The District Committee on Ordained Ministry

Upper New York Annual Conference

Preface

The Mission Statement of the Board of Ordained Ministry of the Upper New York Annual Conference is:

To partner with God in a life-giving process to discern, equip, nurture, and support those Christ followers whom the Holy Spirit is calling to joy-filled, passionate, transformational leadership in certified, licensed, and ordained ministry.

The DCOM is amenable to the annual conference through the Board of Ordained Ministry (§666.1) and serves to fulfill this mission in each district of the Annual Conference.

This handbook is designed to equip the DCOM's of the Upper New York Annual Conference (UNYAC) in this mission. Our charge is to create consistent practices among all the DCOM's by specifying required actions while leaving space for the committees, prompted by necessity and guided by the Holy Spirit, to do all they can to discern and facilitate each candidate's calling to lay, certified, licensed, or ordained ministry (§666.4).

This handbook contains current policies and practices as stated at the time of publication. If any errors are found, corrections or additions needed, or alterations required, please communicate with the BOM DCOM Division Chairperson:

David Piatt

Upper New York Annual Conference Our Clergy Covenant

We have a sacred calling as United Methodist clergy. Together we share in a covenant relationship in a community of clergy (active and retired Elders, Deacons, Associate Members, Provisional Members, Local Pastors). This covenant is to be marked by respect, honesty and integrity in all interactions with our colleagues.

As a covenant community we are to be held accountable to one another for our conduct. We constantly seek to move onward toward perfection in our conduct as clergy. In order to help us to that end, we seek the guidance and wisdom of the covenant community of clergy to hold us accountable to the highest ethical standards in all of our ministry settings.

When we fail to uphold one another to the highest ethical standards we damage the relationships among clergy. We lose trust in one another and we damage, sometimes irreparably, the trusting relationship with those we serve. As clergy, the greatest gift we are granted is the trust of those whom we serve. What follows below is a Covenant for all professionals in ministry. This covenant provides a common understanding and agreement of clergy conduct to which clergy hold one another accountable.

United Methodist clergy under appointment:

- Develop through continued education, maintenance of personal growth and competence for ministry.
- Maintain proper physical care and discipline.
- Keep time commitments faithfully and use time responsibly, acknowledging that ministry cannot fit into conventional time slots.
- Follow high moral standards in all forms of communication including social media and conduct, including:
  - o keeping confidences
  - o communicating honestly and appropriately.
- Are above reproach in all financial transactions. Remain sufficiently free from unnecessary financial debt, accepting financial responsibility as not to burden one's congregation or the Annual Conference. Will not leave a community to accept a new appointment without arranging for payment of local financial obligations.
- Maintain a healthy emotional and social balance and boundaries between pastoral identity and self-identity; private and community life; self and other.
- Provide for the care of family and spouse and, as a parsonage family, addresses their needs and concerns through appropriate lines of communication.
- Will leave church and parsonage in good condition, accepting financial responsibilities for damage done to parsonage beyond normal wear and tear or age.

Each United Methodist clergy person, in performing professional responsibilities:

- Is spiritual leader to all members and constituents of the ministry setting.

- Is open to serve in the community of the charge recognizing that appointment is to the church and the community. Offers pastoral care to those in need in the community who are not under the care of another clergyperson.
- Represents the itinerant and connectional process honestly and justly, taking responsibility for personal decisions in appointment changes.
- Is above reproach in pastoral performance of responsibilities and duties outlined in ¶328, 340, 341 - 2012 Book of Discipline of The United Methodist church.
- Maintains confidentiality in all situations that require confidences be upheld including:
  - o counseling and pastoral care situations,
  - o personnel matters within the ministry setting
    - personnel and appointment matters in the Annual Conference
    - a clergyperson's responsibilities in the Annual Conference, such as Board of Ministry, budgeting processes, etc.
- As appropriate to one's Order, accepts appointment and is willing to be itinerant, faithfully performing duties.
- Does not accept employment beyond the full-time appointed charge, except with the consent of the cabinet and the local church staff-parish relations committee.
- In writing and preaching, gives appropriate credit for words or ideas drawn from another source.
- Maintains connectional responsibilities which include providing updated records for the next clergyperson and seeing that ministry shares are current.
- Prepares the ministry setting for change of clergy.
- Refrains from pastoral contact in previous appointments.
- Respects the ministry setting of another clergy. Provides service only at that clergy's invitation. All inquiries are referred to the resident clergy.
- Seeks to uphold, enhance and support the work of another professional in ministry and in no way undermines his or her efforts to serve.
- Acts with integrity in all matters in reference to one's predecessor and one's successor.
- Does not violate the sacred trust between clergy/parishioner or those in pastoral care by seeking sexual, social or business favors at any time.
- Refrains from all sexual involvement with those who have sought and/or received pastoral or spiritual counseling at any time and their family members.

Adapted from Code of Ethics of the Iowa Annual Conference. Adopted by UNYAC Board of Ordained Ministry, January 27, 2014.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE DCOM

The ministry of the district committee on ordained ministry (DCOM) is defined in the 2016 Book of Discipline ¶666

Guidelines from the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry for the work of the DCOM can be found in the Board of Ordained Ministry Handbook Chapter 2 at <http://www.gbhem.org/networking/board-ordained-ministry-handbook>

Each DCOM is responsible for the following actions:

1. Meeting and encouraging candidates' progress as they enter and explore their calling as Inquiring, Exploring, and Declared Candidates.
2. Recommending candidates for certification for licensed or ordained ministry (criteria: Fitness for Ministry, page 6)
3. Recommending certified candidates for provisional membership prior to interviews with the UNY Board of Ordained Ministry (criteria: Readiness for Ministry, page 6)
4. Recommendation for licensing for pastoral ministry (criteria: Fitness for Ministry, page 6)
5. Recommending local pastors for associate membership prior to interviews with the UNYAC Board of Ordained Ministry (criteria: Effectiveness in Ministry, page 6)
6. Recommendation for readmission to conference membership prior to interview with the UNYAC Board of Ordained Ministry.
7. Aid and interpret the work of a congregation's pastor-parish relations committee as they approach the task of recommending candidates from their Charge.
8. Review and recommend those prepared to serve as certified lay ministers
9. Aid the local church in the process of enlisting persons for ordained ministry as deacon or elder or for service as a local pastor, encourage persons to enter the candidacy program, and maintain an accurate list of all candidates under its care.
10. Follow the steps of this guidebook. Taking the steps out of order will confuse the standardization of the process and may lead to confusion of people crossing District lines and confuse or delay their process.
11. Know the Policies of the Board of Ordained Ministry (BOM) including the deadlines for work to be submitted for the Provisional Process and Provisional Interviews.
12. Assist the DS in assigning mentors and assist the BOM in training mentors. We recommend all mentors be trained once a quadrennium.

Please note that all actions are recommendations to the UNY Board of Ordained Ministry and shall be reported to the Board through the “DCOM Action Report Form” (page 36) by the district committee registrar. The Secretary will also send copies of minutes to the appropriate BOM Registrars or Lay Servant Ministries Director (see Addendum A Appendix A, pg. 32, or as noted at the bottom of the Action Report).

DCOM INTERVIEW GUIDELINES

FOR ALL TRACKS, please note the KSAP definitions and table

<https://www.unyumc.org/ministries/bom>

Guidelines for preparing for an interview

- Allow adequate time before each interview to review the file, the written documents, the psychological assessment, and other documents. Discuss concerns and issues that need to be addressed in the interview.
- Consider the culture of the person being interviewed and the culture of the community the person will be serving in. Offer hospitality, grace and cultural sensitivity to the person being interviewed including but not limited to: extra time to complete work, interpreters for spoken and written work/interview, extra time for the interview, time for the DCOM to understand the culture of the community and person being interviewed.
- Decide on the most important questions and who will ask each question (do not have the chair or one person ask all the questions).
- Decide on the size of the interview group. (When necessary, the DCOM can subdivide for most interviews and then report back a recommendation to the total committee for the final decision.) Refer to the UNY DCOM Handbook to make sure all items are in the file prior to the interview.
- Decide how long the interview will be.

Role of the Chair

- Make sure that prior to scheduling an interview, the necessary papers have been submitted and the psychological assessment is in the file.
- Welcome the candidate to the interview and introduce by name and church to the DCOM.
- State the purpose of the interview (acquaintance, staying connected, certification interview, for recommendation for provisional or associate membership, etc.)
- Ask members of the DCOM to introduce themselves.
- Ask someone to begin with a prayer.
- State the time available for the interview and be the time-keeper.
- The chair may want to ask the first question. A possible first question might be: “Tell us about yourself, your sense of call, and where God is leading you.”
- Be careful to involve the members of your committee in asking the questions. After the first question, the chair should focus on process and time-keeping rather than asking questions.
- Ask someone to close with prayer.

Things to remember

- For all interviews, a candidate's pastor, staff and/or family members and any lay persons from the candidate's church shall excuse themselves from the room, interview, discussion, and voting. And further, the mentor shall also excuse themselves from the discussion and voting.
- Decide how to begin the interview. Do not begin with the psychological assessment.
- The candidate does most of the talking.
- Remember that the mentor, if present, may not speak in the interview. Mentors are invited to be present at all interviews. Their role is non-evaluative. This should also be clear to the mentors when their written reports are prepared and submitted to the DCOM.
- Do not allow other committee members to answer questions or to engage in an argument or discussion with the candidate that distracts from the purpose of the meeting.
- This is not a therapy session.
- Recommendations should be determined by the whole committee after the interview, rather than individual committee members offering advice during the interview, and must be put in writing.
- Decide how the decision of the DCOM will be communicated: having the candidate wait in the hall vs. a phone call and/or letter following the DCOM meeting. Follow-up letters from the DCOM to candidates (after an interview/vote) will also be copied to the mentor.
- Evaluate the interview.
  - What was effective in the interview?
  - What would we do differently next time?
  - Were any questions asked that were inappropriate?
- Remember the distinctions between candidates on the elder track and the deacon track. Ask appropriate questions.

Regional Coordinators can be contacted through the following link: <https://www.unyumc.org/ministries/imagine-no-racism#Contacts>

As the local pastor progresses through Course of Study (or seminary) these are the kinds of issues that should be explored in order to assess progress:

Year 1 - Leadership

- Which local church committees are required by the Book of Discipline and what is the function of each? How is your church structured for mission and ministry?
- How are you using the distinctive Wesleyan emphases and characteristics of The United Methodist Church to lead your church in making disciples of Jesus Christ?
- Describe leadership qualities which you demonstrate in your ministry and the strengths and weaknesses of those qualities?

Year 2 - Theology

- How do you apply United Methodist theology in your teaching?
- Describe ways your congregation lives out the theology of grace.
- In what ways has your theology of grace shaped your understanding of the Sacraments?

Year 3 - Practice of Ministry

- How has your preaching improved since you were licensed?
- In what ways have your spiritual disciplines affected your practice of leadership in ministry?
- Describe ways you lead your congregation in offering pastoral care?
- Bring a recent worship bulletin and be prepared to talk about your order of worship.

- Describe ways that, in partnership with laity, you make disciples of Jesus Christ, and train and empower these disciples to produce tangible fruits of love of God and love of neighbor.

Year 4 and beyond

- In years 4 and 5, talk with the local pastor about how they apply their education to their ministry setting.
- For those who have completed COS or M.Div., track continuing education requirements and review progress.

Other Suggested Questions

Focus on the candidate's areas of strength and areas for growth rather than spending a lot of time on what is going on or not going on in their church. Be careful to not spend the time evaluating the church/charge but keep the focus on the local pastor and his/her role.

- What/where are your support systems?
- Did you establish any goals or objectives for personal or professional growth last year (in consultation with your mentor)? What were they? What did you do toward accomplishing these goals and how well did it work?
- What were your points of growth over the past year?
- How do you equip laity in your church? Share some specific examples.
- What are your plans for the future? Continuing education plans? Plans for ordination?
- What was your Course of Study focus last year? Did you find it helpful/useful? What changes or improvements to your practice of ministry can you identify as a result of the Course of Study?
- In what ways have you grown the most in the past year, both personally and as a pastor? What do you feel were the causes of this growth?
- What was the most difficult challenge you faced as pastor this past year and how did you meet it? What did you learn from it? How do you feel you have grown as a result of it?
- Talk about your pastoral appointment? Has it been what you expected when you felt called to become a local pastor? In what ways have you been surprised? In what ways have you been affirmed that you are properly responding to God's call in your life.
- What is the single most important thing you need at this point in time to become a better pastor?

Additional Information

If an individual whose license or candidacy is not renewed requests to appeal the DCOM's decision they may take the following action:

Candidates or Licensed Local Pastors who have been denied continuance have the right to ask a full member of the annual conference to make an appeal to the clergy session. If such an appeal is made, it would then be up to the bishop to decide how such an appeal would be dealt with in the clergy session. Otherwise, the decision of the DCOM is final.

Interview for: Certified Lay Minister (CLM)

Description: ¶268

- 1) Entrance Requirements: All persons serving a local church beyond pulpit supply who are not in the process of being licensed or ordained must be enrolled in this program. Persons who are already serving as “congregational leaders” will be given one year to complete the entrance requirements for this program or will not be permitted to serve beyond one year as pulpit supply. This will be monitored by the Upper New York Conference Board of Ordained Ministry (UNY BOM).
  - a) Status of certified lay servant or equivalent training

Upon completion of the entrance requirements, a person may serve a church or charge as a candidate for certified lay ministry. A certified lay minister is assigned, not appointed, and thus has no legal standing to perform weddings and has NO sacramental privileges.

- 2) Program Requirements: Monitored by the DCOM and supervised by the clergy person appointed to that charge.
  - a) Complete courses in the following areas as approved by the DCOM.

CLM’s serving churches must be interviewed and recommended by the DCOM on an annual basis ¶205.4

Failure to complete the continuing requirements will result in the certified lay minister being dropped from the program. District Committees on Ordained Ministry will maintain lists of candidates for certified lay ministry, certified lay ministers and certified lay ministers not serving a church.

Methodist Church

THE PSYCHOLOGICAL ASSESSMENT New process in effect July 6, 2015

1. The psychological assessment provides the DCOM with indicators of probable psychological fitness and psychological readiness for ministry. At the candidacy level, the purpose of the psychological assessment is to determine gross psychopathology as well as issues for further growth and development, particularly in the areas of emotional intelligence and leadership style.
2. How a Candidate is Assessed – When candidate/mentor/DCOM determine that he/she is ready for testing, the DCOM approves this next step by issuing an application with a letter of instructions to their candidate. The candidate completes this form, signs it, and sends it with the candidate's portion of the fee, $300.
3. Make the check out to "Upper New York Conference" with your name in the memo.
4. Send check with the completed application to the psychological assessment officer for the BOM.
Key Contacts: Executive Team
5. The Psychological Assessment officer acknowledges receipt of the application and fee by email.
6. Also, the Psychological Assessment officer provides contact information for the Ministerial Assessment Specialist.
7. The candidate contacts the MAS to begin the process of assessment.
  1. Assessments are offered in three locations of the Upper New York Conference two times per year in each location: Scotia, Utica, and Rochester. There are dates in October and April that span a Friday to Saturday in all locations.
  2. The MAS sends instruments to complete prior to interview; conducts additional testing in office and sends four more with the candidate to complete at home.
  3. Upon completion and return of the take home portion of the assessment, the MAS scores, interprets and provides a report on the data.
  4. This report is sent to the candidate for his/her records. S/he may give copies of this report to whomever s/he wishes.
  5. The MAS makes an interview appointment via SKYPE with the candidate at which time s/he reviews the report. The MAS takes notes of the review; yet does not change the report.
8. The psychological assessment report along with the notes taken during the review are sent to the Psychological Assessment officer (selected by District Committee) and the District Office to be put in the candidate's personnel file.
9. The District Office makes the report available to the member of the District Committee on Ordained Ministry who is designated as the reviewer of the report.
10. The report is kept in the candidate's personnel file at the district office until the candidate is moved on through commissioning, is discontinued, or withdraws.

11. The completed evaluation with the attached follow up interview is valid for an indefinite period of time. In the event that it seems necessary to retest a candidate, a follow-up interview is made with the MAS. Generally, there is no extra cost for this follow-up assessment interview.

NOTE: For persons who are interviewing for a status change, psychological assessment reports completed prior to July 1, 2015, under the former process will no longer be valid after 5 years.

Board of Ordained Ministry Upper New York Conference, The United Methodist Church BACKGROUND CHECK PROCESS

It is the policy of our Board of Ordained Ministry that when an individual applies for a change in status (other than retired, full time to part time or part time to full time or discontinuance) a background check, without any concerns, red flags or issues needs to be completed within five years. There are several areas that our background check company will investigate:

- Social Security number validation
- Identity verification
- National and State Criminal database check
- National and State Sex Offender database check
- An in-county court house check of records
- Credit Check
- Department of Motor Vehicle Check

Individuals would complete the paperwork (four-page PDF fillable application) and send a check for $100.00:

RESOURCES / BOARD OF ORDAINED MINISTRY FORMS

The information is then uploaded to our background check company's website (secured). Some of the data is returned within 3-4 hours. However, the "in county court house check" can take days. An individual who has lived in several states and/or several counties within a state would need multiple "in county court house checks" completed. At times an individual might forget to indicate a maiden name or a "Jr.", etc. Other times a search is delayed because a person apparently lived at two locations at the same time.

The length of time that it takes to receive a background check varies according to many different issues. Background checks can be turned around in as little as one day. The longest has been 3 weeks, with an average of 4 days. The background check reports received typically are 25+ pages in length.

Here are some red flags that get looked at in a background check:

- o Felony or misdemeanor conviction (a no-contest is viewed as a conviction)
- o Two or more moving violations (traffic)
- o Public Records (Federal criminal records search)
- o Listing on the Sex Offender database (history that poses risk of sexual harassment, sexual assault to adults or children, or history of any sex-related offense)
- o Three or more late payments on the credit check
- o Non-mortgage debt of $100,000+
- o Being able to only pay the minimum charge on credit card bills
- o Items in collections
- o Items that are in the process of being sent to collections
- o Bankruptcies
- o Financial Judgments
- o Orders of Protection

Of the above noted items the Board looks for – some are clearly reason for concern. Many others need to be explained. It takes time to review and determine if sufficient issues are present that need further investigation and explanation; or if it is something we will review in six months or a year; or if the District Superintendent will develop a plan to address the issue and report back to the Background Check Coordinator for the Board of Ordained Ministry for the Upper New York Conference. Once the background check is completed the report will be reviewed. Once the background check is reviewed it then takes time to draft and send letters to the District Superintendents and DCOMs. We share all of this to let you know that there is no “normal background check”. They take time to gather the data, to interpret it and to share it.

BOM asks for a self-disclosure of information. Some people choose to disclose speeding tickets or other minor infractions. Other people choose not to share some information thinking it won't show up on the report. It may be difficult for Candidates to decide what to self-disclose. We encourage candidates to be honest. Serious questions get asked at the Board level if something is revealed during the background check process that has not been self-disclosed.

The “Safe Sanctuaries” background check we use in the local church - is not adequate. A statement from the local police department indicating no record of any arrests – is not adequate.
