and

Whereas, the Bible includes many passages that condemn hoarding of wealth and taking advantage of the poor (Deut. 24:14-15, Isaiah 3:14-15, Ezekiel 22:23-29, Amos 5:11-12, Matt. 19:21, Luke 12:15-21, 16:13-14, etc.), Amos (5:21-24) was shocked at the growing inequality between rich and poor under King Jeroboam II in Israel and proclaimed that until this social injustice was replaced by righteousness, God would ignore their hymns and ceremonies and reject their offerings. (J.D. Crossan, The Greatest Prayer (book), 2001); and

Whereas, a comprehensive critique of the U.S. economic system, co-authored by an economist and a theologian, H.E. Daly and J.B. Cobb, affirms that limited inequality is consistent with biblical teachings and the essential role of community in sustaining human life, but unlimited inequality would deny the very concept of community, and complete equality would deny real differences in human abilities and the need of community for various skills (H.E. Daly and J.B. Cobb, For the Common Good (book), Beacon Press, 1994, pg. 331); and

Whereas, The Book of Discipline ¶163 of the Social Principles states, "We support measures that would reduce the concentration of wealth in the hands of the few. We further support efforts to revise tax structures and to eliminate governmental support programs that now benefit the wealthy at the expense of other persons;" and

Whereas, John Wesley wrote that the acquisition of wealth and possessions in general leads to the destruction of faith and holiness (Jennings, Good News for the Poor: John Wesley's Evangelical Economics (book), 1990), and

Whereas, these and other teachings have inspired many Christians to contribute to society according to their abilities and opportunities without seeking or accepting compensation beyond their needs, but have not yet, overcome a culture that teaches Americans that their worthiness is proportional to how much they earn, spend, and possess; and

Whereas, we believe it is high time for the church and individual members to prophetically insist that government and corporations take practical steps to reduce inequality in earned income; and

Whereas, we support state and federal legislation to raise minimum wages for full-time employees to levels more closely approximating a living wage and to ensure that part-time employees receive proportional supplemental benefits (for example, a half-time employee should be entitled to an allowance usable only for health insurance equal to half of whatever health benefit a full-time employee receives). We further support federal legislation that would extend to all corporations the provision of the Affordable Care Act that prohibits deduction as a business expense on corporate tax returns of annual compensation to any executive in excess of $500,000.

Therefore be it resolved hat the Conference Committee on Social Holiness be directed to prepare and send letters on behalf of Upper New York Conference to state and federal legislators who represent districts within the Conference boundaries, conveying our support for such legislation, with appropriate rationales; and

Be it further resolved that the Conference Board of Trustees, local church boards of trustees, and church members who hold corporate stock be encouraged to vote their proxies against executive pay plans that far exceed human needs and to write to boards of directors of any mutual funds they own urging similar action.

UNYAC2015.7 – Creation of Bridging Team

Number of Pages: 1

Conference Committee/Agency: Episcopal Office, Sessions Committee, Conference Leadership Team
Conference Church Budget Implications: No

Rationale:
Create a Bridging Team that seeks to bridge gaps in understanding and create win-win solutions around divisive issues.

Whereas, our Conference and denomination have become winner take all, even when the majority is small; and

Whereas, we have mirrored our United States Congress in becoming polarized to such a degree there is little opportunity for compromise, never mind consensus; and

Number of Pages: 1

The Book of Resolutions/The Book of Discipline
Conference Committee/Agency: Episcopal Office, Sessions Committee, Conference Leadership Team
Conference Church Budget Implications: No

Rationale:
Create a voting process and process of reporting the outcome of votes that describes a true description of where the Conference stands on issues – for instance, "that we are divided 55 percent for and 45 percent against."

Whereas, our Conference and denomination have become winner take all, even when the majority is small; and

Whereas, we have mirrored our United States Congress in becoming polarized to such a degree there is little opportunity for compromise, never mind consensus; and

Therefore be it resolved that the Conference obtain counts of votes for and against divisive issues and announce the percentage of votes for and against and a narrative reflecting the voice for and voice against, thus providing a true representation of what the Conference is saying (implement at the 2015 Annual Conference session);

UNYAC2015.9 – Resolution to Support the Turtle Island Trust and the People of Ganienkeh

Number of Pages: 2

2012 Book of Resolutions #3334
Conference Committee/Agency: Conference Secretary
Conference Church Budget Implications: No

Whereas, it has been "resolved that being justified by faith, we will honor as sacred those practices that: call us back to the sacredness of Native people, affirm as beautiful their identity among the world's peoples; lead us into right relationship with our Creator, creation, and those around us; and call us into holy living. We call upon the world, the church, The United Methodist Church, and the people of the United Methodist Church to receive the gifts of Native people as people of God." (#3334); and

Whereas, it has been "resolved, that The United Methodist Church begin a process of healing relationships with indigenous persons to continue through the quadrennium and beyond that necessarily includes such activities as study guides and resources; self-examination, discovering the ongoing impact of historic traumas; confessing our own participation in the continuing effects of that trauma, building relationships with indigenous persons wherever we, the Church, are; building those relationships through listening and being present with indigenous persons, working beside indigenous persons to seek solutions to current problems … " (#3324); and

Whereas, it has been "further resolved, that the General Conference recommends that local churches develop similar statements of confession as a way of fostering a deep sense of community with Native Americans and encourages the members of our church to stand in solidarity on these important issues and to provide mediation when appropriate for ongoing negotiations with state and federal agencies regarding these matters." (#3322); and

Whereas, the people of Ganienkeh and the Turtle Island Trust have made possible, for hundreds of visitors of all ages, life-enhancing learning, and relationship-building experiences. In their minds the Ganienkehagas are there forever. It is our hope to provide this for many generations to come; and

Whereas, the Turtle Island Trust, through the efforts of its trustees, has been a vehicle for peace on all sides; and

Whereas, the "Act of Repentance" requires that the Church will never again remain silent when it is called to speak.

Therfore be it resolved that The Upper New York Conference, representing over 900 churches, with 168,000 members, in light of our Act of Repentance journey, support the people of Ganienkeh Territory and the Turtle Island Trust in their ongoing efforts to establish peace with justice. This Annual Conference session, in light of the urgency of this present historic moment, asks Governor Andrew M. Cuomo, and the Attorney General Eric T. Schneiderman, to exercise the leadership required to ensure peace and justice for all by honoring the Turtle Island Trust Agreement. This agreement, which came into being in 1977 through the efforts of then-Secretary of State Mario Cuomo, established the Turtle Island Trust as a tax-exempt charitable land trust through which the people of New York and of Ganienkeh Territory resolved their differences in peace and with dignity for all; and

Be it futher resolved that a copy of this resolution be sent, by the Conference secretary, to the governor and attorney general of New York state.

UNYAC2015.10 – Fruits Of Repentance: An End to the Celebration of Columbus Day

Number of Pages: 2

The Book of Discipline: ¶162 & 162a
Conference Committee/Agency:
Conference Church Budget Implications: No

"Bear fruits worthy of repentance!" - John the Baptist

Rationale:
The Upper New York Conference accepts the challenge of the 2012 General Conference of The United Methodist Church to engage in an Act of Repentance and Healing Relationships with Indigenous Persons. Turning away from our frequent refusal to listen to history from the perspective of Native peoples, we understand that repentance is a choice to grow in the way we see ourselves. We live in a spirit of repentance as we explore a change in how we tell and celebrate the story of the Americas.

Whereas, Christopher Columbus failed to treat the Native peoples of the Americas with respect; and

Whereas, he engaged in human trafficking; and

Whereas, he used his influence to establish a culture of sexual exploitation of children and minors of Native American descent by adults of European descent; and

Whereas, he established systems of forced labor resulting in the destruction of cultures and untold suffering for millions of individuals; and

Whereas, he engaged in brutal collective corporal punishment, the deliberate repression of Native American cultural expression, and other acts we now correctly name as genocide; and

Whereas, he established a culture of exploitation of the earth that continues to dishonor and often destroy God's living creation.

Therefore be it resolved that "Columbus Day" will no longer be recognized by the people of the Upper New York Conference of the United Methodist Church. Our Conference offices and local churches will either not observe this holiday or will initiate organizational conversations designed to rename and re-purpose this holiday in accordance with our United Methodist Social Principles (The Book of Discipline ¶¶162 & 162a), and

Be it further resolved that the Upper New York Conference of The United Methodist Church designates our Conference Leadership Team in consultation with our Committee on Native American Ministries to ~~to~~ provide and distribute to our local churches a liturgy designed to enact the spiritual dimensions of our choice to cease participating in the celebration of Columbus. Our repentance, petitions for God's forgiveness, and return to God's Word for visions of the relationships God desires will take place in worship on the Sunday closest to the second Monday in October, and

Be it further resolved that the Upper New York Annual Conference, its committees, districts, and local churches are encouraged and directed to invest our relational influence at regional, local and personal levels towards the initiation of conversations intended to awaken the conscience of God's people to the benefits of turning away from the legacy of Columbus.

UNYAC2015.11 – Study the Location of the Conference Headquarters in a Local Church Building

Number of Pages: 2

Conference Committee/Agency: Conference Trustees
Conference Church Budget Implications: Conference Headquarters cost to house conference and area staffs

Rationale:
The Conference can become a model, following the General Board of Global Ministries, in moving from commercial office space to offices in an inner-city local church, property the Conference already owns.

Whereas, the directors of the United Methodist General Board of Global Ministries (GBGM) voted Oct. 3, 2014, on a far reaching plan to move its U.S. headquarters from New York City to Atlantaby 2016; and

Whereas, the Atlanta office will be in a downtown, inner-city United Methodist Church, a location where GBGM believes it can more adequately fulfill its goals "to make disciples of Jesus Christ, strengthen churches and communities, alleviate human suffering, and foster justice, peace and freedom;" and

Whereas, the Board plans to purchase the building from the local congregation to house its U.S. offices and to allow the congregation to continue to worship and minister there; and

Whereas, the planned purchase by the Upper New York Conference of new office space for the staffs of the Bishop and the Conference has failed to materialize; and

Whereas, the Upper New York Conference offices currently are housed in a local church, University United Methodist Church, in the heart of Syracuse; and

Whereas, investing in property already owned by the Conference would place the resources of the Conference in service to the Church rather than in commercial real estate; and

Whereas, the Church is located in a vibrant university/medical neighborhood with students, medical and university staffs, and the poor living and working in a diverse ethnic and racial community,;and

Whereas, the neighborhood affords many conveniences such as over 20 restaurants and five hotels within six blocks, a post office, art and theater nearby; and

Whereas, the upgrading of infrastructure and remodeling of a building the Conference already owns would likely be much less than proposed figures for purchasing and retrofitting commercial property; and

Whereas, the Conference has the opportunity to become a leader in modelling a cutting edge approach to mission and ministry through the development of a unified conference and mission center; and

Whereas, such a step would provide a significant boost to the Cabinet's plan for revitalizing and restructuring United Methodist presence and witness in the City of Syracuse; and

Whereas, the plan for revitalizing Methodism in the city of Syracuse is significantly tied to the repurposing of church buildings;

Therefore be it resolved that the Conference Trustees be instructed to meet with University Church Trustees to explore all options, including the formal ownership and management of the building by the Conference with appropriate studies of the costs of infrastructure upgrades and remodeling, signage, parking, reception area; and

Be it further resolved that the Conference Trustees consider not only economic and convenience factors but also such issues as good stewardship of church resources, the image of the Church in moving to the suburbs, the example of spending large sums for spacious and comfortable office space when our commitment is to serve our neighborhoods and the poor; and

Be it further resolved that a report be presented to members of the Conference, detailing the study and its outcome(s), including a missional rationale for the resulting decisions.

UNYAC2015.12 – Health Insurance for All Clergy and Local Pastors

Number of Pages: 1

Conference Committee/Agency: Board of Pensions
Conference Church Budget Implications: Yes

Whereas, I Corinthians 9:13-14 states, "Don't you know that those who serve in the temple get their food from the temple, and that those who serve at the altar share in what is offered on the altar? In the same way, the Lord has commanded that those who preach the gospel should receive their living from the gospel" (NIV); and

Whereas, currently part-time clergy and local pastors do not have access to health insurance through the Conference; and

Whereas, the 2014 provisions of the Affordable Care Act requires all persons in the United States to have health insurance; and

Whereas, the Affordable Care Act requires any employer with 50 or more full time employees to provide affordably priced health insurance to employees. This includes employees who work 30 hours per week.

Thereforw be it resolved that the Conference Board of Pensions and Health Benefits explore the option of providing health insurance for all part time clergy and local pastor; and

Be it further resolved that the Conference Board of Pensions and Health Benefits put in place health insurance coverage required to place the Conference in compliance with the letter and the spirit of this federal law.

UNYAC2015.13 – Property Insurance

Number of Pages: 2

The Book of Resolutions/The Book of Discipline: ¶2527, 2533.2, and 2550.7
Conference Committee/Agency: Conference Board of Trustees Conference Church Budget Implications: Possibly

Rationale:
The mandatory property insurance program, maintained by the Conference Board of Trustees has not been, and is not now, responsive to the changing insurance industry climate and needs of all local churches in our Conference.

Whereas, the United Methodist Book of Discipline in ¶2527 gives each local church the authority and power in matters relating to the real and personal property of the local church; and

Whereas, the United Methodist Book of Discipline in ¶2533.2 places the responsibility to review annually the adequacy of the property, liability, and crime insurance coverage on church-owned property, buildings, and equipment, with the local church Board of Trustees; and

Whereas, the United Methodist Book of Discipline ¶2550.7 charges the local church Board of Trustees to report to the Charge Conference the results of its review and any recommendations it deems necessary; and

Whereas, the authority to complete these tasks has been undermined by the Conference's mandatory Conference-wide insurance program; and

Whereas, that insurance program was implemented by the New ACT group to "take advantage of the economies of scale" as a result of buying insurance in quantity and yet, that same plan, has not produced those desired results for many churches in our Conference; and

Whereas, the Conference Board of Trustees has been slow to react to changes in the insurance industry and environment, including the implementation of possible options that the Conference Board of Trustees has agreed to make available to Conference churches desiring a reduction in their insurance premium costs; and

Whereas, local churches continue to experience higher insurance costs with very little option to control those same costs; and

Whereas, the Plan of Union document adopted on June 19, 2010 states, "the Plan of Union provides the practical outline for how [the union] will be done in accordance with our polity and the 2008 Book of Discipline. It is designed to be organic; providing a framework for the unification, while permitting change as we further discern God's will for how our Annual Conference will grow into the future;" and

Whereas, it would now seem in the best interest of the local churches of the Conference to be able make independent decisions regarding their property insurance;

Therefore be it resolved that, effective immediately, the Conference sponsored property insurance program be a recommended rather than mandatory option for the local churches of the Conference, allowing each local church Board of Trustees and Charge Conference to fulfill their responsibilities according to The United Methodist Church Book of Discipline by securing insurance as best fits their needs, as the duly elected and empowered leaders of each local church.

UNYAC2015.14 – Protecting Seneca Lake

Number of Pages: 2

The Book of Discipline: ¶160A, 163H, 163I, 164F
Conference Committee/Agency: Social Holiness
Conference Church Budget Implications: No

Rationale:
Houston based Crestwood Midstream plans to store highly pressurized natural gas (methane) and liquefied petroleum gases (butane and propane, also known as LPG) in abandoned salt mines near Seneca Lake, the largest body of fresh water wholly contained within New York state.

Seneca serves as a source of drinking water for 100,000 people.

Whereas, old unlined salt caverns are dangerous vessels for the storage of flammable gases (as was illustrated in Hutchison, Kansas when salt cavern-stored natural gas leaked through subterranean fissures and fractures and caused deadly explosions seven miles away) and can also be structurally unstable (as was illustrated by the 1994 collapse of a salt cavern in Livingston County, N.Y., in a calamity that included sinkholes, methane contaminated basements, and a permanently poisoned drinking water aquifer); and

Whereas, Seneca Lake caverns are vulnerable to roof collapses that could allow pressurized gases to escape, as is evidenced by the 400,000-ton roof collapse that has already occurred in a Seneca Lake salt cavern now slated by Crestwood for natural gas storage; and

Whereas, the Federal Energy Regulatory (FERC), over the strenuous objections of citizens and independent geologists, nevertheless approved Crestwood's natural gas storage expansion plan in May 2014; and

Whereas on Aug. 11, 2014, the New York State Department of Environmental Conservation (DEC) called a temporary halt to Crestwood's plans to stockpile LPG in the Seneca Lake salt caverns by announcing a special issues conference to investigate ongoing health, safety, and environmental concerns of lakeside storage here; and

Whereas, one day later, on Aug. 12, Crestwood outrageously announced a plan to commence construction of a compressor station to pressurize natural gas for underground storage in salt caverns; and

Whereas, dozens of Schuyler County health care professionals have called for a halt to both natural gas and LPG storage in these salt caverns on the grounds that they raise unacceptable risks of catastrophic accidents, injuries; and contaminate water and air; and

Whereas, the Social Principles of the United Methodist Church ¶160A supports and encourages social policies and measures "designed to maintain and restore natural ecosystems;" and urges "all municipalities and other governmental organizations to develop processes for determining sustainability of water resources and to determine the environmental, economic, and social consequences of privatization of water resources prior to the licensing and approval thereof," and

Whereas, ¶163H which advocates for the survival of family farms, which have been threatened by "increasing concentration of all phases of agriculture into the hands of a limited number of transnational corporations" raising "global questions of justice that cry out for vigilance and action;" and

Whereas, ¶163I calls for corporate responsibility including "the communities in which they do business, and for the earth, which supports them" and for the "public's right to know what impact these corporations have in these various arenas…" and

Whereas, ¶164F recognizes "the right of individuals to dissent when acting under the constraint of conscience and, after having exhausted all legal recourse, to resist or disobey laws that they deem to be unjust…"

Therefore be it resolved that the Upper New York Conference of the United Methodist Church supports the movement to protect Seneca Lake by continuing to advocate within the political system to prevent gas storage in the salt caverns nearby; and

Be it further resolved that the United Methodist Church encourage individuals who are called to do so, to join with others to engage in peaceful, nonviolent acts of protest, up to and including civil disobedience, until additional storage of LPG and methane in Seneca Lake salt caverns is halted; and

Be it further resolved that the Conference secretary forward a copy of this motion, upon passage, to Crestwood Midstream, Houston, Texas, The Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, the NYS DEC, and the appropriate legislative and judicial bodies of Schuyler County.

UNYAC2015.15 – Revise Rules of Fair Presentation of Proposed Actions

Number of Pages: 3

Conference Committee/Agency: Sessions Committee
Conference Church Budget Implications:

Rationale:
There needs to be fair allocation of platform time and resources for proponents and opponents to present their cases to the Annual Conference session in order for members to have full information prior to voting.

Whereas The United Methodist Church's polity follows the federal model of legislative (Annual Conference session), judicial (Judicial Council), and executive (Bishop and staff) branches to define roles and ensure justice; and

Whereas, the General Conference ensures fair presentation of issues by providing for majority and minority reports; and

Whereas, the special session of the Upper New York Conference held Oct. 18, 2014 experienced an unfair presentation of pro and con issues related to the purchase of new Conference headquarters; and

Whereas, the Trustee proposal was posted on the conference website but no opposing or alternative proposals were posted; and

Whereas, no petitions were invited for presentation to the special session which may have proposed alternative plans; and

Whereas, the Trustees used multiple speakers and PowerPoint to present its proposal, statistical studies, and financial data, taking the Conference to 15 minutes of the announced adjournment time; and

Whereas, groups and persons with alternative or opposing points-of-view had no opportunity to present a planned, coherent position with equal time and the ability to use visual charts and data; and

Whereas, Conference members were limited to three-minute speeches raising issues with the proposal, with the random luck of being recognized by the chair; and

Whereas, questions or issues raised from the floor were responded to by spokespersons of the proposal with no opportunity for rebuttal or further questioning, a helter-skelter presentation of alternate views and concerns; and

Whereas, this is not a short-coming unique to the special session, but is a systemic flaw in conducting the Conference's business in Annual Conference sessions.

Therefore be it resolved that the Upper New York Conference instructs its Sessions Committee to design a fair and equitable process for presentation of issues and actions coming before a session of the Conference so that members can make informed decisions on what is before them; and

Be it further resolved that the Sessions Committee is instructed to provide for platform time equal to the primary proposal and to make available visual media if it is available to the primary proposal; and

Be it further resolved that prior to a vote on the issue, both the primary and secondary spokespersons will have a set time to respond.

UNYAC2015.16 – To Create an Open and Fair Communications System

Number of Pages: 3

Conference Committee/Agency: Conference Communications Director
Conference Church Budget Implications: No

Rationale:
Prior to consideration of an issue by the Annual Conference session, there needs to be an opportunity for open and fair discussion and conversation in Conference media by members of the Conference and local churches.

Whereas, the Conference communications media were closed to all dissenting or concerned persons prior to the special session of the Upper New York Conference held Oct. 18, 2014 wishing to share their points-of-view with Upper New York Conference members (re: the Trustee proposal to purchase a building for a new conference center); and

Whereas, the Trustee proposal was posted on the conference website but no opposing views were allowed; and

Whereas, a request was made and turned down to post alternative proposals for a Conference headquarters; and

Whereas, there was no forum of diverse views in the Conference Weekly Digest or Advocate ; and

Whereas, distribution of documents proposing alternatives to the Trustee proposal were not allowed in the OnCenter where the Special Session was held;

Therefore be it resolved that the Communications Director of the Upper New York Conference is directed to create space on all Conference media for the presentation of diverse points-of-view on issues and actions coming before the Conference, including the editions of the Advocate, the website, blogs, and news reporting, with a report to the 2016 Annual Conference session on actions he has taken.

UNYAC2015.17 – Formation of Upper New York Conference United Methodist Historical Society

Reference: The Book of Discipline ¶641.2

Rationale:
Financial implications: Start-up costs will be paid by the Conference Commission on Archives and History.

Whereas, ¶641.2 of The Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church states that the conference commission on archives and history may "organize a conference historical society and encourage membership therein for the purpose of promoting interest in the study and preservation of the history of the conference and its antecedents;" and

Whereas, such Conference-wide Methodist historical society would aid the work of Upper New York Commission on Archives and History and would provide an additional way for Conference members to connect to the Upper New York Conference. The Upper New York Conference Commission on Archives and History formed a committee to draft bylaws for such a historical society.

Therefore be it resolved that the Upper New York Conference endorse this endeavor and support formation of an Upper New York Conference United Methodist Historical Society.

Be it further resolved that it is agreed that the Upper New York Commission on Archives and History be authorized to organize and administer the society for a maximum of two years until officers are elected.

Reports: Conference Teams

(Received May 27, 2015 with adoption of Consent Calendar)

2015 Conference Journal

Accessibility Concerns Team

Our team's accomplishments for 2014 were few but mighty!

First, we were able to recruit volunteers to enter the data from our Accessibility Audits so we now have an (almost) complete spreadsheet that shows, at a glance, which of our Conference's facilities are accessible for district and Conference events. We will be making these spreadsheets available to each district office. We would like to thank all our data-entry volunteers!

We were invited to work with the Upper New York Sessions Committee to help ensure that our Annual Conference sessions are as accessible as possible. The introduction of electronic voting machines this year provided a special area of concern. We discussed ways to make sure that any delegate with physical challenges would be able to register their votes via these machines with confidence and confidentiality. We are grateful that UNY takes accessibility seriously, and we look forward to providing assistance, support, and guidance wherever possible in the future.

The best part of our work this past year was the recovery of funds that had been earmarked for accessibility projects in the former Wyoming Conference, but had been mislabeled in the process of forming the Upper New York Conference. Through the dedication and investigative skills of our Conference Treasurer Kevin Domanico, we were able to track down the $9,870 designated reserve that was paid into UNY from the Wyoming Conference Health and Welfare Committee in 2010. This money is now available for no-interest, short-term loans for local church accessibility projects. The first beneficiary of these funds was the Cobleskill United Methodist Church, which received a three-year $3,000 loan for its large-scale accessibility project.

Our future goals include:

- creating an online accessibility audit that can be completed or updated by any church at any time;
- working with the BOM and dCOMs to develop ways of working with candidates for ministry who have disabilities;
- finding ways to solicit financial support for our accessibility loan project, and perhaps develop a grant project as well.

Like other teams and committees, our ability to hold meetings has been hampered by the geography of our Conference. Although we have not held a formal meeting since the last session of Annual Conference, we have been able to carry out our work by email.

Africa 360 – Imagine No Malaria Report – Advance #3021190

At the 2014 Annual Conference, the Upper New York Conference voted to raise $1 million for Imagine No Malaria as part of Africa 360. That $1 million equates to 100,000 lives, which is roughly equivalent to saving enough lives to fill BOTH Ralph Wilson Stadium (Buffalo Bills) and the Carrier Dome at Syracuse University (Basketball), all saved from a preventable, treatable disease.

Malaria claims nearly 600,000 lives every year, with 78% of those being children under the age of 5. But Malaria is preventable, treatable and beatable – together, the United Methodist Church can make malaria a memory.

Across the world, amazing progress has been made over the past decade in the fight to eradicate malaria. According to the 2014 World Malaria Report released by the World Health Organization, mortality rates have decreased by 47% since 2000. That's 670 fewer cases and 4.3 fewer malaria deaths; the rate of death has been cut in half from one death every 30 seconds to one death every 60 seconds. While that might not seem like progress; for every prayer we say for a child that dies, another child has been given life – and that number will only increase through the efforts of this Conference! The dramatic reduction in deaths is only possible because of efforts of Conferences like Upper New York; the United Methodist Church continues to be on the forefront of the fight against malaria.

There is hope; the upward trend of lives saved is set to continue long into the future; Imagine No Malaria worldwide is only $10 million short of its $75 million goal to dramatically reduce the deaths in Africa. The grants that have been distributed encourage sustainability and local sourcing, as well as local volunteers and health boards to continue applying for funds from many different foundations.

Churches around the conference have already stepped up, set goals, and thought creatively about how to raise awareness about Imagine No Malaria in their communities and their churches. Brockport UMC hosted a boys-versus-girls can drive to raise $1,000 for Africa 360 (the boys won!), Park United Methodist Church in Hamilton made colorful mosquitoes and "cleared the net" as a Lenten offering, and countless other churches across the conference are stepping out creatively to help the world Imagine No Malaria. This Annual Conference, districts and local churches' progress toward the goal of 100,000 lives will be highlighted and celebrated – it will be time to celebrate the progress made, think of new creative ways to communicate the message of Imagine No Malaria, and gather energy to continue through the remainder of this mission initiative and beyond.

If your church hasn't been involved yet, and you need more information and resources, contact Field Coordinator Laurel O'Connor at ImagineNoMalaria@unyumc.org or visit the page on the UNYUMC website.

Africa University Task Force – Advance #3021028

Africa University is grateful to the leadership and local congregations of the Upper New York Conference for their investment in the Africa University Fund (AUF) apportionment in 2014. Thank you for investing 59 percent of the asking to the AUF and for your ongoing support for the "Give Faithfully. Give Hope. Be a Global Neighbor" campaign – the Conference's effort to endow scholarships for students at Africa University.

Student enrollment: Full-time student enrollment at Africa University held steady in 2014 with 1,478 young men and women from 25 African countries. Female students were a record 53.4 percent of the total enrollment – a fact that is worth celebrating in a context where women consistently lag behind men in access to higher education.

Graduation: In June 2014, 480 young people were awarded degrees from Africa University at the 20th graduation ceremony, bringing the total number of alumni to just under 5,300. Without your support, a college education would have been unattainable for the majority of these students.

Training and research: Africa University remains a sought-after partner in addressing critical skills and capacity gaps in sub-Saharan Africa. A collaboration with the Raoul Wallenberg Institute in Sweden supports a new master's degree program in Human Rights, Peace, and Development. Africa University is also preparing to launch its first PhD program, which links issues of Peace, Leadership, Governance, and Development, and targets policymakers.

Leadership and service: Africa University graduates are answering the call to serve, heal, and uplift communities. Currently, more than a dozen graduates are serving as Global Mission Fellows and missionaries in Africa, Europe, and Latin America. Your gifts are transforming individuals and communities and bringing new people into relationship with Jesus Christ.

For every individual who has been touched by the ministry that is Africa University, there are many others – tens of thousands, in fact – who are awaiting the miracle of an answered prayer. Upper New York's 2014 shortfall in the asking to the AUF, which was $14,522.61, is almost equivalent to one year's fees for three students at Africa University. Sadly, it represents an unrealized opportunity to equip three young people for meaningful citizenship and service. As you gather for the 2015 session of the Upper New York Annual Conference, we urge you to set a goal of 100 percent support for the Africa University Fund and other shared ministries. By continuing to invest, you keep Africa University in the forefront of disciple-making, leadership formation, and positive change in Africa.

Upper New York, your investment in Africa University is vital. Please remain steadfast in your efforts to invest 100 percent of your asking in the AUF. Thank you for what you have already done and for what you will do in the future. May God bless and keep you always in abundance.

Africa University Endowed Scholarship Fund Task Force

Give Faithfully, Give Hope, Be A Global Neighbor

A Miracle: Africa University – a United Methodist Related Institution – 21 years and counting. Twenty-one years and nearly 6,000 graduates from 29 nations of Africa – learning, living, healing, leading throughout Africa and in other continents of the world.

A Miracle: As we celebrate the graduates who have received scholarships from previously endowed funds, we look forward to celebrating with the recipients of the 2014 Upper New York Conference designated Bishop Marcus Matthews and Barbara Matthews Scholarship and the Dr. Julius Archibald, Jr. and Anola Loree Archibald Scholarship. Ponder the Miracle: these two scholarships will provide two years of education each year forever more. Now it is two years of education, in 10 years these two endowed scholarships will have provided 20 years of education. Multiply that by our goal of at least eight endowed scholarships per year – in 10 years that will be 80 years of education.

Celebrating an Annual Conference tradition, 2014 Walkers and Bikers were greeted with balloons and singing at the Africa University Under the Acacia Tree display as they rode/walked into the lobby at the OnCenter. They had told the AU story and collected scholarship monies on their way. In 2015, the tradition will continue with some expanded activities. Come, See, and Celebrate. To Walk/Run/Ride in 2015 contact the Rev. Robert Long by email at BikeAlong2@nycap.rr.com.

Under the Acacia Tree – an Africa University VBS resource developed by Upper New York pastors the Rev. Robert Kolvik-Campbell, the Rev. Rebecca Parry, and the Rev. Judith Johnson-Siebold – continues to be used in Upper New York's churches and in churches across the United Methodist connection. Rev. Parry will incorporate the Africa University/Imagine No Malaria (INM) relationship in the "Jesus as Healer" session. Did you know that the AU Faculty of Health Sciences provides training in prevention, diagnosis, and treatment of malaria for INM selected persons from African villages?

A Miracle: Graduates of Africa University make a difference. Taking their professional knowledge and experiences into villages, cities and the country-side; bringing healing practices and teaching community practitioners; sharing new ways of productive agricultural practice and animal husbandry; being God's love in action; developing ways of enhancing educational opportunities at every level of need; providing leadership in peace, leadership and governance; becoming mediators in conflict; and always living, leading, training, and encouraging community leaders.

Last year you were introduced to the United Methodist Women book Why Africa Matters by Cedric Mayson. This year, every member of every church is asked to respond to the challenge to make a difference in Africa. AU speakers are waiting to be asked to share their enthusiasm for The Miracle of AU, The Miracle of providing scholarships and years of education for African students who will learn at Africa University, live in Africa, and lead in Africa.

Contact Shirley Drake Byers via email at sdcjbyers1@nycap.rr.com if you want an Africa University speaker, or if you want to share your enthusiasm for the AU Miracle as an AU speaker.

Archives and History, Commission on

This year, the Commission on Archives and History has been maintaining three archival locations. One in Buffalo, which holds records from the former Western New York Conference, one in Syracuse that hold records from the former North Central New York Conference, and one in Saratoga Springs, which holds the New York portions of the former Troy and Wyoming conferences. The Saratoga Springs building was sold and the Conference will be paying rent to store the archives there. It is great news that the plans for a potential future Conference Center call for the archives to be all housed under one roof. This is a great thing for researchers and other Conference personnel to have it all in one location. It would be a money-saving move as well, as we would no longer be paying rent for the three spaces. The commission is very much looking forward to the move. It is also noted that both the Syracuse and the Saratoga Springs archival locations received many boxes of records from recently closed churches over the past year.

The pastor grave marking program, under the direction of Ken Summers, is now up and running smoothly. Each district office has a supply of three markers, and they are replenished as needed. Summers was able to secure an agreement with a foundry in Pennsylvania that will make our markers for us.

One of the challenges this year has been in answering research requests, as we are without an archivist in both the Buffalo and Syracuse archival locations. Karen Staulters has been trying to do what she can to answer these. She is still maintaining the Saratoga Springs collection.

The commission had eight members attend the annual Northeastern Jurisdiction Commission on Archives in History meeting located in Madison, N.J., hosted by the Greater New Jersey Conference. This was held May 6-8, 2014. The conference honored the ministries of Thomas Coke and Francis Asbury in colonial New Jersey. There was a bus tour that took the group to numerous Methodist historical sites as well as to Washington's headquarters. The commission members met with other NEJ members that had historical societies to brainstorm and share information.

A subcommittee was formed to pursue the creation of a historical society for Upper New York and they have been preparing documents and a resolution to be presented at the 2015 Annual Conference session.

This year's Annual Conference session display featured the burial places of deceased bishops buried within the Upper New York area from all the previous conference areas.

It is also noted that the commission purchased the Hannibal Circuit Book of the Methodist Episcopal Church, which was in the Oswego area, to be part of our collection.

We are looking forward to preparing and moving all the archival materials to a new Conference Center. Once all is moved and organized, we can work on getting the whole collection catalogued. The former Troy Conference materials are already done and they are in electronic format. The hope is to be able to get the whole collection catalogued electronically to make researching easier for all.

Members of the committee are the Rev. James Barnes, Karen Staulters, the Rev. Marcia Wickert, Ken and Marge Summers, Adam Barnes, the Rev. Jacob Denny, Merle and Catharine Doud, Joyce Ellis, Marcia Focht, Margaret and Lee Flanders, Jim Lesch, the Rev. Betsye Mowry, Nancy Rutenber, Richard Ward, and Gilbert Smith (emeritus member).

Camp & Retreat Ministries, Committee on

This past year has been a challenging and dynamic time for Camp & Retreat Ministries. We were blessed with successfully providing an immersive, supportive, spiritual opportunity for hundreds of God's children – young and old alike. We worked more efficiently and were more focused than ever. We synthesized our efforts and began to truly feel that we are a united program, provided throughout Upstate New York. We continue to be blessed by devoted, enthusiastic and effective staff, both professional and volunteer.

The long awaited evaluation of our financial position has begun, with the Conference providing a more realistic fiscal assessment of both the individual sites and our collective position. Simultaneously, we have undertaken the serious work of strategically planning the future work of our Conference's Camp & Retreat Ministries. Perhaps the greatest challenge this year has been the juxtaposition of those two efforts, as we have been forced to make programmatic decisions based on newfound financial realities, before we have completed the strategic planning process. Simply put, this means that despite what the strategic plan may eventually indicate is the most appropriate path, we have been forced to start walking in a direction that addresses financial concerns.

We now know that some of the sites carried structural deficits into the formation of the new Conference. Some were subsidized by their former conferences and so the new Upper New York Conference inherited activities that were supported by structures that were not self-supporting. Since the Conference's formation, this information was hidden within a morass of accounts and diverse accounting practices. New clarity in our financial condition required CRM to make immediate decisions. We initiated efficiencies in the provision of programs and services, consolidated staffing responsibilities and reworked our approach to struggling programs. We have been prayerful and innovative in that process, but it has not been easy.

By making difficult decisions to increase efficiency, we have pared down the deficits identified by the Conference fiscal staff. One of the revelations has been that the Conference has actually been subsidizing the Camp & Retreat Ministry at a greater rate than previously identified. To address this, we implemented a three-fold plan that reduces our expenses, shifts some current fiscal responsibilities to a more appropriate area of Conference accounting, and finally, requests that the Conference allocate future resources at a level that is realistically aligned with current need. Simply put, the Conference has been paying for things that were not previously identified by the Conference accounting procedures and so the amount authorized was systematically being overspent. We eagerly await the final strategic planning report, so that we can begin to assimilate the fiscal plan with our future approach to programming.

Through a variety of opportunities, we have recruited, trained and equipped more than 100 young adults again this conference year as they worked in immersion settings on our sites. They gained skills and knowledge that will take them into the future. These young adults develop self-awareness, confidence, and a collaborative spirit to grow in their faith.

This year, we were blessed to launch the Young Clergy Initiative (YCI) with 12 young adults participating – an initiative made at the 2012 General Conference through the General Board of Higher Education & Ministry (GBHEM). We have journeyed with these young adults as they have built relationships with lay and clergy mentors from around the Upper New York Conference discerning their call to ministry. One of the YCI young adults will be attending seminary in fall 2015.

CRM participated in UNY's Road T.R.I.P.s, sharing effective tools and practices for local congregations to use in reaching children and youth in their communities.

In 2015 we will focus on health of the mind, body and soul. New programs such as PUSH (Promoting Unity, Servanthood, & Health), to be held at Sky Lake and Findley, will help campers improve their spiritual health along with their physical level of health and fitness. Fit4Life at Findley will give participants the tools needed to make lifelong changes and attain vibrant health in their body, soul, spirit and relationships.

Each week of summer camp a new faith community is formed on the grounds of our camp and retreat centers. The children, youth and even adults experience Christ in a new way and deepen their faith in creative and life changing worship settings, Bible studies and through the arts. Children and youth remain connected via social media and return to re-engage with this faith group during Camp Echo, SOLID youth group retreats, and winter retreats.

We have worked to develop new retreat opportunities focusing on the Conference mission and vision to resource lay and clergy leaders in their ministry settings across the Conference.

We are focused on critical areas of mission.

Engaging in ministry with the poor

Christ calls us to be in ministry with the poor and marginalized. Our emphasis is on "with" … standing with those who are regarded as "the least of these," listening to them, understanding their needs and aspirations, and working with them to achieve their goals. Summer camp scholarships will be extended to campers from the Syracuse Housing Authority, Warren County Cooperative Extension, the Rescue Mission, and other low income families across New York state.

Improving global health

In 2015 we will be growing a deeper partnership with the Upper New York Conference's Imagine No Malaria and Africa 360 initiatives that make up the Africa 360 campaign.

Engaging in local mission opportunities

Asbury's "Reach Out" community mission experience, Casowasco's "Mission Possible" summer program and Findley's "Amazing Tour" summer program will engage campers in hands-on local mission projects serving people in need.

We have spent a great deal of time evaluating our retreat and summer programs at all six centers and continue to rethink how we do camp and retreat ministry for the 21st century for the transformation of the world.

Camp and Retreat Ministries continue to be our Conference's most dynamic and transformational program. These programs change lives and not only ensure the lifeblood of the Church, but expand the work of Christ's disciples into a new generation. For the Conference's support of that work, we are truly grateful.

Yours in Christ,
David A. Little, Chairperson
Michael D. Huber, Director of Camp & Retreat Ministries

Communications Report

The last year has been a time of exciting change and growth for the Communications Ministry Area in the Upper New York Conference.

In early 2015 the new Conference website launched after a great deal of research and preparation. The new website is dynamic, meaning it adjusts to be optimally viewed on whichever device is accessing it. Regardless of whether you are viewing it on a large monitor or a smart phone, the website will be easy to read and look good.

One of the key pieces of research that went into the creation of the new website was a survey of members of the Upper New York Conference. The results were clear that the most important change needed was ease of navigation and the most valued use of the website was sharing our story. The new website was designed with these top goals in mind and has been very well received.

The year also saw a major shift for the Advocate. In listening to the members of the Conference it was clear that end-users struggled to know how the Advocate should be used and it often went under-utilized. This spring, the decision was made to change the format drastically and transform the Advocate into a ministry magazine.

The Advocate is now printed on a glossy paperstock to make the most out of photos and tell the story in vivid and exciting ways. Each issue has a theme to pull it together, and a push has been made to include new voices from around the Conference. Most importantly, the stories are now ministry based and inspirational, not just news oriented.

The Advocate is designed to be shared with church visitors, and to inspire and excite church members. There are practical tips from stories of successful ministry from around the Conference. The goal is for local churches to intentionally give away copies of the magazine and be able to say with confidence, "This is who we are as United Methodists in Upper New York."

To help churches fill a gap in communication that could have resulted from having less frequent issues of the Advocate, a new bulletin insert that we've named the Bridge, was launched. This new communications tool is more information based and comes out every other week. It features highlights of important news and information from around the Conference. Once churches are alerted that a PDF has been posted to the Conference website they can simply download it and print whatever they need for distribution on Sunday mornings. The information in the Bridge is similar to what runs in the Weekly Digest, but is preassembled in a simple to print format.

The Weekly Digest also saw some changes over the past year, not the least of which was the name change. It had previously been known as the E-Advocate; however, because it had no real connection to the Advocate there was some confusion. The change was made for clarity. In listening to feedback about the Weekly Digest, it was also decided to publish it on Wednesdays instead of Thursdays. It became clear that many churches use this valuable tool to help them put together their own newsletters or bulletin insets and that it would be helpful to the layout and design of those local church materials to receive the Weekly Digest earlier in the week. This change was simply to enhance the value of the tool.
It has been a great year seeing a lot of research and hard work yield exciting results, but the coming year is also sure to be exciting. Conference Communications will be refocusing on how to best use social media, and is working with the FACT (Financial Advisory Consulting Team) process to create a comprehensive communications plan. The Conference has come a long way in how the story is told, but there is still much to do!

Conference Leadership Team

The Conference Leadership Team is charged with helping the Upper New York Conference remain faithful to its mission and vision, and to be the group that makes time-sensitive decisions between sessions of the Annual Conference. In 2014, the Conference Leadership Team welcomed several new members: the Rev. Laura Percival Pauley, Bethany Printup-Davis, the Rev. John Martin, and the Rev. Sherri Rood. It met as a team and with the Extended Cabinet three times in 2014. Representative Conference Leadership Team members also joined several other Conference gatherings and endeavors, including gatherings of Finance and Administrative Team leaders, the FACT (Financial Advisory Consulting Team) process – a holistic financial review process designed to assist the Conference achieve both vitality and sustainability, and the new Conference Center building proposal presented at the Special Session of Annual Conference this past October.

As anticipated, the main ongoing work undertaken by the Conference Leadership Team in 2014 was to revise and refine the "Mission Map," a strategic planning document guiding the ministry of the Conference through the year 2020. The Mission Map affirms the purpose of the Conference as "to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world by equipping its local churches for ministry and by providing a connection for ministry beyond the local church; all to the glory of God." To fulfill this purpose, the Mission Map identifies five primary tasks of the Conference:

1. Recruit, train, equip, and deploy transformational clergy and lay leadership so that our congregations will joyfully and faithfully live out the vision of the Conference.
2. Resource our local churches with effective tools and practices for effective disciple-making in the 21st century, and re-forming the church for vitality, relevance and fruitfulness.
3. Nurture a planting culture where people are recognizing the movement of the Spirit in their neighborhoods to plant new communities of faith; and, provide the training, support, and resources needed for people to plant new, sustainable communities of faith.
4. Align resources to support the purpose of the Conference and the mission of the local church and implement a system of accountability for mission and ministry at all levels.
5. Communicate how we share a common mission as United Methodist Christians in the 21st century.

As the Conference Leadership Team continued to examine these five tasks, it became more and more clear that, although all five tasks contribute to the success of our Conference mission, the first task of increasing leadership capacity is most important. Growing leaders grow congregations which transform neighborhoods and communities. In the year ahead, the Conference Leadership Team will be seeking ways to better align all Conference resources – financial, human and spiritual – around the primary task of increasing leadership capacity.

The Conference Leadership Team has had a very full and satisfying year. The team thanks the Conference for the privilege of service and invites interested persons to be in touch to share hopes and concerns.

Team members for 2014-2015 include: Blenda Smith, Mary Howard, Janet Rothfuss, Nathan Trost, Bethany Printup-Davis, the Rev. Robert Sherburne, the Rev. Laura Percival Pauley, and the Rev. John Martin.

Ex-officio:

- Appointive Cabinet Representatives: the Rev. William Mudge and the Rev. Sherri Rood
- Conference Lay Leader: Scott Johnson
- Commission on Religion and Race Representative: Barbara Heise
- Director of Connectional Ministries: the Rev. William Gottschalk-Fielding
- Resident Bishop: Bishop Mark J. Webb
- Director of Communications: Stephen J. Hustedt

Episcopacy, Committee on

The Conference Committee on Episcopacy (COE) over the course of this conference year has worked with the Episcopacy Residence Committee to ensure the upkeep of the Episcopal residence. We have met with Bishop Mark J. Webb, worked to support his ministry in the Upper New York Conference, and his commitments to the General Church. We have implemented a new evaluation process that the Northeastern Jurisdiction Committee on Episcopacy (NEJ COE) has required all Conferences in the NEJ to use as a tool to evaluate the ministry of our assigned Bishop. The committee has worked with Bishop Webb, the NEJ COE, and our Communications Ministry Area to help make the process as effective as possible. We are still making changes as we live into this new process to help perfect it in a way that it will be as useful as possible to Bishop Webb, the COE, and the NEJ COE. However, as we have started to live into this process, it has shown that it will be a helpful tool for both Bishop Webb and the Committee as we prepare to fill out our final evaluation for the quadrennium this fall that we submit to the NEJ COE. This final evaluation helps the Jurisdictional committee prepare for their work at Jurisdictional Conference. This process has involved receiving information from leadership across the Upper New York Conference who work directly with Bishop Webb, it requires the committee to meet quarterly to assess the information we have received, and involves working with the Appointive Cabinet and other Bishops to evaluate those areas of Bishop Webb's ministry that only they would be able to speak to. Throughout the year we have also helped to show hospitality and care to Bishop Webb and his family on behalf of our Conference.

In the year to come, we plan to support Bishop Webb and his continued ministry in the Upper New York Conference, the General Church, and fulfill our responsibilities as explained in the 2012 Book of Discipline. We will complete and submit the evaluation data to the NEJ COE, and continue to work to perfect the process with them. We ask that you would join us in holding our Resident Bishop, Mark J. Webb, and his family in prayer throughout the coming conference year as we join in ministry together.

Respectfully submitted by,
Rev. Rebecca L. Laird,
Chair, Upper New York Episcopacy Committee

Equitable Compensation Report for 2014-2015

The Commission on Equitable Compensation has had an interesting year. We are pleased to announce that the amount of money that has been awarded to assist churches in maintaining full-time appointments continues to decrease. However, there is a down side to this trend as some churches which were full-time are no longer able to maintain that level of pastoral service even with assistance.

Compensation grants covering two periods were awarded in 2014. For the period covering July through December 2014, the CEC awarded just over $90,000 to twenty-one churches. Grants awarded for the first six months of 2015 totaled $118,500 distributed among twenty churches. The Cabinet also used $12,000 in order to facilitate the making of full-time appointments for the 2014-15 appointment year.

At the 2014 Annual Conference, the CEC was asked to look at compensation/housing issues relating to clergy couples. We have investigated those issues and suggested changes to our current Clergy Support Policies. While our suggestions may not address every possible situation, they should provide additional guidance in dealing with all situations.

As we continued to review our Conference's minimum compensation levels, we came to believe that the differences between the various levels of credentialing did not adequately reflect the investment in education required of our elders. This year's recommendations include an increase in the base compensation minimum for elders as well as continuing to increase the years of service increment and the cap on that increment for all credential levels.

We also ask you to keep your eyes open for more information from the Communications Office on the goals and work of the CEC (if it has not already been distributed).

In concluding, I would like to thank the members of the CEC who have given their time and dedication to our work over the past year:

The Rev. Sung Ho Lee	Terry Wilbert
Al Kidd	The Rev. Ray Noell
Lynn Blake	Mitchell Smith
The Rev. Bill Pattison	The Rev. Carmen Perry
Vicki Putney	The Rev. Lauren Swanson
The Rev. Patience Kisakye	Nancy Rhodes

A special thanks goes to Debi Marshall in the Conference office for all she does.

Grace and Peace,
The Rev. Wilson S. Jones, Chair
Commission on Equitable Compensation

Finance and Administration, Council on

First, I would like to offer a sincere and gracious "Thank You" to all the members of CF&A for their service and ministry and to Kevin Domanico, our Conference Treasurer and the financial staff for their continued excellent work for the Upper New York Annual Conference.

Over the past year CF&A has embraced a broader role beyond that of developing fiscally responsible financial policies for the ministry shares budget and other finances of UNYAC to include developing new ways to tell the "story" behind ministry shares and living into CF&A's vision of building stronger collaborative relationships with other leadership teams of UNYAC.

We have begun breaking down silos, as opportunities to work together are identified which strengthen the connections that bind us into one body in Christ. Part of this work has begun through sub-teams whose members work closely with Conference Trustees, FACT Team, Human Resources and Benefits, Communications, Operations, Camps, Leadership Team, Executive Staff, and Cabinet to coordinate efforts across the Conference.

We now have excellent financial reporting tools to aid in monitoring receipts and disbursements of ministry share funds on a monthly basis. This allows for real-time assessment of how adequately our ministries are being funded.

CF&A, in appreciation of your efforts, convey blessings and "well done" to all churches that faithfully participated in our connectional ministry through 100% payment of their ministry shares. CF&A also conveys blessings and sincere appreciation to the many churches that had to make difficult financial decisions over the past year and supported their ministry shares as best they were able. Thanks be to God for all you have done.

Report on 2014 Ministry Shares - Our total 2014 ministry share request amounted to $10,323,781. Approximately 62% of our churches paid their ministry shares in full. That's 564 churches out of 904. While we are extremely thankful, we are aware there is more stewardship work to be done across the connection. Nearly 130 of our churches paid little or no ministry shares for 2014. The total ministry shares received for 2014 amounted to $7,926,651. Unfortunately this meant that after fixed costs, many ministries were only able to spend 53% of the funds approved for their ministry in the 2014 budget. The Conference was also only able to pay 59% of its General Church apportionments..

We understand that sometimes circumstances prevent 100% participation. We also believe that lack of clear understanding of what is funded by your ministry shares may lead to less than 100% participation. We firmly believe that when the people of God see and understand the needs they respond.

One of CF&A's goals is to provide you with more and concise explanations of what your ministry shares support. The hope is this will provide clarity to what ministry shares represent for us in living out our purpose as United Methodist Christians. As an initial response to this need a sub-team working closely with Conference Communications created a Story of Ministry Shares Brochure which was distributed at District level to local churches and is available for viewing by all on the Conference website. We will continue efforts to develop additional resources for the local church at the District level and on the website to help answer your questions and support local churches in their effort to fully fund ministries.

2016 Ministry Share Budget - CF&A has worked hard to be good stewards of the financial resources of The Upper New York Annual Conference. Many hours of prayerful consideration and collaborative cost controlling efforts with Conference ministry teams and the Executive Staff have resulted in a proposed 2016 Annual Conference Ministry Share budget of $10,079,236. This represents a decrease from the 2015 budget of $261,202 or 2.5%.

In an effort to reflect the Conference's developing priorities, the 2016 budget categorized funds into fixed, General Church Apportionments, discretionary and contingent costs. A spending plan was developed based on these categories and historical ministry share payment levels.

- Fixed Costs primarily represent personnel expenses and fixed operating costs of $6,074,000 or 60% of the budget,
- General Church Apportionments were set at approximately 75% for a total of $1,716,000,
- Discretionary costs of $1,609,000 would be funded after fixed and GC Apportionment goals were met,
- Contingent costs represent Conference grants and ministry support. These budgeted costs of $680,000 would only be paid after the first 3 budget categories are fulfilled.

Our actual expenditures for 2016 will depend on the actual levels of Ministry Shares paid by our Churches. If 2016 Ministry Share payments amount to $8,598,000, the conference will be able to meet categories 1 and 2 and fund 50% discretionary cost. Compared to payments in 2014, we would need to receive additional ministry shares of approximately $600,000. This represents a quarter of the 2014 $2,500,000 unpaid ministry shares. Lower levels of receipts will result in lower levels of expenditures.

We believe this is the most accurate representation of finances needed for ministry in UNYAC and beyond our borders. To provide this support, we need everyone's best effort to provide these needed funds. We can and must do better than past history demonstrates.

Presentation of the 2010 Conference Audited Financial Statements – The 2010 Conference Audit Report may be found at the end of the workbook. CF&A, Conference staff and our auditors, Bowers & Co, CPA's have labored diligently to prepare the first audit report for the Upper New York Conference. The report is the consolidation of all the assets, liabilities and net assets of the four former conferences and six camps from diverse accounting systems. The complexity of the consolidation and limited system resources prevented earlier completion of the report.

The report shows Total Assets of just over $60,000,000 composed of cash, receivables, investments and property spread over the principal funds of the Conference. The Statement of activities shows an increase in net assets of $6,533,000.

The ministry of CF&A across the Annual Conference is to faithfully and prayerfully strengthen our financial resources through fervent prayer, good policy, and faithful stewardship practices thus to provide for the financial support of our ministries here in UNYAC and around the world. These ministry opportunities are the future of our church locally and at large. This will not be easy, but we do not labor alone. We are connected as United Methodists and as Christians. We are God's people called to share in keeping with the Jesus' models witnessed in the early church community. As together we seek to discern the word of hope God speaks to us as Christ's church and God's beloved children, may we all be strengthened in the knowledge that the Lord will provide.

Yours In Christ's Service,
Rev. Lawrence G. Lake, President, Council on Finance and Administration

Haiti Parnership

In 2014 the Haiti Partnership had many wonderful and connectional opportunities. Our commitment to the mission work of our Haiti Partnership and the churches who support us make us even more aware of how important our cooperative efforts are as they continue to grow and nurture. Four of our teams went to Mahot, Haiti to help the community there continue work on the rebuilding of its church. We made great progress and the project will soon be completed. Mahot is in the southern Haitian district of Les Cayes, close to the ocean in the south. Our teams stayed on the local school property and relished the faith and the hard working people of the Mahot community. They marveled at the complete care and protection of the Mahot area and learned so much from their work there.

The Haiti Partnership also had one team go to the island of La Gonave and stay in the city of Anse-A-Galet at the Methodist Church there. That church is in the final stages of completion and much of the work was done by skilled Haitian masons. This team had many amazing experiences, including meeting with a ladies group from the local Methodist Church asking for the Americans to pray for the Haitian ladies in their struggles to be good mothers and to be able to provide for their families.

In each of these teams, there were new Volunteers-in-Mission to Haiti. Each had life changing experiences and each was taught amazing things by their mission trip to Haiti.

We thank the Upper New York Conference for its continued support and faith in our work. Together we are changing lives. We appreciate the opportunity to be able to represent the people of New York in our mission work in Haiti.

Jodi Crimmel,
Haiti Partnership Chair

Hispanic Ministries Task Force

The Upper New York Conference Hispanic Ministries Task Force developed out of the dream of several pastors working with the Conference Director of Connectional Ministries. After the historic merger of the four conferences, the dream of an Hispanic Ministries Task Force became a reality with the hope that the Hispanic/Latino United Methodist churches would become an integral part of the Upper New York Conference vision to "make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world." We are aligned with the General Commission on Religion and Race in keeping with the mandate to continue to stand for racial justice in our Church. The Upper New York Hispanic Ministries Task Force is also working closely with the Episcopal Office, Director of New Faith Communities, Director of Vital Congregations, and the Director of Connectional Ministries to plant vital Hispanic/Latino churches in Upper New York. We stand in solidarity with the racial/ethnic groups that face inequalities and injustices in the Church and throughout the world. The General Conference of The United Methodist Church has charged the annual conferences with "Building the Beloved Community." To make this charge central to our hearts, we, the Hispanic Ministries Task Force of UNY, will work closely with the Hispanic National Plan and Unity and Diversity in order to lead the way in fulfilling this challenge.

We want to celebrate the work that has been accomplished by the committee in Upper New York during 2014. The committee representing the Upper New York Conference met together and began planning for the work before us. We have worked on and completed:

- Hispanic/Latino Strategic Plan
- Course for church planting
- Course on coaching
- Met with the Bishop and Cabinet members to discuss the vision
- Targeted strategic areas for church plants
- Developed a job description for a director of Hispanic/Latino Ministries
- Submitted a name for the Conference position
- Developed a calendar for common ministries for Hispanic/Latino churches

We have planned evangelistic and holistic trainings events for the Hispanic/Latino churches. We have plans to initiate the opening of at least three new Hispanic/Latino churches in the near future. The committee understands that if our UNY Conference does not see the undergirding of Hispanic/Latino churches as a priority, our future as a Church grows dim. As a Conference we need to take seriously the mission and vision of the Church: to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. These disciples include members of Hispanic/Latino cultural groups, who are the fastest growing cultural group in the UNY Conference.

> "We are simply seeking to bring into full realization the Christian Dream – a dream yet unfulfilled. You were called to travel on the same road together and in the same direction, so stay together, both outwardly and inwardly. You have one Master, one Faith, one Baptism, one God and Father of all, who rules over all, works through all, and is present in all. Everything you are and think and do permeates out of Oneness. In Christ's family there can be no division into Jew and non-Jew, slave and free, female and male, (Black, White, Asian/Pacific Islander, Native American, or Hispanic/Latino). Among us you are all equal. That is, we are all in a common relationship with Jesus Christ." (Excerpts from Ephesians, The Message)

Our dream is a dream of equality of opportunity, of privilege, position, and property widely distributed; a dream of a Church where no longer it is argued that the color of a person's skin determines the content of his character; a dream of a Church where every person will respect the dignity and worth of the human personality. This is the dream. When it is realized, the jangling discords of our Church will be transformed into a beautiful United Methodist symphony, and people everywhere will know that The United Methodist Church is truly a Church of the free and the brave." (Adopted from the speech given by the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, in July 1962, Washington, D.C.; italics added)

Sisters and brothers, I see a Church where the ugliness of racial injustice is transformed into the beauty of God's Holiness. I see a Church that is empowered by the unity of the Spirit; I see a Church that is full of love one for another; I see a Church of baptized believers making disciples in the name of the Risen One, Jesus the Christ; I see a vital Church, an alive Church, a vibrant Church where believers are measured by how much they love the Lord and worship Him; I see a United Methodist Church driven by faith, hope, and love building the Church into the beloved community; I see a Church not dying, not surviving but living out the truth of the Gospel; I see a Church confronting the evils of society and the powers that be and bringing a message of hope and redemption to a lost world. As members of the UNY Conference, in the spirit of unity, we as Hispanic/Latino's shall overcome and we shall overwhelm with our love for Christ and for one another.

Many blessings,
Rev. Dr. Alberto Lanzot

Laity Report, Board of

God continues to do amazing things through the people called Methodist across the Upper New York Conference. The Upper New York Conference Board of Laity has been hard at work equipping and empowering laity in leadership ministries to live into the call of God on their lives. In 2015 the board focused much of its work on sharing best practices regarding the dimensions of lay leadership in vital congregations. In meetings across the state we emphasized the critical nature of having a vital personal faith as the core for all ministry in the Church. It is also critical that we make training and assessing the effectiveness of ministry roles a purposeful act. We shared the importance of making space for the call on other disciples ensuring by allowing others to serve. We have also discussed the importance of engaging as many sisters and brothers as possible so that they may act on the call of God on their hearts.

In addition to this we have spent many hours working on helping laity in leadership be effective partners with clergy. The dynamic partnership between clergy and laity is a distinctive feature of The United Methodist Church. Recognizing the distinctive calls on our life, but the act that these calls are interdependent and God is glorified by how we all work together this way.

There is much fruit to discuss. Laity are serving well in several ministries and taking bold steps in faith to help make disciple of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. Some exciting examples include: Mount Vision UMC with a Coffee House-style event which now includes and encourages small groups to break out and use the kitchen area ("Kitchen Talk") of the fellowship space for spiritual and faith related conversation, and the McDonough UMC has had dreams for awhile about offering a community meal in its rural, isolated community, and has been successful in beginning that ministry. The Pendleton UMC came to serve Thanksgiving dinner at the Seneca Street Church when it looked like the dinner would have to be cancelled. Many churches at their charge conferences brought in food to help those in Lackawanna to provide essentials when the store shelves were emptied. Many other churches reached out to laity and clergy alike to assist with clearing the snow when travel bans were lifted for neighbors.

As we look to the 2015-2016 church year, we look forward to continuing the work of equipping and empowering transformative leaders. Part of this work will be integrating lay perspectives on the list of core competencies for clergy shared at this Annual Conference session. We will also develop a parallel list of core competencies for lay leaders, which will provide greater consistency at future trainings. We also will continue to reach as many brothers and sisters with these messages about effective lay leadership so that our faith communities continue to carry the good news and love of Jesus Christ to the world.

Lay Servant Ministries

Lay Servant Ministries is the laity led and Discipline-supported lay ministry program of The United Methodist Church. It offers all laity the opportunity to search out, discern, and further their personal understanding, as well as grow through educational courses on specific topics of interest that ultimately help lead laity into deeper and stronger service within their called ministry.

The Lay Servant Ministry program is designed to raise up, support, educate, and inspire laity of The United Methodist Church to discern their specific ministry gifts of leading, teaching, caring, and communicating.

The Conference Lay Servant Ministries director and all 12 district directors/co-director teams are dedicated to serving the laity members of the Upper New York Conference as they go out in ministry across our Conference and throughout the world. Each and every lay member is valued, and their ministries are vital to the mission of Jesus Christ. Our hope is to enable all lay people to use their gifts in service.

As we have moved forward with the implementation of the 2012 Discipline changes, we are pleased to share that there has been a noted increase in the understanding of the process and requirements for being a Certified Lay Servant, along with the specifics regarding the extra entitlement of Lay Speaker. In fact, during 2014, we, the Conference LSM team, were able to "affirm" the first three Certified Lay Servant-Lay Speakers of the Upper New York Conference: James Baxter and Joyce Royal-Palm of the Albany District, and Ken Guilfoyle of the Mohawk District. We know there are others currently in the process of completing the requirements and look forward to affirming more servants called to that specific branch of ministry in 2015.

The laity of our Conference continues to inspire me; your commitment to Christ-like service is immeasurable and infectious. Your fervor is encouraging, and your passion is astounding. It is an honor and a privilege to serve with each and every one of you, as we all answer our individual calls of service and ministry.

As we continue to grow together within the Lay Servant Ministries, do not hesitate to contact your district lay servant ministry directors, their teams, your district superintendent, or me (your Conference director of lay servant ministries) with your questions, concerns, ideas, and assistance. It is going to take all of us to move forward and make a difference in Jesus' name.

Thank you for allowing me the privilege of serving with you!

"Therefore, since it is by God's mercy that we are engaged in this ministry, we shall not lose heart!!" (2 Corinthians 4:1)

Native American Ministries (CONAM), Committee on

This past year has been a very active year for the Committee on Native American Ministries. We took our role as educators and advocates very seriously as we developed, prepared for, and presented 14 Learning Sessions reaching out to the 12 districts in the Conference. The purpose of the Learning Sessions was to train and educate about Native American history and present realities, from the perspective of Native peoples, focusing on the complex connection of The United Methodist Church to that history and to relationships today. Of the 915 churches in our Conference, only 215 churches sent representation to the Learning Sessions. Many were local church representative, pastors and other church leaders. The Learning Sessions were part of the Conference's preparation for Upper New York's Act of Repentance and Healing of Relationships with Indigenous Persons to be held during the 2015 session of Annual Conference.

In addition to the Learning Sessions, CONAM reached out to our Conference membership through presentations at United Methodist Women's gatherings, a Casowasco retreat for commissioned elders, and workshops and presentations to the body during the 2014 session of Annual Conference. A few local church representatives have held their own study groups using materials from the Learning Sessions. We worked hard to update and communicate with local church representatives to CONAM through a mass email system to approximately 450 people. CONAM leaders traveled to Baltimore to share the UNY CONAM Learning Session presentation with members of the Northeastern Jurisdiction CONAM at its annual meeting in October 2014.

Native American Ministries Sunday continues to be an important focus for CONAM, providing an opportunity to celebrate the gifts of Native Americans, share our message with local congregations, and obtain support and funding for our ministry. Contributions from Native American Ministries Sunday are utilized in many ways. We continue to support the three Native American United Methodist Churches on native territories, both with financial gifts and with prayer. We oversee the Native American Transportation Program on the Onondaga Nation Territory, which is a long standing part of our UNY Conference ministry. We encourage all churches to designate a local church representative to CONAM to assist in celebrating Native American Ministry Sunday. We continue to hear the good news from local church representatives as numerous local churches are celebrating Native American Ministries Sunday, some for the first time.

Native American Ministries Sunday funds are spent in many ways. We also reach out to traditional groups in urban settings through programs that support the effort to be in community and learn more of traditional teachings. Our youngest CONAM member, Bethany Printup-Davis (Tuscarora) has attended several national trainings, thanks to NAMS funds, in preparation for her decision to enter the seminary this fall. Four Corners UMC on the Cattaraugus Territory has recently repaired the roof on its church building utilizing NAMS funds.

The Upper New York Committee on Native American Ministries has worked closely with the UNY Conference to prepare for the Act of Repentance worship service which will be celebrated during the Annual Conference session on May 27, 2015. It is our prayer that brothers and sisters in our church families will continue to join us in this journey toward healing relationships within our Church and answer the call to love our indigenous neighbors more faithfully through advocacy, prayers and understanding.

New Faith Communities Team

God has been doing amazing things through our New Faith Communities in 2014-2015! Since the last session of Annual Conference the number of our New Faith Communities has nearly doubled. As of March 1, there were 41 United Methodist new faith communities being planted in Upper New York! They represent many different strategies and are targeting many diverse people. Many of our NFCs are being planted by existing churches as they seek to extend their reach by creating new places for new people. Others are being planted by small teams of people supported by partnerships with nearby churches. Almost all are meeting in non-traditional spaces, and using non-traditional methods to build relationships with new people. All are seeking to grow new disciples of Jesus Christ! And, there are fruits to report!

By the end of 2014, statistical reports from our New Faith Communities show that our New Faith Communities:

- Had more than 1,350 regular participants that were not attending any of our churches previously, including 162 children (age 0-12), 102 youth (age 13-18), and 241 young adults (age 19-35).
- Had 73 small groups, with a total average weekly attendance of 692.
- Had more than 654 persons attending their new worship experiences.
- Had more than 332 persons actively involved in hands on mission and ministry.
- Had collected more than $258,000 in offerings from their own people.

Most importantly, every single one of our New Faith Communities had stories to tell of God changing the lives of people because of their ministries. These “transformed lives” are the most important reason for our planting efforts!

To undergird our planters and their teams, we continue to build and strengthen a system that is designed to identify, assess, equip, deploy and support every New Faith Community planter. Some highlights of that system include:

Coach Network Team… A team of eight persons continues the work of identifying, training, approving, and deploying a network of coaches. It hosted two training events in 2014-2015: a Path 1 sponsored event in October 2014, and a more in-depth training provided by Chris Holmes Coaching in March 2015. We now have more than 30 trained coaches in our Conference, and more than half of our planters are working with a coach each month.

Planter Peer Group Team… The greatest threats to sustainable new faith community planting are experiences of loneliness and burnout among planters. The Planter Peer Group Team has worked to develop a number of groups for planters designed to provide them with spiritual nourishment, renewal and mutual friendship. These groups meet once each quarter in a retreat setting in various locations, and are led by trained spiritual directors.

Grant Processing Team… Our Conference is in the business of providing seed funding to enable New Faith Communities to get off the ground. Planters with a vision for a NFC apply for funding, and the Grant Processing Team receives the applications and makes decisions about how to spend your money, based on the strength of each application, how well developed the planting team is, the perceived likelihood of fruitfulness, and priorities related to Conference goals. In both 2014 and 2015, the Grant Team gave out $250,000 to a total of 20 new faith communities. If an application is made in subsequent years, assessment of disciple-making fruitfulness is the most important determining factor to further funding, but always with an eye toward every NFC becoming self-sustaining within three to four years.

Training/Learning… If they are nothing else, New Faith Community planters are learners and new learning comes through many diverse experiences. Our Conference hosted a Jurisdiction-wide "Launchpad" event in August 2014, a three-day intensive learning experience for those planting new things. Because it was held in Albany, many of our planters and their teams were able to easily attend. As is the case every year, a number of our planters also attend national events. The School of Congregational Development in Charlotte, N.C., and an event for women who are planters in Nashville, Tenn., were good examples this past year. On a more local level, our own fourth annual New Faith Communities event was held in April, and this year featured a presentation by the planter of "Church in a Diner" in Lansing, Mich., as well as many other workshops led by our own talented people. The Rev. David Masland, Director of New Faith Communities, provides "Virtual Planning Groups" – video-conferences held over two months with groups of three to four planters – for those who are developing their vision. Most of all, planters learn best through conversations with other planters. Our planters are often seeking to consult with one another to see what God seems to be up to!

The great news is that all of this is just the beginning! God continues to call new people to plant. Beginning in July, eight or more new starts will be launched with a number of others on the horizon. The fact is that any and every church in our Conference can start a new faith community! The question is where do un-churched or de-churched people hang out in your community? And, how might your church begin to build relationships with them that can lead to planting a new faith community where you can all discover together the joy of saying "YES!" to God's grace every day of your lives?

Ordained Ministry (BOM), Board of

The Board of Ordained Ministry (BOM) is a covenant community of Christian leaders working together to discern, cultivate, and recruit excellent spiritual leaders for the churches of Upper New York. The board is the credentialing body for clergy seeking commissioning and ordination in the Upper New York Conference. BOM has a wide scope of responsibilities in cultivating and supporting excellent clergy leadership; these tasks are outlined in paragraph 635 of the 2012 Book of Discipline.

The board's members (lay and clergy, appointed by the Bishop) work in six broad areas: Standards and Qualifications (of ordination candidates); Clergy Status; Clergy Effectiveness; District Committee (dCOM) support and direction; Recruitment/Enlistment; and oversight of the Provisional Members program. In the 2014-2015 year, the Upper New York Board of Ordained Ministry has stepped forward with several new members and some new leadership.

The current co-chairs are the Rev. Holly Nye and the Rev. Matthew Stengel; Rev. Stengel moved into the role of co-chair in summer 2014 when the Rev. Lynn Spence's term concluded. In the board's wisdom, the co-chairs serve overlapping four-year terms. In other words, when Rev. Nye's term ends in 2016, Rev. Stengel will continue to serve another two years, with another "upcoming" co-chair. Thanks to the excellent work of the BOM nominating team, the board also has a new secretary, the Rev. David Cooke. The Rev. Alice Priset continues in the role of vice-chair. The Rev. Michelle Bogue-Trost serves as registrar, with assistance from the Rev. Eleanor Collinsworth in preparing the "Business of Annual Conference" – the materials for the annual Clergy Session.

Leading the board's divisions this year are: the Rev. Sue Russell, standards and qualifications; the Rev. Carmen Perry, clergy status; the Rev. Rhonda Kouterick, clergy effectiveness; Rev. Spence, dCOM; the Rev. Leon Van Wie, provisional program; and the Rev. Mike Smith, recruitment.

The board began this year by bringing to the 2014 Clergy Session a statement of Our Clergy Covenant, expressing our understanding of the shared responsibilities we are to live out, and to which we hold one another accountable. (This document is appended to the end of this report). Also in 2014, we published a Board Policy Manual (available on www.unyumc.org), and worked with the Upper New York Cabinet and Conference Leadership Team in articulating what a "Transformational Leader" looks like.

Much of our work during the year builds toward the February-March retreat, when we interview candidates, and engage in discerning God's movement and guidance in raising up future leaders for our Church. As we write this in February, board members are hard at work reading candidate materials, watching sermon videos, and praying for the candidates and the board.

Each September and January, the Provisionals division offers a retreat for those on the path to full ordination. In the coming year, there is a proposed plan to offer a summer retreat/learning experience as well.

In November, board members accompany district superintendents to visit students at seminaries across the connection. This is part of the work of the recruitment division, supporting and enlisting excellent candidates for ministry in our Conference. The Board Executive Committee meets with the Cabinet at least twice a year. This is an excellent way to build community and communication, as we work in our different, yet complementary, ministry areas. In the spring, we work with the Cabinet to prepare the Business of Annual Conference, the document approved at Clergy Session, accounting for the status of all clergy members of the Conference. It is a formidable task, handled ably and cooperatively between the board registrar and the Bishop's Office.

The work of the board requires us to be always learning. Nine board members traveled to Denver in August 2014 for a mid-quadrennium training offered by the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry. In addition, Rev. Stengel serves on the Northeastern Jurisdiction Board of Ordained Ministry, working with representatives from the other conferences in the Northeast to share best practices and look toward future needs of boards of ministry.

We, the co-chairs, are immensely grateful for the time, energy, prayer and faithful service given by every member of the board. It is a holy and humbling work that we share, and it is only possibly through the loving effort of many faithful people working together. Thanks be to God!

Upper New York Conference Our Clergy Covenant

> We have a sacred calling as United Methodist clergy. Together, we share in a covenant relationship in a community of clergy (active and retired Elders, Deacons, Associate Members, Provisional Members, Local Pastors). This covenant is to be marked by respect, honesty and integrity in all interactions with our colleagues.
> As a covenant community we are to be held accountable to one another for our conduct. We constantly seek to move onward toward perfection in our conduct as clergy. In order to help us to that end, we seek the guidance and wisdom of the covenant community of clergy to hold us accountable to the highest ethical standards in all of our ministry settings.
> When we fail to uphold one another to the highest ethical standards we damage the relationships among clergy. We lose trust in one another and we damage, sometimes irreparably, the trusting relationship with those we serve. As clergy, the greatest gift we are granted is the trust of those whom we serve. What follows below is a Covenant for all professionals in ministry. This covenant provides a common understanding and agreement of clergy conduct to which clergy hold one another accountable.

United Methodist clergy under appointment:

- Develop through continued education, maintenance of personal growth and competence for ministry.
- Maintain proper physical care and discipline.
- Keep time commitments faithfully and use time responsibly, acknowledging that ministry cannot fit into conventional time slots.
- Follow high moral standards in all forms of communication including social media and conduct, including:
    - keeping confidences
    - communicating honestly and appropriately.
- Are above reproach in all financial transactions. Remain sufficiently free from unnecessary financial debt, accepting financial responsibility as not to burden one's congregation or the Upper New York Conference. Will not leave a community to accept a new appointment without arranging for payment of local financial obligations.
- Maintain a healthy emotional and social balance and boundaries between pastoral identity and self-identity; private and community life; self and other.
- Provide for the care of family and spouse and, as a parsonage family, addresses their needs and concerns through appropriate lines of communication.
- Will leave church and parsonage in good condition, accepting financial responsibilities for damage done to parsonage beyond normal wear and tear or age.

Each United Methodist clergy person, in performing professional responsibilities:

Peace with Justice in Palestine/Israel, UNY Task Force on Purpose: The Upper New York Task Force on Peace with Justice in Palestine/Israel was formed for the purpose of educating, advocating, and supporting efforts for peace and justice in Palestine/Israel.

Events this past year included the well-attended fourth annual UNY Palestinian Dinner, with speaker Ariel Gold lending a Jewish voice in support of Palestinian justice.

Another highlight was the August 2014 national gathering of United Methodists for the educational advocacy conference, "Walking with Palestinian Christians," hosted at Rev. Mike Slaughter's Ginghamsburg UMC in Tipp City, Ohio. Co-sponsored by General Board of Global Ministries (GBGM) and the Ginghamsburg United Methodist Church, the event was attended by representatives from United Methodist churches nationwide, as well as by Palestinian leaders, representatives from national United Methodist boards (GBGM, GBCS, GBOPHB), members of United Methodist Kairos Response (UMKR), and several bishops. Nine of our Upper New York United Methodists attended: the Rev. Alan Kinney, the Rev. Ben O'Connor, Leah Mae, Tom Carlisle, Karen Peterson, Beth Woolever, Alice Trost, Linda Bergh, and Dianne Roe. The worship, Palestinian sharing, and workshops took place during the Israeli incursion into Gaza.

Also in August, two representatives from the General Board of Pensions and Health Benefits met with the task force in response to questions asked from the floor at the 2014 session of Annual Conference. GBOPHB's discussion of working on a general human rights screen for investments was affirmed as a positive step. However, the task force urged an increase in efforts to end our Church's support and profit-making from Palestinian suffering, currently enabled by our involvement with companies that support Israel's occupation of Palestine.

Further initiatives included task force scholarships to two delegates participating in peace and justice trips to Palestine/Israel. They, and others from the task force, as requested, are available as speakers in local congregations.

The task force website at http://um-palestine-israel-tf.org has been updated by the Rev. Gary Doupe and will be linked to our Conference website under Social Holiness. Also check www.tinyurl.com/UNYPalestineIsraelFB.

Initiatives continue on recruitment of interested individuals to form task force-related interest/action groups around the Conference. UMKR, with which the task force networks, has provided information packets on United Methodist travel in the Holy Land and also on boycott materials as a follow-up to legislation at the 2012 session of General Conference. These are available at the Conference Office in Syracuse.

Respectfully submitted,
Linda Bergh, Co-chair,
UNY Task Force on Peace with Justice in Palestine/Israel

ANNOUNCEMENT: 2015 Palestinian Dinner at 5:15 p.m. Friday, May 29 at the Plymouth Congregational Church, Syracuse

Peace with Justice Grant Program

The Peace with Justice grant program of The United Methodist Church seeks to provide financial support for those who are working to bring communities into a social awareness. To this end, each year as one of our six Special Sunday offerings, our congregations are asked to take an offering to aid in the work. While half of the monies collected are forwarded to the General Board of Church & Society grant funds, 50 percent stays in our Conference to be spent on programs within our midst.

As a Conference, our participation rate for the 2013 Peace with Justice Sunday offering was just 18.42 percent. The concern is that our churches are not offering their members an opportunity to support this important work. I received a lot of positive feedback and assurances from many that their congregations would definitely support the Peace with Justice Sunday offering for 2014. Unfortunately, our participation rate went down! I look forward to working with district superintendents, pastors, and lay people in an effort to increase our awareness of this offering.

In 2014, these Peace with Justice grants were approved and spent:

- $1,500 UNY Task Force on Peace with Justice in Palestine/Israel to attend Walking with Palestinian Christians and the UM Kairos Response Summit
- $4,050 Albany-Emmaus UMC to host its annual International Reconciliation Conference
- $5,000 Faithful Citizen, Inc. to create an instructional video on how to do social ministry

Ministries are encouraged to apply for a Conference Peace with Justice grant. Contact Heather Smith, Peace with Justice Coordinator, at peacewithjustice@unyumc.org.

Pension and Health Benefits, Board of

The Upper NewYork Conference Board of Pension & Health Benefits (CBOPHB) is active throughout the year. We meet in a variety of formats: conference calls, one day meetings, an annual retreat, and online work. We welcomed these new members to the board: Edward Bartholomew, Michael Turner, and Michael Virgil. The full list of members and linking persons is available in the Conference Journal. The matters of pensions and health benefits are the responsibility of the CBOPHB. We also interact actively with other Conference agencies to address our common ministries of mission, policies, Financial Advisory Consulting Team (FACT), and the Administrative Ministry Oversight Team.

Highlights of the 2014-2015 year include:

- Approval by the UNYC of the recommendation that all Medicare-eligible persons who are retired be enrolled in the OneExchange program for health insurance purposes. This shift of medical coverage, overall, went smoothly. A new actuarial report indicates that this shift has reduced the long term liability for retiree health from $68.6 million to $22.9 million.

- Throughout the year the board has regularly considered these topics:
  - Consequences and impact from arrearages by local churches and clergy in funding direct billing of health care and pensions. In 2014, this amounted to more than $300,000 that the board removed from invested funds to cover this shortfall.
  - We also address health care coverage in each category of our lay and clergy employees and retired persons, spouses and dependents. This sector of the American life continues to be in flux at many levels. The board receives input from many sources as we manage this vital piece of work for the Conference, evaluating the options available each year.
  - Communication and education on topics related to pensions and health care, as they relate to staff, clergy and dependents; as well as information for local church leaders about these matters and the funding thereof.

- During our November retreat, Karen Manczko of Wespath Investment Management (GBOPHB) presented information and reports on the work of the General Board as it relates to the Upper New York Conference. Our board liaison, Ron Coleman, shared policies from other conference boards across the country during a discussion of best practices.

- We have worked with Conference Treasurer Kevin Domanico and the board of trustees to centralize the assets available for the long term Conference liabilities for pensions and required work of the board.

- The board developed, reviewed, revised and approved an investment policy for CBOPHB funds. We determined our authority and fiduciary responsibility via The Book of Discipline (2012) (¶613.5). As a Conference of The United Methodist Church, the Upper New York Conference is committed to the implementation of the socially responsible investment policies in 2012 The Book of Disciple (¶717). The Socially Responsible Investment Program stated in the Investment Strategy Statement of the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits of The United Methodist Church and Wespath Investment Management is the authority for the Upper New York Conference's Socially Responsible Investment Guidelines (www.gbophb.org/assets/1/7/investment_policy.pdf).

On Feb. 28, 2015, the board reviewed and approved the Comprehensive Benefit Funding Plan (CBPF) for 2016. As of this writing, it has been sent to the General Board of Pension & Health Benefits for their review and comments.

Completion of a CBPF is required annually and is a good tool for determining the use and use-limits of our assets. The Upper New York Conference is currently fully funded in all benefit obligations with the exception of retiree health benefits. It should be strongly noted that being fully funded now does not mean fully funded forever. The use of reserves for the payment of obligations that are budgeted to be paid by local churches will erode our funded status in the near future.

We are privileged to have the experience and skill of Vicki Putney, Conference Director of Human Resources/Benefits, her knowledge of the system and care for individuals makes her valuable to both the work of the board and of the Upper New York Conference.

The board seeks to utilize the best and most effective methods of doing this work that matters to the clergy and employees. We regularly take steps to improve our process and results. Prayer and dependence on God are central to our ministry on behalf of the Conference.

Sincerely,
Rev. Stephen T. Deckard

Religion & Race (CORR), Commission on

The Commission on Religion & Race (CORR) has focused on three areas in this past year. First, CORR established a relationship with the Rev. Eric Law by rejoining the Kaleidoscope Institute "for competent leadership in a diverse, changing world." Part of that membership includes 10 hours of phone consultation with Executive Director Rev. Law. He is no stranger to many in Upper New York. Along with being well known nationally, he has done workshops in the Albany area in the past. Stay tuned for great opportunities for Upper New York with this relationship. Meanwhile, please check out the Kaleidoscope Institute website at http://www.kscopeinstitute.org.

Second, some members of CORR attended the Black Methodists for Church Renewal (BMCR) Conference in 2014. This was the first time all United Methodist caucus groups met at the same time and place. What an amazing sense of community and presence of the Holy Spirit. The work of BMCR includes sharing diversity interests, challenges and solutions for The United Methodist Church. The leadership of the late Bishop McCloud was an inspiration to all.

Finally, CORR has attempted to keep the value of diversity alive and recognized via the Upper New York Advocate and Weekly Digest with articles highlighting UNY churches that successfully live out diversity. Please continue to share with CORR those successes your local church experiences. CORR will support your work and help write articles, if desired, so all of our local churches can share and gain from your efforts.

Blenda Smith, Convener of CORR

Reaching Our Neighbors Ministry Oversight Team in Action

RON MOT is a team of six persons working to connect Upper New York Conference resources to ministries with our neighbors in all places. Members of RON MOT are the Rev. Sara Baron, Phyllis Doane, Susan Hardy, the Rev. Robert Sherburne, the Rev. Thom White Wolf Fassett, and Jan Witter. The Rev. Paul Womack served as a member of this team until his retirement in June 2014, which is when Witter joined us. Hardy currently serves as convener and Doane serves as recording secretary.

Resource allocation is primarily accomplished through an annual grant application process. Applications are invited to be sent in writing and electronically between July 15 and Aug. 15 to ReachingOurNeighbors@outlook.com. Outcomes are published by Sept. 15.

The team also strives to evaluate the fruitfulness of such funded ministries in transparent and equitable ways. Both written and in-person evaluations of funded ministries were offered in 2014. On March 10, 2014, the team met at the Fayetteville UMC to have a conversation about evaluating funded ministries from the preceding year. Written forms were sent to 11 ministries and returned by early May 2014. Each RON MOT member also volunteered to visit one or two ministries and report back to the team about the fruitfulness of particular ministries. Two of these visits were shared through articles and photos in the E-Advocate, now referred to as the Weekly Digest.

Members of RON MOT met over lunch on May 30 at the 2014 session of Annual Conference to offer thanks and blessings to Rev. Womack upon his retirement, as well as to welcome Witter as our newest member. We shared results of written evaluations for 2013 ministries and planned the 2014 application process.

On June 26, 2014, several 2013 funded ministry representatives joined Bishop Mark J. Webb for a celebratory lunch and photo opportunity. This also functioned as a valuable networking opportunity, where newer ministries connected with well-established ones. As an example, the Rev. Phil Grigsby of the United Church of Christ offered to share Schenectady Inner City Ministry's effective and growing ministry's policies and practices at a future event.

Twenty-nine grant applications were received by the Aug. 15, 2014 deadline. Meeting on Sept. 4 at the Fayetteville UMC, the team reached consensus to award $59,776 in funds to support 13 ministries. Funds from the Love Offering taken during the Annual Conference session by the Global Ministries team enabled us to support two more applicants than in 2013, despite a decrease in ministry shares that affected all budgets. Three other ministry applications were forwarded to the Spiritual Formation MOT for that team's consideration, and two received funding.

Team members also read Holy Clarity: The Practice of Planning and Evaluation by Sarah B. Drummond, as recommended by Director of Connectional Ministries the Rev. William Gottschalk-Fielding. RON MOT met with Rev. Gottschalk-Fielding and Conference Treasurer Kevin Domanico on Nov. 3, 2014 for conversations about goals and evaluations. This morning meeting was shared with members of the Spiritual Leadership MOT. Then we gathered for lunch and the early afternoon with leaders of Volunteers-in-Mission, Global Ministries, and Social Holiness for preliminary budget conversations.

Throughout the year, RON MOT members communicate via email, phone, and conference calls, to consider questions from applicants, plan for improving policies and practices, and offer discipleship support. We especially thank the Global Ministries team for sharing one-third of the 2014 Annual Conference session's Love Offering as funding support for ministries with our neighbors in all places.

Sexual Ethics Committee

The work of the Sexual Ethics committee has been divided into three work areas: Safe Sanctuaries, Clergy Sexual Ethics, and Crisis Response. The committee met several times throughout the course of the year both in person and remotely.

Safe Sanctuaries

The major focus of the Safe Sanctuaries sub-committee continues to "make available a standardized training program to assist each charge, district, agency, and ministry to fulfill the covenant to 'educate all of our workers with children, youth, and vulnerable adults regarding the use of appropriate policies and methods.'" (2011 session of Annual Conference, The Minimum Standards). This "train the trainers" course was offered in several locations in 2014.

Safe Sanctuaries Charge Conference reports were also reviewed by the committee, with appropriate feedback provided to district superintendents for follow up with local churches.

Clergy Sexual Ethics

The Board of Ordained Ministry has made significant progress developing a Conference-wide policy and training program related to professional boundaries and conduct for those serving in a ministerial relationship. It is expected this training will be offered to all clergy and those serving in a pastoral role in 2015.

Response Teams

The purpose of the Response Team is to provide a holy presence and walk beside those in a congregation – victims, accused, and family members – who are impacted by clergy/ministerial abuse or misconduct, as they move through a process to address the circumstances involved. The Response Team is fully formed and operational. It reports directly to the Bishop and is under the leadership of the Rev. Cathy Hall Stengel.

Membership

The current membership of the committee includes Carol Barnes, Ted Finlayson-Schueler, the Rev. Bill Gottschalk-Fielding, the Rev. Jack Keating, the Rev. Jan Rowell, Glenda Schuessler, Charles Syms, and Matthew Williams. Cherish McGowan serves as staff support.

Social Holiness Team

The center of John Wesley's creation of what we now call Methodism was a response to the growing privatization of faith in England. The Wesleyan movement was a commitment to a holiness project. While our very name comes from the slur on the methodical nature of the study of the Holy Scripture, prayer, and meditation; social holiness was and remains the center of our living and growing faith experience. The Rev. Wesley was quoted as saying "There is no holiness without social holiness." The purpose of the holiness project was to spread scriptural holiness throughout England and all places and this was done through Christian fellowship and ministries of service to the people and communities most in need. While the foundation of our faith is found in personal holiness – the practice of prayer, the study of the Word of God, meditation and reflection – it is our social holiness that takes us from the foundation, the basement of our faith and helps build the kingdom of God for the entire world to see and experience.

The Social Holiness Team of the Upper New York Conference is comprised of representatives from the Committee on Native American Ministries, the Committee of Religion and Race, the General Board of Church and Society, the New York State Council of Churches, the Task Force on Peace With Justice in Palestine/Israel, the Peace with Justice Coordinator, and the United Methodist Women Social Action representative. We still need representatives from the Commission on the Status and Role of Women and the Committee on Native American Ministries; all bringing their varying perspectives, ideas, and dreams to our discussions and actions.

We meet monthly, for two months by conference call and every third month face to face. The purpose of our meetings is to help coordinate, plan and support the social ministries both present and in the future of the Upper New York Conference.

As chair, I will not report on the work of the teams and committees that form the Social Holiness work area as they will do this in their reports. I will share briefly a bit of a new ministry that is in the process of being birthed. This ministry deals with people who have been in prison in New York state and ministering with them as they are released. It is our hope to share the grace and forgiveness of God in a tangible manner of helping these people return to meaningful lives with gainful employment and housing. This is possible if we walk with these people and share the message of forgiveness and of the new life that is offered to all through the love expressed by Christ. George Herrick is heading up this newly born team and is already in partnership with the New York Conference and is reaching out to a ministry in the Baltimore area that is similar to this. Please hold Herrick and this team in your prayers, and if you are interested in becoming a member of this ministry please contact either Herrick or myself.

Respectively submitted,
Rev. Alan D. Kinney, Chair

Spiritual Leadership Ministry Oversight Team

The team met for the first time on March 19, 2014 and the Rev. Bill Gottschalk-Fielding provided an overview of the role of Ministry Oversight Teams as well as information specific to the Spiritual Leadership Team. The team met again in May and August; I accepted the role of convener for the team during the August meeting. We have spent time discussing our understanding of the role of this ministry team as well as attempting to articulate our sense of ”spiritual leadership.” We met with the Reaching Our Neighbors Ministry Oversight Team in September and we were invited to review a number of grant requests that had been submitted to the RON MOT team. Following time to review these requests and discuss their relationship to Spiritual Leadership, the team approved funding for three grant programs. We have continued to be in conversation with regard to our role as a team and the specific guidelines that we would provide in 2015 for new grant programs. We look forward to continuing our work together and living more fully into the ministry intended for this team.

Status and Role of Women (COSROW), Commission on the

The Commission on the Status and Role of Women met nearly every month during 2014 utilizing conference calls. Keeping in mind the commission's purpose: to educate, advocate, and monitor for the full participation of women in the life of the Church. We did the following:

Previously, in 2013, the commission had communicated our concern about instances of sexism in some of the Conference camping brochure descriptions, with the result that this year the designers of the brochures and the camps took our concerns into consideration.

Mary Jane Russell offered a COSROW presentation to the Niagara Frontier District United Methodist Women. Her theme was "Chutzpa," and she referenced the Syrophoenician woman. Tom Blake made copies of Russell's PowerPoint presentation for each COSROW member.

In response to an invitation from the Conference, the Rev. Judith Johnson-Siebold wrote an essay for the Conference's celebration of Women's History Month.

The Rev. Barbara Thorington Green led a session for a women's retreat for Binghamton's Tabernacle UMC at the Sky Lake Camp & Retreat Center in Windsor.

Members of COSROW monitored speakers at the Annual Conference session and published the results. COSROW also monitored last fall's Special Session of Annual Conference.

COSROW sponsored a display during the Annual Conference session, and some of the members of COSROW were often available to answer questions.

Blake will represent us during the General Commission on the Status and Role of Women (GCOSROW) Do No Harm summit in the fall 2015.

The commission has begun to plan a fall 2015 conference on confronting sexism. An announcement and interest indicator were published in the January/February issue of the Advocate.

My thanks go to commission team members Tom Blake, the Rev. Carl Chamberlain, the Rev. Barbara Thorington Green, Mary Jane Russell, and United Methodist Women Representative Ellen Kloch. Your passion and involvement are an inspiration.

Rev. Judith Johnson-Siebold. Ph.D., Chair

Trustees, Board of

Your Upper New York Board of Trustees serves the Conference and various constituencies within the Conference by assuming responsibilities defined by the Book of Discipline with respect to the real and personal property of the Conference. The trustees oversee all litigation related to Conference assets.

This board comprises 12 dedicated volunteers who diligently perform their duties to the Conference, ever mindful that we are entrusted with responsibilities that significantly affect us all. The names of your trustees are found elsewhere in this Pre-Conference Workbook. Trustees are drawn from among you – lay and clergy affiliated with a variety of United Methodist churches, sharing your interests, needs, and perspectives. All of our work is directed to the support of our Conference mission which is to "live the Gospel of Jesus Christ and to be God's love with our neighbors in all places." Our acceptance of our responsibilities as trustees is a commitment to serve.

The work of the board benefits from significant participation and assistance from members of the Conference staff, our property consultant the Rev. Thomas Clemow, and Conference Chancellor Scott DelConte, Esq. Conference Treasurer Kevin Domanico also serves as treasurer for the board, as provided for in the Book of Discipline. As you might expect, the Treasurer's Office and the trustees enjoy a very close working relationship.

Our organization includes three standing committees: Property, Insurance, and Financial Assets. We also have a task force and sub-committees that are responsible for the acquisition of, preparation of, and relocation to a Conference Center that will house Episcopacy offices, offices for centralized Conference staff, and other Conference facilities. In addition, the board works closely with the Cabinet, Camp and Retreat Ministry, and other Conference organizations.

We work with individuals, churches, districts, camps, and all United Methodist entities within the Conference to address the issues, needs, and problems that fall within the scope of our responsibilities. In addition to contemporary matters, we are still working with the Conference staff and other organizations to resolve issues associated with the merger. I am pleased to report that while we might all have hoped for a faster resolution to many matters related to the merger, we are getting where we need to be.

Conference Center – Rev. Dr. Wendy J. Deichmann, Chair

A major undertaking by your trustees in recent months has been an effort to acquire property to serve as a new Conference Center, which will house the offices of the episcopacy and the Conference and provide space for other Conference activities and functions.

At a special session of the Annual Conference held on Oct. 18, 2014, the trustees were authorized to obtain a property for this purpose. A candidate property had been identified, and the trustees made an offer that was acceptable to the seller. The resulting contract was contingent upon the Conference investigating the property thoroughly and determining it to be satisfactory for the Conference's purpose. The trustees conducted an extensive due diligence investigation of the property over a three-month period that revealed a number of unacceptable structural and environmental conditions, none of which could have been known to us at the time of the special session or when we entered the purchase contract on Dec. 4, 2014. The estimated cost to remedy these conditions, mostly the environmental discrepancies, are substantial and reveal the market value of the property to be significantly less that what had been asked or offered.

The discrepancies can be remedied, and we offered to purchase this same property, but only at a significantly reduced price commensurate with the need to correct these discrepancies. However, our proposal was not accepted. In accordance with our acknowledged duty to you, we are proceeding to indentify another property for this purpose.

We have arranged to extend our lease with University United Methodist Church in Syracuse to provide continuity of operations until the new facility becomes available. We continue to be grateful to University UMC for the space the Conference currently occupies and uses and for its cooperation with the Conference.

Property – Rev. Stephen Butler, Chair

It is the responsibility of the board of trustees to dispose of property no longer of use to the Conference or any Conference entity (usually abandoned church buildings and parsonages), acquire property needed for Conference purposes, such as district parsonages, and manage and maintain property while the Conference owns it. The variety of activities associated with these responsibilities is amazing. Working with municipalities, private groups (such as cemetery associations), law enforcement, real estate brokers, and others, we confront and resolve many unexpected issues with considerable help from Rev. Clemow and DelConte.

At the time of this report, March 1, 2015, the trustees are managing 19 church buildings or complexes, one community building, two parsonages, four cemeteries, and three parcels of unimproved land for a total of 29 properties with two more expected soon. We have sold or transferred six properties during the conference year, and have 10 others under contract or pending.

As we have become involved with more district parsonages, we created a management/oversight policy for these properties. We purchased district parsonages for Mountain View and Northern Flow and are in the process of purchasing a parsonage for Crossroads. We renovated two other district parsonages.

Our efforts with these kinds of property are increasingly in collaboration with district boards of Church Location and Building. Our consultant has been working with these organizations to better prepare them to work with these properties. If your district has not had a training session with Rev. Clemow, please call or email me to arrange for one.

Insurance – Deborah Byers, Chair

The Conference has determined that it is in the best interest of the Conference and its churches, camps, and other entities to insure all property under a single plan with a single insurer. The primary reason is that the resolution of liability issues and claims would be much more difficult with other arrangements and there would be a high risk of overlapping coverages and gaps in our protection. We are aware that this arrangement has been the source of considerable frustration to many of our churches. Your trustees acknowledge the magnitude of the deficiencies in the original plan for the merged Conference and to an extent even today. We have spent considerable time and effort to reconfigure Conference casualty and liability insurance, and we have effectively addressed many of the deficiencies. The current plan uses more appropriate criteria for allocation of premiums and provides more flexibility, resulting in opportunities for churches to tailor their insurance to their needs and save on the cost of premiums in some instances. In spite of some problems, service has improved. The trustees continue to seek ways to address remaining concerns and make the system better. In addition to the insurance changes, the trustees have continued to provide, on a temporary basis, financial assistance to churches experiencing huge and unforeseeable increases in premiums. We continue to encourage churches and others to use recommended practices to reduce risks; our risk experience plays an important part in our overall premiums, which were held flat (except for changes in coverage) this year.

For the same reason a Conference-wide plan is desirable, it is important that any Conference entities insuring motor vehicles outside the Conference plan transfer their insurance to Church Mutual when their current policies expire.

Financial Resources – Travis Dann, Chair

At its Oct. 6, 2014 meeting, the board of trustees was given a presentation about recent developments in the laws pertaining to the handling and management of the funds of non-profit entities. The trustees continue to work with the Conference Treasurer's Office reviewing the funds held by the Conference and determining how they should be invested, managed, and made available for utilization. Restrictions are scrupulously honored; necessary adjustments are effected in compliance with legal requirements.

An additional task assigned to this committee involves implementation of a revolving fund to lend money to churches and other entities to address temporary needs that cannot be resolved otherwise. We hope and expect to have such a fund in operation in the near future.

Camps

Our Camp and Retreat Ministry complements the work of our churches and other institutions in a unique and valuable way. It would be difficult to exaggerate the potential of the experiences afforded by this ministry to change lives. Your board of trustees works closely with CRM Director Mike Huber to deal with property issues and other matters within our purview. One of our more important matters this year has been changing and clarifying the relationship of the Asbury facility and another organization with which the camp had been associated.

The board of trustees exists to serve the Conference and the districts, churches, camps, and other elements of the Conference. We welcome your questions, requests, and suggestions. I can be reached via email at Yankeesafe-trustees@yahoo.com.

United Methodist Men

The Upper New York United Methodist Men have experienced marked growth in Conference/District leadership this past year. “Men growing in Christ, so others will know Him.” God has blessed us with men that love God and have a passion to serve Him through United Methodist Men’s ministry. As of Jan. 1, 2015 we have worked to add to our UNYUMM leadership team: two Conference vice presidents, one director of communications, one Conference prayer advocate, one district president, two district vice presidents, and a Conference Boy Scouts of America scouting coordinator. Praise be to God!

Additional positions to complete our executive leadership team as outlined in our GCUMM by-laws are filled at the discretion of the president. This leadership of the UNYUMM is committed to reaching out to all parts of the Conference to disciple men and women into a personal relationship with Jesus Christ through prayer and mission. The UNYUMM are “Men growing in Christ, so others will know Him.”

At the time of this report, we have six district presidents and are in immediate need of six more to provide each Upper New York district with leadership to oversee United Methodist Men’s ministry and mission. We serve a vast area of New York state and we are in need of committed men with a passion for God to spiritually lead other men by their words and actions.

The leadership team has designed a new logo to represent the UNYUMM this past year as we continue to transition into a men’s ministry that focuses on prayer, mission and, most importantly, discipleship. Furthermore, we have in the past year designed a new website thanks to our Conference UMM Director of Communications Scott Stumpf. The website address is www.unyumm.org. Scheduled UMM Conference/district/local events can be found on our new website. Please take time to visit our website and see how God is working through the UNYUMM.

United Methodist Men, along with The United Methodist Church, is a connectional organization that depends on relationships to grow and prosper spiritually. The United Methodist Men receive no other centralized funds. Except for those fellowships that charter, donate directly or individuals who participate as EMS (Every Man Shares) members, there is no means of financial support from our GCUMM. Although stewardship is vital to growing as a disciple, our purpose is not raising funds; our purpose is to lead men to Jesus through prayer, mission, and discipleship.

The United Methodist Men of Upper New York is dedicated to helping men and women grow spiritually through a personal relationship with God. This is done through strengthening our own Christian relationships with each other.

The United Methodist Men has been involved with hunger relief here in Upper New York over the past year. Thanks to our Conference Hunger Relief Advocate Dean Burdick, the UMM has gleaned vegetables from farmers’ fields to be distributed through food pantries. Food items for the Food Bank of Central New York were gleaned at large food shows throughout Central New York. In addition, the UMM, with the help of the Society of St. Andrew (SoSA), has successfully facilitated three potato drops in Central New York and the Southern Tier. Approximately 135,000 pounds or 2,700 50-pound bags of potatoes were distributed to food banks, pantries and churches during three consecutive weekends: Oct. 25, Nov. 1 and Nov. 8. We have worked with the Society of St. Andrew to add yet another potato drop this year on Oct. 31 at the Booneville UMC. SoSA underwrites the majority of the cost of the potato drop missions facilitated by the UNYUMM each fall. To donate to SoSA, go to endhunger.org.

Our UMM brother Dean Burdick was appointed this past year as the Society of St. Andrew New York State Food Relief Coordinator; we extend our congratulations to him.

The UMM of the Mohawk District again has partnered with the churches to initiate our second annual "Feed Our Vets February." This district-wide food collection benefited veterans and their families in need. Thank you to all our Methodist brothers and sisters throughout the Mohawk District for their help in feeding our veterans and their families.
The United Methodist Men gathered on April 17-18 for the 10th anniversary of our UMM Gathering at the Aldersgate Camp and Retreat Center. The gathering was led by keynote speaker the Rev. Wayne Clemens. The theme was "Forgive … and Move On." During this 24-hour men's retreat, Rev. Clemens talked to the men about God's forgiveness and why it is important in our Christian walk to forgive others as well as ourselves. Our 10-year anniversary featured musical guest The Josh Moriarty Band, and included an all-night prayer vigil, plenty of food, fellowship, and laughter!

The annual UNYUMM gathering at the Casawasco Camp and Retreat Center took place on Sept. 5-7, 2014 and our keynote speaker was the Rev. John Aukema. The theme was "Lead Like Jesus" and all 35 in attendance experienced an encounter with Jesus. Rev. Aukema made us realize that God needs to be at the center of all our lives if we are to lead like Jesus. Our guest musician was singer/songwriter Sean Clive from Sauquoit. David Greer was appointed to the office of conference UMM treasurer by a majority vote at the annual business meeting held on Sept. 6, 2014.

The United Methodist Men continue to "Grow in Christ, so others will know Him" through our daily commitment to prayer and spending time with God. We are in need of your daily prayers for God to raise up leaders throughout this conference so that Methodist Men in all 12 districts of the Upper New York Conference will be working in mission for God's glory, bringing men to Christ one heart at a time.

"We love because God loved us first." 1 John 4:19

United Methodist Women

The Upper New York United Methodist Women's Mission Team met twice in executive session with district presidents or a representative from each district. Our finance committee met once to set up our budget for 2015. Our program committee met twice to plan our annual event.

The Upper New York UMW Mission Projects Committee met to review and award mission grants. They presented their report at the annual meeting in October in Amherst. Those serving on the Mission Projects Committee are Valerie Clark, chairperson; Tracy Jackson, vice chairperson; Leona Peterson, treasurer; Patricia Briggs; Ellen Klock, Judith Stevens, Jean Sherwood, Jan Griener and Carole Collins.

During the summer of 2014 we had three Schools of Mission U in three different locations. Our first school was at Cazenovia College. Our second school was at the Asbury Camp and Retreat Center on Silver Lake. Our third school was at and the Silver Bay YMCA. Each school offered the same three studies but in different formats. The school at Cazenovia offered a program for children and also a youth program. The schools were a success and it was decided to continue with three schools in three regions again in 2015. They will still offer three different studies and emphasis on mission. They will be July 17-19 at Cazenovia College; July 30 to Aug. 1 at the Asbury Camp and Retreat Center; and Sept. 11-13 at the Silver Bay YMCA.

Our Conference annual meeting was held Oct. 4-5 at the Shenendehowa United Methodist Church in Clifton Park. This was a two-day event where we combined our officer training and our annual meeting into one event. At the business portion of this gathering we elected officers for 2015 and approved the proposed 2015 budget. The theme for our meeting was "Make It Happen: In a Different Way." Our keynote speaker was the Rev. Molly Golando.

This April, many of us traveled to Louisville, Ky., for the National UMW Assembly meeting. Its theme was: "Will You Make it Happen?" There were many inspirational speakers and bible study, displays, a chance to do mission work – Ubuntu Day of Service, worship together, and many workshops.

We continue to work on living out our UMW purpose: United Methodists Women is a community of women whose purpose is to know to God and to experience freedom as whole persons as whole persons through Jesus Christ, to develop a creative supportive fellowship and to expand concepts of mission through participation in the global ministries of the Church.

Violet's Garden/Garden for Young Disciples – Advance # 3075

The Violet's Garden grants were established in 2008 as an expression of appreciation for Bishop Violet L. Fisher's compassion for children and youth. Initially, the fund totaled $17,000. Since then, every November and May the task force has solicited and reviewed applications from local congregations looking for start-up funding for new spiritual growth experiences for children and youth. The task force is pleased to report the following local churches received grant funding during the 2014 fiscal year.

May 1, 2014

Central Park UMC (Buffalo) – "Young Women of God" initiative	$500
West Avenue UMC (Rochester) – Vacation Bible School curriculum	$400
East Greenbush UMC – Vacation Bible School curriculum	$400
Emmanuel Avenue (Lockport) – Vacation Bible School Music CDs	$200
Seneca Street Church (Buffalo) – "Survival Skills and Spiritual Growth" youth initiative	$500
[Owego United Methodist Church Youth Summer Bible Musical – $500 awarded, but funds returned as program was not able to be carried out]

Nov. 1, 2014

Ballston Spa UMC – Youth Ministry Video Library access	$550
Unadilla UMC – Winter Vacation Bible School	$300
Cicero UMC – Children's Music Ministry	$1000

We typically receive more applications in the May grant period for summer Vacation Bible Schools and start-up ministries than for the fall grant period. As we enter the May 2015 grant period, our fund's balance is just over $4,700. The fund has been sustained over the years by donations made to the Advance (#3075) by individuals and local churches; we especially thank the Floyd UMC. We appeal to every local congregation in our Conference that values and cherishes their ministries with children and youth, and/or recognizes that even though their congregation may not currently have a children's and youth ministry, that such an outreach ministry is vital to our denomination's understanding of ministry with the least and the most vulnerable to consider a donation to further the work of Violet's Garden (Garden for Young Disciples). The ministries that are able to happen due to the grants awarded reap great, faith-filled harvests. Emmanuel UMC's VBS where the funds were used to purchase the music CDs for each family noted that out of 23 surveys received back from families of participants, 12 specifically mentioned the songs and singing as one of the things that their children were excited about; one even commented about the "CD that we get to continue enjoying."

While Violet's Garden does not provide funding for food as there are other grants and avenues to help with those needs, the pairing of feeding ministries with the spiritual formation of participants has been very successful. From a congregation that purposely schedules its VBS during the dinner hours on the last week of a summer month (when home food budgets run out and the children do not receive free school lunches) and provides a meal as part of their activities, a parent wrote:

> I would like to thank you for being a beacon [sic] of light in a dark world … You give your all to these children who might never know that Jesus loves them and cares for them even when they are different and feeding them dinner helps more that you know. I know there are others who struggle to put food on the table. Thank you.

These moments of providing the care and compassion of Christ and making children and youth aware of Christ's love come only when there are faithful disciples who are willing to serve in such ministries. Violet's Garden can only continue to equip these saints in creating the opportunities for such faith encounters with donations from concerned congregations and individuals. The task force would be saddened if 2015 was the last year for the Violet's Garden grants to be available; and the Church at large would be at a disadvantage if our vision for making disciples of Jesus Christ is not extended to include new disciples under the age of 18.

Please take the time to visit our display table along with the other advances and ministries of the General Board of Global Ministries to see accounts of the success of our local congregations' bringing the good news of Jesus Christ to children and youth in their community.

Respectfully submitted,
Rev. Joellyn Tuttle, Violet's Garden Task Force Convener

Volunteers-in-Mission (UMVIM)

Vision

Encourage and enable local congregations, and districts within the Upper New York Conference to effectively engage in mission, being God's love to our neighbors in all places.

Large VIM Efforts

Extensive flooding in Binghamton-Endicott-Owego, Schoharie-Middleburg, Oneida-Herkimer-Fort Plain and Penn Yan areas, with the exception of Oneida, closed out with United Methodist Committee on Relief funding, massive local church efforts, and VIM teams from across the state and nation. Hurricane Sandy recovery continues with teams working in New York, Greater New Jersey and Peninsula-Delaware conferences. Haiti Partnership trains and sends teams to partner villages within and outside the quake affected areas. Haiti Partnership teams of 36 adults and eight youth have formed in 2015.

Education

Team Leader Training (TLT): We had five newly trained leaders in 2014. This training allows their entire team to qualify for Northeastern Jurisdiction accident insurance and conference VIM team grants or scholarships.

Early Response Training (ERT): Training sessions resulted in 49 persons newly UMCOR certified or re-certified for early response. We aim to deploy these trained individuals effectively in response to future disasters.

All participants in either training are collated by district and date of training. The updated cumulative lists are sent to the district representatives and the district superintendent of each district. Our aim is to provide local missions chairpersons this district-based information to provide better connections among those active in mission.

Volunteers completed Emergency Response Team trainer and Connecting Neighbors sessions in spring 2015. We plan to extend ERT training and Connecting Neighbors throughout the Conference.

UMVIM Teams and Outreach

Analysis of the church VIM reports reveals more complete data than 2013. There remains inconsistent interpretation of the forms. We aim in 2015 to improve the data collection process and make the form easier to complete. Currently, we have six districts providing reports for a portion of their churches. The reported teams in mission included 819 adults and 289 youth. The amount of money spent on VIM projects is well over $175,000. With all districts reporting, the figures would stand significantly higher.

Grants & scholarships

UNYVIM has provided 10 grants to 2014 teams, nine international ($500) and one domestic ($200). In addition, 16 individual scholarships, 12 international and four domestic scholarships were given. Half of the grants have been to Haiti Partnership. In 2015, grants for six teams and five scholarships have been approved. Requirements for receiving a grant include having VIM or equivalent trained team leader, having appropriate insurance for the team, being open to participation beyond the local church, and serving in a VIM-approved project site (not necessarily UMC). Requirements for scholarships are the same, with preference given to youth or first time missioners. Team leaders are also eligible for support.

Administration

The 12 districts are represented on the steering committee. The committee has two team meetings annually held in late fall and just before the Annual Conference session. The membership list is at www.unyumc.org/mission/vim-steering-committee.

The UNY VIM coordinators meet annually with the Northeastern Jurisdiction UMVIM Board to share insights and ideas and to plan training events. A revamped NEJ website is planned for mid-2015. The first UMCOR/UMVIM Academy in 10 years was held this spring, bringing NEJ in line with practice in the other jurisdictions. Courses are offered by UMCOR trainers in four tracks:

- Emotional and Spiritual Care
- Ready Congregations & Connecting Neighbors
- Emergency Response Team: Train the Trainer
- Volunteer Excellence

Communications

The new website has been revised and is being kept up to date. Use the VIM page to find UMVIM projects requesting teams, register teams and file reports, apply for team grants and individual scholarships, obtain forms and link to more information. The Conference communications team sends information via its mission “Notes”. We want to hear your mission stories. "Connect with UNY" under the News tab.

The UNYVIM Facebook page is your connection to timely updates for upcoming teams and events as well as team reports, photos and videos. Like us on Facebook at www.facebook.com/UpperNewYorkVolunteersInMission to stay connected.

Goals

Our hopes, dreams, prayers for the future include increased awareness of VIM in local churches, increased reporting of teams serving, and increased numbers of trained team leaders and early response teams. We look forward to enhanced coordination with Disaster Response in the Northeastern Jurisdiction and the Upper New York Board of Global Ministries.

Youth Ministries (CCYM), Conference Council on

The 2014-2015 year of the Upper New York Conference Council on Youth Ministries has been a busy and fruitful one. We first gathered at UP!Word ’14 last April and have been revitalizing youth ministries in our Conference every day since. Our leadership team, co-chairs Kara Tenpas and J.J. Warren, as well as secretary Emily Allen and the team chairs Zach Aiosa (Worship Team), Elyse Muder (Gathering Organization Team), Katie Shumway (PowerPoint and Publicity Team), and Jon Standhart (our Youth Service Fund educator) have been hard at work in bringing the vision of the CCYM to life. Of course the efforts of the entire CCYM are what make this CCYM the active and reviving energy that it is. The entire CCYM has worked diligently in their respective teams to plan our annual Fall Gatherings and our largest event, UP!Word ’15. The fall gatherings have grown in attendance and we are predicting about 500 youth and youth leaders will attend UP!Word ’15. We truly believe that UP!Word ’15 will be the first step on the long path of revival for youth ministries in the Upper New York Conference.

This year our co-chairs have challenged the CCYM to shift our focus from planning large youth gatherings, to empowering youth in their local churches to become leaders. Many efforts have been made to support this focus, including new workshops on leadership skills and a workshop at the 2015 session of Annual Conference which will give the attendees the tools necessary to plan a youth event of their own. New social media outlets have also been utilized to keep youth connected to a body of believers after they have returned from our high energy youth gatherings. This connection is in hopes of maintaining their spiritual excitement in their local churches.

We are also focusing more than ever on the importance of collaboration between Conference organizations. The Upper New York CCYM is one of the largest and most effective in the country and the world. We believe that youth are not only the Church of tomorrow, but the Church of today. Our Conference is seeing our impact in the lives of youth and we look forward to the continued support from the Conference as a Conference Ministry Team. The Bishop and the Conference Office have been supportive in meeting with our co-chairs and making time to collaborate together to enhance youth ministries in Upper New York. We are currently working with the generous Camp and Retreat Ministry staff for collaboration during UP!Word ’15, including the hiring of the Casowasco Camp and Retreat Center band InsideOut as our house band. We are grateful to the Camp and Retreat Ministry staff as we worked together to distribute 500 flyers this past summer, advertising the CCYM events and opportunities for youth to continue in ministry together to campers across the Upper New York area.

An Indian scholar by the name of Henry Sunray once said, “The youth will lead a revival. This will be led by the youth of the Methodist Church.” We love The United Methodist Church for its emphasis on the importance of youth ministries and for its global connections. The youth appreciate a Church that is accepting of their diverse backgrounds and beliefs. This is why the Methodist youth will revive religion and grow the Church in the name of Jesus Christ. We believe that together we will make disciples of all who accept Jesus Christ as their Savior, for the transformation of the world!

May God bless the Upper New York Conference, and may God bless The United Methodist Church.

J.J. Warren & Kara Tenpas, co-chairs
Upper New York Conference Council on Youth Ministries

Young Adult Ministries

God is working in some wonderful ways through our Young Adults Ministry, Upper New York! We have spent the past year really getting to know each other and strengthening our bonds of community.

It started on July 12, 2014, when Bishop Mark J. Webb graciously extended an invitation to the young adults to come to his home for a barbecue. Fifty young people from all over the Conference took up the Bishop's offer and gathered for a time of fun and fellowship. We all had a wonderful time, and it was especially great for the Bishop to see such a strong showing from our Conference's young people.

One of the challenges of young adult ministry is that it covers an age range that spans many life stages. As a result, a large number of our Conference's young adults do not live within the Conference borders. Many of us are college students or graduate students in other parts of the country. Yet that hurdle doesn't stop us from growing in love and community for one another. Thanks to the technologies of the current day, we are all able to meet together to plan, even though we cannot always be together face to face. Every one of our planning meetings this past year has been held in a way that is conducive to allowing all of our young adults to take part.

Speaking of planning meetings, our young adults have also been working hard to plan and organize our events and actions for the upcoming year. Since the last session of Annual Conference, we have met five times as of writing this report to plan a retreat in the spring, and our involvement during this year's session of Annual Conference. Unfortunately, due to low expected turnout, we had to cancel our spring retreat. That said, our Annual Conference session events are something that we are totally excited for and you should be, too! We are in the midst of planning both a workshop and a worship service for you to attend during this Annual Conference session. Both of these offerings will have been entirely planned and run by our young adult planning team, and we cannot wait to show them to you!

All this is to say that the young adults in Upper New York are doing some incredible things. We are the current leaders of The United Methodist Church, and we excitedly anticipate what God has in store for us in the upcoming years!

Respectfully submitted,
Young Adults of Upper New York

Boston University School of Theology

Dear colleagues in the Upper New York Conference:
Greetings in the Spirit of Jesus Christ! In this anniversary year, Boston University School of Theology (BUSTH) celebrates 175 years of seeking God, building knowledge, and equipping leaders for the Church and society. We especially celebrate our students, alums, and church partners, with whom we seek to serve God as transforming leaders in a multitude of local and global communities.

BREAKING NEWS

- The Doctor of Ministry in Transformational Leadership is well underway with outstanding students and eager teachers. In its first year, the program has attracted two cohorts of students from three countries, eight faith traditions, and a variety of church, educational, health care, and other faith-based contexts.
- BUSTH celebrated art and creativity with four major art exhibits and receptions: James Crane's motive cartoons; Robin Miller's African America in Art and Poetry; John August Swanson's poster art; and Beth Neville's paintings.
- The STEWARD Program, funded by a grant from the Lilly Endowment, is preparing students for stewardship of all of life, including spiritual, physical, and financial life.
- Raices Latinas, funded in part by The United Methodist Church Young Clergy Initiative, has begun! It invites and supports Latino/young adults toward a life-giving journey in ministry. BUSTH also works closely with The UMC in leadership of the Hispanic Youth Leadership Academy. Both focus on education, mentoring, service learning, and spiritual formation.

MILESTONES

- 175 Years: The founders of BUSTH were abolitionists, pastors, and lay leaders who envisioned a school to carry the spiritually rich, socially transformative, leadership-forming legacy that centered their own lives. Our annual theme, Leading in Transformation, honors that vision and reflects on how to reshape it in response to changing social realities.
- Women in the World: This year, the Anna Howard Shaw Center celebrates 30 years of its Women in the World Conference, a witness to women's leadership in the Church and a celebration of their brave, audacious ministries.

PARTNERING FOR TRANSFORMATION: Preparing students for ministry means meaningful partnerships with the local spiritual community.

- Partnering in transformational learning through courses in congregations with church leaders and students together.
- Serving the Church through workshops and mutual projects, especially in church renewal, mission, and the cultivation of difficult conversations that enhance dignity and justice.
- Traveling across the globe through seminars where students engage with diverse cultures and traditions. In this year, students and faculty have explored the Arizona-Mexico Border, Israel and Palestine, Ephesus, and Mexico.

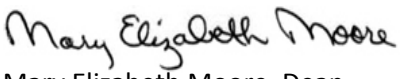
CELEBRATING JUSTICE: From Selma in 1965 to the Arizona-Mexico border and the streets of U.S. cities, we celebrate transformational leadership and explore paths to just peace.

- Retracing history by commemorating civil rights milestones with Walter Fluker, Martin Luther King, Jr. Professor of Ethical Leadership; and a panel of alumni and faculty on "Selma at 50, Ferguson Today."

- Moving forward to understand and build justice, engaging with Cornell William Brooks – BUSTH alumnus and President of the NAACP – and with our students, faculty, and alumni who seek to build justice in Boston, Ferguson, Hong Kong, Indonesia, Uganda, and beyond.

As we look back on the last year – and the last 175 years – we celebrate transformational leaders who have loved God and cared mightily for God's world. Their living legacy gives us hope and courage for the future.

Blessings and gratitude,



Mary Elizabeth Moore, Dean

Chautauqua Institution

In 2014, the United Methodist House, located on the grounds of the Chautauqua Institution, celebrated its 126th anniversary. The first of the Denominational Houses at Chautauqua, it is currently governed by an elected board of trustees, the members of which come from the Western Pennsylvania Conference, the Upper New York Conference, and the community at large. The house serves all who desire its hospitality and warmth. The United Methodist House (initially the Methodist House) was established, as were all denominational houses for their respective denominations at Chautauqua, to provide a place for study, worship and socialization in a manner consistent with the institution's mission and purpose. The United Methodist House offers space for visitors who attend Chautauqua events during the summer season and provides hospitality to all who linger on the spacious porch. True to an ecumenical spirit, the house welcomes diverse groups who find the chapel or porch especially appropriate for their religious or programmatic purposes. During the Chautauqua season, the house is staffed by Karen and Bob Douds and provides a chaplain of the week for the activities of the house. The house works in relationship with the Hurlbut Memorial United Methodist Church staff to offer year-round retreat and small group opportunities.

We welcome applications for our Chaplaincy program. Potential summer guests, or those wishing to secure retreat space at other times of the year, will find further information available on our website at www.umhouse.com.

Those currently serving as elected trustees of the house are from Western Pennsylvania Conference: Roger Brumagin, Barry Lewis and Rev. Beth Nelson (vice president); from Upper New York Conference: Brenda Baird (president), Lee Mount and the Rev. Carolyn Stow (secretary); and from the community at large: Willow Brost, Mike Corey (treasurer), Dave Shuff, Don Weaver, and the Rev. J. Howard Wright. Ex officio members are the Rev. Sherri Rood, the Rev. Joe Patterson, Judie Peterson and the Rev. Carmen Perry.

Erie County Medical Center Corp

Greetings to my fellow siblings in Christ!

It is a blessing to be appointed as chaplain for Behavioral Health at Erie County Medical Center (ECMC) located on Grider Street in Buffalo. Our Comprehensive Psychiatric Emergency Program (CPEP) sees many from all walks of life with various needs. ECMC is mindful of the need for spiritual care as an integral part of the health and wholeness of every person. Prayer, worship services, and programs are a part of the weekly schedule with an emphasis on hope, health and healing.

Our weekly spiritual wellness programs focus on living in the present which is an ongoing journey for us all.

In our small groups we speak to how we can't change others, but only ourselves as we pray:

> Grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change;
> courage to change the things I can;
> and wisdom to know the difference.

Serenity, courage and wisdom ... essentials for a beautiful mind ... the mind of Christ!

Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary

Greetings from Garrett-Evangelical!

Early in the calendar year, I met with various constituencies of Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary, including alums, faculty, staff, trustees, and students regarding their hopes and concerns for the school.

As a result, we began the 2014-2015 academic year with the following priorities:

- To prepare and equip our graduates as public theologians,
- To nurture a more diverse community at Garrett-Evangelical so that the entire community develops cultural competency,
- To value and promote inclusivity at Garrett-Evangelical, and
- To construct a sustainable model for theological education.

Public Theology

This year we launched a public theology lecture series to help the Garrett-Evangelical community understand more about the intersection of theological perspectives and shared values held in the public arena as persons in ministry work with others toward the common good and the wellbeing of all persons and creation. The lecture series included:

- Oct. 15, 2014: The Rev. Janet Wolf, director of Haley Farm and Nonviolent Organizing for the Children's Defense Fund, lectured on various Children's Defense Fund programs, including restorative justice, mass incarceration, cradle to prison pipeline, and freedom schools.

- Dec. 3, 2014: Dr. Mark Lewis Taylor, Maxwell M. Upton Professor of Theology and Culture at the Princeton Theological Seminary, considered structures of the global orders and everyday living which public theologians may claim to engage and where "the powers and principalities" are always in contestation in "public" life.

In the fall, we will offer a course, "Public Theology in the City," taught by Dr. David Frenchak, former president of Seminary Consortium for Urban Pastoral Education (SCUPE). The class will collaborate with the mayor's office in Evanston, Ill., on an anti-violence initiative. Dr. Frenchak will also provide a public theology lecture this spring.

Cultural Competency & Inclusivity

As part of a commitment to nurturing a more diverse community, we welcomed new Vice President for Academic Affairs Dr. Luis R. Rivera, our first Latino Academic dean. Our current ethnic/racial profile is:

- 20 percent black; 6 percent Asian; 3 percent Hispanic/Latino; and 54 percent white; 14 percent international
- More than 33 religious traditions, four continents, 15 countries and 36 states are represented in the student body
- 232 students are United Methodist with 25 additional students from other Pan-Methodist denominations
- 94 new students began their studies at Garrett-Evangelical this fall, raising total fall enrollment to 365 (FTE of 305)
- The average age of the entering Master of Divinity student is 31
- 52 percent of the study body is women

Consistent attention to issues of inclusivity, justice, and grace within the seminary setting are critical for preparing future leaders to enter an increasingly diverse world. To respond to these concerns, Garrett-Evangelical will offer a number of Circle of Trust conversations this spring for trustees, faculty, staff, and students. Our goals are: 1) to provide safe space to discuss difficult topics, 2) to reduce any gap between stated values and actual behavior, both personally for participants and institutionally; and 3) to update our 1997 statements of inclusivity.

Sustainable Theological Education

Garrett-Evangelical is beginning work on a sustainable theological education model for the school. We are guided by a commitment to generational stewardship of our resources and to maintaining a thriving seminary for the future. We will attend to the areas of business, academics programs, and external programs.

Our priority continues to be making seminary education affordable. To this end we award more than $2.5 million in scholarship aid to students each year and we lead all United Methodist seminaries in the Dollars for Scholars program with 45 recipients. In October 2014, the seminary publicly launched The Final Lap of its $100 million Forging Our Future campaign, and announced that $88 million has been received to date. Much has already been accomplished, but more remains to be done (expanding the number of new leadership scholarships from 80 to 100, renovating Sherman apartments, endowing several more faculty positions, continuing to grow the unrestricted endowment), gifts for any of these goals are always welcome.

Thank you for your continued interest in our work. We are dedicated to serving The United Methodist Church and the Church at large. For more information about Garrett-Evangelical and our work, I encourage you to visit our website, www.garrett.edu, and to visit us on campus.

Cordially,
Lallene J. Rector, President

About Us

Garrett-Evangelical is the result of the interweaving of three institutions:

- Garrett Biblical Institute, the first Methodist seminary in the Midwest, was established in 1853 by largely the same church people who founded Northwestern University.
- Chicago Training School, established in 1885, and was an important force for women in ministry and for developing service agencies throughout Chicago. Chicago Training School merged with Garrett Biblical Institute in 1934.
- Evangelical Theological Seminary, located in Naperville, Ill., and founded as a seminary of the Evangelical Church (later the Evangelical United Brethren) in 1873, joined with Garrett Theological Seminary in 1974 to form Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary.

Genesee Area Campus Ministries

For more than 50 years, The United Methodist Church has been part of an ecumenical enterprise to provide mainline Protestant ministry to college students in this region through Genesee Area Campus Ministries ("GACM"). In partnership with the regional governing bodies of the United Methodist, Presbyterian, Episcopal, United Church of Christ and American Baptist Churches, GACM has worked to meet the spiritual needs of Protestant college students since 1964.

Students active in GACM's ministries include members of these denominations and other Christian traditions, as well as some students coming to church for the very first time. Today, GACM supports a full-time ordained ministry at the University of Rochester where, in addition to weekly Sunday night worship services and Wednesday night "dinner dialogues," students participate in book discussion groups, Bible studies, serve monthly at a local soup kitchen, are joined by local congregations on several Sunday nights for dinner, form vocal and instrumental ensembles for special worship services, organize hunger awareness fasts, and participate in a number of ecumenical and interfaith service, learning, and fellowship events.

In addition, for a great many of the students who connect to our campus congregation, it is the opportunity for private pastoral counseling with the chaplain that enables them to negotiate the twists and turns of the roads of young adulthood while away at college. They know that all they have to do is walk across the quad to the chapel, and they will find a caring, experienced chaplain to listen, to ask the right questions, to offer comfort, advice, prayer and support. Sometimes these conversations happen because the student has sent a text, or a Facebook message, or an email, asking for an appointment; but a great deal of the time, these conversations happen because a student just "hangs out" after worship or rehearsal or dinner dialogues, and eventually finds themselves saying something like, "If you have a few minutes, there's something I wanted to ask you ... "

In addition to our regular weekly and monthly events, some special events in the 2014-2015 academic year include our ninth annual 30-Hour Famine to raise money for, and awareness of, world hunger issues; beginning a new involvement helping to prepare and serve lunch at Cameron Community Ministries; sponsoring a campus-wide lecture by President Marvin McMickle of the Colgate Rochester Crozier Divinity School on "The Role of the Church in America's Quest for Racial Justice"; starting a new "Short Story Theology" periodic discussion group; planning an Easter week event with the various Christian groups on campus; and gathering to make blankets for area homeless shelters. A particularly exciting initiative this year is our work to re-establish our ministry at the Eastman School of Music, through the good work of a volunteer seminarian, who has been meeting monthly with students for dessert and discussion, and hopes to broaden his outreach to meet the expressed desires of the students.

It is through campus ministry that these young adults are learning about church leadership; many will go on to be key lay leaders in their congregations, and others will go on to a life of ordained ministry. For example, two of our May 2014 graduates are now in seminary (one a United Methodist). A current PCC junior is in the NROTC and hoping for a career as a Navy chaplain; a PCC sophomore is seriously considering becoming a pastor; three graduates in recent years are now ordained clergy (two of them United Methodist). All of these students have articulated how vitally important PCC was/is to their faith development and their decision to study theology after graduation.

Maintaining a vital presence on campus is key to insuring the Christian nurture of our sons and daughters and the future health of our denominations, and we are grateful for the strong support from United Methodists in our over half a century of joint ministry.

Geneseo Wesley Foundation

The current ministries of our Geneseo Wesley Foundation include the hired position of campus minister by the board of directors with an agreed focus of 2014-2015 to assess the Campus Ministry at SUNY Geneseo with an eye toward recommendations for campus ministry that is on-going, innovative, effective, and measurable. Since September 2014, this has included the research and review of local historical documentation, legal records, current campus function and activities, our United Methodist Conference and General Conference level information, a variety of United Methodist campus ministries, current interfaith function and activities, and a variety of campus ministry research and resource materials.

A recommendation has been offered toward a 2016-2020 focus based on the Campus Ministry Implementation Team of our United Methodist Virginia Conference to "invite and equip students to explore, engage, and embody an active faith in God." In the current frontier mission of campus ministry, how this focus might be implemented includes the recommendation of the synergy available between United Methodist pastoral campus ministry leadership as an extension ministry of our Upper New York Conference together with the board of directors for the continual building of an innovative, adaptive, risk-taking, Geneseo Wesley Foundation.

Goals include building bridges of empowerment between the campus community and the ministry of local churches; leadership and spiritual formation of students, clergy and laity to imagine, take risks, innovate, challenge one another, learn, discern, and together initiate God's will for his creation, people, and church; and reaching out to the spiritually disenfranchised by current mainstream society, campus students.

In January, students at SUNY Geneseo began meeting together as "the Wesley Foundation at SUNY Geneseo," sharing in prayer, Bible study, meals, conversations, and fellowship as well as beginning to form a Student Leadership Team.

Global Structure Task Force, Northeastern Jurisdiction

Dear members and friends of the Upper New York Conference,

The Northeast Jurisdictional Conference (NEJ) in 2012 created a task force to look at the global structure of The United Methodist Church. The College of Bishops named the participants, and we started our work in summer 2013. The task force had representatives from each of the conferences in the Northeast, with attention paid to many forms of diversity. One of the most helpful ways we were diverse was in our knowledge of General Church working. Some among us had been to many General Conferences and worked on issues of equity for decades, others had never been outside of the work of their conferences. This diversity kept us paying attention to “insider” knowledge and language.

Our process was slow to begin with. We talked about our priorities, about what fairness looked like, about how we were going to proceed. We met and had conference calls regularly. Eventually we put out a tentative proposal and requested feedback from it. Then, in summer 2014, we met and everything slid into place! The feedback from the first proposal crystalized the issues we were struggling with and the creative ways around the problems came into view. We were amazed, and grateful. To those of us present, it felt like the Holy Spirit had moved. Those unable to be at the meeting were excited about what we'd accomplished.

Since then we've worked further on perfecting the plan and forming it into petitionary language. There were still questions to answer and issues to consider, but the plan as a whole feels right to all of us! The language that we wrote lays out a plan for changing the global structure of The United Methodist Church to a system with equity for all involved. The petitions that will go to the 2016 General Conference are only the changes required to the Constitution, because the rest of the plan cannot be adopted until the Constitution changes.

In February, the College of Bishops decided that the best way to move forward was to have the task force submit the legislation, rather than have each Annual Conference amend and adopt it before sending it in. The NEJ task force continues to be in conversation with the Connectional Table and the General Commission on Central Conference Concerns, about both our proposal and any proposals they may bring forward.

What follows is the fruit of our work to date. It is in humility and hope that we present our work to you, humble at the size of the task at hand, and hopeful that the Spirit may move the Church toward fairness and joy!

In God's Peace,
The Rev. Sara Baron and Scott Johnson

Northeastern Jurisdiction Global Structure Task Force - Jan. 14, 2015

Dear sisters and brothers in Christ,

The NEJ Global Structure Task Force (task force) requests that you submit the attached legislative proposal to your 2015 session of Annual Conference, as a petition to the 2016 General Conference. This request is being sent to the directors of Connectional Ministries, the leadership of the 2012 and/or 2016 NEJ delegations, and the member(s) of the Global Structure Task Force from each conference, in order for you to determine who should submit the legislation.

By way of background, the task force was appointed by the College of Bishops and has been meeting since July 2013. We were charged with considering and proposing recommendations regarding the global structure of The United Methodist Church (UMC) and submitting our recommendations to each of the NEJ annual conferences in 2015 for their consideration and possible action.

One of our first actions was to develop a set of core values to guide our work:

- Be Christ Focused – The denominational structure should reflect the teachings of and empower the mission of Jesus Christ.
- Embody Structural Fairness – The denominational structure should provide for greater global equality in the Church around access to services, participation in structures, and shaping the agenda of The United Methodist Church. Any plan should provide for an equitable global resourcing and distribution of apportioned funds.
- Extend Community – Everyone, everywhere must be welcome and safe in The United Methodist Church. Any new structure must honor non-essential differences and defend the essential dignity and worth of all God's children.

The task force has been in communication with other committees across the denomination which are also working on aspects of the global structure: the Connectional Table, the Standing Committee on Central Conference Matters, and jurisdictional groups in the Western and North Central Jurisdictions.

The task force distributed two preliminary proposals (in March 2014 and September 2014) for consideration and feedback. We have revised our proposal based on the input we received.

In summary, this final proposal recommends that:

- The Global Connectional Conference will be similar to General Conference, except that it will ONLY deal with global issues and will be responsible for a Global Book of Discipline.
- The UMC will be organized into four continent-wide "connections": Africa, Asia, Europe and North America.
- Each of the four connections will have the option of organizing into regions. Each connection will be responsible for its own, connection-wide Book of Discipline, relevant to matters that are not global.
- Annual Conferences will remain the same.

The specific details of the task force's proposal are included in the attached "Concept Proposal" which explains each level of the proposed structure along with its roles and responsibilities. We have also provided the legislation needed to amend the Constitution of The UMC, in order to allow for these changes.

It is our expectation that each Annual Conference in the Northeastern Jurisdiction will consider submitting these documents as petitions to the 2016 General Conference.

We offer this proposal in humility and in gratitude for God's guidance.

Tracy Merrick, Chairperson of The NEJ Global Structure Task Force

Task Force Members: the Rev. Sara Baron, Scott Campbell, Darlene DiDomineck, Jen Ihlo, Sue Jamison, Scott Johnson, Judi Kenaston, Cynthia Ann Kent, Marilyn D. Kinelski, Larry Leister, Tracy Merrick, Derrick Porter, Morais Quissico, Denise Smartt Sears, and Eliezer Valentin-Castanon

Section B:
Global Structure Proposal – Legislation

Whereas, the 2012 Northeastern Jurisdictional Conference (NEJ) authorized the creation of a task force to develop recommendations regarding the global structure of The United Methodist Church (hereinafter "Task Force"); and

Whereas, these recommendations are to be provided by the Task Force to each of the NEJ annual conferences prior to their 2015 sessions, so that the recommendations can be considered by each Annual Conference for possible submission to the 2016 General Conference; and

Whereas, the Task Force was appointed by the College of Bishops and has been meeting since July 2013; and

Whereas, the Task Force discerned a set of core values to guide its work:

- Be Christ Focused – The denominational structure should reflect the teachings of and empower the mission of Jesus Christ.
- Embody Structural Fairness – The denominational structure should provide for greater global equality in the Church around access to services, participation in structures, and shaping the agenda of The United Methodist Church. Any plan should provide for an equitable global resourcing and distribution of apportioned funds.
- Extend Community – Everyone, everywhere must be welcome and safe in The United Methodist Church. Any new structure must honor non-essential differences and defend the essential dignity and worth of all God's children; and

Whereas, the Task Force has been in communication with others from across the denomination that are also working on aspects of the global structure, including: the Connectional Table, the Standing Committee on Central Conference Matters, and jurisdictional groups in the Western and North Central Jurisdictions; and

Whereas, the Task Force distributed two preliminary proposals in March 2014 and September 2014 across the jurisdiction and to the groups listed above and has revised its recommendations based on the feedback it received; and

Whereas, the Task Force has developed the attached Concept Proposal which outlines the global structure it is recommending for submission to the 2016 General Conference for its action; and

Whereas, the Task Force has also developed the attached amendments to the Constitution of The United Methodist Church, which are needed to support the Concept Proposal;

Be it therefore resolved, that the 2015 session of the Upper New York Annual Conference commends the attached Concept Proposal and Constitutional amendments to the 2016 General Conference for its action; and

Be it further resolved, that the Conference Secretary of the Upper New York Annual Conference shall forward the Concept Proposal and Constitutional Amendments as a petition from the Upper New York Annual Conference to the 2016 General Conference.

Frequently Asked Questions

What are the major changes in this proposal?

- The Global Connectional Conference will replace the General Conference and will only be responsible for those functions and matters of The UMC that are global in nature.
- Non-global or regionally contextual ministry matters would be assigned to four connections: one each in Africa, Asia, Europe, and North America (Note: The North America Connection would include Central America. The Methodist denominations in South America are currently autonomous Methodist churches).
- Each connection will have the option to organize into regions equivalent to the current central conferences in Africa, Asia, and Europe and the jurisdictions in the United States.
- The proposal recommends a Global Book of Discipline, as well as connectional Books of Discipline. Currently, only the central conferences can adapt the Book of Discipline.

How will the proposed "Global Connectional Conference" differ from the current "General Conference"?

The proposed quadrennial Global Connectional Conference will be similar to the current quadrennial General Conference, except that its focus will only be on global matters. Currently, a majority of the time at General Conference is spent on U.S.-centric issues. A focus on global matters will shorten the length of the Global Connectional Conference and allow it to concentrate on matters of importance to all connections, not just one. For example, the agenda could include time for each connection to share ministry successes and challenges. This would give all the connections an opportunity to understand similarities and differences in cultural contexts and to discover ways to assist in overcoming challenges, as we all seek to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

Why do we need another level of church organization?

Because ministry concerns vary between continents where UMC churches are located, this organizational structure encourages each of the four identical connections to focus on matters of importance to that connection. They are designed to provide opportunities to revitalize ministries and discuss new ideas and thoughts that are relevant in the context of a connection's ministries.

What Book of Discipline paragraphs will be included in the Global Book of Discipline?

This proposal anticipates that the paragraphs in the current Book of Discipline (BoD) that are global in nature will be included in the Global BoD and others will be included in the connectional books of discipline. We have not specified the allocation between the two in this proposal because other UMC bodies (Connectional Table, Standing Committee on Central Conference Matters, and Committee on Faith and Order) are already developing a Global BoD for action by the 2016 General Conference. The task force decided we should not duplicate their work and plans to review the Global BoD when it is available. General Conference will need to find the balance between what is and is not global.

How will having separate books of discipline affect ordination and itinerancy?

Ordination, orders, and licensing will be under the purview of the connections, with an acknowledgement that the roles, expectations, and needs are different around the globe. The possibility exists that the connections may allow their regions to have different requirements, and that would be a decision made by the connection as a whole.

Itinerancy in The UMC refers to clergy moves within annual conferences, and by extension within a region and a connection. Consistency of ordination provisions would enable itinerancy to continue easily within connections. The task force's proposal does not include a recommendation regarding whether itinerancy provisions should be included in the Global Book of Discipline or in the connection books of discipline.

Would the new structure change the understanding that we are a global church?

The task force expects that this proposal will strengthen the understanding that The UMC is a global church. By assigning global responsibilities to the Global Connection and non-global responsibilities to the connections, this proposal hopefully allows both the global church and the connections to thrive. Currently U.S concerns dominate General Conference, taking time and energy that could be used to focus on global issues during that gathering. This proposal will empower the Global Connection to thrive at being the global church, and empower the connections and regions to thrive at being United Methodist in ways most appropriate to their context.

What does regionalizing mean to those who are marginalized outside the U.S.? Separation may limit the ability to seek justice across the globe.

While people in one connection may disagree with decisions of another connection, this proposal allows each connection to decide about issues of justice within its own context. At the same time, there will be global rules, and the Global Connection will retain the capacity to decide issues of justice on the global scale. Unfortunately, our system currently does not protect all marginalized people in all places. It does trust that United Methodists around the world will seek justice for all marginalized people, wherever they may live.

Does this change what it means to be United Methodist?

For some, it may. We hope for the better. The current system is not one of equity around the world. We hope this revised proposal will change that. For example, renaming the General Conference to the Global Connectional Conference and the central conferences and jurisdictions to regions highlights our connectional heritage. But name changes are not sufficient. The proposed structure is designed to foster stronger connections globally and within the continental connections. We have worked hard to retain the basic identity of The United Methodist Church.

Will the addition of the four connections increase costs of the United Methodist structure?

It may. There will probably be some additional costs related to connectional conferences, committees, etc., but these costs may be offset by a possible reduction in costs related to the meeting of the Global Connection. If the business of the North America connection is removed from the agenda of the Global

Connectional Conference, the duration of that meeting will be less than the current General Conference, perhaps by three or four days, resulting in a reduction in costs for that meeting.

The most significant increase in costs will probably involve the meetings of the connectional conferences. This proposal would require each connectional conference to meet quadrennially, prior to the Global Connectional Conference. Depending upon when and where the connectional conferences meet, the incremental cost of these meetings is estimated to be between US$300,000 and US$1 million. GCFA will be asked to develop more accurate cost projections.

Any incremental cost increases will also need to be examined in the context of the overall budget for the 2016 General Conference budget of over US$10 million

HIGHER EDUCATION & MINISTRY
General Board of Higher Education and Ministry
THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

Greetings from the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry! In 2014 and 2015, GBHEM staff has been busy with a number of initiatives assigned to the board by the 2012 General Conference, including the Young Clergy Initiative and the Central Conference Theological Education Fund. Here are some of the ways GBHEM has been working to resource our Church:

- GBHEM continues to train group candidacy mentors, and Conference Board of Ordained Ministry (BOM) members, BOM staff, district Committee on Ministry members, and district superintendents on ministry legislation and best practices for navigating the ordination process with new candidates.

- Work continues on the Young Clergy Initiative (YCI). Forty-six YCI grants were awarded during the second round of applications in August 2014, bringing the total amount awarded to $5.5 million. The grants support programs geared toward increasing the number of young clergy in The UMC and supporting young clergy already serving the denomination.

- The Commission on Central Conference Theological Education continues to distribute the $5 million fund for theological education in Africa, Europe, and the Philippines. So far, the commission has awarded 130 grants to fund training for local pastors, faculty development, provision of e-readers, curriculum development, and libraries at theological schools across 22 countries.

- Africa University continues to graduate scholars who are changing the face of Africa. The $50 million Endowment Campaign, a fundraising plan to ensure Africa University's financial independence, is well underway. Contribute online to Africa University at the new giving website, support-africauniversity.org.

- More than 680 college students, campus ministers, and chaplains attended Imagine What's NEXT last fall, an event which focused on helping students plan how they can be active in God's dreams for their communities and the world.

- For the 2014-2015 academic year, GBHEM's Office of Loans and Scholarships awarded 2,293 recipients a total of more than $5 million. Explore all scholarship opportunities within The UMC using the scholarship portal at scholarship.umc.org.

- Registration is open now for Exploration 2015, a three-day event where young adults ages 18-26 ages come to hear, discern, and respond to God's call to ordained ministry in The United Methodist Church. This year's event will be held Nov. 6-8 in Orlando. Read more or register at gbhem.org/exploration and follow @explorecalling on Twitter for updates.

- Technology enables us to make our training resources more readily available to the Church. The UMC Cyber Campus provides free video training sessions and lectures, as well as an online listing of continuing education courses, at umccybercampus.com.

- GBHEM and Discipleship Ministries continue to expand the E-Reader Project, a simple, sustainable, and cost-effective way for theology schools in remote areas of Africa and Asia to access current textbooks. Through financial support from conferences, local churches, universities, and individual donors like you, we're making theological education available to more people in more places than even before. Learn more or donate at umcereader.org.

Note: Demetrio Beach and Christine Doran serve as directors to the General Board of Higher Education Ministry.

Iliff School of Theology

Greetings from the Iliff School of Theology in Denver, Colo. We wish you blessings as together we continue the work of strengthening the Church and offering a compassionate presence to the world.
The Iliff School of Theology's commitment to the Wesleyan tradition of providing intellectually alive and spiritually grounded theological education for our students continues. From Tanzania to Texas, Denver to Delhi, Missouri to Mexico, Iliff students and graduates are holding constructive tension with the human condition as it is and courageously standing with those who seek justice.

This past year saw one of Iliff's largest enrollments since its founding by The United Methodist Church in 1892 – 333 students: 60 percent female and 40 percent male, 35 percent Methodist – all actively engaged in both the classroom and a host of ministry contexts. Some are leading congregations toward revitalization while others are doing ministry by establishing new forms of community.

Interest in online and hybrid classes continues to grow from across the nation in our Journey MDIV Program – one of the first to bring quality theological education online. As a concerted move by Iliff to reduce student debt and grow the ability of students to lead financially sound, engaged communities, many MDIV students are also participating in the Spiritually-Integrated Financial Resiliency Program, funded by a $250,000 grant from the Lilly Endowment.

We welcomed participants to our first Spanish-speaking Local Pastors Licensing School hosted in partnership with the Rocky Mountain Conference and participated in healing events for commemoration of the Sand Creek Massacre. In addition, Iliff students participated in an immersion trip to Africa University and are planning an additional experience this year. We look forward to continuing these vital relationships.

Iliff created numerous events for area clergy and supporters. Via forums on leadership, policing, the role of faith in world events, and more, campus speakers included: Amy Goodman, Garry Kasparov, and the the Rev. Dr. Rebecca Chopp, this year's Jameson Jones Preacher. Bridging theological education to new arenas was further cultivated through Iliff's Authentic Engagement Program with trainings for civic and non-profit groups. Our efforts were duly noted by Illinois' McCormick Theological Seminary's Center for Faith and Service when we were named as one of the nation's "Seminaries That Change the World."
We continue to look to the future with courageous theological imagination. We are grateful for our denominational connection.

Methodist Theological School in Ohio

Thank you for this opportunity to bring you an update from MTSO.

The care of creation

MTSO continues to seek opportunities to foster and encourage the care of creation. In January, we were the primary host for a multi-site Climate Conversation, jointly presented by the Theological Commons at MTSO and Ohio Interfaith Power and Light, a group offering a religious response to climate change. We also released a recent video sharing the story of Seminary Hill Farm and the ways it fits within the school's broader commitment to eco-theology. You'll find a link to the video at seminaryhillfarm.org. We invite you to download the high-definition video from its Vimeo page and share it in any context you believe will be constructive. We also would be happy to provide a speaker in person or via Skype to discuss this initiative.

Schooler Institute on Preaching

A very hands-on 2015 Schooler Institute on Preaching was led by Jorge Lockward, director of global praise for the General Board of Global Ministries of The United Methodist Church, and Valerie Bridgeman, recently appointed associate professor of homiletics and Hebrew Bible at MTSO. We were pleased to offer the wisdom of this dynamic duo to our students, alums and other participants.

Conference Candidacy Summits

We were pleased to be the host site for the West Ohio Conference's Candidacy Summits for those exploring ordination. MTSO provided our campus facilities for these two-day events, held in August 2014 and January 2015. Among other activities, candidates participated in worship, mentoring and coffee with district leaders.

MTSO prepares Christian leaders for lives of lasting significance in service to the Church and the world. In addition to the Master of Divinity degree, we offer master's degrees in counseling ministries, theological studies and practical theology, along with a Doctor of Ministry degree. We invite you to stay in touch with us at www.mtso.edu, on Facebook and @MTSOedu on Twitter.

Refugee and Immigrant Support Services of Emmaus, Inc. (RISSE)

"Being God's Love with our neighbors in all places." RISSE brings this Upper New York Conference vision statement to life. RISSE serves primarily refugees, but also other immigrant families in Albany. Many of these families arrive from places of war and genocide. Some have lived in refugee camps for a dozen years or more. Most speak little or no English. Some are illiterate in their native language. The realities of urban life – bus lines, apartment leases, school services, health services and even kitchen appliances – are overwhelming. RISSE has become a center for family-based education and support to neighbors in extreme life transition. Current clients come from 22 different countries, speaking diverse languages.

Youth: The young people often enter the school system with lesser academic skills than their U.S. counterparts, and with little or no English proficiency. RISSE offers an after-school program for youth in pre-K through eighth grade by providing professional English as a second language (ESL) tutoring, homework help and enrichment activities. RISSE offers a hot meal and healthy snack daily. Enrollment remains consistent at the maximum of 80 students. During the summer, RISSE offers a six week, full-day program for youth providing an important continuity of learning for students as well as an important jump start for newly arrived children. Enrichment activities include field trips, swimming and diverse recreational opportunities as well as opportunities for vacation Bible school. RISSE partners with the city of Albany through the summer youth employment program, employing and supervising refugee and immigrant teenagers – many who have come through the RISSE program themselves – as counselors for their younger peers. Summer enrollment is 80 youth with 22 counselors as well as ESL teachers.

Adult: RISSE offers the only full-day, year-round English for Speakers of Other Language (ESOL) classes for adults in the Albany area. Enrollment ranges from 80-100 adults from a diverse variety of countries. Classes provide a place of community and mutual support as adults gain skills and confidence. Daily life skills are integrated into the learning. RISSE integrates job search and placement services.

Family: The RISSE goal is to assist the entire family in assimilation. The concurrent programming for both youth and adults provides a dependable and affordable child-care option for parents attending ESOL classes as well as for employed parents. Other services include assistance in various aspects of navigating access to social services, in finding housing, in interacting with schools, in obtaining legal and medical services, and in obtaining household necessities.

All of these services would not be possible without an important network of partners. Local colleges within the Upper New York Conference have been consistent supporters with key support coming from local United Methodist congregations. Emmaus United Methodist Church in Albany continues its key partnership role.

In the fall 2014, RISSE suffered the loss of the building used for the adult services through a suspicious fire. Recovering from this loss will be the highest challenge for 2015.

RISSE staff and the board are continually grateful for the faithful support of the network of congregations and generous individuals who volunteer, send supplies and donate through the UNYC Advance #3134.

Our degrees and programs – traditional and new alike – reflect our dedication to the Great Commandment and Great Commission. We ask you to pray for us, hold us accountable, and join us in this Kingdom work.

Equipping Faith Leaders through Degree Programs

In fall 2015, our new master of divinity curriculum launches. We thoroughly redesigned the M.Div. to prepare leaders for both church and society. This 81-hour degree offers flexibility and an excellent core curriculum focused on empowering passionate, mission-focused leaders.

Wesley also offers a 36-hour Master of Arts and a 60-hour Master of Theological Studies to equip those called to ordained deacon ministries or a wide range of ministries.

In our doctor of ministry program, we continue to offer the most practical and spiritually renewing tracks in theological education. These include leadership excellence, pastoral counseling, arts, and new mission-focused tracks. Wesley is accepting applications to two tracks based in Cambridge, England. These tracks, Transformative Leadership in Wesleyan Perspective and Creative Ministry for Church Renewal in a Changing World, are each limited to 20 students.

Wesley provides more than $2 million dollars annually in scholarships to our students thanks to the consistent support of graduates, congregations and friends of the seminary.

Talk to someone at (202) 885-8659 or admissions@wesleyseminary.edu about how Wesley's degree programs equip people to lead others to loving God and neighbor.

Providing Resources to Faith Communities and Leaders

Wesley's Lewis Center for Church Leadership continues to be the go-to resource for actionable best-practices for clergy and laity. The center's free Leading Ideas e-newsletter provides well-researched, discipleship-growing ideas to more than 15,000 people. Visit www.churchleadership.com for resources in: Taking Church to the Community, Doing Good Well, Funding Your Congregation's Vision, and Reaching New Disciples. Also, learn about the newest book by the Rev. Tom Berlin and the Rev. Dr. Lovett Weems Jr., High Yield: Seven Disciplines of the Fruitful Leader.

In early 2015, we developed the Institute for Community Engagement at Wesley Downtown to help the church turn itself inside-out. The institute encompasses the existing Urban Ministry Program and the Missional Church Program, which includes Heal the Sick, an initiative to congregations for public health work in their parishes.

The third component of the Institute for Community Engagement is Wesley's emerging Center for Public Theology. Under the leadership of Distinguished Professor of Public Theology, Mike McCurry, we are developing this center to provide churches and their leaders, and seminary students tools to help navigate the connection between faith and public policy.

The Luce Center for Arts and Religion remains the only seminary-based program uniting arts and theology. The center celebrated the 25th anniversary of the Dadian Gallery in late 2014.

Wesley faculty members are continually development resources to the faithful, including books by Drs. Carla Works, Deborah Sokolove, F. Douglas Powe Jr., Cedric Johnson, and Lovett H. Weems Jr.

Throughout the academic year, Wesley hosts Second Mondays – a series of lectures on campus and streaming live. This year we explored "Living Matthew 25 – Focusing on the Big Things." In this chapter of Matthew's Gospel, Jesus challenges us to heal the sick, feed the hungry, and welcome the stranger. In their lectures, Wesley's faculty unlocked the Holy Scriptures and the church's history, traditions and theology to clarify these Gospel imperatives. These presentations are available at www.youtube.com/c/wesleyseminaryedu and via live stream at www.ustream.tv/channel/wesley-seminary. Francis E. Tripp Ackley

Frances E. Tripp Ackley died on April 3, 2015 at the age of 99, following a short illness at Elderwood nursing home in Hamburg. She was the wife of the late Rev. Charles W. Ackley. Her husband served as a pastor of The United Methodist Church. They spent their lives serving churches in South Dakota, New England, Pennsylvania, and Central New York.

Frances was born on May 16, 1915 in Sidney, the daughter of the late Glenn and Ruth (Seeley) Tripp. Her family lived at East Guilford and Rockdale in Chenango County. She attended grade school in Rockdale and high schools in Mt. Upton and Sidney, where she graduated in 1933.

She married Charles William Ackley on March 3, 1937 at the Methodist-Episcopal parsonage in Oxford, where the marriage was performed by the Rev. Leon W. Bouton. Then they moved to South Dakota, where her husband was pastor at the Methodist-Episcopal Church at Garden City. They started housekeeping in a small parsonage with no conveniences.

During the years, she worked with Charles to serve many churches and in many church positions at: 1937 Garden City, Henry; 1938 Gayville, Volin; 1941 Hinsdale, N.H.; 1942 Wareham, Mass.;1943 Millerton, Pa.; 1945 Montour Falls; 1948 Mecklenburg; 1951 South Otselic; 1958 Warners; 1960 Camillus; 1966 Nedrow; 1968 Bridgeport; 1971 Red Creek; 1975 Elmira; 1977 Elbridge; 1983 Fleming; 1985 Sherburne; 1990 Norwich; 1994 Sayre, Pa.

Frances was a homemaker and felt it was very important to make the church parsonage a place of welcome. She was a devoted wife and mother and always had a smile for everyone she met. She spent the last 12 years of her life with her daughter, Joyce, and son-in-law, Conrad. Her presence was a blessing to her family. She enjoyed visits from her son, John, grandchildren, and eight great-grandchildren. Watching the hummingbirds, the happenings in the neighborhood, and the change of the seasons was enjoyable to her.

She is survived by her sister Pauline (Richard) Kline; son John C. (Diane) Ackley; grandchildren John A. (Jessica) Ackley, and Michael G. and Dianna J. Ackley; daughter Joyce A. (B. Conrad) Bush, grandchildren Richard K. (Julie) Bush, great-grandchildren Victoria M. Bush, Jaden Flick, Jagger Flick; grandson Charles M. (Christina) Bush, great-grandchildren Nickolas J., Nolan T., Griffin M. Bush, Brett R. Dieter, grandson Jeremy C. (Geriann) Bush, great-grandson Jackson G. Bush. She is also survived by nephews Richard and Peter Kline and their families.

A memorial service was held at the Wesleyan Church of Orchard Park on May 16, 2015, the date she would have been 100 years old, with the Rev. Todd Glendenning presiding. Burial took place in Prospect Hill Cemetery, Sidney.

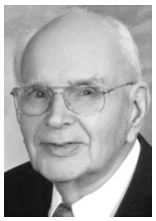
Rev. Arthur Harold Andrews



Rev. Arthur Harold Andrews, 87, passed to his heavenly home on Sept. 30, 2014 from Lourdes Hospital, Binghamton, after a month-long illness. He was born July 1, 1927 in the Methodist parsonage in Litchfield, Pa., the son of the Rev. Clarence L. and Gertrude (White) Andrews. His early years were spent in other parsonages including Castle Creek, Camptown, and Wyoming, Pa. Art was a graduate of Wyoming Seminary in Pennsylvania, Syracuse University, and Drew Theological Seminary in New Jersey.

At an Annual Conference session, Art answered the call to ministry as a Bishop's Crusader. He was ordained by Bishop Fred P. Corson as a deacon on April 24, 1949 and an elder on April 16, 1950, joining the Wyoming Annual Conference as a full member. He faithfully served wherever appointed for the next 20 years. Charges served included Tobyhanna, Centermoreland, Montdale, Great Bend, Vestal Center, Park Terrace – where he was charged with starting a new congregation, Nimmonsburg, Milford, and Castle Creek. Through the years, Art was a director of church youth camps at Dimock and Sky Lake, including the first Pioneer Camp, where the week was spent entirely in the woods. He led building renovations in many of his churches and parsonages as well as the construction of the new Park Terrace Community Methodist Church in Apalachin.

He met his future wife Ruth Allen, pianist at South Montrose Church in Pennsylvania, where his father served as pastor. They were married almost 68 years ago on Christmas Eve 1947 in that same church. They were blessed with two sons, Mark (Sandra), and Timothy; a daughter, Rebecca (Keith); eight grandchildren; and three great-grandsons.

Upon retiring from the active ministry in 1970, Art started a new career pursuing his lifelong interest in designing and building living spaces. He worked for eight years in the Buffalo area, then returned to the Binghamton area, settling in Vestal. He owned Creative Kitchens and Baths for 16 years. The family found warm church homes at both the Clarence and Vestal United Methodist churches. At Vestal, Art was instrumental in starting and leading both the Disciple Bible Study Courses and the Stephen Ministry program. From 1999 to 2001, he was appointed as chaplain at the Methodist Home for the Aging at Elizabeth Church Manor in Binghamton.

Art was a man of many talents and interests and a deep desire to help people. His skill in creative writing led to many pages of poetry, prayers, and artistic caring cards. He enjoyed music, photography, woodworking, and games. He had a ready sense of humor, especially for puns. Art was a good listener, partner, friend, and participant. Rev. Jane T. Borden

The Rev. Jane T. Borden of Saratoga Springs died peacefully on Jan. 15, 2015 after a brief illness. Born in 1929 in the Cincinnati suburb of Mount Healthy, Ohio, she was the daughter of H. Elwood Turner and Kathryn Rose Smith. She had two brothers, James Elwood Turner and Herbert Cameron Turner.

Rev. Borden graduated Phi Beta Kappa from the University of Cincinnati and then entered Yale Divinity School in Connecticut at a time when few women were permitted to enter and even fewer graduated. It was at Yale that she met and married James Ivan Borden. After graduation, they moved first to Yonkers and then to Brandon, Vt., where James was the minister at the Brandon Methodist Church from 1954 to 1961. It was at this time that their children, Erich and Scott, were born.

After Brandon, Jane moved with Jim and her children to Averill Park and then to Latham. Jane then became an ordained Methodist minister herself, serving with her husband at the Saratoga Springs United Methodist Church and then as the pastor at the Round Lake United Methodist Church. It was while serving in Saratoga Springs that her husband was tragically killed in 1984.

Born on Dec. 15, 1942, in Huntington, Beverly grew up in Indiana where she enjoyed small town life. Perhaps because she lived right across the street from the local library, she developed a lifelong love of libraries, reading, and learning. She also rode her horse at a nearby farm, went to the movies, and, of course, worked at the library! She lived life with enthusiasm.

Bev's college years at Drew University in Madison, N.J., brought more opportunities. As an English major, she became an anglophile with an encyclopedic knowledge of England, later expanded by several vacations in Great Britain. While at Drew, she made many trips to New York City to see Broadway shows and visit museums. She also met her future husband, Robert S. Boston, a graduate of Drew Theological School. They married in 1964 and began serving United Methodist churches in the Troy Conference, including Center Brunswick, Pawling Avenue in Troy, Broadway in Schenectady, Esperance, and numerous others. Bev also enjoyed a 20-year career as a library assistant with the Schenectady County Library System, primarily at the Quaker Street branch in Duanesburg.

In addition to reading, horses, England, and travel, Bev enjoyed browsing garage sales, baking brownies, eating chocolate, and celebrating Christmas. Her real passion, however, was her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren. She shared her generous and loving spirit with them and everyone.

Beverly is survived by her husband of 50 years, Robert; their children, Elizabeth and Brian Boston; daughter-in-law, Katrina; grandchildren, Christopher, Tara, Joshua, and Matthew; great-grandchildren, Kameryn and Jaidyn and their mother, Alesia; and great-grandchildren, Aiden and Liam. Rev. Richard "Rich" Elliott

The Rev. Richard (Rich) Elliott was born on Nov. 9, 1939, in Detroit to Richard Elliott, a streetcar conductor, and Alice Hilliar, a housewife. He spent his childhood in a diverse neighborhood where he attended elementary, middle, and high school with Mary Jean (Lily) Tomlin. While preparing to become a printer at Cass Technical High School, Rich attended a Billy Graham Crusade, had a conversion experience, and heard a call to ministry. Following graduation in January 1962 from Wayne State University with a bachelor's degree in history, he worked briefly for the Salvation Army as a substance abuse counselor. His M. Div. was conferred in May 1965 at Princeton Theological Seminary in New Jersey, followed by ordination in the United Church of Christ in July 1965. Rich's first parish was a UCC church in New Port, Ky. He next served Lutheran parishes in Portville, Pa., and Olean and Syracuse, finally arriving in the United Methodist connection in 1978. But to tell the whole story of Rich's ministry requires another chapter.

Rich's first marriage in April 1962 to Judith Rupnow produced four children and ended in divorce. As a result of that divorce, Rich sought secular employment, finding it as a corrections officer (CO) at Jamesville Penitentiary in Onondaga County. It proved to be the first major step toward his previously understood but not fully realized call to prison ministry. As a CO, he ministered directly to inmates and fellow officers, including performing weddings and providing counseling. Rich was also a preacher and needed an outlet. It was at this point that District Superintendent the Rev. Irving Hill invited him into the United Methodist connection and assigned him to Vesper. He arranged his shifts at Jamesville to keep Sunday mornings free for worship and preaching.

This new chapter continued to unfold when on June 27, 1981, good friend the Rev. Frank Halse officiated at Rich's marriage to Ruth Fetherman Sly in the Vesper Church, and he acquired an instant family of five more children. Full-time appointments at McGraw, Blodgett Mills, and Freetown followed, and the arrival of Stephen M.J. Elliott completed the family.

From the beginning of his local church assignments in Kentucky, Rich also ministered to prisoners in city jails and county lockups. Finally, in July 1994, after serving in Minetto, he entered full-time prison ministry as the Protestant Chaplain at the Elmira Correctional Facility, maximum security prison in the New York state system. He served there until his retirement in February 2007. His background in inner city Detroit, his previous experience as a CO, and his love and knowledge of eight languages allowed him to relate to prisoners and staff alike. He was – like Paul – a man for all seasons and persons.

His passion for service continued into retirement. In addition to serving at the Webb Mills UMC and continuing to mentor former and current inmates, he travelled to China five times to teach English to Chinese teachers. His lifelong love of travel, hiking, and birding had also taken him to 48 continental states, England, Germany, Austria, Switzerland, Morocco, Kenya, Dubai, Israel, Greece, Mexico, Guatemala, Panama, Trinidad, Puerto Rico, and the Caribbean. He reveled in participating in person-to-person exchange of cultures, and especially loved sharing his love of American jazz.

Following his death on Nov. 6, 2014, he was cremated. He is survived by his wife, Ruth, four sons, six daughters, and 13 grandchildren. At memorial services in Rochester and Elmira, his life and ministry were celebrated by colleagues and former inmates. The consensus, "Well done, good and faithful servant," was shared by all.

Rev. Joseph "Joe" A. Fiske

The Rev. Joseph A. Fiske – preacher, writer, naturalist, and friend – died on Oct. 26, 2014 at Robinson Terrace in Stamford. He was 92 years old.

Joe was born on April 13, 1922 in Dallas, Pa., to Arthur Eugene Fiske and Alice Worthington Fiske. As a child and youth, he attended the Dallas Methodist Episcopal Church with his family. He graduated from Dallas Borough High School and Wyoming Seminary in Pennsylvania and was accepted to Brothers' College of Drew University in Madison, N.J. Upon finishing college, Joe stayed in Madison to attend Drew Theological School, graduating in 1947. He was ordained in 1949 by Bishop Fred Pierce Corson. Joe retired from his last full-time pastorate in 1968, but continued in active ministry until the late 1980's, accepting a series of part-time charges.

From the time he stopped residing in parsonages until about a year before his death, Joe lived at his beloved Red Sky in the Morning Homestead in Morris, where he walked the woods, watched the birds, battled the woodchucks for control of the garden, carved birds and other figures out of wood, and welcomed friends and family, often wearing his signature red hat. Joe loved to fish and spent many happy days exploring streams and ponds with his canoe, fishing rod, and sometimes a good friend for company. He was a passionate advocate for nature and the environment.

Even before finishing seminary, Joe began preaching in Maple Grove, Pa., commuting by bus each weekend and returning to New Jersey in time for classes on Monday. He was later appointed to the Skinner's Eddy and Ashley charges in Pennsylvania and to the New Berlin, Greene, Elm Park of Oneonta, Schuyler Lake, and Sand Hill charges in New York. Of all these appointments, only Elm Park was a single-point charge; several incorporated three congregations, to which Joe would often add supply preaching engagements. He was named Pastor Emeritus at the First United Methodist Church of Oneonta, where he was an associate pastor, and the Morris UMC where he was a frequent congregant and a founding member of the Eco-Justice Group. Joe also served on the Wyoming Conference Education Committee and Sky Lake Camp & Retreat Center's Board of Directors. Once age and the loss of the use of his legs confined him mostly to home, Joe kept in touch with an ever-widening group of parishioners, colleagues, and friends via his email missives entitled "Pastor Joe's Scrapbook."

Joe's life was celebrated at a memorial service on Oct. 30, 2014 at the Morris UMC. The Rev. Becky Parry officiated, and the Revs. Sara Baron, Ann Blair, and Nancy Stanley spoke. The Rev. Kip Stratton also sent comments, which were read by Penny Harrington, one of several lay speakers who assisted in leading the service. Joe's cremains are interred at the Hillington Cemetery in Morris. Joe is survived by his wife Sarita Runion Fiske, daughter Alice L. Fiske, son Joel R. Fiske (Donna) and daughter April F. Jones (Eric), four grandchildren, and four great-granddaughters.

Roma Marie Gould

Roma Marie Gould was called home to heaven on Jan. 27, 2015, at the age of 88. She was born on Sept. 7, 1926 in Waynesboro, Pa., to the late Rev. Jesse and Esther (Avey) Gunder. Roma was a 1946 graduate of Lycoming College in Williamsport, Pa., with an associate's degree in music; she received her bachelor's degree in education from Empire College in Buffalo. Lycoming College is where she met her loving husband, the Rev. Ardell Gould, who predeceased her in 2007. Roma gave piano lessons and worked with special needs children in a BOCES program, but she would be the first to say that her true occupation was to stand alongside her husband and together minister to the people.

Roma and Ardell were married on Aug. 18, 1946 by her father, the Rev. Jesse Gunder and Ardell's father, Dr. P. Gordon Gould at High Street Methodist Church in Williamsport. They were married for over 60 years and together served faithfully in ministry – beginning in 1946 at Wallis Run in Pennsylvania and through numerous appointments in the Central Pennsylvania Conference. In 1967, they moved into the Western New York Conference, serving at the Dickersonville, Niagara Falls-Albright, East Rochester-Parkside, Jamestown-Kidder Memorial, and Albion First United Methodist churches. Though officially retiring in 1988, Ardell and Roma continued to serve in appointments to Arcade, Wilson, Exley, Hartland, Indian Falls, Carlton, Brockport, and Holley/Disciples United Methodist churches for nearly another 20 years.
For the past two years, Roma lived in Amsterdam with her daughter, Kathi and her husband, Lou. She is survived by her children: Julia (late David) Hoffner, of Hamburg, Susan (Steven) Hunter of Henrietta, and Kathi (Louis Carleo III) Pallotta of Amsterdam; 10 grandchildren; and 14 great-grandchildren. The celebration of life service was held on Jan. 30, 2015 at the Word of Life Christian Fellowship in Henrietta with Pastor Phil McNeill officiating. Interment was held on Jan. 31, 2015 in the Mount Albion Cemetery in Albion.

Being with people, especially family and close friends, was something Roma loved. She enjoyed leading the Scripture songs during the church worship services, singing in the church choirs, playing the piano and organ, developing Vacation Bible School programs, and encouraging those around her. She loved the church hymns, her favorites being "Oh For a Thousand Tongues to Sing," "How Great Thou Art," "Blessed Assurance," and "Amazing Grace."

For more than 60 years, summers were spent at the cottage at the Silver Lake Institute on the shore of Silver Lake. Roma always looked forward to planning picnics, taking boat rides, baking pies and sweet rolls, playing games, reading books, planting flowers, visiting with the family, friends and neighbors, and just sitting on the front porch watching people enjoy themselves.

Roma leaves us with many wonderful memories. She was good at imparting words of wisdom to her family. Favorites are summed up in the following:

Don't make yourself too busy
Don't fret about the day
Take time to smell the roses
To sing and smile and pray

The Rev. Charles “Charlie” Hess III was born on Oct. 8, 1935 in Olyphant, Pa. He was the son of Charles F. Hess Jr. and Adeline (Layaou) Hess.

Charlie attended his K-12 schooling in Mansfield, Pa., and graduated from Mansfield High School in 1953. He attended Penn State and Mansfield State College, from which he graduated in 1964. He served with the Pennsylvania National Guard in Mansfield, including two years of active duty in the army as a military policeman in Fort Ord, Calif. He graduated from the Colgate Rochester Divinity School in 1967, with a master’s degree.

Charlie died on Oct. 24, 2014 in Robert Packer Hospital in Sayre, Pa. He was cremated. A celebration of life service was held on Nov. 8, 2014 in the Horseheads First United Methodist Church, with the Rev. Rhonda Kouterick officiating. The service was filled with humor, heartfelt remembrances, and love. Charlie was a United Methodist from the beginning to the end of his earthly life. Formative years were spent in the Mansfield UMC, which helped mold him into the person he became. His minister during his teen years – the Rev. Donald Cronk – was a positive influence. Charlie was ordained an elder in June 1967 by Bishop W. Ralph Ward in Hendricks Chapel at Syracuse University.

Charlie served churches in East Smithfield/Leona, Pa., Caton, Dresden/Milo Center, Union Springs United Ministry, Clyde, Geneva and Corning. In 1986, he was appointed to a term as a district superintendent in the former Chemung Valley District. Following his term as DS, he was appointed to Corning First UMC, his last "official" appointment. During his ministry, Charlie served on the conference Board of Ordained Ministry and the Board of Pensions, and also served for more than 20 years as a camp counselor at the beautiful Casowasco Camp & Retreat Center in Moravia.

As a community member over the years, Charlie was a long-time member of Corning Rotary, until his death. Rotary awarded him a Paul Harris Fellow in 2011. A summary of other activities: one stint as a school board member, previous member of Bethany Sr. Residence Board in Horseheads, Dayspring Board of Directors in Corning, United Way Board, and Board of Directors for Corning Meals on Wheels (MOW). He was a volunteer at MOW for 25 years, until he was unable to continue in 2014. He was very passionate about serving others and giving of his time.

Charlie retired in June 2000 to his home on Riter Road in Corning, which he enjoyed so much. He was an avid fan of Penn State Football and the New York Yankees. His love of lake trout fishing on Seneca Lake was well known. Survivors are Betty, his wife of 56 years; a daughter, Louise (Steven) Colasurdo; a son, Charles Hess IV; and five grandchildren.

Charlie was committed to ministry and did his best in each church and community he served. We truly loved every place we lived and the people we met. Charlie was a man of compassion, sincerity, and with a wonderful sense of humor. In closing, the world is a better place because he was here.

Rev. Malcolm A. Howard

The Rev. Malcolm A. Howard was born on Feb. 17, 1933 in Cortland. Malcolm was the only child of Merle and Helen (Markham) Howard. Though Malcolm's calling to the ministry required him to frequently move his family to various parishes and towns throughout Central New York, Cortland remained the place he called home. In fact, Malcolm's parents remained in his childhood home in Cortland until their own passing, and to this day Malcolm's wife, Joan E. Howard, resides in the same house on Mildred Avenue.

Malcolm completed his early education in Cortland. While he was a student at Cortland High School, he joined the First United Methodist Church of Cortland, and it was there he had a conversion experience and received his calling to the ministry. Malcolm graduated from Cortland High School in 1952, and it was during his senior year that Malcolm obtained his local pastor's license from District Superintendent Warren Odam. Malcolm entered Cortland State College in the fall of that same year. Not long after his admission to Cortland State College, Malcolm transferred to Brother's College in Madison, N.J., where he completed his studies for Deacon's Orders in 1955. He officially was given his Deacon's Orders on May 27, 1956 by Bishop Newell Booth and received his first appointment at the Blodgett Mills UMC. After completing his studies at Brother's College, Malcolm entered Drew Seminary also in Madison, N.J., and upon graduation from Drew in May 1958, Malcolm was ordained as an elder by the Bishop W. Earl Ledden.

On June 21, 1958, Malcolm married Joan McNamara of McGraw. The two were married by the Rev. Victor Smith and Dr. Phillip Nason in the McGraw UMC. Not long after his marriage to Joan, Malcolm began his full-time ministry. Malcolm served numerous parishes throughout his ministry from 1958 until his retirement in 1989, including Webb Mills (1958-1960); Burlington, Luther Mills and Mountain Lake (1960-1961); DeRuyter Federated (1961-1964); Belle Isle UMC and Amboy Presbyterian (1964-1968); Freeville/Ellis Hollow (1968-1972); Coopers Plains/Presho (1972-1974); Chemung/Wilawana (1974-1977); Avoca/Wallace (1977-1981); Middlesex /Vine Valley (1981-1986); and Perryville/Clockville (1986-1989).

Malcolm's heart and deep love for others extended well beyond the doors of the churches where he served. Over the years, he contributed his time to numerous outreaches, including a state-funded program for the handicapped, the Boy Scouts of America, the Fresh Air Children's program, Retired and Senior Volunteer Program, and Cortland's Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animal's nursing home visitation program. Besides his compassion for others, Malcolm will be remembered for his love of science fiction, history and science, and his passion for studying God's creation. In addition to leaving behind a legacy of faith and countless memories in our hearts, Malcolm left his mark in this world with his expansive collection of model tall ships, which he built himself. Like his Lord and Savior, Malcolm loved to create beautiful things for others to behold.

Rev. Howard died on Dec. 13, 2014 at the age of 81. Malcolm was predeceased by his son, Michael A. Howard. He is survived by Joan, his wife of 56 years; his daughter, Rebecca L. Howard; and two granddaughters. Malcolm's home-going was celebrated on Dec. 18, 2014 at the Homer Avenue UMC in Cortland. The Rev. Paul Winkleman, pastor at the Homer Avenue UMC, and the Rev. David Johnson, pastor at the United Presbyterian Church of Cortland, presided. An interment memorial service was held on April 20, 2015 at Cortland Rural Cemetery.

Rev. Fredrick "Fred" Jackson

The Rev. Fredrick "Fred" Henry Jackson was born on April 15, 1924, in Shells Bush inHerkimer County to Fredrick William and Martha (Spurr) Jackson. When his father died in 1932, his mother moved him and his five siblings to Mohawk.

As a young man, Fred was active in the Mohawk Church's Epworth League and attended summer camp at Trenton Assembly Park in Barneveld. These experiences, and the influence of a couple of his pastors, paved the way for him to receive God's call to ministry in the early 1950's.

Fred graduated from Mohawk High School in 1942 and the Utica School of Commerce in 1946. After graduating, he served in the bookkeeping and accounting departments of a couple of local businesses. Gradually, he began to feel stirrings towards ministry. He became a lay speaker and filled in several local pulpits. His pastor, the Rev. William Wilbur, encouraged him to accept the call to ministry. In 1954, Fred left his job and moved his family to North Bay to begin his new career. He began attending Syracuse University while serving a three-point charge. He graduated from there with a Bachelor of Arts degree in 1960, and began attending Colgate Rochester Divinity School the following fall. He graduated from there in May 1964 with a bachelor's degree, and was ordained as a Methodist pastor shortly afterwards. Bishop W. Earl Ledden conducted the ordination service.

On Dec. 31, 1945, Fred married (Mildred) Alice Jackson at the Methodist Church in Mohawk. Together, they raised four children: Lorraine (Jackson) Storey, Mark (and Glenda VanOrnum) Jackson, Stuart (and Anne Meath) Jackson, and Doug (and Phyllis Woodbridge) Jackson. They had seven grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren. After 62 years of marriage, Alice passed away in November 2007 following a long illness.

Fred and Alice served the following churches/parishes: North Bay, Vienna, and Jewell (1954-1960); Shortsville and Chapin (1960-1962); Seneca Castle (1962-1968); Flint (1964-1968); Whitesboro (1968-1974); Gethsemane United Methodist Church in Syracuse (1974-1979); Gorham (1979-1982);and Minetto (1982-1989).

During these years, he served as director of many junior high camps at both the Aldersgate and Casowasco Camp & Retreat centers, and thoroughly enjoyed that part of his ministry. He also served on the Conference Stewardship/Finance Committee and acted as a stewardship consultant to various area churches with great success.

Fred retired from full-time ministry on July 1, 1989, and he and Alice moved to Camden, to be closer to family. There, they became active members of the Camden UMC, serving on and chairing various committees. During retirement, Fred served as interim pastor to the Red Creek UMC, Parish UMC, and West Amboy UMC, and filled many pulpits for area churches.

In 2009, Fred moved to a senior apartment in Oneida. He became a member of the Oneida First UMC, where he enthusiastically participated in worship and study groups. In 2013, it became necessary for him to move into the Extended Care Facility at Oneida Healthcare Center, where he remained until his passing. While there, he was attempting to start a house church for residents of the facility and had begun a ministry of greeting people coming into the facility with a cheerful smile and message to pass along throughout their day. This was a big hit with staff and visitors alike.

Rev. Fredrick H. Jackson went home to God on Aug. 20, 2014, after a short stay in the hospital part at the Oneida Healthcare Center. His funeral was conducted by Pastor Abigail Browka of the Oneida First UMC, assisted by Pastor Stephen Maddox of the Camden UMC. Fred's remains were cremated and are buried along with Alice's remains in the family plot at Crown Hill Memorial Park, state Route 12, Clinton.

Rev. Eric Roy King

The Rev. Eric Roy King was born on Jan. 13, 1914 in Deer Harbour, Newfoundland, Canada. At the age of 14, after working summers and saving his money for college, he continued his education at Dalhousie University in Halifax and Mt. Allison University in New Brunswick, Canada. After one year, he ran out of money, dropped out of university, and picked up a teaching job to earn enough money to return to school the following year.

In 1935, Eric received a Bachelor of Arts degree from Mt. Allison, later earning his Bachelor of Divinity from McGill University in Montreal. He continued his education at the United Theological College in Montreal.

June 1937, at the age of 23, the Montreal-Ottawa Conference ordained Eric a minister of the United Church of Canada, where he served 12 years as a minister in Montreal before moving to the Troy Conference of The United Methodist Church in Vermont. Eric served in a number of churches in the Troy Conference in Vermont and Upstate New York, retiring in 1976 after 30 years of service.

In 1940, Eric married the former Emily Bryant of Montreal. Emily passed away in 1980. Eric married Laura Brown of Ausable Forks and moved to Colorado Springs in 1984, where Eric became Minister of Evangelism at the First United Methodist Church, and afterward, associate pastor at the Korean UMC in Colorado Springs. On May 3, 2009, Eric married Onita Barkley, a former parishioner from Saranac Lake. Onita states she was very blessed to have been his wife and caregiver for five plus years. Eric was a joy, I never heard a negative word from him and he loved the Lord, people, life, and thoroughly enjoyed his years in the ministry.

It was once said of Eric, “He visits the sick and lonely, together with his interest in those less fortunate in life, gave new hope to these all, and his merry laugh at the more jovial events he attended instilled a feeling of good fellowship.” Eric had a belief in the saying, “somewhere between sunrise and sunset there are many golden minutes, each set with its own particular diamond,” and these he made to shine in the service of the Master to whose cause he was dedicated.

Eric went to be with the Lord he loved on Sept. 16, 2014. He is dearly missed, while heaven is blessed. Eric was cremated and his ashes are resting in the columbarium at the First UMC in Roswell.

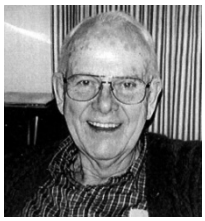
Dr. L. Dean Nelson



Dr. L. Dean Nelson, 91, passed away on May 28, 2014 at Cottingham House of Oconee County Hospice in Seneca, S.C.

Dr. Nelson was born in Rice Lake, Wis., the son of Melvin Otto Nelson and Margaret Gygli. His father died in an accident when Dean was 6 months old, and his mother raised him as a single mom. He was the husband of the Rev. Janet "Gig" Nelson, who predeceased him. Surviving are his daughters, Karen Nelson Basso (Derek) of Gaston, S.C., Gail Nelson Jones (Arthur) of Stanfordville, and Dr. Beth E. Nelson (Stanley Fullwood) of Granby, Conn.; a step-cousin, Rob George; and loving nieces, nephews, and step-grandchildren.

Dean studied airplane mechanics and worked in Chicago prior to enlisting in the Army Air Corps during World War II. Through the Army Specialized Training Program, he was sent to Alfred University, where he and Gig met. He fought with the U.S. 69th Infantry Division in Germany and participated in the historic April 25, 1945 link-up of "The Fighting 69th" and the Soviet 58th Guards Division near the River Elbe in the vicinities of Torgau and Strehla, Germany, which hastened the end of WWII on VE-Day, May 8, 1945.

Dean and Gig were married on April 13, 1946, after Dean was discharged from the army. They honeymooned in Beaufort, S.C. While Gig supported them, he studied at the Pacific University College of Optometry in Forest Grove, Ore., graduated, and interned at an optometric practice in Wellsville. In 1953, he established his own practice in Hamilton. He was chairman of the New York All-State Optometric Extension Program for 12 years, and attended the Gesell Institute for Optometric Visual Development. He was deeply involved in his community as president of the Hamilton Rotary Club, chairman of the Hamilton Planning Commission, a director of the Mid-York Health Center, and an officer in the Hamilton Lions Club. As a member of the Park United Methodist Church, he had many lay ministries including serving as lay leader and was a member of the Administrative Board, the Nominating Committee, and the Every Member Visitation Committee. He was chairman of the Board of Trustees, the Finance Committee and the Special Improvement Drive, and served as Church School superintendent.

Gig was called to the ministry, and began her studies, in the late 1960s, a time when women in the ministry was very rare. She was a pioneer and a trailblazer and Dean, who fully supported her studies and her work, might be considered a pioneer in his own right.

In 1980, he sold his practice and transitioned to a part-time work schedule, moving to Vernon to live with Gig in the parsonage of the Vernon UMC, where she was pastor. They retired in 1984 and moved to the foothills of the Blue Ridge Mountains in South Carolina, where they were involved in a number of churches, including those where Gig served as guest preacher. Together, they volunteered for the local chapter of Meals on Wheels. They celebrated their 65th wedding anniversary in 2011 with a party at home.

Dean expressed his creativity in woodworking. He built beautiful furniture, creative toys that Gig would paint, and furnished their kitchen with cabinets.

He was an extraordinary man who was professionally accomplished and widely respected, fiercely loyal to his family, and deeply involved with his church and community. He instilled in his daughters the strong Midwestern values with which he was raised. His loving family misses him terribly.

A memorial service was held on Aug. 9 at the St. Mark UMC in Seneca, S.C. His ashes were interred next to those of Gig at Evergreen Memorial Gardens in Walhalla, S.C.

He was surrounded by his family, and was receiving the support of hospice, after bravely battling amyotrophic lateral sclerosis (ALS) for 18 months. John was born on April 17, 1950, in Bryn Mawr, Pa., to S. Sturgis Poorman and Christine (Freeland) Poorman.

He was raised in Ardmore, Pa., and graduated from Lower Merion High School. He received a Bachelor of Arts in economics in 1972 from Haverford College in Pennsylvania. He went on to receive his Master of Science in transportation from Northwestern University in Evanston, Ill. John worked for the Capital District Transportation Committee (CDTC) for 35 years, serving as staff director since 1981. During his time as director at CDTC, John became recognized as a leader and innovator in metropolitan transportation planning on a local, state, and national level. Under John's leadership, CDTC developed the New Visions Regional Transportation Plan, which has had a significant influence on metropolitan planning in the United States.

John played an important role in the establishment of the Association of Metropolitan Planning Organizations (AMPO); under his leadership, CDTC received the first AMPO award for Outstanding Achievement in Metropolitan Transportation Planning (1997). John's leadership guided CDTC through the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act and led to the reconstruction of Delaware Avenue in Albany and other projects.

John's leadership style of collaboration, cooperation, and coordination was highly valued by staff and transportation leaders throughout the region. He received numerous recognitions and was presented with the Outstanding Individual Leadership Award.

John devoted the majority of his professional life and creative energies to the field of urban and environmental planning, community preservation, revitalization and sustainability. In addition to the many committees that he served on, he was adjunct faculty member at the State University of New York at Albany's graduate Urban and Regional Planning Program for 16 years. In 1996, the German Marshall Fund of the United States named John as environmental fellow, permitting an extended European study tour of community design and environmental issues. John and his wife, the Rev. Roberta "Bobby," moved to Schoharie in 2000 after purchasing the historic "Swarts Tavern," where John worked to restore the home and property to a more historically authentic presentation of a pre-revolutionary farmstead. Their home was one of several homes featured on a showing of historical homes in the area in the Schoharie Colonial Heritage Drive-About on two occasions. John and Bobby were active in their church – the Schoharie Reformed Church – and community. John had a strong Christian faith and served in various leadership capacities in his church throughout his lifetime.

John offered his leadership skills to the Schoharie community, serving on the village planning board and serving as chair of Save our Schoharie (SOS). John was most recently recognized for his community leadership as chair of Schoharie Recovery, dedicated to flood recovery, following the devastation brought in 2011 to Schoharie following Hurricane Irene. John was a gifted artist. His artwork included a body of paintings, which reflect the beauty and drama of the natural environment and in the aspects of grace evident in the built environment. His work is located in private collections and was shown regionally in national juried competitions at the Salmagundi Club and the Southern Vermont Art Association. John's recent artistic endeavors were dedicated to raising awareness and donations to fund ALS research, as John was formally diagnosed with ALS in July 2013. Following the death of his wife, Bobby, in December 2013, John planned a cross-country road trip, with his dog Molly, to raise ALS awareness which was called Art4ALS (art4als.com). On this journey, John was able to raise donations for ALS research that exceeded $12,000.

Marjorie "Mari" M. Rockwell

Grace and peace from our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Greetings! My name is Marjorie M. Rockwell, but please call me Mari. I was born on May 16, 1947 in Elmira to parents Merton and Marjorie (Hanmore) Oldroyd. I am one of three siblings; I was first, then my brother Richard, and then my sister Barbara. In 1972, Richard married Beth and I was blessed with special nephews, Daniel and Thomas, and nieces: Karen (Pat), Alicia (Jon), Sarah (Curtis), and Kendra. I graduated from Southside High School and then went to Corning Community College for evening classes. While attending college, I worked full-time at Remington Rand, plus with our mother dying early in life of cancer, I raised my sister, Barb, becoming sister/mom. I also worked concession stands at Eldridge Park and the Elmira Drive-in.

I enjoyed sports, playing softball and bowling. I was involved in 4H, Home Bureau, painting, clowning, and I especially loved to go camping. I grew up in the Riverside United Methodist Church in Elmira, where I met my future husband Randy Rockwell. We were married there on Dec. 27, 1991. With my love of animals, my dogs Abby and Barkley were in the wedding party. I had many pets, including cats, Barbara, Squeeze, and Hattie; and dogs, Abby (a border collie) and Barkley and Cajun (standard poodles). I then began taking lay speaking courses and served many churches in the community.

In 1994, District Superintendent the Rev. Dr. Robert Sherburne asked me if I would like to serve the Hicks United Methodist Church in Lockwood as pulpit supply, and I said yes! While serving at Hicks, I then made the decision to get my local pastor's license; two weeks at Watson Homestead – grueling time – but I finished. I continued at Hicks, and then in 1995, I started my Course of Study at Wesley Theological Seminary at American University in Washington D.C. While taking Course of Study, I was an associate pastor at the Hicks, Erin, and Sullivanville United Methodist churches, and then when the Rev. Don Roe retired, I was appointed pastor at Erin and Sullivanville UMCs. My greatest joy was working with youth and teens. I was at the Erin and Sullivanville UMCs until my retirement on Dec. 31, 2006 because of medical reasons.

I continued to serve God whenever I could until the summer 2014, when on June 25, 2014 I went to be with my Lord Jesus Christ. The Rev. Melanie Beardslee presided over the memorial service at the Riverside UMC (just a note: Rev. Beardslee was also the pastor who married Randy and I, and she was instrumental in my entering the ministry). I was cremated, and I'm interred at Forest Lawn Memorial Park, Elmira, next to my parents. Before I finish, I would like to thank the many friends I knew in the ministry and special friends Bill Mack, Sue Kozak, Toot Becker, and Diana Robinson. And so my friends, until we meet again in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ, I bid you peace!

Rev. Louis Alden Smith

The Rev. Louis Alden Smith, also known as L. Alden Smith, was born to Louis H. Smith and May Bolster Smith on Dec. 28, 1917 in Camden. His mother died when he was three. Alden and his father then moved in with Alden's grandmother. Alden and his grandmother had a very close relationship. At bedtime, she would read the Bible to him, and they would pray together. Alden and his father attended church service at the Camden United Methodist Church, where Alden was active in Sunday school and the Youth Fellowship. He once wrote that attending summer church camp and being in a Christian community made a strong impression on him.

After graduating from Camden High School, he pondered what was to come next. Alden was accepted into Syracuse University. He wanted to enter the College of Forestry, but it was full. Alden felt the Lord called him to ministry. Doors close and doors open.

After graduating from Syracuse University, Alden was accepted into the Boston School of Theology. In the summer 1944 he was appointed to the East Kingston Methodist Church in New Hampshire. There is where he met Doris Helen Foster who worked with the youth on Sunday nights along with the pastor. Their working relationship blossomed into love which culminated in their marriage on Jan. 26, 1945. Bishop W. Earl Ledden ordained Alden as an elder in 1946.

The Smiths began their ministry together. During his 43 years in ministry, Alden served the following churches: St. Johnsville, Clinton, Calvary Church in Rome, Porterville, Jamestown Epworth Church, and Hamburg. Alden returned in 1983 to Hamburg, and in 1985 he was named pastor emeritus.

During his pastoral ministry, Alden was involved in various Conference committees, Migrant Ministries, church youth camps, and registrar in the Northern New York Conference as well as the Western New York Conference. He was an active Mason and served as a New York State Grand Lodge Chaplain to their First and Second Oneida Districts.

Alden and his family loved to travel, spend vacations in New England, and visit friends in Florida. His favorite hobbies were woodworking, gardening, and sailing. In June 2007, Alden entered into a retirement community called River Edge Manor in Rochester. There, he served as president of the Resident Council. Alden became interested and later involved in colored pencils art classes. Each of his five great-grandchildren hand-picked their favorite picture and it now hangs in a frame in each of their bedrooms.

After two years of being in hospice at home, L. Alden Smith passed of congestive heart failure on Dec. 19, 2014. His internment service was held on Dec. 23, 2014 in Hamburg at Lakeside Cemetery. His life was celebrated with family and friends with a memorial service on Jan. 22, 2015 at the Asbury First UMC in Rochester with the Rev. Susan Shafer officiating and Dr. Drew Heitzinrater delivering a moving tribute to Alden's life.

Alden was blessed with a wonderful soul mate and loving wife of 70 years, Doris Smith, together having two children: Donna Smith Anderson (Thomas) and Stephen Foster Smith (Csilla Puskas). They have three grandchildren: Nicole (Brian) Gemme, Sarah (John) Clark, and Frank Smith. Alden also has five great-grandchildren: Spencer and Maxwell Gemme, and Jack, Sean, and Grace Clark. Alden was predeceased by his brother, Richard B. Smith of Eatonville, Wash., and sister, Ruth M. Marker of Greenhurst.

Nancy Evans Van Loon

Nancy Evans Van Loon died on Feb. 5, 2015, two weeks short of her 101st birthday. A first-generation American born into an immigrant coal mining family in Plymouth, Pa., she grew up in what she described as the "Welsh ghetto," speaking Welsh at home until she entered high school. She excelled at school, elocution, childcare, church youth leadership, and hard work. Growing up during the Depression, she lost her father when she was 24 years old.

During World War II, she managed payroll for a large manufacturing company and modeled fashionable clothes for a downtown department store. In 1942, she married her longtime sweetheart, Yale Divinity student the Rev. Thomas J. Van Loon. Their loving partnership lasted 49 years, until his death in 1993. They lived first in Syracuse, where Tom served as acting dean at Hendrick's Chapel at Syracuse University, then moved to Buffalo and East Rochester, where Nancy served, somewhat reluctantly, the role of large congregation minister's wife.

In 1953, when Tom joined the staff at the National Methodist Board of Education, they moved to Nashville, Tenn., their home for 47 years. His work in race relations, world hunger, and the ecumenical movement made her a world traveler and included trips to Australia, Papua New Guinea, and South America. In Nashville, Nancy was active at the Belmont Methodist Church and performed in local theatre productions. In her 70s and 80s, she returned to her first love, being with children, and joined the Metro Board of Education, working in its Student Assessment Department.

In 2000, following a dire medical diagnosis, she moved to Carleton Willard Homes in Bedford, Mass., to be nearer family. She lived nearly 15 more years. Nancy was admired for her warmth, her spirit of fun, and her prodigious memory. She especially loved children, singing, pets, and ice cream.

She is survived by three children, Eric, Cynthia, and Mark; three grandchildren, Adam, Robin, and Jesse; one great-grandchild, Arden; and three family spouses, Laurie, Lloyd, and Shannon. Contributions in her memory can be made to Camino Verde, 95 Marthas Point Road, Concord, MA 01742 (www.CaminoVerde.org); Church World Service at www.cwsglobal.org; or Rhode Island Jobs With Justice at www.rijwj.wordpress.com.

Ruth Doak Wait

Ruth Doak Wait, 87, passed away peacefully on Dec. 8, 2014 at her home. Born on July 18, 1927 in Amsterdam, she was the daughter of William and Ella (Breek) Doak.

Ruth graduated from Amsterdam High School and later received her registered nurse degree. Her nursing career spanned many years during which she furthered her education at Orange County Community College in Middletown, where her husband was a professor of psychology and she became a nursing instructor at Middletown Psychiatric Center. She continued her study at Mercy College in Dobbs Ferry in human services and nursing.

After a few years of service in Amsterdam, she accompanied her husband to Middletown and went with him to Akron, Ohio, where he had just been appointed chaplain at the university (1960-1966). She continued nursing at Akron General Hospital.

When retiring to Middletown, she was asked to teach in the nursing school and her comment continued to be, “I love nursing, but I especially love teaching it.” So, the next few years were interesting for both her and her husband. Since her nursing students were first – and Ken’s students in psychology at Orange County Community College can tell you nursing students, both male and female, love to party – they invited their nursing teacher and her husband to join in the fun. Ken had to keep reminding them that he was clergy and held that he could not drink whatever it was they were indulging in.

Ruth is survived by her husband, Kenneth, of 65 years; three beautiful children, Beth Mastro, Kaye Maynard, and Mark Wait; four grandchildren; and six great-grandchildren.

A memorial service was held on Jan. 3, 2015 at the Christ Methodist Church in Lansdale, Pa., with the Rev. Gary Kneer officiating. As people shared stories of Ruth, the church organist commented that she was happy to play the organ and piano duets with Ruth, she was one of the best pianists you’d want to be around. She will be missed greatly.

Evelyn Crosby (Zimmerman) Young

Evelyn Crosbly (Zimmerman) Young, beloved wife of the late the Rev. Franklin “Frank” Young, Sr., went to be with her Lord and join her husband on Feb. 13, 2014. She is buried in Elmlawn Cemetery in Kenmore. She was living in Chicago with her brother, Harold, until he died on Dec. 27, 2013. Evelyn's survivors include her step-sons, Roger of Chicago and Franklin Jr. (Virginia) of Boone, N.C., and their two daughters; and numerous nieces, nephews, and other relatives.

Evelyn was born on March 8, 1926 in Faunsdale, Ala., one of the eight children of Tom and Louise Zimmerman. She and her first husband, who had no children, were members of the Otterbein Evangelical United Brethren Church in Buffalo, where Frank and his first wife, Gladys, were assigned when they returned from service in the Red Bird Missionary Conference in Kentucky. Evelyn was a kind, caring person, an active member of the congregation, and always involved with ministries and activities which involved serving and helping others, especially the older folks and children.

Evelyn lost her first husband to an illness early in their marriage, but that did not diminish her faith in God and her desire to serve him. Because Gladys didn't drive, Evelyn often took her shopping and helped her with other tasks both personal and church-related. When Gladys became ill, she continued to serve the church in such ways as preparing programs for the women's group, and she even taught Evelyn organ lessons over the phone while bedridden. Evelyn helped take care of Gladys during the final year of her life making it easier for Frank to continue to perform his duties as the traditional caring pastor.

Before Gladys died, she had made a short list of women who would be great for taking on the role of companion, wife, and especially pastor's wife when she was gone. Frank did not take her seriously on the need for any such thing until after Gladys was actually gone, and he had to start thinking about and planning for facing his future retirement years by himself. He came to realize that if he was to remarry anyone, Evelyn, whose name was of course on that list, was certainly the woman who most shared with him the traits, common interests, priorities, and concerns he had long admired and loved in Gladys. Frank and Evelyn found themselves spending more time together as special friends sharing common interests with each other and not just as part of a larger group of friends who got together frequently to socialize and share experiences. They married, and there is no doubt that God had brought them together to share the final years of my father's life, both as minister and wife, and as a retired couple. Those of us who were close to both of them know that because of Evelyn, Dad lived a longer and happier life. He, himself, said that he felt richly blessed that God had given him not just one wonderful wife, but two! Evelyn will be fondly missed by all who knew her and we look forward to seeing her again "when we all get to heaven!"

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

MANAGEMENT OF
OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

We have audited the accompanying combined statement of financial position of the UPPER NEW YORK ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH (a nonprofit organization) as of December 31, 2010 and the related combined statements of activities and cash flows for the six months then ended. These combined financial statements are the responsibility of the Conference's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

Except as discussed in the following paragraphs, we conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

As more fully described in Note 9 to the financial statements, the Upper York Annual Conference did not obtain a valuation of its postretirement health benefits for the six months ending December 31, 2010. By not obtaining a valuation for the 2010 period, a liability cannot be computed, thus resulting in the inability to record such amount in the combined financial statements for the six months ending December 31, 2010. The effect on the 2010 statement of activities has not been determined. In our opinion, a liability for postretirement health benefits and related disclosures are required by accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

As more fully discussed in Note 2 to the financial statements, the Conference has elected effective July 1, 2010, to not depreciate its property and equipment. Recording depreciation of property and equipment is required to conform with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. The effects on the financial statements of not recording depreciation on a straight line basis over the estimated useful life of property and equipment is approximately $157,000.

The scope of our audit did not include an examination of the Sky Lake of Wyoming Conference, Inc. The combined statement of financial position includes the accounts of the Sky Lake of Wyoming Conference, Inc. at December 31, 2010. Those accounts were audited by other auditors who issued an unqualified opinion in their report dated October 3, 2011.

In our opinion, except for the effects of such adjustments and additional disclosures as might have been determined to be necessary if the scope of our audit had not been limited with regards to the matters discussed in the preceding paragraphs, the combined financial statements referred to in the first paragraph present fairly, in all material respects the financial position of the Upper New York Conference of The United Methodist Church as of December 31, 2010 and the changes in its net assets and cash flows for the six months then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Our audit were conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the combined financial statements as a whole. The supplementary information on page twenty is presented for the purpose of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic combined financial statements. Such information is the responsibility of management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the combined financial statements. The information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the combined financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the combined financial statements or to the combined financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. In our opinion, except for the effects of the adjustments described in the preceding paragraphs as might have been determined to be necessary if the scope of our audit had not been limited, the information is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the financial statements as a whole.

NOTES TO COMBINED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
December 31, 2010

NOTE 1 – NATURE OF OPERATIONS

Pursuant to the direction of the Northeastern Jurisdictional Conference, the North Central New York, Western New York, Troy and Wyoming Annual Conferences unified and realigned their geographical boundaries to create a single Annual Conference and Episcopal Area across Upstate New York as of July 1, 2010. This Plan of Union was presented by the Joint New Area/Conference Team ("New ACT") and developed through the efforts of New ACT, the Joint Distribution Committee (established pursuant to the 2008 Book of Discipline, para. 1509), the Assets Allocation Task Force and numerous other individuals, teams and committees.

In this process, the North Central New York, Western New York and Troy Annual Conferences were consolidated into one successor corporation, and the Wyoming Conference transferred all of its assets and was discontinued. All of the assets of the North Central New York and Western New York Conferences were transferred to the Upper New York Annual Conference. The assets of the Troy Conference were equitably allocated, based upon a ministry share formula, between the Upper New York and New England Conferences. The assets of the Wyoming Conference were similarly allocated between the Upper New York and Central Pennsylvania Conferences.

The purpose of the Upper New York Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church ("the Conference") ("UNYAC") is to help make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. The Conference fulfills that mission by facilitating and resourcing the local churches in the Conference to invite, i.e. opening our doors to welcome new faces and doing new things to share the Good News, to nurture and care for our people so they may care for others, to equip the clergy and laity to learn so they can be enabled to lead; and to deploy, taking the love of Christ into our communities and the world. The Conference also serves as the administrative agency for the United Methodist Churches in the Upstate New York region, facilitating the establishment of local churches which become part of the Conference, providing leadership to the local churches, and by enabling of ministry through the extended connection of The United Methodist Church.

NOTE 2 – SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Principles of Combination

The combined financial statements of the UNYAC includes the accounts of CCFA, the Board of Trustees, the Camping and Retreat Ministry and the Episcopal Office all of which are under common management. The statements for the six months ended December 31, 2010 include the statement of financial position from Sky Lake of Wyoming Conference, Inc. but does not include the statement of activities or cash flows.

NOTES TO COMBINED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Basis of Accounting

These financial statements have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting which recognizes income when earned and expenses when incurred.

Income Tax Status

The Conference is exempt from income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and, therefore, has no provision for federal or state income or franchise taxes.

Fund Accounting

To insure observance of limitations and restrictions placed on the use of resources available to the Conference, the accounts of the Conference are maintained in accordance with the principles of fund accounting. This is the procedure by which resources for various purposes are classified for accounting and reporting purposes into funds established according to their nature and purpose.

The financial statements present expenses in accordance with the overall service mission of the Conference displayed within their natural classifications.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Conference considers all highly liquid debt instruments purchased with maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

NOTES TO COMBINED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Concentration of Credit Risk for Cash Held at Brokerage Firms

The Conference maintains cash balances at various institutions. Accounts at financial institutions are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation up to limits as set by law for cash, and are insured by the Securities Investor Protection Corporation up to $500,000 for securities. In addition, the broker-dealer provides private insurance for amounts in excess of SPIC limits up to the full "net equity value" of the various accounts.

Other Receivables

Other receivables represent amounts collected in 2011 for balances outstanding from member churches for apportionments and direct billings. It also includes balance received from the Wyoming Annual Conference ($79,291) for final distribution of account holdings.

Investments Valuation

Investments in marketable securities with readily determinable fair values and all investments in debt securities are reported at their fair values in the statement of assets, liabilities and net assets.

Investment Income Recognition

Purchases and sales of securities are recorded on a trade-date basis. Interest Income is recorded on the accrual basis and dividends are recorded on the ex-dividend date. Realized and unrealized gains and losses are included in the determination of change in net assets.

Fixed Assets

The Conference own certain fixed assets which are not included in the statement of financial position due to inadequate cost records of the prior conferences. It is the current practice of the Conference to capitalize major renewals and betterments and to expense maintenance and repairs. Fixed assets capitalized by the Conference are recorded at their cost. Fixed asset (real estate, office equipment, etc.) acquisitions were recorded differently within the four conferences that were united. Some conferences treated the items as non-capitalized disbursements. The detail as it appears in Note 5, are the assets that have been capitalized previously, with current additions in the six month period.

Beginning July 1, 2010, the Conference has elected not to depreciate its real property as required by generally accepted accounting principles. The effects of said departure is such that approximately $157,000 of depreciation expense and a corresponding reduction in net asset value has not been recorded at December 31, 2010.

NOTES TO COMBINED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Net Assets

The Conference presents its net assets in five categories, which are described as follows:

Unrestricted Net Assets: Net assets that are not subject to donor- imposed restrictions.

Designated Unrestricted Net Assets: Net assets that are internally designated for a specific purpose or activity by the Conference.

Temporarily Restricted Net Assets: Net assets subject to donor-imposed stipulations that may or will be met either by actions of the Conference and/or the passage of time.

Temporarily Restricted Net Assets: Property & Equipment

Permanently Restricted Net Assets: Net assets subject to donor- imposed stipulations that may be maintained permanently by the Conference. Generally, the donors of these assets permit the Conference to use all or part of the income earned on related investments for program operations

In-Kind Support

A number of clergy and laity of the UNYAC have contributed significant amounts of their time to the affairs of the UNYAC. However, these services have not been reflected in the combined financial statements as they do not meet the U.S. GAAP criteria for recognition.

Fidelity Bond

The General Council on Finance and Administration provides $1,000,000 fidelity bond protection for all Annual Conference Treasurers and their staff at no charge. Fidelity bonding for trustees and related staff is provided by the Annual Conference.

Subsequent Events

The Company has evaluated events and transactions that occurred between June 30, 2010 and February 27, 2015, which is the date the financial statements were available to be issued, for possible disclosure and recognition in the financial statements.

NOTES TO COMBINED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Statements of Cash Flows

Supplemental disclosures of cash flow information are as follows:

Cash Paid During the Six Months For:

Interest	$ 9,858

Transfers

"Transfers," as reported in Statements and Schedules, are transfers between accounts on the books of the Conference, and include reimbursements for services and/or supplies.

NOTE 3 - INTERCONFERENCE DUE TO (FROM) OTHER FUNDS

According to the principles adopted in Fund Accounting, resources for various purposes are classified for accounting and reporting purposes into funds established according to their nature and purpose. During the course of a year, funds are sometimes paid from bank or investment accounts from one fund on behalf of another fund as well as revenues that are deposited into some bank or investment accounts of a fund that are truly the resources of another. At the time these funds are paid or deposited, inter-fund accounting is employed, whereby a liability is recorded as "Due to" another fund and also as an asset of "Due from" the respective fund. The summary all of these inter-fund transactions are reflected within this account and are netted against each other. The net total of these fund balances is zero.

NOTES TO COMBINED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE 4 – FAIR VALUE

FASB ASC 820 defines fair value, establishes a framework for measuring fair value, and establishes a fair value hierarchy which prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. A fair value measurement assumes that the transaction to sell the asset or transfer the liability occurs in the principal market for the asset or liability or, in the absence of a principal market, the most advantageous market.

Valuation techniques that are consistent with the market, income or cost approach, as specified by FASB ASC 820, are used to measure fair value.

The fair value hierarchy prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value into three broad levels:

- Level 1 inputs are quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities the Conference have the ability to access.

- Level 2 are inputs (other than quoted prices included within level 1) that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly.

- Level 3 are unobservable inputs for the asset or liability and rely on management's own assumptions about the assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability. (The unobservable inputs should be developed based on the best information available in the circumstances and may include the Conference's own data.)

Investments are classified in their entirety based on the lowest level of input that is significant to the fair value measurement. Valuation techniques maximize th use of relevant observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs. There were no transfers between the levels during the six months.

NOTE 9 - RETIREMENT/WELFARE PLANS

The UNYAC participates in a multiemployer defined benefit pension plan administered by the General Board that covers substantially all UMC clergy. The UNYAC participates in various plans under these multiemployer plans which are 1) Supplement One to the Clergy Retirement Security Program ("Pre-1982 Plan"), 2) the defined benefit portion of Supplement Three to the Clergy Retirement Security Program otherwise known as the Ministerial Pension Plan ("MPP Annuities"), and 3) Core Defined Benefit Part of the Clergy Retirement Security Program ("CRSP-DB"). This multiemployer plan is a non-electing church plan under the Internal Revenue Code Sections 414 (e) and 410 (d) and as such is exempt from the minimum funding requirements of ERISA, the Pension Protection Act of 2006, and Internal Revenue Code Sections 412 and 430 through 436. Accordingly, no funding improvement plan or zoning funding requirements apply.

Pre-1982 Plan

The Pre-1982 Plan covers service prior to 1982. Past Service Defined benefit funding is an annual actuarially determined amount approved by the Annual Conference, as determined by the General Board of Pensions and Health Benefits. The GBOPHB uses the RP2000 Individual Annuity Mortality Table in the determination of these amounts. The UNYAC adopted the following benefit levels for 2010:

Past Service Rate	$ 552
Contingent Annuitant Percentage	$ 75%

As of January 1, 2010, the valuation date, the Pre-1982 Plan had a funded status of 118%. Expense for the six months ended December 31, 2010 amounted to $0.

MPP Annuities

The Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP) provided benefits for United States of America clergy from January 1, 1982 through December 31, 2006. It is primarily a defined contribution retirement plan with the requirement that clergy must convert at least 65% of his or her total account balance to an annuity. This plan ended effective December 31, 2006. Expense for the six months ended December 31, 2010 amounted to $0.

CRSP

The CRSP plan covers service on or after January 1, 2007. The plan has both defined benefit and defined contribution components. The Conference contributed an amount per month per Full time Equivalent towards the defined benefit portion of the plan for clergy. Contributions for each participant are fully vested. As of January 1, 2010, the valuation date, the CRSP-Defined Benefit plan had a funded status of 90 %. Expense for the six months ended December 31, 2010 amounted to $3,140,000.

In addition, there is a non-matching contribution to the CRSP-Defined Contribution portion of the plan. The Conference contributes 3% of the compensation for eligible clergy. CPP contributions for eligible full time ministers are the equivalent of 3% of the minister's plan compensation and is limited by 200% of the current denomination average compensation. (See CPP below). Expense for the six months ended December 31, 2010 for CRSP-DC and CPP for clergy was approximately $358,300.

United Methodist Personal Investment Plan ("UMPIP")

Lay-staff retirement benefits are covered under UMPIP, a 403(b) defined contribution plan. Participation in UMPIP requires each eligible employee to contribute 3% or more of wages to receive a 9% of salary contribution by the UNYAC. Expense for the six months ended December 31, 2010 amounted to $45,716.

CPP

The Upper New York Annual Conference of the United Methodist church participates in a defined benefit multi-employer welfare plan administered by the General Board of Pensions of the United Methodist Church (Clergy Protection Plan) (CPP). The plan provides life insurance benefits to retiring members in addition to providing long-term disability income benefits to qualified active clergy and guaranteed minimum benefits for widows and dependent children of deceased members.

CPP contributions for eligible full time ministers are the equivalent of 3% of the minister's plan compensation limited by 200% of the current denomination average compensation. The combined expense for the six months ended December 31, 2010 for clergy CRSP & CPP programs was approximately $358,300.

Post Retirement Health Plan

The Conference sponsors a postretirement health care plan for all Conference employees and participating clergy that meet eligibility requirements. The plan is contributory, with retiree contributions that are adjustable based on various factors, some of which are discretionary.

The summary of the plan provisions and contribution requirements for the plan include:

The Conference obligation is based on years of service: 3% of actual premium per full-time equivalent year of service up to maximum of 30 years (90%) with 5 year vesting. Surviving spouses pay at same percentage as the retiree and lay retirees receive benefits on the same basis as clergy. The period of coverage for both Retirees and spouses is Lifetime.

On December 31, 2014 the UNYAC terminated the retiree group medical insurance.

Effective January 1, 2015, the UNYAC partnered with Towers Watson One Exchange to provide a choice of Medicare Supplement and Medicare Advantage health insurance plans for the UNYAC's current and future eligible retirees, who are already enrolled in Medicare. These plans are combined with an individual Health Reimbursement Account ("HRA") for each retiree and spouse, as applicable. The UNYAC will fund the HRA within the plan chosen by the retiree with a fixed amount with which the retiree may choose to pay health care premiums and other health-related expenses. The fixed maximum contribution per participant for 2015 will be $3,000, based on years of service.

Generally accepted accounting principles require that the accumulated postretirement benefit obligation be recorded in the combined financial statements at the present value of the anticipated actuarial cost of health benefits for retirees.

UNYAC did not obtain a valuation of its postretirement health benefits for the six months ending December 31, 2010. By not obtaining a valuation for the 2010 year, a liability cannot be computed, thus resulting in the inability to record such amount in the combined financial statements for the six months ending December 31, 2010. The effect on the 2010 statement of activities has not been determined.
